Mrs. S. T. Butler Fatally Injured

Her Aunt Mrs. Rawlings of Chicago Also Dies From Accident—Dr. Butler Badly Injured But Expected to Recover.

Mrs. S. T. Butler, of this city, and her aunt, Mrs. Fanny Rawlings of Chicago, who came to visit her on Monday afternoon, died about noon on Wednesday as the result of injuries received when the Butler sedan was struck by a Wabash electric car at the Oakland avenue-West Main street crossing in Decatur. The accident happened at 10:24 o'clock that morning. Dr. Butler sustained three broken ribs and a scalp wound but is expected to recover.

The bodies of the two women were removed to the Dawson, & Wikoff funeral home and prepared for burial.

Mrs. Butler suffered a skull fracture and internal injuries and never regained consciousness.

The body was brought back on Thursday afternoon and taken to the family home.

Mrs. Rawlings suffered a skull fracture, possible internal injuries and severe cuts and bruises.

Dr. Butler rested some Wednesday night, but was very sore and suffered considerably from his injuries.

Dr. and Mrs. Butler and their guest had gone to Decatur to spend the day with Mrs. Butler's sister and expected Mrs. Munsie to return with them for a visit. Dr. Butler was driving north on Oakland avenue at the time he had crossed Main street and drove his car into the path of the north-bound train No. 64 from Litchfield to Decatur.

The automobile was tossed into the air, turned a complete revolution in the air and came down on its top. The three occupants were thrown out onto the west side of the Wabash right-of-way.

The railway car set its brakes and stopped about 40 feet from the scene of the crash.

Dr. Butler has always been a careful driver. Those who saw the accident Wednesday morning said his car was moving very slowly and the driver obviously was not aware of the approaching train.

The front end of the engine was somewhat damaged by the collision. It was unable to proceed under its own power after the accident, and a locomotive was sent from the roundhouse to pull it to the station.

The bodies of the three people were thrown from the automobile as it came to rest on the tracks. The attendant at the Standard Oil filling station at the corner helped Mr. Yeaw lift the bodies from the track, and then ran to the Davis Drug store and told a clerk to call an ambulance.

Mrs. Rawlings and Dr. Butler were taken to the Decatur & Macon county hospital in a Monson ambulance and Mrs. Butler was taken to St. Mary's hospital in a Moran ambulance.

As soon as word of the accident was received here Dr. Donald Butler went to Decatur. He had not known that his folks had gone there. His father had been in the office about 9 o'clock that morning and stated that he was going to lay off that day and entertain their company, but spoke nothing of the Decatur trip.

Dr. S. T. Butler, who was conscious at the hospital, did not remember much of the accident. He had stopped at the crossing to let a car go by and evidently did not notice the electric train. He said that he had heard a whistle but thought that it was from a bus coming behind him.

Obituary. Mrs. Butler was born July 31, 1865, in Sullivan and had spent her entire life in this city. Her maiden name was Augustine Roane. She was married to Dr. Butler on November 8, 1898 in Sullivan. To this union were born three sons, Prof. Charles Butler of Columbia, Mo.; Dr. Edward Butler of Buffalo, N. Y.; and Dr. Donald Butler of this city. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Fanny Munsie of Decatur and one brother, Charles Roane of Lincoln, Neb. There are five grandchildren, Mildred and Marjorie Lee Butler of Buffalo, N. Y., and Charlene, Betty and Donald Butler, Jr. of this city.

The Roane family formerly resided in the northeast part of the city, where the father conducted a mill in the early days.

Mrs. Butler was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church and was very active in all branches of the church work and for many years had charge of the primary department of the Sunday school. She was also a member of the Eastern Star and Rebekah lodges.

Mrs. Rawlings' death came on her 88th birthday. She is an aunt of Dr. Isaac Rawlings, former director of the Illinois state board of health, and also an aunt of Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Munsie.

The Sullivan Township high school football eleven has just two more games to complete one of the most successful seasons in the school's history. They will play Shelbyville here on Armistice day and then Monticello on the following Saturday to end the season.

The Sullivan team has not been defeated so far this season and has had only two tie games to mar its record. The Belmont and Bethany teams were the ones able to play Coach Dennis' eleven to an even score.

In order to give more of the local players a chance to take part in the great national game, Coach Dennis arranged a game on Saturday afternoon with Coach Falkenburg of Arthur for the second teams of the two schools. This contest took place on the Sullivan field yesterday afternoon.

On last Saturday afternoon the Sullivan players won their third Okaw Valley conference victory from the Arthur team. This has been the first contest that Sullivan has been able to win from the Arthur eleven in the past few years, and the victory was a decisive one for the Sullivan players. Coach Dennis' players got their stride in the last quarter of the contest and scored two touchdowns. Captain Glen Lundy of the local team made two touchdowns and Homer Hoskins, the other Arthur threat, failed to score only once in the game and that was in the second half, when they reached the ten-yard line but the Sullivan players held.

The Sullivan score in the first and fourth quarters by Captain Lundy were on forward passes while Hoskins made his score on a 40 yard run around end.

Sullivan made sixteen first downs to six by Arthur.

