VOL. LXII.—NO. 15.

SULLIVAN, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1946.—TEN PAGES.

FIVE CENTS

THE MOST STARTLING SIGHT of the week was seeing a man ride a horse in through the front door of a tavern and then riding it out again. Nothing was said about whether the horse ordered a drink or not . . .

EARLY GARDENERS WERE given a scare Monday night . . . or early Tuesday morning by frost. Some arguments developed as to the severity of the frost . . . final conclusions are that there was little damage done to the gardens or fruit trees.

THE NEW SIDEWALKS that are being ordered are now under construction and the work is going ahead full blast . . . the contractor states that he will be busy most of the summer doing the work.

ONE OF THE SMALL BOYS . . . of the town told his mother that his leg had the ear ache when he was attempting to tell that his leg had gone to sleep from sitting too long in one position.

A NEW DEFINITION . . . Heridity, the thing a child gets from the other side of the family. This is true in all arguments that concern the offspring of the family.

ANOTHER CHILD STORY that took our fancy occurred in the home of a neighbor the other night. The boy related that the night his folks were out and the professional sitter was in he had no one to say his prayers to so he "just said them to God."

TODAY THE MOVING proposition is, like playing checkers when there is one move there has to be more following it to make room for everybody.

OBSERVATIONS—Gene Utz is an additional plane owner in Sullivan now . . . he purchased a plane last week and has it at the Dalton City Airport . . . top coats are more in evidence than in the past few weeks . . . smoke coming from chimneys is more in order . . . in fact it has been cold . . . The members of the American Legion are working hard to get their new quarters busy and it is a job for Commander Chance Poland to get the boys out at nights to do the heavy digging . . . but the work is being done in good shape . . . later this week, the horse that was ridden into the local tavern was hitched near the same spot and he stood with an eye toward the tavern.

THE PREVAILING RUMOR of the week was that the ladies dress shoppes of the town were not going to offer any nylon for sale . . . If they were received . . . as they were going to be saved for the graduation classes. When this rumor made its rounds the stores were swamped with calls to check on the rumor . . . and as is usually the case . . . it was just a rumor—so nylon lines will be seen if and when those articles are offered for sale.

THE PAST ELECTION was very quiet. Even the usual crowd that collects in the County Clerk's Office on election nights were not present . . . there was not the usual amount of tobacco smoke or confusion that usually reigns.

THE QUESTION OF honey was up for discussion just before the election returns were brought in at the Clerk's office. To prove their point someone left a dollar bill lying on the table where the greatest part of the crowd would be . . . the dollar bill was still there when the office was closed . . . so there is still honest people living . . . either that or the gag was known.

PARKED NEAR THE C. and E. I. Railroad crossing is an old surrey, complete even with the fringe on top . . . whether it is driven any or not has not yet been determined . . . however there was and is a farmer that drives his buggy to town every day. He still does not trust the automobile.

J. P. Jury Finds Carmine Not Guilty On Illegal Sewer Tap

D. W. Carmine was cleared of making an illegal sewer tap onto a city sanitary sewer by a Justice of the Peace jury, Saturday.

The verdict was delivered by the six man jury after an hour and a half deliberation. Carmine was arrested on a complaint of the city charging him with making a tap onto the city sanitary sewer system without first obtaining a proper permit from the city.

In his defense Carmine stated that he had made an application and had paid R. P. Blystone, City Superintendent of the Water Department, Mr. Blystone testified that he had never received any money from Mr. Carmine and that he had never issued him a permit.

It was claimed by the City in their prosecution of the case that Mr. Carmine had made application to move a house into Sullivan but that they would not issue a building permit unless he, Carmine, made provision that there be city water and a sewer connection to the property. In his building permit Carmine stated that he would put in water and sewer.

Mr. Carmine argued that the fact he stated that he would make such installations in the property constituted an application for the connection.

Testifying in behalf of Carmine was the ten year old son of Louis Pedigo who stated that he saw Mr. Blystone make a tap. Following the array of witnesses the case was given to the jury by Justice of the Peace, Stokes. The jury brought in the verdict later.

Fertilizer Spread By Plane

It took only about 45 minutes to spread commercial fertilizer by plane on a 20 acre field of oats on the farm of Eugene Rowe, near Bethany Tuesday morning. The spreading was done by the Safe-Way Crop Dusting Company of Decatur. The plane was piloted by Carl Shelton, a member of the firm.
The field on which the fertilizer application was made had been seeded in oats and red clover about the middle of March. The fertilizer used was 3-12-12, one of the very popular numbers in complete fertilizers. This fertilizer has in it three units at nitrogen, 12 units at phosphoric acid and 12 units of potash. The rate of applications was 100 lbs. per acre.

The plane used for the work has a hopper for carrying the fertilizer. It has adjustments to regulate the rate of application and is easily turned on or shut-off by the pilot. A man stationed near each end of the field serves as a marker for the pilot.
The length of the Rowe field was 80 rods. The plane spread a strip approximately 24 feet wide on each through. The refilling of the hopper is quickly done on each landing. During the spreading operation the plane is flown close to the ground and does a remarkable job of uniformly spreading the fertilizer. One of the essentials for a good job of spreading is that there be very little wind.

This same operation done with a spreader pulled either with truck, tractor or horses would have required several hours. Spreading by plane also eliminates all wheel marks as the taking-off and landing was done on a nearby cloverfield.

FLYING FARMERS

The Safe-Way Crop Dusting Company also does seeding, crop dusting, spraying and fogging. Early this spring more than 800 acres of sweet clover seed was sown on one farm in a near-by county in a few hours. After seeing the job of fertilizing or seeding done with a plane there is no doubt in our minds but that this method will gain in favor on corn-belt farms.

This cost of the services performed by the Safe-Way Crop Dusting Company are nominal. For example, seeding clover at the date of 12 pounds per acre is done for as low as 60 cents per acre. Crop dusting, such as hybrid seed fields or sweet corn with DDT for corn borer is done for 4 to 5 cents per pound of dust applied depending on the acres, in the block and the rate of application.
In starting this new crop service, all four pilots who operate for the Safe-Way Crop Dusting Company are farmers and they are keeping in close contact with the College of Agriculture and the State Natural History Survey for the latest information and suggestions which will make the service practical and successful.

