DENEEN AT REUNION ence to days long since gone Old Soldiers and Settlers Have an Enjoyable Time

DECORATION Since Saturday the decorations size and price for the soldiers tennion was pushed an equal number of Indians, and that until several of the business houses he possessed traits of both. He related were beautifully and artistically decorrated. The colors of our nation, red by tradition, from fireside sto white and blue predominated. A number of the rigs in the procession that met Governer Deneen at the also stated that his grandlather w train were beautifully decorated. J. R. McClure's rig driven by his daughter Miss Ida, seemed to get the three months each time before con most compliments.

Many of the citizens commorated the occasion by draperies and flags at their homes. A Mr. Cuttingham of St. Louis brought the material with him and had charge of decorateing around the square and at the speakers stand.

BIBBLER'S BAND

The famous Giblers band of Mattoon came over on the early morning train and furnished music for the occasion. Albert Brown of this place played with them.

About nine A. M. the band discoursed some sweet music on the square which sufficed to warn the people that Sullivan was still alive and yet in the state of activity. Soon numbers were collected on the square In a short time the marshals of the day, Capt. A. T. Jenkins, Ray Jenkins and Charley Lindsay had the pro cession lined up to meet the governor at the 10:59 train. The governor and his party were in a carriage driven by E. B. Eden in line just back of the veter ins were preceded by the Sons of Veterans, all led by Gibbler's band. There were twenty four carriages in the procession. After coming from the depot the procession marched around the square and then to the School House Park. Judge W. G. Cochran presided during the exercises. After America was sung by the chorus, Rev. Wy-

Mrs. Ruth Patterson gave a very interesting talk on church conditions that had come under her observation during her trip to the Pacific coast last tall.

The church services Sunday night was sincere, good and entertaining. Mrs. S. W. Wright led the prayer services and Miss Belle Hoke led the scripture lesson and made some excellent comments on the passages.

Mrs. Ellis opened the meeting by very fitting and true remarks on woman's positions and duties of today compared with that of times past. Mrs. J. R. Pougue read a good selection on "women;" She read well and understandingly.

Misses Alta Chipps, Bess Grigsby, Daisy Mack, Powell, and Mamie Patterson took up the contribution. Miss Freda Stricklan, Mrs. O. E.

The dozen or more ladies in the choir sang well.

Mrs. Alexander rendered a beautiful solo. A quartet was also sang by the ladies.

The woman's meeting was a decided success. A strange part of the meeting was that the men took the front seats and the women and girls occupied the back seats but in all probability it was due to the ladies showing them extra courtesy, as they were the

County Fairs

Agricultural fairs have done much to advance the farming intersts of the coutnry. It is at the county fairs church increased quite a good deal in that the progress of agriculture is emphasized. In every county are husbandmen who are abreast of the times in the knoweledge of animal husbandry and their exibits do great missionary work in encouraging neighbors to improve their live stock It is at the county fairs that the more recent achievements in agriculture are illustrated. The different breeds of live stock are displayed and farmersare given the opportunity to study the characteristics and intrinsic merits of different breeds of throughbreds animals and poultry.

Besides the educational advantages of the county fair the social features are of imense importance. It is one of the appreciable pleasures of rural life to renew acquaintances with coworkers in husbandry. To attend the fair is both an educational and a social event that is anticipated by the leading farmers in the county. It is a day of recreation as well as an occasion of acquiring valuable knowledge connected with improved husbandry.

Modern agriculture is now largely Last but not least was the excellent dependent on machinery for its greatest acheivements. Manufacturers avail themselves of the oppor tunity to display the latest inventions in farm machinery. The wind engines, gasoline engine, corn cutters corn shredders, mowing machide, harvesters, silage cutters and other agricultrial implements are displayed and for the first time many farmers see the latest machinery in operation and have a chance to study its efficiency and economy.

Fakers aud bunko men should n a ver be aloud to operate at fair grounds Balloon ascensions, shows and other amusements are permissible. Victims are to be found ready to be fleeced by the shell game and other gambling games." Investers in these games are up against a sure loss proposition, as the operator by conaled devices are able to control the the results at will. Large sums are frequently lost by farmers who are inveigled into bunko games operated by confidence men at county fairs. Games of .science are admissible. Ringing canes. throwing balls or testing striking machines afford amusement, but games of chance where the investor is at the mercy of the bunko man should not be allowed to opperate at agricultural fairs.