The summary:

White, Monticello fullback, scored the first touchdown when he intercepted a Lovington pass and ran 65 yards for a counter. Hayes, left half, received the pass for the extra point. Hayes tallied the second marker in the fourth quarter on a 25 yard pass.

Alexander of Lovington ran two punts back 40 yards. The Lovington team came closest to scoring when they advanced to the 25 yard line but were held on downs.

Bethany-Mt. Zion.

Bethany took a 12 to 0 victory over Mt. Zion at the latter place on Friday. Bethany scored both touchdowns in the second quarter on a 25 yard run and a plunge over the line after marching the ball down the field on a series of plays. This ended the football season for both teams.

THE CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Items Pertaining to the Various Religious Organizations of the City.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. J. C. Irvine, Pastor.

The third number of the fall program will be given Sunday night by the ladies of the Missionary society.

This program is a stewardship pageant. There will be special numbers of music.

Last Sunday night the program was well attended and every one seemed to be well pleased judging by the complimentary remarks heard at the close of the service.

The Missionary society has arranged to have a special feature at their regular meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 13th, at 2:00 p. m., a National Day speaker, Mrs. Andrew Todd Taylor of Chicago, National Secretary of Woman's work.

Let all the ladies of the church avail themselves of this opportunity to hear this speaker.

Next Monday, it will be eleven years since the signing of the Armistice which closed the World War. The service Sunday morning will be in accord with the spirit of the occasion.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Rev. C. E. Barnett, Pastor.

An Armistice Sunday sermon will be delivered by the pastor at the morning service at 10:40 o'clock.

Come into the Lord's house on His day with thankful hearts and prayers for world peace. Evening service at 7:30 with an inspirational evangelistic message.

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Superintendent Waverly Ashbrook requests that each attendant bring an Indian penny, in addition to the regular offering. If unable to find an Indian, substitute with a Lincoln.

Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:30 p. m., will be led by Wilbur Bushart. The topic is "Uprooting the Causes of War."

"Friendship with the church will enrich your home. A step into the church is a step in the right direction."

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

Services every Sunday morning beginning at 10 o'clock consisting of Bible study, communion (Acts 20:7) and laying by in store as God has prospered us (1 Cor. 16:1, 2).

The Saviour said, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (Jno. 3:16.)

What wonderful love! Paul says, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (Rom. 5:8.) Enemies of God and worthy of death.

How thankful and appreciative we should be; how desirous we should be to please him! How sincere and honest hearted we should be in our service to him. We should ever be willing that his will be done.

But how can we know his will? By studying his will which is the new testament and then doing what he says there just as it is written, for he is infinite in wisdom.

When he gave us his will he knew just what we needed and "hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness." (1 Pet. 1:3), and his word thoroughly furnishes us unto all good works. (2 Tim. 3:16, 17.)

CHURCH OF GOD.

Mrs. Ruth Castang, Pastor.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m.

Baptismal service at lake at 2:30 p. m.

Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m.

Preaching at 7:30 p. m.

The revival is still being continued but will close Sunday night. Rev. Charles D. Griffith, the evangelist, is preaching much Bible truth. There is no better time to seek a real experience of salvation than now. Some have been saved during these meetings and many have received valuable instruction and soul food. Everyone is welcome.

There needs to be a real revival of the family altar in the home. All Christian parents should feel it their duty to gather their children together in the home at least once a day for prayer, worship, and spiritual instruction. Every child should have the strength, encouragement and incentive which are derived from the godly example of pious and praying Christian parents. And parents, who are not living for God are sending their children out into the world without this priceless legacy and are robbing them of their rightful heritage.

THE GOSPEL MISSION.

9:30 a. m.—Sunday School. 6:30 p. m.—Young People's meeting.

7:30 p. m.—Evangelistic services. 7:30 p. m.—Prayer meeting on Thursday.

Brother Ridgeway will be with us Sunday evening.

Mark 9:27, "But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he arose."

There is much that man cannot do for man, maybe we would like to, but our prayer is limited. Maybe our love does not reach out far enough to do that which we could. But if sin has left you bruised and bleeding and all undone by the way side, there is a hand stretched out to you that is stronger than the universe, and more gentle and soothing than the hand of a mother. There is no depth of sin His hand cannot reach and lift out of and make you able to stand. That hand is always just in reach, all one needs to do is to reach up and place their hand in His, then just rest quietly while he does the lifting. Too often we sink deeper in the mire through our own efforts to help get ourselves out. The Lord does not need our help, but he has to have our submission.

ST. COLUMBA CATHOLIC.

Mass will be held at the church at 8 o'clock on Sunday morning.

SUNFLOWER CROP PROVES BIG DISAPPOINTMENT.

Sunflower fields, dismal looking sights after a killing frost, look doubly so to Moultrie county farmers who this year have hundreds of acres, and still no outlook for a market. Thousands of dollars in anticipated farm revenue will be lost if no market develops, since the crop in recent years has yielded a net income of from $12 to $16 an acre for landlord and tenant.

Over-expansion in the sunflower raising industry is blamed for the condition. There is no guarantee as to the price on the crop now, and there has not been in recent years, but as a result of this early promotion, and the usual profits on the crop, Moultrie county has devoted more acreage to sunflowers than any other county in Central Illinois. Last spring the wet planting season for corn caused many farmers to plant additional acreage to sunflowers.