Any farmer who wishes a demonstration made before going ahead with a job of seeding, fertilizing or dusting will be given such a demonstration if within reason. The Safe-Way Crop Dusting Company can be reached at 1620 East Moore Street, Decatur, Illinois, phone 2-7876. Contacts may also be made with company's pilots, Glen Schuetz, Lovington, Ill., or Humphrey Moody at Dalton City.

Only 1700 voters went to the polls Tuesday to cast their ballots in one of the most dull elections in the history of Moultrie county.

There were approximately 1200 G.O.P. followers that went to the polling places to cast their votes in the only contested races on the two tickets, Carl Barclay, veteran seeking the office of Sheriff was nominated by the Republican party by an overwhelming majority and Raymond Scheer won a hotly contested election over Fred Kearney for the nomination as candidate for County Superintendent of Schools on the Republican ticket.

Carl Barclay defeated George Harchous by a vote of 893 to 311. Barclay carried all but one precinct.

Kearney was leading Scheer by 160 votes with three precincts to be heard from. Marrowbone precinct number one showed 225 votes cast for Scheer and 14 for Kearney. The total count showed that Scheer had a majority of 657 votes to Kearney's 606.

There were no other county contests in the primary. Rowe and Starten carried the election in Moultrie county for state offices in the contests for the State offices.

There were no contests on the Democratic ticket and there were only 517 votes cast in that party.

Delmar Elder received the nomination as a write in candidate over Ernest Martin for nomination as candidate for the office of Treasurer. Martin had notified the party and voters that he withdrew and urged the voters not to cast their ballots for him. Delmar Elder, Sullivan school teacher, was a last minute write in and polled 244 votes to the 172 votes for Martin.

Candidates in the final election in November will show the following men seeking the office: County Judge, Rodney Scott, Rep. and Paul Stone, Demo. County Clerk, Ralph Hahnrahan, Rep. and Roy Donovan, Demo. County Treasurer, Lorenz Jenne, Rep. and Delmar Elder, Demo. County Superintendent of Schools, Raymond Scheer, Rep. and Albert Walker, Demo. Carl Barclay will be opposed by Glenn Braden of the Democratic party.

FLYING FARMERS

The Old Grey Mare Has Wings

After years of argument about the merits of the Model "T" over the farmers standby... old Dobbin, the "T" won out.

Those who were more venturesome than their competitors also went out into the farmer trade and sold other cars.

The automobile was used for every purpose. It hauled the family to grandma's house.

Then there were those who felt that the auto and other present means of transportation were too slow, so they invented the machine that was called the "airplane", instrument of the devil.

Farmers are a class of men who are adept in improvising or finding means of accomplishment aids in better farming.

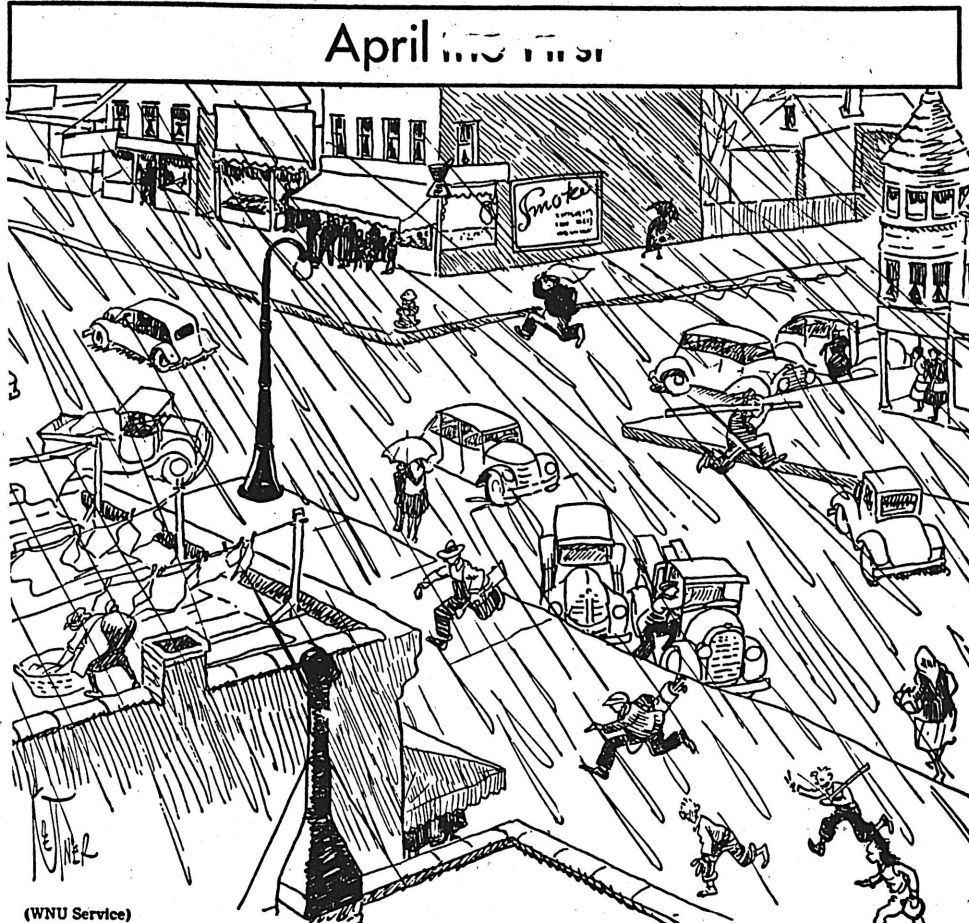

Two years ago a Moultrie farmer, Ed Moody, always air-minded in his life, found that he had several acres of clover to sow and there wasn't time or help available.

That encouraged other farmers. It was not necessary or profitable for every farmer to have a plane. The natural conclusion was that a group of farmers who could fly formed a company that puts in crops, dusts the crops and fertilizes the soil with the aid of an airplane.

