Dear Miss Richardson
Words cannot express our deep appreciation for the help and advice you have given us during our four years at S.H.S.
Not only in our class projects,
but in our individual problems, you have taken an interest and offered wise counsel. It is, in an effort to thank you for all you have done, that we dedicate our yearbook to you,
Miss Richardson.

AND SO THEY LED . . .

Carl Johnson

Keith Schrodt

"Your cause of sorrow
Must not be measured by his worth, for then
It hath no end."

MACBETH, Act V, Scene VIII

Tragedy struck the senior class when Carl Johnson and Keith Schrodt were killed in an automobile accident which occurred Sunday night, January 20, 1957, near Champaign. Carl died early Monday morning, and Keith died during the time of Carl's funeral Wednesday afternoon. Keith was buried the following Saturday.

The boys, close friends themselves, were friends of everyone, and were held in high esteem by the entire student body and teaching staff. Not only we realized their worth, but others did also. Cards of sympathy and letters expressing condolence were received from neighboring schools and their student organizations. A Keith Pollo Memorial Fund was started to furnish polio inoculations for school children of Moultrie County.

Keith, class president for the last seven years, and Carl, president of the SHS Band, were both officers in Student Council. Keith served as president, and Carl was parliamentarian. Both were honor students.

Carl had been recipient of several 4-H awards, the last one being a three-day trip to Chicago as a guest of the C & EI Railroad. He was serving as president of the Moultrie County 4-H Federation, of his local 4-H Club, the Brushy Bend Gang, and of the high school Sunday School class at the First Christian Church. He played football for three years, and was always a member of the float construction crew. Two of the big events which Carl took an active part in his junior year were the Carnival and Junior-Senior Prom. Carl always knew a way to design and construct scenery or projects.

Keith was chosen a member of the National Honor Society as a junior. He was a star basketball player during his junior and senior years, and appeared on the varsity roster his sophomore year as well. He also had been on the varsity football and baseball squads. Keith was a member of the choir of St. Columille Catholic Church. As class president, he always worked with window and float committees, and was always planning ways to raise money and increase the activities of the class. He was a featured member of the Junior Play cast.

As they served so well as our leaders in life, Carl and Keith have led in the Great Adventure. They shall live forever in our memories as kind, sincere, level-headed boys, who earnestly sought Truth. We believe they have found it.

FOREWORD

We cannot capture all the memories of high school, but in this, our RETROSPECT, we attempt to give you a realistic picture of our school life from the standpoint of parents, teachers, and students:

The confusion and excitement of the first day of school . . . new faces, new classes, new romances . . . elections . . . lost freshmen -- and seniors . . . homecoming rivalry . . . athletic events . . . swoons for Elvis . . . semester tests, no dates, cramming 'til two o'clock, comparing notes and butterflies . . . spring walks . . . music contests, lemon sucking, tired feet . . . senior measurement -- announcement cards . . . "Ozarks or Bust," prom preparations, new dates, new formals and Tuxes . . . and finally graduation.

As you read this RETROSPECT, may you come to understand just what LITTLE THINGS memories are made of . . .

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1954 we green freshmen entered the halls of SHS for the first time. Our class officers were:

Keith Schrodt, President
 Bill McColl, Vice-President
 Rochelle Taylor, Secretary
 Mary Jen Lee, Treasurer

Clyde Oathout, Judy Storm, Pat Rozene, and Leon Bateman voiced our opinions in the Student Council. Shirley Stewart was our Homecoming queen candidate who rode on the float, "Queen of the Fans." Her window was titled "Cream of the Crop."

We became bolder during our sophomore year, and were able to laugh at the blunders we had made when we were freshmen. Our officers this year were:

Keith Schrodt, President
 Bill McColl, Vice-President
 Judy Storm, Secretary-Treasurer

Our sophomore representatives for Student Council were Dick Elder, Carl Johnson, Judy Storm, and Beverly Milan. Queen candidate for Homecoming was Pat Rozene. Her float was "Queen of Our Campus," and the window was a "Rocket to Victory."

Our junior year came the carnival, the magazine sale, and the Junior-Senior Prom. To help us through this busy year were:

Keith Schrodt, President
 Bill Larkin, Vice-President
 Mary Jen Lee, Secretary-Treasurer

Carl Johnson, Beverly Milan, Pat Rozene, and Bill McColl were our Student Council representatives, Annamary Moon was the junior candidate for Homecoming queen and rode on the float, "Some Punkin." Her window was, "Our Junior Moon Is Sure to Beam."

Pat Rozene, Beverly Milan, and Keith Schrodt were chosen for National Honor Society members. We'll all remember the Junior-Senior Prom with its "Candyland" theme.

At last we were the "superiors" of SHS. Our senior officers were:

Keith Schrodt, President
 Judy Storm, Vice-President
 Rosemarie Sager, Secretary-Treasurer.

Student Council representatives were Judy Storm, Pat Rozene, Carl Johnson, and Clyde Oathout. Jayne Doehring, our queen candidate, rode on her "Mighty Like a Rose" float, and her window was "Our Crowning Glory."

Class members chosen for the National Honor Society this year were Jayne Doehring, Eugene Elzy, Emma Lee Anderson, Michele Stearns, Duane Jennings, and Bill McColl. Jayne Doehring received the D.A.R. Award for citizenship.

TOP: Rochelle, James, Mary, pay Miss Winstead to put rings on their fingers -- junior rings to wear proudly. MIDDLE: Eugene tries his skill at riding the hobby horse -- at an earlier age, of course.

BOTTOM: Departing seniors will leave empty corners in the old corral.

HOMECOMING - - SHS

Homecoming is one of the main attractions of the school year at SHS. On the first day of school the big question in everyone's mind is, "Who will the queens be?" The school fairly buzzes with guesses, and somewhere among the wondering student body are four lucky girls who will be picked at the class meetings. Class business, election of officers, studies, all take a back seat to homecoming preparation. After the meetings the candidates' names spread like wildfire.

Now the news is out; four girls have been picked, evenly matched in beauty and personality. The crown is easily anybody's title, and every class is determined to boost its own candidate to victory.

School work and Homecoming put on a knock-down, drag-out fight for attention as window, float, and advertising committees get started. Who can really be concerned about equations, particples, molecules, or balancing the books, when there are really important things like floats and windows to worry about? Window committees put in rush calls to secure merchants' store windows downtown, and float committees run to find a garage owner willing to put up with 12 screaming, yelling teenagers during the week before Homecoming.

Window committee members begin to hold meetings, racking their brains for a new and original theme. Ah! Out of one of these sessions, from among the cokes, candy bars, and weird ideas, comes a really good theme for a window. By the appointed deadline all the window themes have been turned in to the office. From this time on spies may be seen lurking around the halls waiting for a chance remark about someone else's window theme and trading information with other eavesdroppers. This is the beginning of the most exciting part of Homecoming.