With a surplus left from last year's crop, the market for the 1929 crop vanished. Some farmers, who have a small acreage of the crop, say they will cut the stalks and burn them. Some fields are being harvested in the belief a market may be found eventually, but farmers who have large acreage in the crop are uncertain what course to follow.

Burney McDavid of the West End elevator in this city made a trip to Milwaukee, Wis., Grand Rapids, Mich., Cleveland, O., Columbus, O., and other places in order to see if he could not find a market for the local sunflowers, but was unsuccessful.

BIRTHDAY DINNER SUNDAY FOR MRS. ROSS THOMAS.

Thomas and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Yaw and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Ballard and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rueben Bilibrey, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ray and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson and family, Mrs. Ella Blair and daughter Miss Mittie, J. IF DISASTER STRUCK US

Where Would We Turn for Relief?

Imagine if you can a hot sultry summer day. The clouds are threatening, and thunder is rumbling when suddenly out of the skies there descends a tornado that carries in its sweep death and destruction. In a few short minutes, neighbors and friends have been killed, homes have been shattered to kindling wood and business buildings have collapsed.

No community is safe from the elements. We may carry insurance for property protection, but if a catastrophe strikes, where can we turn for immediate relief?

THE ANSWER IS—

The American Red Cross

It will step in and take charge. It will organize relief and bring in relief workers if needed. It cares for the dead and the dying. It provides shelter and clothing for the homeless. It is a great MOTHER OF MERCY that stays on the job until peace and order have come out of chaos. It helps the suffering and the bereaved. It gives financial assistance to rehabilitate those who are facing want because of the elements' fury.

Moultrie County Farmers Received over $3000 in assistance from the Red Cross when the hail storm of 1927 hit them hard.

The annual roll call will be under way next week. You will be asked for your $1.00 Red Cross Membership fee. If no solicitor asks you, you can pay this fee to J. A. Webb, the treasurer at the M. & F. State Bank.

Help the RED CROSS by ENROLLING as a MEMBER—For you know not the day nor the hour, when you shall be looking toward this great and meritorious organization for aid.

BOY SCOUTS PLAN TO REPAIR THEIR CABIN.

About twenty-two Boy Scouts met with the local Scout Masters in their new headquarters in the Masonic hall building on Monday evening. Plans were made to repair the Scout cabin on the Guy Kellar farm and all the Scouts were urged to take their second-class tests. Nearly all of the Scouts have passed the Tenderfoot tests.

The Scout cabin on the Guy Kellar farm south of the city needs some repairs and plans are being made to repair it. The cabin needs some new windows, a new roof, a new door and a new floor. The Scouts are planning to go out there tomorrow to work on it. The boys are anxious to finish it as they can then take trips out there. Some tests must also be passed in the woods and the Scouts want a place to stay while they pass the tests.

The Boys are all urged to attend the meetings which are held at 7 o'clock on Monday evenings.

LOCAL MAN TO ENTER NATIONAL STOCK SHOW.

Moultrie county is going to be well represented in the coming International Live Stock Exposition to be held in Chicago this year November 30 to December 7.

Henry Hortenstine, a prominent cattleman of Gays is fitting three carloads of Shorthorn yearling steers for the carload lot competition of the Chicago show in which class his entry of load of yearlings received the blue ribbon at the 1928 exposition. At recent editions of the International, over a hundred choice carloads of fat cattle have each year been on view in the Chicago Stock Yard pens adjoining the exposition buildings, and are held to be among the most interesting and at the same time practical and educational displays of the show.

Although according to B. H. Heide, secretary-manager of the exposition, livestock entries closed on November 1, with a total entry list that breaks all previous records for size, for the carload classes the deadline is extended until a week before the opening of the exposition, November 23.

SCHOOL DAYS PROFIT DAYS FOR DAIRY FARMERS.

Going to school again at a subsequent profit to themselves of from $25 to $100 a month will be an opportunity open to farmers in practically all sections of Illinois during the coming winter, it is announced by C. S. Rhode, dairy extension specialist of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. He is completing plans for an extensive series of dairy cattle feeding schools to be held throughout the state.

'Readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic all three will figure in the schools, but the main object will be the improved feeding of dairy herds for more efficient production and higher profits. Farmers attending the schools will read Rhode's blackboard lists of proven dairy rations, they will write down his tips on good feeding and then use simple arithmetic to figure out the best rations for their own particular conditions.

Similar schools have been held throughout the state by the college for a number of years and farmers attending have reported outstanding benefits, Rhode said. Changes in feeding practices made by different farmers as a result of what they learned at the schools have resulted in added dairy profits of from $25 to more than $100 a month on some Illinois farms, he said.

The Schools which Rhode will hold will be county-wide. Later the farm advisers in the respective counties will hold similar schools in different communities of their counties in order to give as many farmers as possible the opportunity to get the improved feeding suggestions.

Every farmer interested in selecting feeds which furnish the highly necessary and important protein at the lowest cost, learning how to balance a grain mixture with different classes of roughage and in making the most milk and butterfat at the lowest possible cost can afford to attend one of the schools, Rhode believes.

FINDS PLAN TO FILL HOLES IN OILED ROADS.

When a dirt road has been oiled continuously year after year, holes often appear, making the surface irregular and choppy.