At the request of Prairie Farmer the farmers of four states, Illinois included, have formed an organization known as the "Flying Farmers" to bring about a program of education for all farmers and to show that an airplane on the farm lot is not just a show but a means to bring about scientific farming for progressive farmers.

There are several members of the "Flying Farmers" from Moultrie county and several farms are being planted and fertilizer spread with the plane in Moultrie county.

The farmers are flying and not missing a milking because of it. It would not be surprising to find some farmer rigging up a power take off from the propeller, and then hooking it to the milking machine... the "flying Farmer" will do it if possible.

A DUTY

The Voting Public

This nation was founded upon the principle that all of the people within its boundaries were to have an active part in the operation of the government.

This is the basic foundation of the government as guaranteed under the constitution and the following amendments that have since been passed. The framers of the Constitution meant that through voting the people should send those individuals to Congress who would represent them and who would legislate as the voters wanted them to.

In the years that have passed since the Constitution was adopted there have never been periods of time when the eligible people could not vote. Never have the elections been so controlled that the average man was not allowed to express his free will at the polls.

The obvious feature of the whole picture is the attitude that the voters take in the matter. They do not show a desire to vote and neither do they take the matter seriously.

much effort to assert themselves as voters.

Voting is more than a right—it is a duty that should be punctually performed every election regardless of the proposition at hand.

The light vote that was cast in the Tuesday primary is indicative of the attitude of the people as citizens. They do not make the appearance that should be required of them at the polling places.

OUR KIDS

A Country Road and You

Each generation looks upon the present crop of youngsters as the group that is going to the dogs. Each group seems to pass through the period of youth by the grace of the spirit that watches over the kids of the world.

Upon occasion there does seem to be some of the children of the nation that cannot get adjusted to the environment. It isn't the kid that served in the war. He has grown up and is now settled but it seems to be the kid that is just getting a good start in his or her teens.

There have been more teen age youths in court and in the police station for minor and major crimes than in the history of world since the days following the first world war.

local courts and police station than in the history of the county.

The youth are banding together in gangs that just roam the streets of the city. Some are more, or unfortunate, than other in that they have cars to drive around in.

Not too long ago the custom for the boy and girl was to do their courting in the privacy of the house or at least near the home.

Lack of privacy does not seem to bother them at all. With their girls, sitting in an auto parked on the square, under lights if it so happens the kids are having their fun.

Maybe things are changing but there seems to be a proper place and time for everything. Kids that are 15 and 16 years old have no business drinking liquor.

There is little that the law enforcing agencies can do to prevent delinquency among the kids if there isn't any help at home but the police and sheriff can take the kids into court where plans can be made for them.

Perhaps it would be well to have some of the parents taken into custody with their children. Applied psychology is fine if the psychology is firmly applied to the proper spot with the proper amount of force... at least the kids could get off the square to do their petting.

ADVICE To The LOVELORN

American Wolves Howled Too Often At This Mexican Girl's Door.

Whenever I hear anyone wish they could be young again, it always sets me wondering. For it has always seemed to me that the advantages of being young are vastly overrated; that whatever advantages youth has over its elders are more than canceled by the things which young people must suffer more and intensely just because of their that way? You are so sweet, so very youth. They are not yet fresh and exciting to love and all enough or experienced to be loved, but too nice."

Here, for example, is a Mexican girl who declares she has lost faith in all men because she has been unlucky enough to encounter a few wolves prowling down into her territory from north of the border.

"I have always appreciated Americans very highly and have had several arguments in order to convince people here that Americans are the most honest, courteous and human persons on earth. I lived in the States for a long time several years ago and have seen for myself.

"But your boys have greatly disappointed us here. Either things have changed, as they say, or they consider us girls unworthy of respect, or lacking in morals, or plain fools. They come and make love to us until we believe they really love us, and when we have fallen in love with them they go away, leaving us to suffer desperately.

They always ask us to visit them at their hotels, and when we refuse, or find out they are just trying to deceive us, and tell them we want to be decent girls and do things the right way, they leave suddenly, sometimes without even saying goodbye, or they promise to marry us and never come back.

"Sometimes they get irritated and say: 'Why are you girls so nervous just because of their that way? You are so sweet, so very youth. They are not yet fresh and exciting to love and all enough or experienced to be loved, but too nice.' If we tell them we shall give our love only to the man we marry, they laugh at us and say American girls are not that nice. Of course I don't believe it and tell them so. They say American girls have changed, but I don't believe they have gone that far. When I was in the States, I saw how well and courteously they treated the girls. If they loved and respected them, they married them. We, too, deserve to be treated in the same manner.

"American men were the only ones I had faith in. Is there anything you can say to restore my faith in all men? I have no faith in all men. You see, my friends and I have had enough to make us bitter.

I think the best thing I can say to you, E. J. is this: Here in the United States, we have over 16,000,000 young men between 18 and 25, the age group to which the young men you refer to no doubt belong. I'm sure you've met only an infinitesimal percentage of that number. Let's be generous and say one-tenth of one percent, which would be 16,000. Don't you think you could hang on to your first opinion—that American are "honest, courteous and human"—awhile longer, until you've given some of the other 15,984,000 a chance to prove that this opinion is justified? I'd wait before giving up my faith in all men just because a few of them let their country down when away from home.

FORMER MOULTRIE MAN SELLS OUT 500 Sandwiches, 600 Pieces of Pie Other Eatables Cheer Crowds At Sale

If "the way to man's heart is through his stomach," then Eli S. King, of Ronks R1, Leacock township, the right formula on Wednesday when he held public sale of his farm implements and livestock.

He started off the day's proceedings by first feeding his visitors, giving one and all a free meal of delicious Lancaster county viands.

It turned out all right in the finale, King realizing more than $25,000 for his livestock and farm implements—all horse-drawn, which he offered at public sale.

Figures unheard of before were paid for some items—$4.20 per hundred for tobacco lath, and $850 for a single pair of mules.

Six hundred slabs of thick, rich pie; 500 sandwiches stuffed with turkey, ham and chicken; 65 gallons of ice cream; 25 gallons of soup; and uncounted cups of coffee were consumed by the buyers.