Windows have to be ready the Saturday noon before Homecoming, and actual work on the window starts the Monday before. The first work of covering the window with old newspaper begins, and Donald Duck stares blankly from the comic page at would-be peepers. The only indication of life is an occasional worker going out for cokes or crepe paper. Inside, it's rush and scramble as one crisis after another threatens to disrupt the entire plan. "Where are those scissors?" "What can we do with the floor?" "Can't you get more red paper anywhere?"

The nearer the day for unveiling the windows comes, the more certain the group is that their window won't be ready. But miraculously at the last minute things begin to fall into place. When the time comes to show the windows, each one is finished and pays a tribute to its queen.

The freshman window in Dunscomb's turns out to be appropriately green and yellow with the slogan, "We may be green, but we've got the queen." The sophomores turn patriotic with red, white, and blue for their election-year window at Corbin's. The theme, of course, "We cast our votes for Barbara Hostetler." The juniors at the Federated store use a play on their queen's name for their green and brown, Indian-style window, "Pounding to Victory." The seniors choose red and gold to fashion a queen's crown for "Our Crowning Glory."

Window committees breathe a sigh of relief and retire to wait for the prizes to be announced on Homecoming day. While the window committee has been working, advertising committees, usually self-appointed, and float committees have been busy getting their part of the operation under way.

Evidently freshmen aren't as green as their window says they are.

RIVALS UNITE FOR S. H. S. BONFIRE

Themes have to be turned in by Friday before Homecoming and there isn't much time. Sketch after sketch is made and discarded until at last an idea is suggested which can be carried out really beautifully and stay within the fifteen-dollar limit.

Themes are turned in to the office, and the top secret operation begins. It is hard to hide anything as large as a float, and it is all the workers can do to keep prowlers away. Of course, it is quite all right if one of their own classmen comes back with news that the freshmen seem to be building a basket.

Every night for almost a week, work goes on to the music of "Fats" Domino and Elvis Presley. The float stands among the crepe paper and chicken wire -- yes, and toilet tissue, for white stuffing. Amid the "snap-snap" of the stapler and the thud of the paper cutter, piles of material go down as the float goes up.

The juniors take time out to whitewash "Lb. for Queen," "Vote for Pound," on the sidewalks around the square. Before long the other classes take up the idea and whitewash their queens' names on the sidewalks at school and downtown.

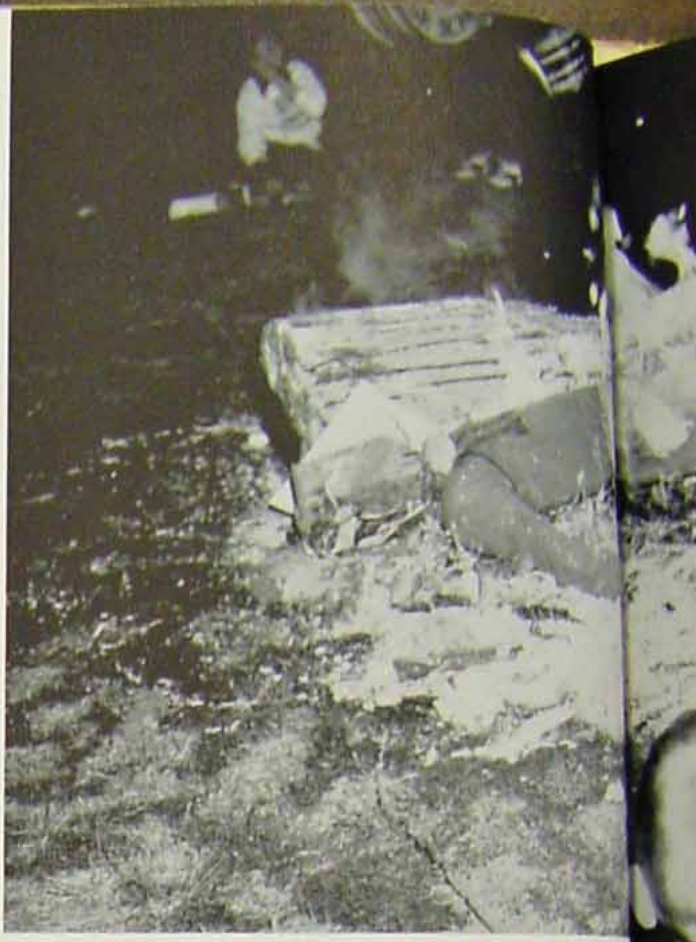

"I've got an idea; let's go to Atwood and whitewash," "We'll paint the town," "Boy, we're sure to win this way," -- and away a group of senior girls go to Atwood, the opponent for the Homecoming game. The running up and down the streets splattering "Jayne Doehring, Senior Queen, for Homecoming Queen at Sullivan" soon comes to an end because the whitewash doesn't last. But a few minutes later the mayor at Atwood pops up with one more bag of lime for them. And the Seniors "departing leave behind them, Doehring written large in lime."

The juniors fly an enormous red and white banner across Main street, "Janet Pound for Queen," and the seniors, not to be outdone, climb the old city water tower and whitewash "Doehring for Queen," in bold white letters.

Max and Steven escort guest of honor to the cremation.

Unidentified student watches as Atwood goes

The wood and chicken wire scarecrow is beginning to resemble a float the evening before Homecoming when they use the last of the green crepepaper. No one in town has any to match. Someone drives to Mattoon, someone else to Arthur. After a two-hour delay, someone comes in with the crepe paper. Now they'll never be finished in time. There isn't even time to change the records on the portable hi-fi set as twelve teenagers madly stuff paper and pin letters.

At 6:30 p.m. band members and cheerleaders leave to take part in the snake dance. Dressed in levis and sweatshirts, the student body meets downtown for a noisy snake dance around the automobiles and parking meters.

Royal group adds beauty to the football field.

Mary Ann Kit, 1955 queen, crowns Janet Pound, her successor, as the spectators proclaim, "Long live Queen Janet!"

Janet Pound, junior queen, sits against a big upright phonograph record lettered in silver, "Our Biggest Hit." The seniors place Jayne Doehring in the center of an enormous rose on a white frame. Red roses and lettering on the side carry out the theme, "Mighty Like a Rose."

Once around the square and back down Main Street we go to the football game and the announcement of prizes. The Redskins meet defeat during the second half, but SHS spirit is undampened for the dance and the crowning of the queen.

Soft lights and the music of Bob Kruzan blend into an "Autumn Nocturne." At ten o'clock, to a hushed crowd, Homecoming Manager Eugene Elzy announces: "The Queen of the 1956 Homecoming is -- Janet Pound!" Juniors go wild. Eugene claims the first dance with the queen. Soon other dancers move onto the floor, and the excitement is over for another year.