TELEGRAPH KEYS SILENT FROM COAST TO COAST

STRIKE OF WESTERN UNION AND POSTAL OPERATORS SPREAD ING THROUGHOUT EN-TIRE COUNTRY AND COUNTRY TO CANADA. 2.146

Chicago.-The governments of the United States and Canada were urged to take over the conof the telegraph lines of trol the Western Union and Postal companies by President Small of the commercial telegraphers in a bulletin issued Monday.

Mr. Small also started a campaign for a congressional investigation into the conduct of the companies.

Coincidentally with the sending out of this bulletin the action of Saturday in determining to' call out the cable operators was countermanded by secret instructions which were sent out to these operators, telling them not to join the strike. President Small wishes to avoid possible international complications.

Leased-Wire Men Out. The leased-wire telegraph operators were called out on strike at 1 p. Monday in the following brokers' m. offices, following refusal of the firms to sign the proposed union agreement: Sidney C. Love & Co., J. H. Wrenn & Co., A. O. Slaughter & Co., C. H. Canby & Co., Shearson, Hammill & Co., and Charles Minzesheimer & Co.

Federation Peace Committee. Washington.-President Samuel Compers of the American Fad-eration of Labor reported to the executive council of the Faderation that he, John Mitchell, of Tndianapolis, and Daniel J. Keefe, of Detroit, had been entrusted by united labor with an attempt to bring about "an honorable adjustment of the telegraphers' strike at an opportune time.

Mr. Gompers was asked when the thought that time would arrive and replied that he could not say; that it might be "in an hour, a week, or a month, or perhaps not at all." der for a general strike of commercial telegraphers, issued early Friday morning, did not seem to meet with the response the union officials had expected. In Chicago the additions to the strikers' forces were few, and in New York the order had little apparent effect on the situation.

Friday afternoon the operators employed by the Chicago brokerage, firm of Hulburd, Warren & Chandler, struck, and word was received that the wire men of three of the biggest brokerage houses in St. Louis had walked out.

Why Brokers' Men Are Slow. The delay of the Chicago operators in brokers' offices was explained by the men themselves, several of whom were interviewed while at their work. by saying that the brokers who had not already signed the union agree ment were expected to before night. Word came from New York that all of the principal brokers there had "signed up." In Chicago the firm of Finley, Barrel & Co. was added to the list of these that have signed the new agreement demanded by the operators. The operators of that firm are said to have threatened to strike when they first reported for work Friday, but the trouble was averted.

Cable Operators Strike. Word was received Sunday by the telegraphers' officials that 12 cable operators at Havana had struck these being the first of 100 operators stationed at San Francisco, Bansfield B. C.; Galveston, Key West, New York city, Halifax, Canso, Nova Scotia; Hearts Content, Nova Scotla; Tampa and St. Johns, Newfoundland, who are expected to quit their places.

At the offices of the Standard Oil company it was said the leased wire Midnight, Reached at Midnight, Although the strike order was de clacd, upon at midnight it was not made sublic until two hours later, fol-lowing a conference at the Briggs house in which President Small, Sec Chicago .- President S. J. Small's on Fritane Russell, President Samuel Gomp ers of the American Federation of Labor, and several other leaders were present.

At the Briggs house conference it also was decided definitely that there should be no strike of the 47,000 rail-road telegraphers of the United States. These operators will be called upon shortly to contribute a strike fund of $60,000, Two of their general offi cers attended the conference.

The action is estimated to mean an additional strike of around 5,000 men in the country, including all the re maining operators employed by the big packing houses. It will take out 75 men in the Chicago stockyards en in the Chicago stockyards alone, in addition to the 40 who quit at Armour's.

Gompers in Commanding Position. Mr. Gompers is in position, when the time arrives, to exercise a power ful influence over the situation aside from the years of experience that he has had in labor difficulties. He will attend in Washington next week the quarterly meeting of the national exccutive board of the federation of labor. That board will vote upon the advisability of a strike assessment upon the 2,000,000 members of the federation of labor. In other words, the federation of labor is expected to fur nish the sinews of war.