Located along Muddy Run creek, 2 miles northwest of Intercourse, and a half-mile north of the Old Philadelphia Pike on the road to Mascot, the King farm proved to be a mecca for an estimated 2,000 crowd of visitors, the great majority Amish folks, who were attracted to the advertised sale, Wednesday morning.

It got under way promptly at 10 a. m. and continued until the last horse was sold, shortly after 4 p. m. During the grueling six hours, V. D. Kling, Intercourse, and Claude F. Smith, Lancaster, "spelled" each other at intervals as auctioneers in calling the "all day" sale.

Fifteen thousand tobacco lath were sold at the new all-time Lancaster county record of $4.20 per hundred.

Forty head of cows sold at $125 to $390 per head; heifers at $65 to $170 per head;

One pair of mules brought $700 and a driving horse sold at $190.

Horse collars brought $1 to $7 each; and the front gears of harness sold at $10 a set.

A traction engine and threshing rig sold for $2,150; tank wagon at $87.50; and 10 log chains up to $12 apiece.

Other sales: hay loader, $120; disc harrow, $150; tobacco planter, $160; potato planter, $200; binder, $170; manure spreader, $240; and drill, $190.

Prices were considered outstanding inasmuch as all equipment was horse-drawn, as is the rule with certain people.

SULLIVAN LADY SPIT UP ACID LIQUIDS FOR HOURS AFTER EATING

For hours after every meal, a Sullivan lady used to spit up a strong, aciduous liquid mixed with pieces of half-digested food. She says it was awful. At times she would nearly strangle. She had stomach bloating, daily headaches and constant irregular bowel action. Today, this lady eats her meals and enjoys them. And she says the change is due to taking ERB-HELP. No gas, bloating or spitting up after eating. She is also free of headaches now, and bowels are regular, thanks to this remarkable New Compound.

ERB-HELP cleans 12 Great Herbs; then cleans bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get ERB-HELP.—Hall's Drug Store.

Women IN THE CHURCH by Mary Fowler

The demand for women ministers and women engaged in other forms of full-time Christian services in the parishes of the United Church of Canada, the Dominion's largest Protestant denomination, is far greater than the supply, according to church officials. More than 450 women are now serving as pastors, missionaries, deaconesses, educators, teachers, medical workers, etc. Some of the women have been employed as chaplains in the armed forces, and the Canadian Government has sought more of them.

Voluntary rationing in America to provide food for the millions who are starving in Europe and Asia will be insufficient to head off disaster, in the belief of Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert, secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ, recently returned from Europe. Dr. Cavert calls for governmental rationing. He says: "I believe the American people would welcome the establishment of a strict program of rationing by our government in order to provide for a systematic sharing with the hungry millions of Europe and of other parts of the globe. Nothing would do more to give America a new position of moral leadership in the world."

Christian and non-Christian women in Korea are uniting to work for independence, according to Dr. Helen Kim, first Korean woman president of Ewha Christian College, Seoul, Korea. "One Korea is what we want out of the chaos of today," she says. "Liberation brought multiplied responsibilities. The Korean women have been awakened to the fact that there is more fighting to be done and that they have to do it... We want to establish the principles of Christian democracy, but Korea cannot do it alone. For goodness sake send us missionaries—old missionaries, young missionaries and middle-aged missionaries, new missionaries! We can't have too many today!"

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank everyone who sent cards during my stay in the hospital. 1511 P Leota Oathout.

ship in the world."

Many soles have been worn through in recent years by church canvassers who go from house to house to have the "annual church budget" subscribed. But two ladies of the parish of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Billings, Montana, took advantage of their church canvass to enjoy their favorite recreation. They asked for the names of the members living on the extreme limits of the parish, saddled their horses, and made seventeen canvass calls on horseback... returning with seventeen subscriptions.

IT'S A PLACE TO LIVE ANYWAY—James and Elsie Neykodem of Downers Grove, Ill., inspect the interior of their new home, one of a group of discarded Chicago street cars. The antiquated car—offered for sale without mechanical equipment, wheels or seats at $300—was purchased from the Chicago Surface Lines.

JAPANESE SLEIGH RIDE—GIs in Japan are finding that there's also snow in "Land of the Rising Sun." A recent six-foot fall at Sapporo crushed all-steel Quonset huts like so much cardboard. Undaunted, GIs and Red Cross girls set out for an old-fashioned sleigh ride. Red Cross club is at left.

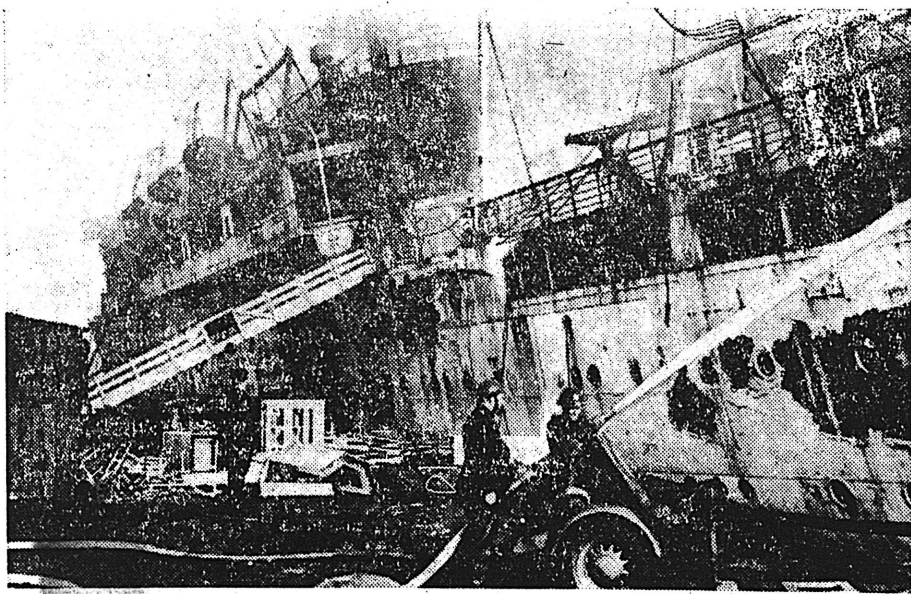

EX-MARINE ENLISTS IN ARMY—Still in uniform, Howard F. Prechtel, 21, former Marine Corps private, examines literature on Army life after he enlisted in Cleveland. He joined because he feels opportunities in Army are better than in Marine Corps. He served in three Pacific campaigns and won a Purple Heart for wounds received in bloody battle for Iwo Jima.