For the seniors the real excitement of Homecoming will never come again. There will be the dance, the game, and the Parade, but the sense of being a part and planning Homecoming Day is gone. Only in their memories can they relive the real thrills of Homecoming Day.

Committee members work feverishly until 1:45 p.m. when they discover the float is ready. Two of the boys are securing one support when the garage doors rattle and a group of parents comes in.

"Thought they might like a snack." "Dick hasn't had time for a regular meal all week!" Exhausted students and class sponsors, bless them, gratefully accept refreshments.

Homecoming Day is cool but fair. By one o'clock class and organization floats are gathering at the school. At 1:30 p.m. the majorette whistles the band members to attention, and the parade is under way.

The freshmen have built a "Basket of Sweetness" float brown with pastel flowers, pink, blue, yellow, for Linda Lowe. The sophomore queen, Barbara Hostetler, sits beside a large silver bird cage with an enormous blue ribbon beside the cage. Blue and silver lettering names their float "Prize Catch."

Janet wins the crown; Eugene wins the first dance.

COUNCIL DECORATES FOR CHRISTMAS

Bill and Leroy receive "contribution" to Student Council fund from Pat. Schedule-pencil sales help finance Council projects.

"Wanna pencil?" is probably the first thing that comes to a student's mind when he thinks of the Student Council.

However, in addition to selling basketball schedule pencils (their chief source of income) the council organized groups of students to help promote the school building bond issue, supervised Homecoming, and revised some of the Homecoming rules which limit the money used and the time spent on windows and floats. Each year the Student Council has provided the Christmas decorations for the school, with the beautifully decorated tree on the stage at assembly being the center of attraction.

To be elected a member of Student Council is not only an honor but also a demanding responsibility. The member must give a portion of his time to the council's projects. To become a candidate, a student must file a petition signed by twenty students, a member of the faculty and the principal. He must then be elected by his classmates.

The 1956-57 Student Council was under the leadership of Keith Schrodt, president. He was aided by Tom Hargis, vice-president; Bonnie Goddard, secretary-treasurer; and Carol Johnson, parliamentarian; with Mr. Buckner acting as faculty advisor.

SMALL PIN DENOTES HIGH HONOR

The National Honor Society pin is very small, but it represents a great honor. It has been described in the N.H.S. Handbook by E. J. Eaton thus:

"The emblem of this Society is the keystone and flaming torch. The keystone bears at its base the letters C, S, L, and S, which stand for the four cardinal principles of its organization: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. As the keystone is placed by the builder to hold the perfect arch in perpetual stability, so the structure of our education must be held firm and true to the purposes of life by the virtues represented in this symbol. Character, the composite of all the common virtues, sets the seal of righteousness upon our every endeavor; Scholarship is the power of the mind to dispel ignorance and superstition through scientific investigation of truth; Leadership is the power of personality that blazes the trail for man's upward climb; while Service is the beginning and end of our education, the altar of altruism from which God's blessings to man have been vouchsafed. Thus the keystone symbolizes the high ideals of our Society. The flaming torch is the emblem of our purpose. To bear forward the searching light of truth, to lead that others may follow in the light, to keep burning in our school a high ambition for the enduring values of life, and to serve--these purposes are symbolized in the torch."

To be considered for membership a student must be in the upper one third of his class. Other qualifications are character, leadership, and service. Five percent of each junior class is elected and ten per cent of the same class as seniors. Upon graduation fifteen percent of the class has been chosen.

Class of 1957 selected last year were Pat Rozene, Keith Schrodt, and Beverly Milan. Students elected this year were Emma Lee Anderson, Jayne Doehring, Duane Jennings, Bill McColl, Michele Stearns, Eugene Elzy, Jim Dunphy, Janet Pound, Sarah McKown, and Eden Martin. Each student receives a National Honor Society pin and a membership card.

Other honors given were the D.A.R. award (given by the Mattoon Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution) to Jayne Doehring; the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award to Jayne Doehring; and the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science award to Eugene Elzy.

What does a Junior, Chapter, and State Homemaking Degree mean to you? It may seem small and unimportant, but to FHA members it is their main reason for working and participating in FHA activities.

FHA, under the leadership of Jane Doehring, president; Leanne Fultz, vice-president; Sandra Dolan, Secretary; Wanda England, treasurer; and Mrs. Paschall, advisor, opened the first meeting of the year.

Other officers were Sharon Harrmann, parliamentarian; Julene Campbell, historian; Wilene Campbell, degree chairman; Marie Ramsey, recreation chairman; and Lois Hudson, publicity chairman. They elected Mrs. James Campbell and Mrs. Walter Spaugh, Jr., Chapter Mothers of F.H.A.

Their activities included selling greeting cards and stationery, serving the FFA Banquet, selling candy, donating canned food for Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for needy families, and entering a float in the Homecoming Parade.

Marie Ramsey was elected candidate for Sweetheart Queen for the Section 14 Sweetheart Dance at Lovington. The queen must have a junior and chapter homemaking degree and be either a junior or senior girl before she is qualified as a candidate.

FHA purposes are: (1) To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking. (2) To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership. (3) To encourage democracy in home and community life. (4) To work for good home and family life for all. (5) To promote international good will. (6) To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life. (7) To provide wholesome individual and group recreation. (8) To further interest in home economics.

The creed is: "We are the Future Homemakers of America, We face the future with warm courage and high hope."

For we have the clear consciousness of seeking old and precious values, for we are the builders of homes. Homes for America's future. Homes where living will be the expression of everything that is good and fair. Homes where truth and love and security and faith will be realities, not dreams.

We are the Future Homemakers of America. We face the future with warm courage and high hope."

FFA activities follow a fiscal basis, which is a business period that does not follow the calendar year. It began June 1, 1956, with Bill McColl presiding as president and Ted Hortenstine acting as vice-president. Other officers were: Roger Daily, reporter; Ronnie Andres, secretary; Bob Sims, treasurer; and Rex Fleshner, sentinel.

FFA sponsors many activities and contests for members. One of these is the Pest Control Contest, which is a competition for ridding farms of rats, mice, and other pests. FFA buys poison and then sells it to members at a set price. For each pest a member gets rid of, his side is given a number of points.

One activity which is very popular is the Swine Chain. This is a cooperative program in which the FFA puts hogs out "on shares" to FFA members. Members take care of the hogs for one year, then give two pigs back to FFA. The Swine Chain helps members to start raising their own hogs.