Opinions as to the reason for this condition differ, but the generally accepted theory is that the oil in time "kills" the soil, causing the holes to develop and gradually grow larger and deeper as automobiles, trucks and other vehicles pass over them.

These holes are very annoying and even dangerous to the motorists, and road workers everywhere in Central Illinois have been endeavoring to fill them and make them "stay put" but without apparent success. Ordinary earth and gravel have been tried over and over but these "fillings" soon whip out and leave the road in worse condition than before.

But it remained for Henry Blaise of Arthur, to solve the problem which after all, was a very simple matter. Mr. Blaise who is the highway commissioner of Bourbon township, conceived the idea of mixing No. 1 size crushed rock with ordinary road oil, just as concrete is mixed filling and tamping the depressions with it—and it works.

The mixture adheres to the bottom and sides of the holes and refuses to whip out.

Mr. Blaise has filled holes on some of his roads having the heaviest traffic and proven to himself in a month's test that his plan of getting rid of this road nuisance and menace is a practical success, and recommends it to other highway commissioners.

SULLIVAN'S NEW LAUNDRY WILL SOON OPEN.

Harry E. Wright of Chicago expects to open his new laundry in this city in the near future. The machinery arrived on Friday from Chicago and is being installed in the Duncan warehouse building which was bought by Mrs. Bessie Grover of Chicago as the laundry building.

For the past twenty-five years since leaving Sullivan Mr. Wright has been in the railway express business, but hopes that with the prospects here for a good business he will be able to make a success of a laundry in Sullivan.

ATWOOD AND VILLA GROVE LEADING TEAMS

Although Newman managed to register two touchdowns against the championship bound Atwood high eleven, Coach Rogers' gridders had little to worry about in winning their sixth straight Okaw Valley contest last week. The Rajahs now top the standings three games ahead of Villa Grove which has won three games.

Four teams still remain in the unbeaten class in the Okaw loop but ties may keep Sullivan and Oakland from a peep at a title. Villa Grove is scheduled to face Newman, the team which gave Atwood enough opposition last week, in its next game. Comparative scores may yield some facts concerning the strength of the two real leaders, and again they may not.

John Wear's team was deprived of a possible fourth victory when state health authorities forbade the contest between Villa Grove and Oakland due to a scarlet fever scare in Villa Grove. The contest was an important one for the two schools for both are unbeaten. However, the game probably will be played off at a later date.

Sullivan kept within the ranks of the unbeaten when it walked over the downtrodden Arthur team, 18 to 0. Arthur has lost all five of its games to date as has Lovington. Lovington dropped its fifth game to Monticello, 14 to 0. A 65 yard run by White after intercepting a pass enabled the Sages to climb into the victory column. Hayes caught a pass and ran 25 yards for another score later in the game, but it wasn't needed to win.

Rex Millikin's Bement team pulled its customary surprise last week, this time handing Tuscola a 6 to 2 whipping to follow Monticello into the WORTHLESS SECURITIES BARRED FROM ILLINOIS.

Upwards of half a billion dollars in worthless and questionable securities have been barred from the Illinois investment market since the legislature created the state securities department ten years ago, Secretary of State William J. Stratton, who administers this office, announced at Springfield.

In this ten year period the department has qualified over five billion dollars worth of securities for sale. Commenting on this figure, Secretary of State Stratton declared that as time goes on the great wealth of Chicago and Illinois, with its almost unlimited ability to absorb securities, undoubtedly will lead to a larger volume of business in this department.

The securities department, the secretary of state said, through its power over the registration of brokers has been able to drive out of the business of selling securities a great number of crooked individuals and, through the power to require a substantial bond, has protected the public against inexperienced brokers and brokers with little capital investment. He stated that as a result of the efforts of the securities department bucket shops have almost disappeared.

"The average investor", Secretary of State Stratton said "has little time and practically no facilities for investigating the merit of securities that are offered. He cannot find out whether claims made by sellers of securities are true or, in fact, whether the seller is a reputable dealer or not. Of course, the securities department would not be justified in trying to substitute its judgment for that of the investor, nor can it properly interfere with the right of a man to speculate and take chances with money. It can, however, and it does endeavor to see that the investor is not imposed upon by false representations and it can at least strive to keep dishonest dealers from operating."

Mr. Stratton disclosed that in the current year up to October 1, $650,000,000 worth of securities were approved for sale by the department; 750 brokers and dealers and about 3500 agents or salesmen were registered.

In conclusion the secretary of state expressed the hope that in the near future more educational work can be carried on to teach the investing public how to protect itself.

FEAR ANOTHER OUTBREAK OF SMALLPOX SOON.

With more than 200 cases of smallpox reported from 27 different counties within the last six weeks and two outbreaks of more than 30 cases each within the last two weeks, Dr. Andy Hall, state health director, declared in a statement issued at Springfield that the outlook for the next few months is most unpromising. While the disease is generally mild in character, the quarantine period is a strict 21 days for every patient and the numerous foci are likely to result in spreading that will cause serious losses to business, especially during the holiday season.