AN EVEN DOZEN—Mrs. Edwin R. Hackett, Chicago, ponders what to name her 12th child, this 8 3/4 pound boy. The father, a director of the Commercial Telephone Workers' Union, calls him "Husky." Other children in the family range from 22 months to 17 years.

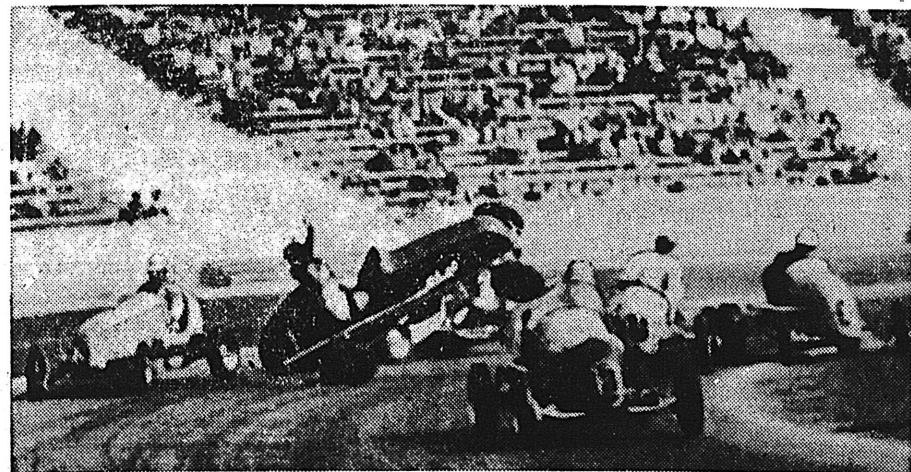

JAPAN PREPARES TO VOTE—Japanese workmen, many of them still in uniform, are hammering away at some of the 200 wooden ballot boxes which are being readied in Tokyo for use in the coming elections. The entire Japanese nation will observe a holiday on April 10 to enable every qualified voter to take part in the general election, according to an announcement by the Japanese cabinet. It will be Japan's first election under its post-war government, and the first really free election in Japanese history.

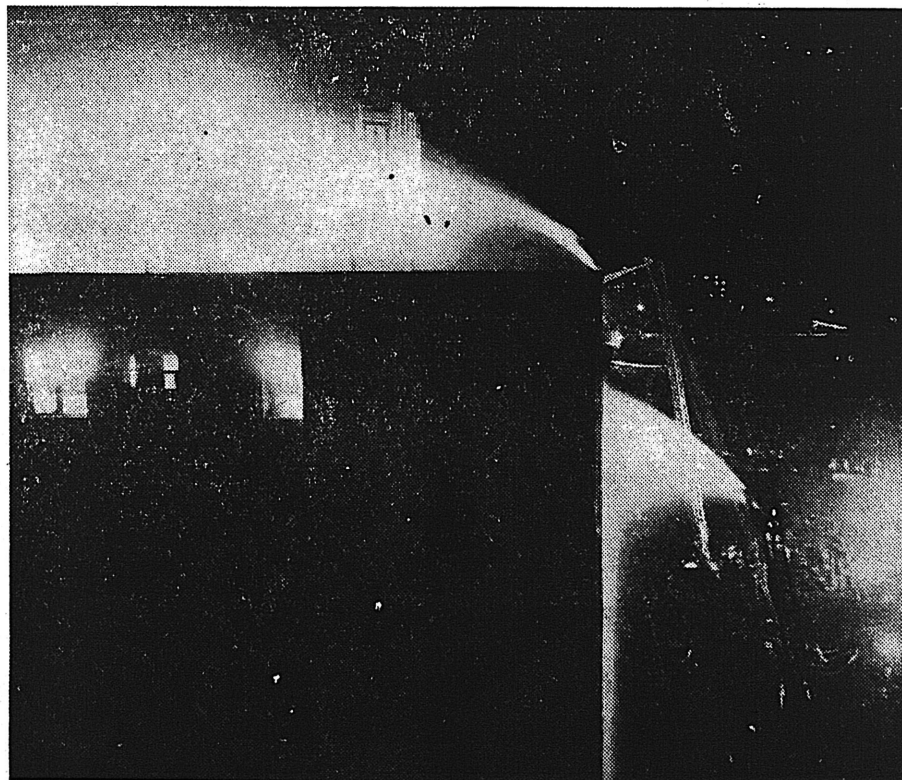

LINER BURNS AT DOCKS—Firemen battle flames that sweep 17,000-ton ex-German luxury liner Milwaukee, now renamed Empire Waveney, at Liverpool, Eng., docks. It was fifth ship to burn in two days. Authorities ordered extra precautions be taken.

SAVES BREAD—Patricia Vaniver, New York model, carefully rewraps bread to "save a slice a day" for hungry Europe.

HERE COMES A SPILL—Driver Mel Hansen throws his arms into the air as his midget car goes into a spin during races at Los Angeles, Calif., Colosseum. Racer rolled over three times, but Hansen came out of it with only a nosebleed.