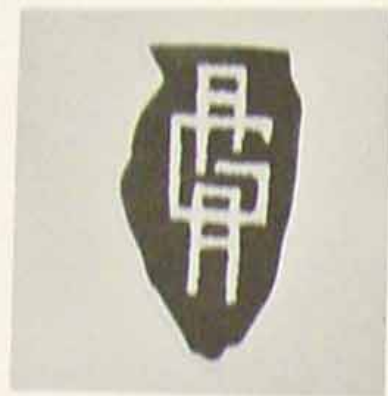

Another popular activity is the George Todd Memorial Fund. This fund is used to help students who are enrolled in the College of Agriculture at the University of Illinois.

The purposes for which this organization was formed are:

1. To develop competent, aggressive, rural and agricultural leadership.
2. To create and nurture a love of country life.
3. To strengthen the confidence of farm boys and young men in themselves and their work.
4. To create more interest in the intelligent choice of farming occupations.
5. To encourage members in the development of individual farming programs and establishment in farming.
6. To encourage members to improve the farm home and its surroundings.
7. To participate in worthy undertakings for the improvement of agriculture.
8. To develop character, train for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism.
9. To participate in cooperative effort.
10. To encourage and practice thrift.
11. To encourage improvement in scholarship.
12. To provide and encourage the development of organized rural recreational activities.

Numerals, pins, block I's, block S's, and State Awards may seem like little things, but they mean a lot to GAA members. The members start working for their awards after the first meeting, and they continue working during the school term.

At the first meeting of the year, GAA members, under the leadership of Judy Storm, president, chose Pat Rozene vice-president, and Nancy Whitchurch secretary-treasurer. Also at this meeting the following team captains were elected: Julene Campbell, Wilene Campbell, Judy Storm, Betty England, Dixie Hortenstine, and Karen Jividen. These team captains, with their teams, competed with one another in basketball, volleyball, and dodgeball games. At a closing event in each sport, an elimination tournament was played to determine the best team of that sport.

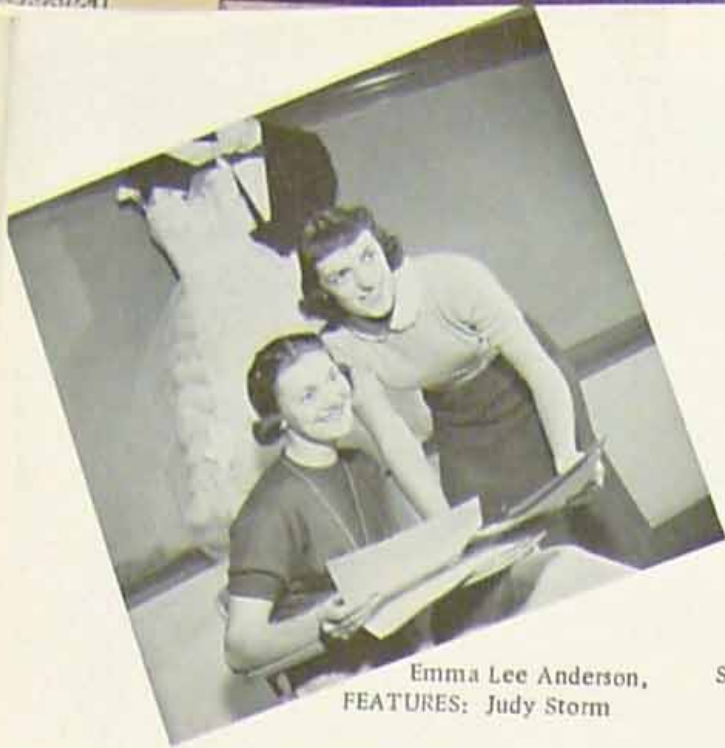

GAA activities included attending a Play Day at Cerro Gordo, sponsoring a Play Day for neighboring schools, sponsoring a Spring Dance, which was open to the public, and bowling. For bowling the members were divided into two groups, with one group bowling on Tuesdays and the other group bowling on Thursdays. The highest scores of those games were entered in a state bowling tournament to determine the bowler with the highest score.

GAA money-making projects included a chili supper, "slave" days, bake sales, and sock hops. The members used this money for ice skating and the annual Spring Dance.

Awards, which were presented for points, were distributed by the advisor. In addition to making points, members had to meet certain requirements before they received their awards. Each member had to have at least a C average, pass three courses, and participate in games.

Freshman members received membership pins if they had 24 points or more. Sophomores who had 75 points or more received block S's. Juniors received block I's if they had 225 points or more. Seniors who had 300 points or more received their senior State Awards.

'LITTLE' THINGS ATTRACT STAFF

Information was not the only thing staff members brought back from the ISHSPA Convention.

"Is my picture going to be in the yearbook?" is the question that keeps entering student's minds. This question represents a PROBLEM for the Retrospect staff, and a great deal of WONDERING for the students.

The Retrospect staff is responsible for the construction and the contents of the yearbook. They must be sure that when the yearbook is published it will meet the required standards of the teachers, students, and even the public. Along with the construction of the yearbook goes the anxiety that a page won't pass the editors, the re-writing and rewriting of copy, and the fear that a mistake may be overlooked and sent into the company, and the dreadful waiting for pictures to arrive.

The staff for 1956-1957 consisted of seven groups. They were assisted by Miss Richardson and by Mr. White, who handled the financial affairs of the yearbook. At the beginning of the year, each staff member was asked to fill out a sheet giving his choices of sections to work with. Miss Richardson then assigned the following staff positions: Features, Emma Lee Anderson, Judy Storm; Organizations, Marie Ramsey, Norma Jean Denton, Beverly Milan; Athletics, Earl Jeffers, Duane Jennings, Shirley Jividen; Classes, Nancy Whitchurch, Barbara Lane, Karen Oliver; Faculty and Administration, Joyce Robinson, Emma Lou Reed; Photographers, Eugene Elzy, Louie Hefner, Don England, Earl Jeffers; Editors, Sharon Harrmann, Michele Stearns.

During the year, the Retrospect staff attended the annual ISHSPA convention program at the University of Illinois, which consisted of panel discussions, speeches, and films on journalism. There were also displays of yearbook covers and yearbooks. Prominent among them were Sullivan RETROSPECT covers and the 1956 RETROSPECT.

The staff also visited the Huston-Patterson Corporation in Decatur, to learn more about printing of yearbooks. (On this visit, they learned how the type is set for a yearbook, and how yearbooks are bound.)

Radio Club, a recently organized hobby club, was supervised by Mr. English. Its purpose was to teach those who were interested more about electronics and all types of radios. A few of its members have gone ahead, studied, and received their "ham" licenses, which permit them to talk over short wave radio.

During the year the Radio Club reconditioned old radios and built new ones. At present, the club is small, but each organization has to have a starting place, and the Radio Club is expected to prosper.

In contrast to the newly organized Radio Club, the Junior and Senior Camera Clubs have been in existence for years.