"Merely neglected by most people but violently opposed by others vaccination is the ultimate means employed by the population of Illinois to control smallpox after the disease has caused serious economic losses and widespread personal inconvenience," Dr. Hall said. "Drifting along with indifference to vaccination has permitted the development of 37,283 cases of smallpox in Illinois since the World War which have cost the state a full million dollars in control activities.

"Furthermore, the 37,283 cases have required a minimum of 74,566 people to spend together no less than 4,301 years in involuntary isolation, quarantined from their friends, neighbors and business contacts.

"If the expense and time lost accomplished anything for the individual concerned or more than a make shift for the public the story would be different but everybody who escapes the disease ultimately gets vaccinated under pressure of an epidemic so that the public in the final analysis pays for both smallpox and vaccination.

"The outlook now for the fall and winter is most unpromising. With the wide distribution of food, the vast commingling of people through the agency of the automobile and the large unvaccinated population an escape from epidemic conditions over a wide area seems extremely unlikely. Outbreaks are sure to complicate holiday trade in cities and towns where lack of vaccination permits the disease to get a foothold.

"The 200 odd cases reported since September first are considerably more than double the number reported during the corresponding period in any year since 1920. In that year over 8,500 cases occurred. The situation looks bad but the public must decide. It can vaccinate and save the money or have the disease and pay the bills."

TALKING TURKEY DOWN IN RICHLAND.

Farmers down in Richland county are "talking turkey", H. H. Alp, poultry extension specialist of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, reports.

As part of a revival of turkey raising in that part of the state, they are getting together once a week for ten weeks to discuss profitable methods of producing the famed holiday birds. Up-to-date sanitary methods being adopted by the farmers are expected to lead to increased turkey raising in that section, Alp said.

Eight of the fifty people who turned out for the most recent of the meetings in the series of ten reported that they already are raising turkeys. The meeting was arranged by Farm Adviser C. C. Beatty and the vocational agriculture teacher in cooperation with the agricultural college. Recommended methods of incubation and brooding were discussed by Alp.

A flock of 147 young turkeys has been raised this year on the farm where the meeting was held and at 10:30 o'clock at night near the close of the session, all those attending went out to the barnyard to inspect the birds. Headlights on the automobiles of visitors furnished the illumination. The meeting was featured by the playing of "Turkey in the Straw" by an old-time fiddler and the wearing of turkey badges by all those attending.

LAKE CITY BOYS START FIRE.

HOME SAVED BY FATHER.

The little son of James Sherman and a neighbor's son were playing upstairs at the Sherman home near Lake City on Friday when they found some matches. They set a comfort on fire and becoming frightened at what they had done they threw it under the bed, ran down stairs and locked the door, never telling anyone what had happened.

Mr. Sherman was at work nearby and noticed smoke coming from the house but thought it was from the chimney. On looking the second time he noticed more smoke and went to the house to investigate. When he got upstairs the smoke was so dense in the room he could hardly get in. He finally succeeded in quenching the fire but not before considerable damage was done to the rug, bedding and curtains.

OLD FOLKS SAY DR. CALDWELL WAS RIGHT

The basis of treating sickness has not changed since Dr. Caldwell left Medical College in 1875, nor since he placed on the market the laxative prescription he had used in his practice.

He treated constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a combination of senna and other mild herbs, with pepsin.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with strong drugs?

A bottle will last several months, and all can use it. It is pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. Elderly people find it ideal. All drug stores have the generous bottles or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BE, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

STATE CAPITOL NEWS

Hiram L. Williamson, Secretary of the Illinois Press Association, fills a vacancy caused by the resignation of Walter Miller, who is in charge of the oil and gasoline inspection division of the department of trade and commerce. Phil Harmon, Mr. Vernon, who has been acting chief clerk, will return to his former post as chief auto investigator and Warren Wright, Jacksonville, will be assistant chief investigator.

Nearly one-half of the people who are now 20 years old have suffered one or more painful injuries, according to Dr. Andy Hall, state health officer, who points out that the automobile and the development of industrial life have contributed materially to this condition. "Records of freshmen matriculation at the University of Illinois show that 30 per cent of the men and 18 per cent of the women have suffered one or more painful injuries before reaching Urbana," Dr. Hall stated. "In general these college students are a rather selected group who have been better protected from accidents than the population in general. They have not been employed in factories, shops, and mines, where liability to injury is heightened. Thus a new hazard created by man himself has developed into the greatest single impediment to life that people under 20 years old have to face."

Governor Emmerson has accepted the resignation of A. L. Robison, Jr., Pekin as a member of the state fair advisory board. The resignation is effective at once.

Farm conditions in the eighth federal reserve district, including 41 Illinois counties, were described as generally fair to good in a farm income survey for 1929 made public by the St. Louis chamber of Commerce. The report was based on reports from farm agents, bankers and business men of the district and embraced a study of farm production in the seven states comprising the district.

New highways now under construction in South America are being built according to specifications worked out on the Bates test road southwest of Springfield, Frank T. Sheets, chief engineer of the state department of highways, stated recently. Mr. Sheets who was an official delegate from the United States to the second Pan-American Highway congress at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, said that South American highway engineers are enabled to avoid many of the errors made by American pioneers in the construction of hard surfaced highways and are adopting American methods of highway financing and traffic control as well as construction methods.