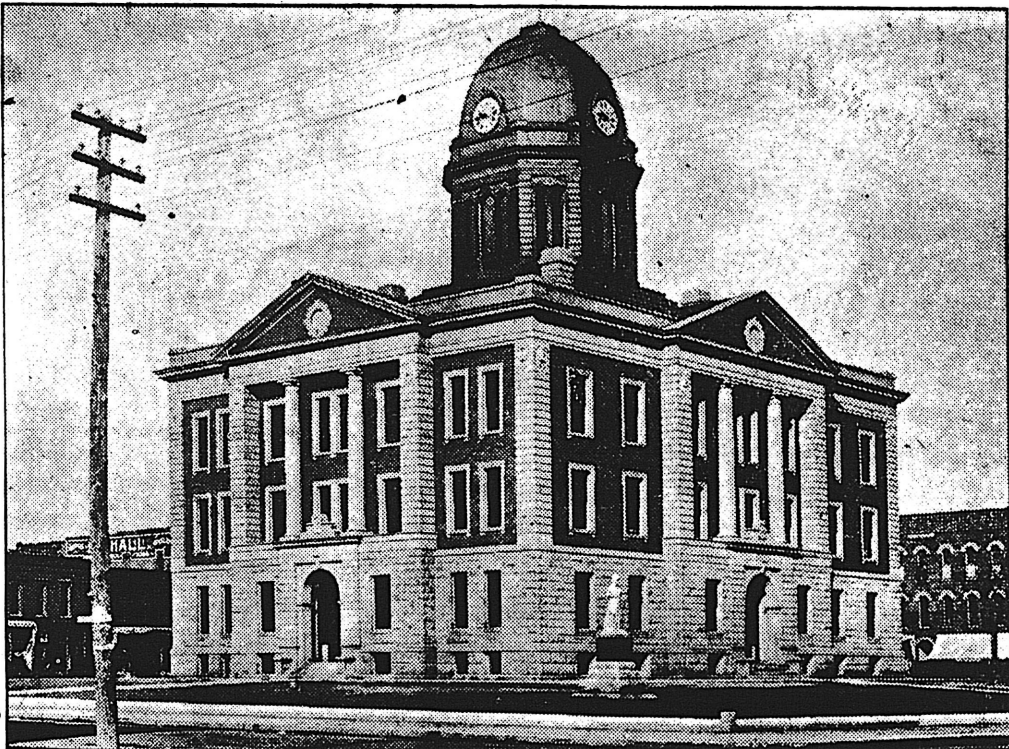

HOUSING TROUBLE—Firemen from six communities battled a raging fire in this six-story apartment house at Long Beach, L.I., but lost the fight when brisk breezes fanned the flames through the entire structure. Veterans and other home-seekers looked on bleakly as the fire wiped out more than a score of housing possibilities.

"Lord and what shall this man do?" John 21:21h.

Eyes On The Perfect Copy . . .

In our Scripture, Peter was looking sideways, at John, instead of straight ahead, at Jesus. It is a fault and mistake of Christians even today to mind Christmas instead of Christ. Is much of the imperfect in many it any wonder that there is so Christian characters? He says, "Follow thou me"; but we persist in keeping our eyes on, and so cannot help following, common and poor imitations of our Leader.

When I was a schoolboy we practiced penmanship in copy-books. There was a beautifully engraved pattern line at the top of every page, but each line that we wrote was progressively worse than the one before it. Then the school board discovered an improved, patented copy-book arranged so that the pattern line could be pushed down the page always directly before the pupil, covering the line just written. The improvement in penmanship is that school was amazing.

We thank God for the saints of the church's past and for the splendid Christmas around us in the world today—for their example and inspiration; but beyond and through the throng of them may we never lose clear sight of the great Example . . . who enjoyed us to be perfect as the Father was . . . and promised us his company and shepherding . . . who commanded, "Follow thou me."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Professor Zogi,
The Magician Marvelous!

Professor Zogi, the magician, came to our town Saturday and put on a performance for the benefit of the Orphanage.

It was quite a show! Among other things, the professor holds a pitcher in his hands, and asks folks what they'd have to drink. Ma Hoskins asks for buttermilk and the professor promptly pours her a rich, creamy glassful.

Then Zeb Collins asks for cider, and out of the same pitcher comes a mug of cider. Doc Hollister next calls for beer—and presto, from the pitcher comes a sparkling glass of beer, white collar and all!

"Just goes to show," says Doc, astonished, "that it takes a magician to satisfy all tastes."

From where I sit, the professor has a mighty good act... one that points a moral too. Tastes differ—but people can have a friendly, happy time enjoying the beverage that each prefers—and being tolerant of one another's preferences.

PHOSPHORUS IS THE BASIS OF SOIL FERTILITY

Phosphorus is a part of every living cell. There is no life without it. In soils it is the measure of other plant food use and therefore of first importance in building fertility. Apply it in the economic form of

FOUR LEAF POWDERED ROCK PHOSPHATE

Its benefits are not limited to a single year but carry over for the future. Used when clover is seeded in the rotation it will increase acre yield of all crops, improve quality, and maintain land in a high state of productivity. Write for information.

Holy Week will begin on Sunday April 14. It is the hope of every minister that the week leading to Easter will inspire you so that it may be possible to get the true meaning of Easter. The Union Service in the various churches of Sullivan will give you an opportunity to have the full meaning of Easter in your life. Whether or not these services are a success depends upon the church people of this community. An invitation from the ministerial association is extended to each and everyone to worship in your churches during Holy Week.

Last Friday saw nearly 100 intermediate young people gather together in the Christian church to make plans for the Intermediate camp to be held at Lake Decatur in August. All of these young people are interested in this camp and all have an invitation from the camp leaders to attend when the times comes. Any information regarding plans for this camp may be had by contacting Mr. Talley.

Choir practice will be held on Wednesday and Friday evening until Easter. Mrs. Johnson and the choir have a very fine musical program for us on Easter evening as well as special numbers for Easter morning. Man is a responsible creature before God, and therefore must give an account for his deeds done in the body, when he stands before God in judgment.

There will be millions in that vast assembly who will regret their choice, made in life.

Man can think of unlimited excuses for not being faithful to the Lord, but these fade away like a morning mist when the next day arrives and they must do something for their temporal welfare. They can endure many hardships to gain a few dollars that will benefit the flesh, but they will not suffer much trouble for the sake of the soul. This is not fair with the Lord or to one's self.

Come to church regularly and be faithful now, and you'll save your soul Sunday.

Sunday nights, we have a service you will enjoy. Subject will be, "The Common Salvation." Bring your friends.