By belonging to these clubs, boys and girls become acquainted with photographic terms and equipment. They learn to use cameras of different types and the parts of these cameras. They gain knowledge of the chemicals used in developing and printing, and of methods by which black and white pictures are tinted or painted.

At different times, lectures and demonstrations are given, explaining and demonstrating the techniques just mentioned.

Another importance of the camera clubs is to teach members to judge the quality of different types of pictures.

In previous years Mr. Vaughan, the sponsor, has had more time to help members; but due to the increased enrollment and his greater number of classes he was not able to do as much of this as he would like this year.

This year's Junior and Senior Camera Clubs are proud of the fact that their combined club is the largest ever. Their membership has grown until it has reached the fifty mark.

At the beginning of the year, the club members met and elected the following officers to lead them in club activities:

JUNIOR CAMERA CLUB: Joe Florini, President; Ronnie Rice, Vice-President; Janet Elder, Secretary-Treasurer. SENIOR CAMERA CLUB: Eugene Elzy, President; Don England, Vice-President; Marvin Jones, Secretary; Jerry Bolin, Treasurer. RADIO CLUB: Jack Buxton, President; Bob Elder, Vice-President; David Clark, Secretary.

These hobby clubs have been created because of a teacher's desire to help students, and because of the boys' and girls' interests in these fields. To all students who have not previously identified themselves with some club or organization of the Sullivan High School, these clubs extend a cordial invitation to secure information about membership and to join with them in their clubs next year.

"Hail, Red and Black, TOO!" "Yes, you must pass it before you are qualified to play for the football game." It has been the custom for several years that a band member must play, from memory, the two school songs, "Hail, Red and Black" and "Go, Northwestern," and one other march to be eligible to play in the marching band.

The marching band this year consisted of sixty members, and played for four football games, Eastern's Homecoming parade, and Sullivan's Homecoming parade. At each game the band enacted some typical story or incident. While on march, they used the marching "S," the marching diamond, and other fancy steps.

Concert season rolled around and the place of practice was transferred from the streets and football field to Room 5. Preparation was made for band members to attend the South Central Band Festival, held December 12 at Greenville, and the Bi-County Band Festival held January 14 at Lovington.

Another important function of the band members was furnishing music for the pep meetings and ball games. The pep band consisted of twenty members. Band members formed several ensembles. Those which practiced and took part in the district contest were the sax quartet, clarinet quartet, mixed clarinet quartet, and a brass sextet. These ensembles were invited to perform for local civic organizations.

"Hep" students interested in popular and dance music took part in the dance band. This band practiced regularly and played for several noon-hour dances and a sock hop. Those who participated were not necessarily music majors, but were those who received enjoyment from playing music for dancing.

Two days a week Mr. Clark practiced with the Lowe School Band. These band members represent the future high school students. Often high school band members practiced with the grade school band, giving both groups an opportunity to play with others besides their friends, as well as affording them additional experience.

Officers for the year were: Carl Johnson, President; Duane Jennings, Vice-President; Jayne Doehring, Secretary; and David Clark, Treasurer. The band was led by Rochelle Taylor, Majorette, and Pat Lane, Assistant Majorette.

Music majors from Eastern Illinois State College who did their practice teaching at Sullivan High School were Miss Carr, Miss Kennedy, Mr. Beals, and Mr. Fair.

STUDENT TEACHERS AID CHORUS

Boys' Chorus, under the direction of Miss Mace, elected Clyde Oathout, President; Danny Bolin, Vice-President; Jack Buxton, Secretary-Treasurer; Ronnie Rice and Eden Martin, Librarians for 1956-1957.

This organization met Tuesday and Thursday of each week during the sixth hour. The first 12 weeks the chorus was aided by Miss Carr and Miss Kennedy. The second 12 weeks the chorus was aided by Mr. Beals and Mr. Fair. Miss Carr, Miss Kennedy, Mr. Beals, and Mr. Fair were student teachers from Eastern Illinois State Teachers College.

Boys' Chorus participated in the annual Christmas program by singing Christmas carols. They also participated in the Spring Concert which was held at the high school.

Boys' Ensemble consisted of seven members and, like the girls, each was given individual lessons by Miss Mace. These lessons included breathing exercises, correct pronunciation of words, and correct standing positions while singing. The Boys' Ensemble sang for several civic organizations during the year. Philip and Eden Martin served as accompanists for the group.

GIRLS RECEIVE VOCAL TRAINING

Girls' chorus participated in the Christmas program which took place on December 16, at four o'clock under the direction of Miss Mace, with Philip Martin serving as accompanist. Another event they took part in was the Spring Concert.

Officers serving for 1956-1957 were Janet Pound, president; Judy Storm, vice-president; Nancy Whitchurch, secretary-treasurer; and Mary Ann Kite and Karen Jenne, librarians. The duties of the officers were few; however, one main duty was to see that all the members were informed when a program was to be given.

Girls' ensemble for 1956-1957, which consisted of eight members, met on Tuesdays and Fridays for practice. At practice the members sang different seasonal songs, and they were given lessons which consisted of breathing exercises, correct pronunciation and enunciation of words that appeared in their songs, and correct posture when singing.

During the year the girls' ensemble sang at the Methodist and Christian churches, at the Junior Woman's Club, and at other community meetings. They also took part in the yearly Christmas program which was held at the high school for students and teachers.

SCOUTS GIVE SERVICE TO OTHERS

Troop leaders for 1956-1957 were, STANDING: Mrs. Glen Kite, Mrs. Phillip Best, Mrs. Leon Kite. SEATED: Mrs. Bill Stubblefield, and Mrs. Don Butler, consultant.

"Hi Scouts,"—a short and odd name,—definitely describes itself: high school members of the Girl Scouts of America.

Scout activities were many. Not only did they have activities such as bowling, skating, swimming, and hiking that provided enjoyment for members, but also they did things that gave help to others. The latter included serving meals at nursing homes, being aides at Best Clinic, baby-sitting for church nurseries, and folding church bulletins. Another popular activity of Hi Scouts was serving as aides to the leaders of younger girls. By doing these things a Hi Scout earned aid bars for putting in 30 hours of service.

A troop chairman must have the highest number of points in her troop. The president must be a senior; vice-president, a junior; secretary, a sophomore; and treasurer, a freshman. Officers and leaders were: Judy Storm, president; Beth Stricklan, vice-president; Mary Ann Kite, secretary; and Judy Buxton, treasurer. Troop chairmen were Mary Getz, Ann Jenkins, Darlene Harrmann, and Kay Picken.

GRIDDERS END 'TRYING' SEASON

Although all eight games went down as defeats for the Sullivan Redskins, they gained game experience and self-confidence with each loss. The losses were somewhat demoralizing, but the Redskin spirit was still outstanding.