A case of state-wide interest submitted to the supreme court by Charles W. Vail, clerk of the court, and due for a decision at the December term, is the one from Cook county in which there is involved the legality of the raise in rates by the Modern Woodmen of America, which action by the organization is claimed by the appellants to be discriminatory. A number of injunction suits have been filed in various parts of the state, and the action of the supreme court will be awaited with interest.

Congressman Frank M. Ramey, Hillsboro, has introduced in the national house of representatives H. R. 1921 to establish a fish culture station in Sangamon county, Illinois. The bill carries an appropriation clause of $75,000 for the purchase of a site and the construction and purchase of buildings and other equipment.

Plans have been announced for a survey of the needs of physically handicapped children in every county of the state. The work will be under the direction of a special commission provided by the last general assembly consisting of Rodney Brandon, director of public welfare, Francis G. Blair, superintendent of public instruction and Dr. Andy Hall, director of public health. Mr. Brandon reported that it was the desire of the Benevolent and Prospective Order of Elks to supply the names and addresses of all children who might be in need of treatment, and that the Elks fraternity would endeavor to care for them. The county superintendent of schools is to be chairman of a county executive committee, which will also include a physician to be designated by Dr. Hall and a social service worker to be named by Mr. Brandon. Wherever necessary the size of the county committee will be increased. The schools in each county will be called upon to assist in making the survey.

Led by its chairman, William H. Malone, the Illinois tax commission continued its work of equalizing assessments on real property throughout Illinois, when orders of re-assessment were forwarded to local officials in Williamson and Franklin counties, the Illinois Agricultural association has announced. The two orders followed investigations of assessed valuations and selling prices on farm lands, town and city real estate by the farm bureaus and I. A. A. in these counties.

Approximately 700 delegates are expected to attend the silver jubilee convention of the Illinois Telephone association in Springfield, Nov. 20 and 21 according to A. J. Parsons, secretary-treasurer of the association. Among the prominent speakers to appear on the two-day program are Governor Louis L. Emmerson and Charles W. Hadley, Wheaton, chairman of the Illinois Commerce commission.

A special meeting of the Illinois State Historical society for the primary purpose of rousing cities and counties to the importance of preserving current and past history through tools, relics, pictures and documents reflecting their growth, was held in Joliet recently. The list of speakers included many prominent historians of the state. Paul M. Angle, secretary of the Abraham Lincoln association, spoke on "Abraham Lincoln, Land Owner and Investor."

Two men have been arrested and 50 stolen cars recovered through an investigation of an automobile theft ring operating in Central Illinois, it was stated by Phil Harmon, chief state automobile investigator. The gang had headquarters in Champaign where 25 of the stolen cars were recovered the investigator stated, adding that other cars were found at Decatur, Bloomington, Hoopston and Atwood. A third member of the gang is sought.

In the absence of expressed statutory limitations, Attorney General Carlstrom has ruled that commissioners of Canada thistles have the power to cut or destroy any part or portion of a crop of grain where the weeds are growing in the field if they cannot be exterminated in any other manner. Only such part of the crop should be cut or damaged as is necessary in order to destroy the thistle, and the owner of the land on which the thistles are growing must first be notified and requested to exterminate the weeds, the attorney general warned. Costs of cutting the weeds are assessed against the land owner.

R. B. Miller and Stanley S. Locke, foresters connected with the state department of conservation headed by party of about 25 members of the Ohio valley section of the Society of American Foresters on an inspection tour of forestry conditions in southern Illinois. Representatives of Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Missouri and Kentucky made up the party.

AMISH COLONY PROSPERING AT SIKESTON, MISSOURI. Bishop Noah B. Shrock, preacher Joe L. Schrock and wife and Levi B. Miller of Arthur have returned from a trip to Sikeston, Mo. They report that there are fifteen families in the Amish settlement near that city and that they are prospering.

That section of Missouri has been reclaimed from virgin swamps by means of extensive drainage projects. The soil is rich and produces good corn and other crops similar to Central Illinois. Cotton also is grown there but the Amish farmers do not raise it. Mr. Schrock says Sikeston has more millionaires than any city its size in the United States.

CHICAGO CLOSING ILLINOIS SEASON ON NOVEMBER 16. Tickets in the main stands for the Chicago-Illinois football game, Nov. 16, can be purchased by any applicant in any quantity. C. E. Bowen, ticket manager, announces. Seats for all-comers will be available even up to the last minute, Bowen states.

Chicago's football team, no matter how it has performed against other rivals, has nearly always risen to the heights against Illinois, an inspection of the archives reveals. Except for last season when the Illini won decisively the Maroons have proved tough customers and forced Illinois to extend itself, when on paper the odds seemed all in favor of the Illini.

These facts will be kept in mind on the Illinois practice field next week when Zupke begins to prepare his men for the game with Chicago, their last home appearance for the season. Overshadowed temporarily by interest in the Michigan and Army games, the Chicago game will come into its own next week, it is predicted. The occasion will be Dad's Day and 3000 fathers of students will flock to the campus. Various entertainments are being arranged to make the visit of the fathers pleasant.