Kindergarten:
Wednesday morning Mary Lou Carter, a high school girl, came to see them. She brought a little bunny with her. She then a story and sang a song about him. They had lots of fun feeding him lettuce. It was fun to watch him eat. She also brought some rabbit cookies for them. They liked the bunny because he made them laugh and think of Easter. They are going to draw some pictures of him.

Second Grade:
In art class on Monday they made original designs for Easter eggs. They are enjoying "Old Mother West Wind Stories" when they have a few minutes to spare from lessons.

Mrs. Vaughan will be glad to consult with any parent about pupils in her room at any time convenient to the parent.

On March 26, Miss Kershaw's room took a walk to the park and saw that many of the spring flowers and fruit trees are already in bloom. They saw a bluebird too, which is a sure sign, that spring is here. Donna Jean Cruse and Kay Bolin are dusting this week. Barbara Beckman is the librarian.

Third Grade—Mrs. Pence:
They have kites and bluebirds on their windows to remind them of spring. The boys and girls keep many bouquets of spring flowers in the room. Pictures they have colored remind them that Easter is near.

Mrs. Slover's room:
Spring is here again. Yesterday the class went for a walk. They saw robins, buds on trees, fruit trees in bloom, and green grass. The sun was shining brightly and the sky was very pretty. They had a good time finding signs of spring and flowers. They were very glad they didn't have to be in school.
By Sharon Smith.

Fourth Grade:
Mr. Elder—The children are learning to tell time. Bobby Poland is librarian for this week. Donald Isaacs is back after an absence. Elaine King is back from a absence after having her tonsils removed.

Mrs. Lansden—The children have been making poem books and have proved to be very interesting to make.

They had a test over units in Geography and most of the children did very well.

The spring flowers the boys and girls have brought have made their room more cheerful.

7th and 8th Grade News:
The plans for our shop display are almost completed and the boys are looking forward to it with enthusiasm.

Mr. Nichols has kindly consented to let us use a window in the Mammoth Clothing Store. The exact date has not been set, but it will be about the first week in May.

ILLINOIS LEADS IN G. I. TRAINING

Illinois is leading the nation in the number of veterans in training under the G. I. Bill with over 10,000 facilities approved for "on-the-job" training in the trades, in industry and the professions.

In addition, thousands of farm projects are being set up, where veterans will have an opportunity to learn practical farm management, with 172 agricultural classes organized since Feb. 4th.

Employers are sending in requests for approvals at the rate of 100 to 150 a day, according to Administrator Homer G. Bradney of the Illinois Veterans Commission.

IVC Service Officer L. A. Gray at Sullivan, Illinois is available to advise veterans and assist them in filing applications for all types of education and training under the G. I. Bill.

Mr. Gray estimates approximately 380 veterans from Moultrie County have already filed for training, of whom 115 have indicated they are interested in the agricultural field, and 265 in school or on-the-job training.

Hold on to that "Million-Dollar Rain"

That welcome rain that brings new life to your land, crops and livestock is the traditional "million-dollar rain" known to every farmer and rancher. There is an old saying, "You can't do much about the weather." But you can do a great deal about what the weather does to your land. Rain can bring relief after drouth and is worth that million dollars—or it can be a savage enemy that "dashes off with grit in its teeth and tears down our soil like a billion furious buzz saws."

Water that "walks downhill" is your ally in increasing the production of your land. And one secret of handling rainfall properly is "farming on the level"—by strip cropping, contour plowing, terracing. Cover crops, grassed waterways, dams and farm ponds also help control the destructive power of rain. Then you hold the rain where it falls. Surface run-off is slowed down to the point where it doesn't erode your topsoil away. And as your water "walks downhill," it soaks into the soil, makes plant food nutrients available to the roots of crops and, penetrating further, fills up nature's great underground reservoirs. Water thus stored in the subsoil is the source of the wells and springs which supply homes and farms and ranches. For years this "water table" has been dropping very seriously in some sections. But where soil conservation has been practiced over large areas, the lowering of the "water table" has been a less serious problem. Soil and water can never be divorced in any good land management program. These two great resources are wedded for all time, and from their union comes the wealth of America's agriculture and the prosperity of the nation.

Still time to win one of the 43 cash prizes totaling $400 for best letters on "Methods Employed by Meat Packers in Marketing Meats, Poultry, Eggs, Butter, and Cheese." Contest closes May 1, 1946. Martha Logan's Recipe for Easter Ham
The mellow flavor of ham rates it one of the most popular of meats. Glaze your ham with honey, marmalade or maple syrup to save sugar. Place the ham, fat side up, on rack in uncovered pan. No water needed, as the fat will baste the ham naturally. Bake in a moderately slow oven until tender. Three to four hours will be enough. Garnish the platter with pickled peaches or apricots, or hot spiced orange slices.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW!

What is the meaning of the expression "farming on the level"?
With what groups of people must a meat packing company like Swift & Company co-operate to operate successfully?
Who must earn a fair profit for the livestock-and-meat industry to operate?
Why is it important to make water "walk downhill"?
Answers to these questions may be found in the various articles which are printed elsewhere on this page.

THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

In addition to being a business corporation, Swift & Company is people—62,000 folks like you and me who have pooled their savings to build a business. These savings are invested in plants and equipment, in livestock and other raw materials, and in all the many things that make up Swift & Company. Without people there could be no business, no Swift & Company. There must be people (shareholders) to supply the capital; others (farmers and ranchers) to supply the raw materials; many thousands (employees) who work with their heads and hands for the company; and the millions of consumers who buy the meat and other products. The success of a business enterprise depends on how these various groups of people get along together. In other words, there must be goodwill and cooperation between the owners of Swift & Company and livestock producers, employees, and the company's customers. To maintain goodwill we know that Swift & Company must: 1) pay fair prices for raw materials, including livestock; 2) pay a good day's pay for a good day's work; 3) provide the money to keep plants and facilities efficient; 4) pay Federal, State and Municipal taxes; 5) earn a profit to give our owners a fair return on their invested savings. The management of Swift & Company recognizes this five-fold responsibility to the various groups of people who make our business. It is to their interest that we manage our business efficiently, that we earn a sufficient profit to let us continue contributing to the well-being of more and more people.