There were many sophomore and junior lettermen this year who will probably make up next year's gridiron team. The Redskins will lose only six lettermen next year; Bill McColl, Carl Johnson, Stanley Bruce, Ted Hortenstine, Rex Fleshner, and Jack Fultz.

Other gridiron lettermen were Roger Beavers, Jerry Doss, Sonny England, Jan Munch, Bud Cazal, Bob Cochran, Roger Daily, Jim Dunphy, Gary Fish, Stanley Guin, Tom Hargis, Ronnie Houchin, Dick Isaacs, Mike Sullivan, Jerry Spaugh, Doug Shank, and Steven Wood.

The most outstanding player this year, awarded trophy by the Illini Quarterback Club, was Bill McColl, who was selected by coaches and teammates.

B'S WIN TWO, TIE ONE

Twenty-five freshman and sophomore gridders comprised the B-squad under the direction of Coaches Boehrich and McIntyre.

The B's have shown many promising players this season, from their record. Although they won only two and tied one, they played hard ball all the time. The B's have learned from new experiences that it takes hard work, lots of spirit, and cooperation to hold a team together. With this knowledge they will be valuable assets to next year's team.

Players on the B-squad will receive numerals. These players are Gary Bruce, Bill Brumfield, Richard Burcham, Kent Emel, Jim Fish, Bill Huelster, Roger Landers, Ronnie Lane, Max LeCrone, Larry Loy, Doug McGrath, Roger Naab, Ronnie Rice, Ronnie Hutchcraft, Jerry Lash, Jack Lundy, George Selby, Eddie Taylor, Terry Warren, Chuck Woolen, Barry Hargis, and Ronnie Evans.

Coaches Roehrich, McIntyre, and Chism pause on football field to discuss strategy of SHS athletic teams.

THE INSPIRATION BEHIND THE TEAMS . . .

Sullivan Redskins were directed by three new coaches this year.

Five peppy cheerleaders with enthusiasm and dependability led the crowds in yells and inspired the boys with Redskin spirit on field and court.

Judy Storm, senior, had been elected varsity cheerleader for four straight years and Janet Pound, junior, two years. Three newly elected varsity cheerleaders this year were Pat Lindley, Bonnie Goddard, and Pat Hoskins, all juniors.

The freshman-sophomore teams were cheered by three "B" cheerleaders this year. They were Mary Ann Kite, Janet Wood and Nancy Harshbarger.

AND THE INSPIRATION IN THE TEAMS

Most valuable players of the year, Bill McColl and Bob Cochran, were elected by the football team and basketball team respectively.

Senior Bill McColl has been out for football for four years. He has made the traveling squad for the last three years and lettered the last two years. Bill has played guard for the gridders all four years.

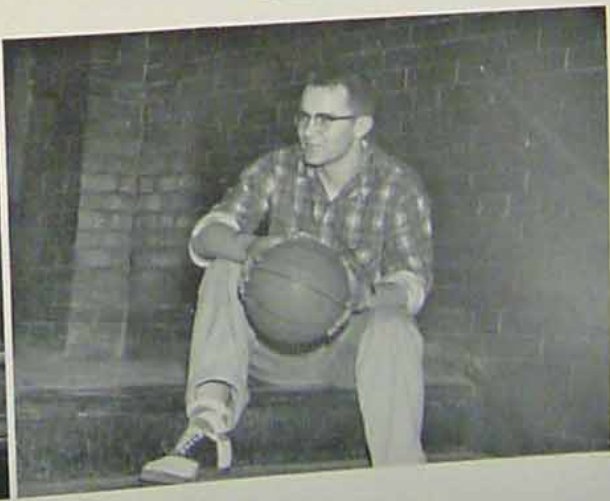

Junior Bob Cochran has been out for basketball for three years. Bob lettered this year. He has played guard for the basketball team all three years.

Football co-captains Bill McColl and Ted Hortenstine were elected by the football team. Ted has been out for football for four years and has made the traveling team all four years. He lettered the last two years, playing end and tackle for the Sullivan gridders.

Larry Freeman and Keith Schrodt were elected by the basketball team. Keith is absent from the picture below. Both Larry and Keith were out for basketball all four years. They both lettered for three years, in which they played guard positions.

UNDERCLASSMEN FORM VARSITY

Sullivan Redskins used two seniors, five juniors, four sophomores, and one freshman this year on the varsity team. Senior Keith Schrodt was absent from the group picture above.

The team has played many impressive games which showed their spirit and close teamwork. They have been backed by an enthusiastic crowd of students and patrons who cheered the team at every game. Many of the Redskins' games were close battles all the way up to the last horn.

The basketball squad elected members of the team for special honors and achievements. Terry Warren was elected as the most improved player of the Redskin squad. Jack Buxton took the honor of being the best defensive player.

Starting jump of the Redskins' 1956-57 basketball season was greeted by an enthusiastic crowd.

The "B" squad, or JV's, made a good showing on court as well as on their record. They have played many hard games and have shown aggressiveness throughout the season. Their abilities in team work will be assets in future years.

The "peanut" squad consisted of several freshmen and sophomores under the supervision of Coach McIntyre. These prospective basketball players practiced after school and played other conference teams to improve their agility and ability, so they might become better SHS players in future years.

ENTHUSIASM LEADS THE WAY

The student body enthusiastically backed the SIS teams on field and court at all times with an array of cheers led by the faithful SIS cheerleaders. They built up a wonderful school spirit that encouraged the morale of the players, who wholeheartedly cooperated in the common effort to attain victory. The many defeats suffered this year were greatly overcome by the "Never-say-die" spirit that prevailed. Also, much credit was given to the coaching staff for their integrity and hard work when the going got rough.

Sullivan's twenty-piece pep band performed for several Friday night home games during the basketball season. The pep band consisted of members of the high school band under the direction of Mr. Clark and two Eastern State College student teachers, Mr. Beals and Mr. Fair. They played a selection of snappy marches between games and during the halftime of the varsity game to furnish entertainment for the spectators.

Every team needs a manager to care for equipment and to be on hand when he is called, during practice as well as at games. Managers for the year were Richard Cain, Ed Cazal, Marvin Cookson, and Jim Smith, football; Stanley Guin, varsity basketball; Steven Wood, freshman-sophomore basketball; and Roger Naab, peanut squad.

The boys' basketball team played every Monday during the noon session, alternating as one of four best teams in the final victor won't played the faculty.

NOON HOUR ACTIVITIES ARE VARIED

The boys' intramural volleyball and basketball teams played every Monday, Friday, and every other Wednesday during the noon hour. The six captains and their teams alternated as opponent to one of the other teams. The four best teams played a tournament in the spring, and the final victor won the championship. Then, these champions played the faculty members.

This year there were no National and American Leagues; therefore, the freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors played together. Anyone who wanted to do so could act as the referee or scorekeeper.

Intramurals furnish recreation for players and entertainment for student onlookers.