Illini and Maroons have played 33 games of which Chicago has won 16 and Illinois 14 with three games tied. In 1924 when Illinois was expected to win easily, the Maroons tied Illinois 21-21, despite Grange's matchless performances. In 1925 the Illini led by Grange, triumphed 13-7. In 1926 the Maroons lost their other big games but the Illini were hard-pressed to win by a single touchdown. In 1927 Illinois' supremacy was conceded but Stagg's stubborn warriors held the Illini to a 15-6 score.

Last year the Illini triumph was decisive, 40-0, but that was the first time since 1918 that the margin of victory by either team had been more than ten points. One Big Ten already has paid the penalty of underestimating Chicago. That was Indiana, which was defeated 13-0, only to come back later and tie Ohio State.

Coach Stagg has had one of his best scouts carefully following the Illini in all their games and will bring all his skill to the problem of stopping Zupke's lads. After the Chicago game the Illini will travel to Columbus, Nov. 23, to close the season against Ohio State.

CHICAGOAN, 75, SAYS KONJOLA IS WONDERFUL

SPEND HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS IN VAIN SEARCH FOR RELIEF—NEW MEDICINE SCORES TRIUMPH.

MR. JOHN BOEDECKER. "For years I suffered from indigestion, kidney and gall bladder troubles," said Mr. John Boedecker, 2451 West 87th Street, Chicago, Ill. "No matter how light my diet, the food remained like a lump in my stomach. I spit up bits of undigested food; pains assailed me after every meal. I was constipated and had dizzy spells and pains across my back. Every night I had to get up several times. Naturally I lost weight and strength.

"I heard about Konjola and decided to try it. What a surprise was in store for me. In two weeks my digestion was restored, my kidneys were functioning as they should and the constipation was relieved. I haven't a sign of an ache or pain and am eating and sleeping as I have not done in years. I read that Konjola is the medicine with more than a million friends. If everyone knew what I do about Konjola it would have a billion friends."

Konjola is sold in Sullivan, Ill., at Sam-B. Hall's drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

NATIONAL STOCK SHOW FEATURES FARM YOUTH. The story of what thousands of boys and girls of the farms of America are doing towards assuring a future "farm relief" will be vividly enacted on the occasion of the 30th International Live Stock Exposition to be held at the Chicago Stock Yards November 30 to December 7.

According to B. H. Heide, secretary-manager of the Show, it was in order to particularly recognize the best efforts of farm boys and girls throughout the land, who are engaged in worthwhile projects in farming and homemaking that the International expanded to include a young people's department, in itself an exposition of large scale.

Youths' Work Rewarded. This is the National Boys' and Girls' Club Congress, which each year draws to it some 1200 selected young men and women from the farm a chosen lot from approximately 750,000 youths and girls the country over who are turning their efforts to worth while projects and pursuits to the benefit of themselves, their home farms, and their communities.

Popular opinion places the most humanizing story of the exposition about "the boy and his calf." Vast though the International is—select though its competitors are—still the day has been seen when a lad of 12 years could bring forth a steer calf, that had been bred and raised on his father's farm, and with him surpass the art of the professional feeder and the skill of the seasoned showman.

Walter Biggar, the Scotch judge who placed the fat classes at the 1929 exposition, and who is now on his way to America to judge the 1929 Show, found a White-face yearling steer and his young master an undefeatable pair among the many professional contenders for the championship. Youngsters in Spotlight. Thus at the last International was Youth crowned King. As a result, the management finds that the attentions of the agricultural world are already focusing upon the coming Junior Contests of the show, in anticipation of a possible repetition of last year's miraculous occurrence, which is still material for the sagas exchanged among livestock showing participants and fans the country over.

High School Life

In the October typing tests, Charlotte Richardson and Loveta Carson qualified for award pins. Charlotte made an average of forty-five words per minute with three errors, and Loveta fifty-six words with two errors. The class average on these tests was thirty-eight words per minute.

The beginning typing classes are taking an occasional two-minute test. No word records have been broken yet. We feel lucky if our errors don't count up faster than our net words.

The advanced shorthand class is beginning to pay more attention to speed in their dictation work. We are starting out at eighty words per minute. Our goal is one hundred fat or more on new work.

The beginning shorthand class lost one of its students last week. Gertrude Monroe has left school. She is doing good work and we are sorry to lose her from our number.

Charlotte Richardson who has been taking advanced shorthand and typing has also left school. She has taken a position in Mr. Dick's office.

The substitutes gave a very good account of themselves in the Arthur Sullivan game last Friday, which may qualify them for positions in the future games. Sullivan made history by beating Arthur for the first time in football for over a period of six years. Arthur seconds and Sullivan Seconds will play here at 3:30, Friday afternoon. No admission will be charged.

Shelbyville will offer competition for the Armistice game Monday, Nov. 11. It is the only form of celebration that is planned for Armistice, and it is hoped that everybody will get out for that game. Shelbyville has had only one reverse when Taylorville beat them twenty-eight to nothing.

George Elias, a native born Arabian, who joined the Russians in the beginning of the World War and later escaped and joined the English Army and figured in the revolt of the Sheik of Messa in his revolt against the Turks, gave us a very interesting talk Friday. He gave a very detailed discussion of the factors that lead to the revolt of the Arabs against the Turks and it was centered around the secret service work of T. E. Lawrence an Englishman, who was adopted by one of the Arabian sheiks and by virtue of this lineage was able to make the Pilgrimage to Mecca, where the plot and revolt took place. George Elias was one of the bodyguards of the great revolting sheik.