Mr. Small's attitude on arbitration was briefly expressed thus: We will consider arbitration when

ATTORNEY GENERAL ASSERT HE INTENDS TO ENFORCE LAW.

CAREFUL AT THE START

Department of Justice Bound to Pur ish Wealthy Men and Big Corporations That Are

Offenders

Baltimore, Md. - Attorney Gen eral Bonaparte, in an interview given the Washington correspondent of the News, answers the criticisms of Wall street by a flat statement that he intends to continue the prosecution of wealthy men and corporations that break the laws.

The interview is really a statement carefully prepared by Mr. Bonaparte himself. In part he says:

"I cannot understand how any sensible person could be affected in dealing with matters of business by any remarks which have been tributed to me. I should say that business men ought to wish to have the laws strictly and impartially enforced. If this is done, everybody knows what he can do and what he can't, and everybody has a fair field and no favorites. The department of justice proposes to do precisely this and nothing more. It is required by law to enforce certain penal statutes which make certain forms of action crimes against the United States, and also provide civil remedies for such illegal action

Careful Inquiry First.

"The department, since I have been at its head, has never taken proceed ings to enforce the laws without very careful preliminary investigation to determine whether there was good reason to believe that the laws had been, in fact, violated. Moreover, in has consistently and frequently over looked merely formal violations of law, or offenses attended with trivial consequences, and has invariably re fused to intervene in such cases when there was any reason to suspect that its intervention was desired to further private ends.

Is After Big Law-Breakers.

"If the ground of complaint against the department is that it proposes to prominent and wealthy men or punish corporations having vast amounts of capital and engaged in very extensive business, when these are shown have been wilful and persistent lawbreakers on a great scale and with grave injury to the purposes of the law; I must admit that these complaints are well founded. That is pre cisely what the department of justic is trying to do, and, while I remain its very unworthy head, will continue to do, so far as it can.'

REPLY BY BONAPARTE HOUSE WRECKED; FIVE DIE TO CHICAGO TENEMENT COL LAPSES DURING STORM

> Victims Are Crushed to Death While Asleep-Structure Was About to

Be Moved.

Chicago. — Five persons instant-ly killed, nearly a score of others seriously injured, three fatally; buildings wrecked, roofs hurled through the air, vast sections of the city in undated by torrents of water, was a portion of the toll exacted by a storm that swept through the city early Friday.

The storm broke shortly after one o'clock. The heavy wind increased in velocity until at 1:30 o'clock it assumed an extreme velocity 45 miles an hour, carrying death and disaster in its wake.

The collapse of a tenement building at 55 Fry street, crushing out the lives of the five sleeping victims and dealing injury to 16 others, was the worst incident of the havoc wrought by the winds."

Twenty-five persons were sleeping when the dilapidated in the house structure rocked by heavy wind, its foundations weakened by the razing of adjacent houses for a new city park, crashed to the ground.

The dead are:

Mrs. Annie Nosal, one of the victims, was the owner of the ruined house, which had been raised on jacks preparatory to moving it away in order to establish a small park. Every member of the household had retired when the crash came without warning at 1:30 a.m.

TWO DIE IN MAINE FIRE.

Blaze Sweeps Old Orchard Resort Wiping Out Seventeen Hotels.

Old Orchard, Me. - Two lives were lost and five persons were injured, three seriously, as a result of a fire which swept through this seashore resort Thursday night, causing a loss estimated at $800,000.

Seventeen summer hotels, 60 cot tages and a score of buildings occu pied by stores were destroyed. The explosion which caused so many in juries occurred in Horgan's drug store on Old Orchard avenue. It is believed that the fire started from an over turned lamp in the annex of the Hotel Olympia. The total insurance on the burned property, it is understood, will not exceed $150,000.

As a result of the fire, the season at Old Orchard is brought to an abrupt close, as only one large hotel, the Old Orchard, remains. All trains, includ-ing several extras, were packed Friday with persons leaving the shore The burned area extends east along the railroad, between the tracks and the ocean, for nearly half a mile. The people who were driven from the ho tels were compelled to spend the night on the beach. A stiff breeze blew in from the sea and brushwood fires were kept going all night, around which the refugees sat in shivering groups wait

J. W. VAN CLEAVE SEEKS TO EN-JOIN ORGANIZED LABOR.

CONSIDERED TEST CASE

lompers, Mitchell and Many Other Union Leaders Defendants in Action Begun at Washington.