This year as a special noon hour activity, the school sponsored a sock hop every other Wednesday, which offered social entertainment and recreation for any of the student body who wished to participate. The music was played from records which were furnished by the school.

The GAA sponsored all the girls' noon hour games. Tuesdays and Thursdays were their game days, during which they participated in both basketball and volleyball. The girls also played a tournament to pick the champions, just as the boys did.

The intramural games were organized so that any student not out for sports could participate.

AIDES PICK-UP, FIX-UP, COOK-UP

The people who kept the school running smoothly were the custodians, bus drivers, and cooks. The custodians were busy picking books up off the floor and desks in study hall and taking them to the office. The bus drivers brought the students to school and also kept their buses in working condition. The cooks prepared for about one hundred ten students every day. They were kept busy cooking and serving food to a hungry line of students.

Mrs. Margie Nedden, who was assistant cook last year, became head cook. She was assisted by Mrs. Louise Beals.

George Soper took Dewayne Reedy's place as night custodian, but Frank Ward is seen more by students. Mr. Reedy drove a bus. Two more new faces seen by students who rode the bus were Wayne Wood and Jim Vandever. Melvin Stricklan resigned as bus foreman October 15, and Cecil Neal took his place.

BOARD, COUNCIL MAKE NEW SCHOOL PLANS

Two new members were added to the Unit No. 300 board of education. James McLaughlin and John Cazal replaced John Fleshner and Paul Stone.

The council was composed of two more members this year, which made nineteen. They elected Dr. Dean McLaughlin chairman, and Mrs. Dena Graham secretary.

Cooperation of the board, council, and townspeople helped carry the election of the new school plan by a 3-1 majority. Many hours were spent planning the school building program.

The new school will be built north of the present high school building and will be connected to it by a corridor. Fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grade classes will use the present building. Many new classes and activities, such as art, and new rooms for music, band, and library may be provided for in the new building.

"Here is the only mail that came this morning," Miss Emel informs Mr. Rice.

"We've been hunting this all morning," says Mr. Alberts to Miss Shaw.

QUESTIONS, EXCUSES, MAIL KEEP FRIENDLY ADMINISTRATORS BUSY

Kent prepares to donate a dime to Polio Fund by paying his "lost-books" ransom.

A change took place in the superintendent's office this year. Mr. William Alberts replaced Mr. Virgil Bingman as unit superintendent. He keeps very busy, since he is also principal of Powers School and supervisor of teaching. Mr. Alberts also keeps Miss Janice Shaw, his secretary, busy hunting for information and papers.

Two of the most friendly people we meet at SHS are Miss Ruth Emel and Mr. Marvin Rice. They always have a friendly smile and greeting. By the time we are sophomores, they know all of us, and we know them.

Mr. Rice is always busy signing excuses, filling out applications for the graduates, and answering a million questions a day.

Miss Emel also keeps busy sorting mail, answering phone calls, working on report cards, and doing various jobs. Under the counter of her room there was always a pile of books. If we paid her a dime, we could retrieve our lost possessions.

SENIOR WILL

We, the members of the class of 1957, having found them to be of great value to us in our years at Sullivan High School, do hereby bequeath these possessions to the following classmates:

Emma Lee Anderson, her eyelash curler to Judy Booker; Ronnie Andres, his coon dogs to Patsy Hoskins; Sandra Barclay, her ball glove to Pat Lindley; Annie Brandt, her short, dark hair to Barbara Smith; Stanley Bruce, his devilish grin to Jerry Spaugh; Don Cain, his ability to slip into class just before the last bell, to Scott Harshman; Julene and Wilene Campbell, their Mattoon and Shelbyville address books to Janet Wood; Leroy Conclasure, his curly hair to Delta Keown; Eugene Creek, his lanky frame to Dale Piper; Jan Crockett, his talent for slapstick clowning to Philip Martin.

Norma Jean Denton, her diamond to Pat Lane; Jayne Doehring, her quiet ways to Lillian England; Sandra Dolan, her love for PE to Karen Jenne; Roger Edmonds, his bass horn to Karen Houchin; Carl Elder, his long, wavy hair to Terry Warren; Dick Elder, his girl problems to his brother, Butch; Eugene Elzy, his dependability to Betty England; Don England, his camera to Mickey Roney; Sandra Ernst, her fringed suede jacket to Sarah Elder; Paul Feist, his political convictions to Marvin Jones.

Rex Fleshner, his green suspenders to Roger Owen; Ronnie Franklin, his flashy clothes to Eden Martin; Larry Freeman, his diet to Stanley Guin; Jack Fultz, all his underclass girls to anyone lucky enough to get them; Mary Getz, her many hair-dos to Nancy Harshbarger; Ronnie Grubbs, his brother, Jerry, to George Dotson; Sharon Harrmann, her good times in high school to her brother, Terry; Louis Hefner, his job in the cafeteria to Linda McKown; Ted Hortenstine, his rugged handsomeness to Bob Young.

We, the editors, in the midst of last-minute rush, pause to bequeath our thanks, and to extend our gratitude to all because we feel that we may have neglected to express it adequately at the time when assistance was given. Being (we think) of sound mind, but lacking in means of reimbursement, we will give recognition for work done -- recognition being the only thing we have to give:

Mr. Buckner, Mr. Davis, and Mr. Roehrich showed infinite patience and indulgence when we used their rooms during free periods to work on the yearbook.

Mickey Roney made contact prints, relieving the staff photographers of some of their time-consuming jobs. Mr. Vaughan is the one we always thank for having someone ready to help out.

Lois Hudson was cheerfully willing to type copy when we were too busy -- or all of the typewriters with letters showing on them were in use.

All of the art work was done by James Reedy. We were always welcome to peck around in Mr. Rice's office, using the WIDE-CARRIAGE MACHINE WITH LETTERS ON IT.

When we wanted to find out where someone would be next period, Miss Emel graciously looked it up for us -- and answered the million and one questions we asked her.

Many secrets were given us by teachers, trusting us to keep them so until they were supposed to be known. Faculty members were very cooperative in excusing students for pictures and in posing for us themselves.

If we were stuck for picture ideas, we could always consult our professional photographer, Mr. Blankenberg. He would help us develop a plan, and then spend a great deal of time and effort giving us what we wanted.

Mr. Erickson, the Inter-Collegiate Press man, was a prompt and thorough answerer of our many questions about whether we could do this, or make a layout "thataway."

Mr. White's secretarial class alphabetized and typed the index for us.

