 Never Refuse Them.
 A Salvation Army lass was here Saturday collecting money for the cause and met with a pleasant reception everywhere she went.
 This is as it should be.
 The Army should always be encouraged. They do much good. They use more soft soap and hot water in their religion than prayer. They will go into a house and get down on their hands and knees and scrub out three or four rooms, and then burn some kind of a purifier, and next begin to bathe the children and give them a change of clothes. Next they reach their stomachs with substantial food, and by this time the family visited will listen to the reading of the Bible and some simple talk on Christianity.

THE LONDON-COBURN CONCERN

OUR OWN BUILDING,

Located near the Illinois Central depot, is to be known in the future as the Landon-Coburn building. In this building we have a carriage paint shop second to none, and the work turned out is in keeping with the shop. We employ none but finished workmen, and all work is under our own personal supervision. It makes no difference how old your vehicle may be, if it isn't broken up too badly, or WORN OUT, we can make it as good as new. We look after trimming and repairing too.
 Our furniture upholstery will continue in the Terrace Block, North Main. We want you to consider this a personal invitation to call at either place and get acquainted.