Washington.-- A significant legal action was begun in the supreme court of the District of Columbia fonday by James W. Van Cleave president of the National Associatio of Manufacturers, to enjoin Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and other of ficers of the American Federation of Labor, and several of its subsidiary organizations, from using the boycot and so-called "unfair list."

Mr. Van Cleave institutes the suit in the name of a large manufacturing company of St. Louis of which he is president, whose products are allege to have been declared unfair by labor unions, but the significance of the action lies in its being a test case where in Mr. Van Cleave, as head of the Manufacturers' association, seeks to permanently enjoin organized labor from using the "unfair" or the "we don't patronize" lists in its fight against firms and individuals. papers were filed here in order that personal service might be immediately obtained against a large number of the labor leaders named in the com plaint who are in Washington in at tendance upon a general conference. The plaintiff asks that the defendants be enjoined on nine special points, first alleging a conspiracy unlawfully to injure business. The complainant then goes on the state that the American Federation of Labor has repeatedly declared boy cotts against the business and prod act of the customers of numerous in fividuals and concerns and has activey prosecuted them by using its com bined power for that purpose to wage lestructive attacks upon any person or business "under its ban," and that this power is now being directed maliciously against the business of the plaintiff.

The sweeping nature of this action is indicated by a partial list of na tional and international unions and state federations that will be directly affected if the injunction is granted which includes 173 names of organi zations.

Sheer white goods, fa fact, any fine wash goods when new, owe much of their attractiveness to the way they are laundered, this being done in a manner to enhance their textile beauty. Home laundering would be equally satisfactory if proper attention was given to starching, the first essential being good Starch, which has sufficient strength to stiffen, without thickening the goods. Try Defiance Starch and you will be pleasantly surprised at the improved appearance of your work.

The Crack in His Armor.

"It's a good thing for a man to be a little bald," said the girl as they walked along in the rear of one beneath whose hat showed a small bare half moon. "It takes the conceit out of them. Now there's John. He has bald spot that he has spent about a hundred dollars on to no effect. When he gets too smart all I have to do is to glance carelessly toward that vulnerable spot and he subsides immediately.

A Country Marvel.

The little fresh air boy was comfortably quartered in a farm house near the salt water for his summer's outing. The first day he strolled down the road to the marshes and he stared in astonishment at the cat-tails growing there. Then turning around to a native of the place who was accom-panying him he said: "Gosh; I didn't know that sausages grow on sticks.

Starch, like everything else, is being constantly improved, the patent Starches put on the market 25 years ago are very different and inferior to ose of the present day. In the latest discovery-Deflance Starch-all injurious chemicals are omitted, while the addition of another ingredient, invented by us, gives to the Starch a strength and smoothness never approached by other brands.

Punishment by Inches.

A Bergen (Genesee county) justice of the peace has adopted an original scheme for the dispensation of justice. Henry Meyer, 27 years old and seven feet two inches tall, was a prisoner in his court for stealing four bags of oats. He was sentenced to 90 days in jail, one day for each inch of stat and one for each bag.-Nunda (N. Y.) News.

men were all working as usual. The manager in charge of the telegraph department declined to say whether there was a union contract.

There was not much surprise among the strikers that the order had little effect at the stockyards, for the union leaders admit that the men in the plants, except those that struck at the plant of Armour & Co., are not well organized:

A conference between Small and President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor resulted in a renewal of the arbitration talk that grew unpopular with the Chicago strikers earlier this week. President Small said he would accept the offices of the general board of arbitration of the federation.

Executive Board Acts.

Chicago.-With nearly 10,000 operators on strike in 96 cities Wednes day afternoon, the general executive board of the Commercial Telegraphers union sent out a decidedly warlike message to the presidents of the boards of trade and all other exchange and commerce bodies in the United States and Canada, warning them to get their business into shape to combat within 24 hours a strike which by that time shall have "spread to every branch of the commercial telegraph service."

President Keeps Hands Off. Oyster Bay, N. Y.-President Roose velt wift not concern himself personally with the telegraphers' strike according to the best information obtainable here.