Sharon and Michele

Lois Hudson, her high-pitched voice to Rose Mary Dean; Earl Jeffers, his mechanical ability to Ronnie LeVene; Duane Jennings, his "speedy" walk to Billie Rankin; Shirley Jividen, leaves Ronnie Houchin for one year; Tim King, his deep voice to Richard Cain; Tim King, leaves to work at Community Industries; Barbara Lane, leaves for the University of Illinois; Peggy LeGrand, her two-word surname to Doug McGrath; Jack Leonard, his caterpillar tractor to Judy Webb; Marjorie Matheson, her seat in study hall to her brother, Richard.

Bill McColl, his pep club pants to Doug Shank; Janet McMullin, her giggle to Joy Anderson; Beverly Milan, her job at the Sullivan Candy Kitchen to Eddie Barnes; Stanley Miller, his love of dancing to Dale Wiseman; Annamary Moon, leaves to become a housewife; Ednafay Morgan, her herd of cattle to Gary Bruce; Bill Murphy, his lack of concern to Jack Malloy. Lorajean Myers, her enthusiastic spirit to Wanda England; Wayne Nedden, his cooperative attitude to Ronnie Evans; Paul Nolen, leaves Janet Heriot; Clyde Oathout, his automobile payments to Bill Kirkwood; Karen Oliver, her carrot top to Bob Noffke; Charles Phillips, his seat in the ag room to Guy Wallace; Ronnie Phillips, his new fast dance to Richard Ray. Marie Ramsey, her position as secretary to Mr. Roehrich to Lila Waggoner; Evelyn Ray, her stature to Sue Welborn; Emma Reed, her blond streak to Ann Jenkins; James Reedy, his millions to Jim Hays; Joyce Robinson, her quiet smile to Dixie Hortenstine, Pat Rozene, her systematic methods to Karen Kerans; Rosemarie Sager, leaves Mr. White; Bob Sims, his blush to Jerry Freese; Eleanor Slover, her job of filling the candy machines to any junior who wants it; Michele Stearns, leaves Mr. Buckner to next year's sociology class; Judy Storm, her stuffed animals to Bill Brumfield; Rochelle Taylor, her love of practical jokes to Nancy Morrison; Nancy Whitchurch, her cats to Bill Fulk.

We entrust to you these little things for your remaining years at SHS. Use them wisely, and good luck!

As you look through your 1957 RETROSPECT in years to come, we hope it will help to bring the year back to life for you, with all the little associations that made it different from all the other years:

Never seeing the front of the building because everyone's running in and out of the south door . . . wiener-and-cheese on buns . . . candy machines behind the doors . . . Miss Richardson's pig . . . smells of the chemistry room . . . picture of the "Last Supper" on south wall in student hall . . . creak of study hall steps . . . Mr. Buckner's shiny bald head . . . footsteps of Mr. Rice on the stairs . . . friendly smile and "Hello" of Miss Emel . . . sharpeners that eat pencils . . . "Class of 1957" on curtains in study hall . . . first dates . . . driver's license . . . class rings . . . cold days and cold rooms . . . ice and snow -- and no school . . .

LITTLE THINGS, yes -- But memories are made of these.

SATELLITE, SPACEMAN ACCENT JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Spacemen welcomed guests to the 1957 Junior-Senior Prom. The first thing they saw was a blue satellite "home" in the center of the gymnasium.

Darsol K. Caton's orchestra played for dancing, which varied from jitterbug to waltz tempo. Fancy sandwiches, cookies, nuts, mints, and punch were served by several mothers of juniors.

After-the-prom dates extended into the evening (and morning) and the area for many of the guests, who found Prom Night a real sendoff and one they will remember forever.

Nancy, Bob, Beverly, George, Bill, Judy, Peggy, and Ronnie dance in the "starlight."

SENIORS GO 'HILL BILLY' IN OZARKS

Boathouse becomes busy place after breakfast.

BELOW: Lorajeane and Annamary rest on the way home.

SHS seniors threw up their books and headed for Kirkwood Lodge on the Lake of the Ozarks in Missouri April 16. During the next two days they completely exhausted themselves and their chaperones.

Their day began at eight-thirty every morning with a real breakfast of eggs, bacon, toast, flapjacks, and maple syrup. After breakfast, they could swim, boat, or fish, and get acquainted with other visiting seniors. Before they knew it, it was time for lunch, with more delicious food. In the afternoon there were visits to Bagnall Dam, Dogpatch, and other places of interest, as well as horseback rides and sea-plane rides. There was just time to change into dresses and slacks before the bell called guests to another huge meal at five-thirty.

Dancing started in the recreation room following dinner. Later in the evening square dancing began, with lessons for everyone who didn't know how to do it. Dancing was called to a halt at ten-thirty for a nightly wiener roast and song fest on the beach. Following that, everyone strolled back to the lodge for more dancing until twelve-thirty. One o'clock was "lights out," but that was just the beginning of the fun. Now, potato chips, candy bars, and cokes were brought out of their hiding places in the showers, and midnight snacks began. There was gossiping, joke telling, card playing, and very little sleeping all night. When practically everyone had at last stretched out on the beds, it was time to be up and at it again. It seemed as if they had been up and at it again. It seemed as if they had been there only a few hours when it was time to start back toward Sullivan. At nine-thirty in the morning sixty tired seniors mounted the bus for a long ride home. The bus pulled in at seven in the evening, and everyone agreed that it was the most wonderful trip ever.

SHS seniors had such a wonderful time at the Ozarks that some of the sponsors decided to give a party for the seniors and call it "Ozarks Jamboree." It was held Thursday, May 23, at the Masonic Temple from 6:30 p.m. to one o'clock.

A huge dinner was followed by a half-and-half dance. Square dancing was the more popular of the two, and of course they did the "Bill Haley Rock," a dance they learned at the Ozarks. Jan Crockett was the main attraction of the evening with a ten-minute speech on "Shoestrings."

Seniors of '57 would like to thank Mrs. Virgil Storm, Mrs. Homer Johnson, Mrs. Boyd Whitchurch, Mrs. Charles Taylor, and sponsors for making this party possible.

FINAL ACTIVITIES MAY 19, 24

May 19 and 24 found 65 seniors completing their high school life. Reverend C. A. Longton of the Sullivan Church of God gave the baccalaureate sermon, and music was furnished by the Girls' Ensemble, who sang, "As Torrents in Summer," and by Clyde Oathout, who sang a solo, "How Lovely Is the Hand of God."

Eugene Elzy was honored as valedictorian and Pat Rozene as salutatorian. Other top-ranking students were Beverly Milan, Emma Lee Anderson, Jayne Doehring, Clyde Oathout, Duane Jennings, Dick Elder, Emma Reed, Michele Stearns, Barbara Lane, Don England, and Lois Hudson.

Pat Rozene received the Class of 1922 Citizenship Award, which is presented annually to an outstanding senior chosen by the faculty. Qualifications for the award include cooperation, helpfulness, democratic spirit, support of extracurricular activities, and scholastic rank in the upper 50 per cent of the class.