WADDELL CHAMPION MOULTRIE HUSKER

COUNTY CONTEST HELD AT THE BONE FARM NORTH OF BETHANY ON SATURDAY

TWO OTHER CONTESTANTS

Winner Shucks 20 Bushels, 50 Lbs. Of Corn In One Hour And Twenty Minutes—Winner Entered In State Contest In Knox County

(By J. H. Hughes, Farm Adviser.)

The weather man proved to be very favorable to the 4th Corn Husking contest in Moultrie county. This contest was held on the W. R. Bone farm, 2 1/2 miles northeast of Bethany, on Saturday, Nov. 2nd. Verne Waddell of Bethany, an employee of L. A. Wheeler, proved to be the champion husker for Moultrie county. In 1 hour and 20 minutes he husked a gross total of 29 bushels and 50 lbs. of corn. George Bone husked 27 bushels and 10 lbs.; whereas Harris Bone, the third and last competitor husked a total of 24 bu. According to the Prairie Farmer rules under whose direction the contest was held; each contestant is allowed 5 ounces of husks, but is penalized any amount over and above this. An accurate analysis by the judges proved that Mr. Waddell had stayed within the bounds of this ruling, since 100 lbs. of corn produced only 5 ounces of husks. Harris Bone did even better than this, holding the husks down to 4 ounces per 100 lbs. of corn. George Bone was penalized 33 lbs. of corn for running over the 5 ounce allowance as the final weights and analysis showed that his corn ran 6 3/4 ounces per 100 lbs. Two gleaners and one judge followed each wagon and 40 lbs. of gleanings were found behind the wagon of Verne Waddell; 30 lbs. behind the wagon of George Bone; whereas only 14 lbs. was to be found behind the wagon of Harris Bone. According to the rules the amount of gleanings were multiplied by 3 and deduction made accordingly. The records made at this contest were worthy of notice as there is a strong possibility that the winner will be eligible to enter the State contest. In the event that he should win the State contest, the next year's contest would then be brought to Moultrie county, which should mean an immigration of several thousand of people to this event. The local contest held at Bethany, Saturday was disappointing in some respects, that there were not more to enter. The idea of each contestant was to gain recognition from Moultrie county and secure for it a place in the State and National contest, if possible, rather than the personal gain of the contestants themselves. There were rumors floating about of other huskers in the county who were equipped with plenty of speed and ability, however these prospects did not see fit to enter and this leaves us in doubt as to the importance of the rumors that were made. The proof of the pudding is in eating and the final proof of one's ability and endurance in husking corn is in a contest where actual measurements are made. If there is any better material in Moultrie county, we sincerely hope that it will present itself next year, and thereby give Moultrie a higher rating at the state contest. More than 150 interested people attended the contest Saturday, and followed the wagons from one end of the field to the other. Homer Freeland acted as director in charge of the contest, with A. Jay Scott as timekeeper. The drivers, judges, and gleaners for the various contestants were as follows:

Verne Waddell—George Reed, driver, W. E. Crowder, judge and Wilmer Marshall and R. O. Ascherman, gleaners.

George W. Bone—Jay Mitchell, driver, Bill Marshall, Judge and Charles Allen and Rufus Love, gleaners.

Harris Bone—Herchel Goetz, driver, O. C. Hoskins, judge, and Tom Reed and Fred Smith, gleaners.

A check up on the speed at which the boys were throwing in ears of corn went to show that they were husking them at the rate of 26 to 33 ears per minute. Mr. Waddell showed his ability to hold the higher average on a steady basis. Harris Bone who is now teaching school, stated that he had not husked any corn for two years and considering this fact, he did remarkably well. George Bone was inconvenienced some by the nervousness of his team, causing him to lose an ear now and then which went into the gleaners' hands. To the spectators it seemed that the boys were all husking to the very limit and yet not one of them complained of exhaustion at the end of the time allotted to the contest which was one hour and 20 minutes.

As stated before the weather overhead was fine. The sun was shining brightly and the footing was good. The corn stood up well and the yield of same was all that the huskers could ask for. It is doubtful, if such conditions will be found at the state contest, except the temperature which will help considerably. The first four minutes of the contest indicated that the huskers would have benefited from cooler weather. To husk corn under the heavy strain of perspiration is very unusual and does not lend to speed.

The state contest will be held in Knox county on Nov. 8. Fifteen of the best county winners will compete for the state championship. Contest entries must be filed by 10:00 p. m., Nov. 6th, with Prairie Farmer, Chicago, and this has already been taken care of by the Farm Adviser.

The National contest will be held in Platte county, Mo., Nov. 15. Two hundred dollars in cash prizes are being offered in state contest with championship medal and a free trip to the National contest as an additional prize for the winner.

The history of the corn husking contests in Moultrie county show that E. E. Marquiss was the winner at the first contest in 1926, Verne Waddell in 1927 and George Bone in 1928. Evidently the abilities of the winners for 1928 and 1929 are quite evenly matched.

The local contest was held under the auspices of the Moultrie County Farm Bureau and we trust that the winner selected will have a place in the state contest and make a name for himself and Moultrie county.