Appeals to the president to take some action looking to a settlement of the strike were received at the execu-tive office here Wednesday from boards of trade and commercial bodies of a large number of cities. The applications were similar in character to those formulated Tuesday by the Chicago board of trade. Each emphasized the importance of the direct action by the president.

VILLAGE IN ITSELE FULLY UP WITH THE TIMES.

COMPLETENESS OF RICH MAN'S COUNTRY HOME.

All the Necessities and Most of the Luxuries of Life Are Afforded Him Within His Own Domain.

In buying land for a city house the millionaire deals with square feet; but for a country mansion he purchases a tract of so many square miles. This extensive scale is carried through in all the arrangements. When the estate is ready for occu-pancy the owner finds himself lord of a beautiful acreage, contributing to his ever luxurious want-all from its own resources.

To plan a country house is almost like planning to build a village. The large estate is a very complete affair, indeed. Its center is the house, which must be large enough to not only properly accommodate the own er and his family, but it must contain suites of rooms for the numerous guests with which it will be filled for the week-ends and for longer periods. The stable and the carriage-house are The state and the carriage-nouse are, in their way, quite as necessary as the dwelling. Many a great stable vies with the residence in size and elegance of equipment. If the estate is a large one, covering many acres, there is a farmhouse for the farmer a farmbarn and outbuildings in which each particular industry of the farm will have its own headquarters. If the owner is addicted to polo, there is a third and complete stable for the ponies. There is a chicken-house for the chickens and other fowls, and, if this feature is sufficiently developed, a special residence for the person having this matter in charge Dogs, if kept in ample variety, will have well appointed kennels and a caretaker's house in close proximity. There is a dairy, with perhaps a springhouse and cooling room for the milk, and tiled-lined rooms in which the butter will be made. The market garden has its array of hot-beds, and the conservatories in which rare plants are raised for the decoration of the house are as extensive as those in which plants are propagated for the outdoor gardens. Nor should the automobile house be overlooked, since this popular vehicle competes with the horse in meeting the needs of the house transportation; and, as likely as not a repair shop forms a neces sary adjunct to it.

Buildings that minister to the phys-Ical necessities of the estate are also numerous. Every sequestrated estate—and almost all country estates are sequestrated, since that is an item of value in living in the country -requires its own water supply. It is needless to say that it is often a most expensive feature, calling not only for steam pumps and elaborate piping, but for special reservoirs which in their developed form will be lined with enameled brick.-Broad way Magazine.

To Balance.

For more than a week the teacher had been giving lessons on the dog, and so when the inspector came down and chose that very subject there seemed every prospect of the class distinguishing itself on brilliant essays about our canine friend. Things were progressing quite satisfactorily, and the master was congratulating himself on the trouble he had taken, when, alas! a question was asked which made him tremble for the reputation of his scholars.

"Why does a dog hang his tongue out of his mouth?" asked the inspector. "Yes, my boy?" he said, to a bright looking lad who held up his hand,

Oklahoma City Surprised Narrow-Minded New Yorker.

Oklahoma amazes an easterner. The wide, asphalted streets, the plate glass fronts of department stores, the clean sidewalks, the well-dressed, unhurried shoppers, the finish, the metropolitan air you find in Oklahoma City, for ex-ample, seem marvels to find in a territory only 17 years old. But do not

A New Yorker who went there on business complained that fate was thrusting him into a wilderness, and his Oklahoma associates could not reassure him. But coming down to breakfast the first morning, at his hotel in Oklahoma City, he stared around in wonder as he entered the dining-room. "This," he exclaimed, "this is Oklahoma!! Why, do you know?" confi-dentially, "I even found a porcelain bathtub in my room."

"Well," said an Oklahoman, drily, "don't you have those in New York?"

BABY TORTURED BY ITCHING.

Rash Covered Face and Feet—Would Cry Until Tired Out—Speedy Cure by Cutioura.

"My baby was about nine months old when she had rash on her face and feet. Her feet seemed to irritate her most, especially nights. They would cause her to be broken in her rest, and sometimes she would cry until she was tired out. I had heard of so many cures by the Cuticura Remedies that I thought I would give them a trial. The improvement was noticeable in a few hours, and before I had used on box of the Cuticura Ointment her feet were well and have never troubled her since. I also used it to remove what is known as 'cradle cap' from her head, and it worked like a charm, as it cleansed and healed the scalp at the same time. Architects and Closets.