NUTRITION IS OUR BUSINESS — AND YOURS

WORTH THINKING ABOUT

In view of the recent talk about the business, profits, etc., of the meat packers, it's worth remembering the basic economics of all businesses in this country. To be successful, any business must do four things — 1) it must purchase its raw materials at prices comparable to the prices paid by its competitors; 2) through know-how, efficiency, good operating, it must manufacture products of comparable quality at a manufacturing cost no higher than that of its competitors; 3) in doing this, it must pay its workers wage rates comparable to the going wage-scale paid by others; 4) and it must sell its product at prices that a large part of the public is willing and able to pay. In the livestock-and-meat industry, this simply means that prices must be high enough to earn both cost and a decent profit for the livestock producer, the meat packer and the retail merchant—and low enough to keep the great masses of people eating meat.

OBJECTIONABLE ODORS AND FLAVORS IN MILK can be prevented by removing the cause. Feed is the cause of most of the trouble. The most pronounced flavors and odors are produced by garlic, onions, turnips, cabbage, rape, kale, and certain weeds such as bitterweed and stinkweed. Scudges, changes to such feeds as green alfalfa, green sweet clover or silage may produce temporary flavors in the milk. Odors may also be absorbed from the barn by carelessly handled milk.

SUPPLEMENTARY PASTURES AND FULL FEEDING

by Dean E. A. Trowbridge, University of Missouri
Experience and research prove that pastures grown on fertile soil, producing grass of sufficient quality and quantity, will provide all essential food requirements of cattle. In grazing, gains up to 60% of the grazing season's total gains are usually made before July first. During the hot, dry days of July and August, gains are frequently low or lacking, and indeed an actual loss of weight often occurs; but with fall, gains again resume. These facts show the importance of providing supplementary pasture for the summer. In Missouri, Lespedeza is an efficient summer crop, and when used as supplementary pasture it allows other native pasture grasses to build up and provide good growths for fall and winter. When cattle are pasture-fed until two to two and one-half years old, on good pasture, plus good winter roughage, they should gain on an average of a pound a day. With a sixty-day period of full feeding (requiring twenty bushels of corn), most well-bred cattle will finish out and grade "Good" at a weight of 1050 to 1200 pounds. Yearling cattle, after a full season of grazing good pastures, need from 100 to 130 days on full feed (twenty to twenty-five bushels of corn and a hundred pounds of supplement), and should then grade "Good" at a weight of 850 to 950 pounds.

Thursday P. M. Closing Recommended By Sullivan C. of C.

On Thursday of last week President Haegen, convened at the first meeting of the newly elected Board of Directors of the Sullivan Chamber of Commerce.

First on the order of its business was the matter of a full-time, paid Executive Secretary. In pursuance of the unanimous vote accorded the proposition of a full-time Executive Secretary at the time that it was reported and recommended at the First Quarter Meeting by the Project which had been assigned to inquire into the possibilities, the Board of Directors voted to employ Mr. Everett Hayes to act in this capacity.

It was also determined that, with the approval of the City Council, the City Council Room should be adapted for use as the Executive Office of the Sullivan Chamber of Commerce. The matter of stenographic help was left up to the Executive Secretary to be employed as the need and availability might prove out.

The Board approved the recommendation of a Project assigned to investigate and make recommendations as to reviving the Civic Activities Fund, and by resolution directed the Project to formulate a program which would cover such Band Concerts, Fourth of July celebrations, Community Christmas Trees, and such other Civic activities as the Board of resolution may deem proper and advisable in which to participate. This fund is designed to supplant all special fund drives for Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and the other named Civic activities, so far as those who participate in it are concerned. It was pointed out that those organizations who properly come within the scope of the Civic Activities Fund must register budgetary requirements with its Co-ordinator Mr. Albert Walker.

The matter of the desirability of the city's going on day light savings time or remaining on Standard Time was brought up and discussed. The proposition of using Day Light Savings Time failed to carry a majority of affirmative votes. The objections being that in a rural trade condition, as exists in Sullivan, it would prove very difficult to adjust retail and produce activities to a Day Light Savings Time schedule. It was recommended however, that the factories might do well to start work one hour earlier and stop one hour earlier, Standard Time.

A resolution was passed that a recommendation be made to the City Council that a Proclamation be authorized for closing all business and professional concerns every Thursday afternoon from May 1st through October 1st.

The Board also passed a resolution authorizing F. W. Wood Goodman Band of Decatur for a to contract in its name with the series of four concerts during the coming summer, at such dates and locations as Mr. Wood in his discretion may deem desirable.

It was further resolved that the Chamber of Commerce cooperate with the American Legion in the matter of the Fourth of July activities.

By its further resolution the Board put the support of the Sullivan Chamber of Commerce behind the proposition of the creation of a Moultrie County Airport Commission, concerning which a petition is now being circulated throughout the county.

President Haegen announced that appointment of members of the Board of Directors to the various standing committees of the Chamber of Commerce would be coming at a later date by written appointments.

Here we are again with more notes for you.

First of all we want to congratulate the track team for winning another quadrangular meet. They came out tops with the highest score we have ever had. And I might add we are really proud of them too!!

The outcome of the band contest Saturday was that Sullivan rated a second. They do not get to go on to the next contest but we feel they did very well and we are very proud of their second rating.

The Senior play cast has really been laboring this week in order to get the play ready for tonight (Friday). Here's wishing you lots of luck and we are sure the play will be a success. Oh yes, we must add that they are going to be treated to a chicken supper Monday night by the Walker Oil Company!! Lucky things, aren't they??

The Band and Chorus is working very hard on their Spring Concert and from all I've heard so far, it's really going to be a good one. If anyone is interested in buying a ticket, please see one of the Band or Chorus members. The concert is to be held on April 24th at 8:00 o'clock, so you had better keep that date reserved, will you?

Are the Seniors ever lucky, only two more weeks of school and only four days a week as we have an Easter vacation at