An architect, says a writer, complains that women have a mania for closets and that when a woman is allowed any liberty in the matter she changes his whole architectural plan in order to make room for them. This, he says, makes him a laughing stock among his fellow architects. This is very interesting, but why do architects make plans if not to make every effort themselves to secure conveniences? A house may be architecturally perfect and yet not fit to live in, and it certainly is not if there is not closet room enough.

The Three Milkmen. man in a small western town bought a quart of milk and on arriv-ing home found it was adulterated with water. The next day he posted bills in different sections of the town reading:

Peculiarity of Hair. A woman leading two children stepped into a barber shop with her charges.

"I want their hair trimmed," she said, "but not all the way round. I only want it trimmed off even. It is just the right length on the right side, but too long on the left side. I had their hair trimmed only a little while ago, and here it is noticeably longer on the left side. I don't believe it was trimmed evenly in the first place.'

"Oh, yes, it was," the barber assured her. "It grows faster on the left side, that is all. Most people's hair does grow faster on that side, but it is on children's heads that we are most likely to notice it."

To Pour in Coffee When it Acts as Vicious Enemy.

Fasters have gone without food for many days at a time but no one can go without sleep. "For a long time I have not been sleeping well, often lying awake for two or three hours during the night but now I sleep sound every night and wake up refreshed and vigorous," says a Calif. woman.

"Do you know why? It's because I used to drink coffee but I finally cut it out and began using Postum. Twice since then I have drank coffee and both times I passed a sleepless night, and so I am doubly convinced coffee caused the trouble and Postum removed it. "My brother was in the habit of drinking coffee three times a day. He was troubled with sour stomach and I would often notice him getting soda from the can to relieve the distress in his stomach; lately hardly a day passed without a dose of soda for relief.

"Finally he tried a cup of Postum and liked it so well he gave up coffee and since then has been drinking Postum in its place and says he has not once been troubled with sour stom ach."

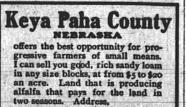

Even after this lady's experience with coffee her brother did not suspect for a time that coffee was causing his sour stomach, but easily proved it. Coffee is not suspected in thousands of cases just like this but it's easily browed. A ten day's trial works won-ders. "There's a Reason." 5% 3

The Company owns eight reservoirs and two very large reservoir sites (the larger to completed at once), thus storing water for use late in the season. be

It has early and late water, for which there is almost unlimited demand, besides r is stored wealth.

The district lies immediately north of the city of Denver, the capital of the State of Colorado, a city of 200,000 people. The bonds are secured, first, by mortgage on all of the property, canals, reservoirs, etc., of the Denver Reservoir Irrigation Company.

Also by collateral security in the form of mortgage liens deposited with The American Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago, Trustee, on farm lands to secure deferred payments for a perpetual supply of reservoir water aggregating one and one-quarter times the amount of the bonds.

The lands thus mortgaged are estimated worth three times the ar ds, and rapidly increasing in value.

Hon. Elwood Mead, Chief frigation Expert of the Department of Agriculture, Wash-ton, has examined these properties at our request. We quote from him as follows: ngton, has examined these properties at our request.

"In conclusion, it is my conviction that this Company has an assured water supply; that it has an assured market for water, and that the price which can be obtained for water makes its securities an absolutely safe in-vestment and the enterprise one having every promise of a handsome return for its owners." THE PRINTING PRESS.

The census department has an interesting report on the growth of the printing press. In 1810, nearly a century ago, there were 359 newspapers in the United States. In 1905 there were 26,422 printing and publishing houses in the country. These represented $385,008,604 of invested capital and turned out products valued aa $496,061,357. The growth for the five years since 1900 doubled the growth of the ten years previous.

The value of the output of printing and publishing plants entitles the printing business to rank with the ten leading industries of the country. There is one establishment for each 3,076 persons. The ten in. dustries whose products in 1905 exceeded $320,000,000 in value were slaughtering and meat packing, iron and steel foundries and machine shops, flour and grist mills, clothing, lumber, and timber, printing and publishing, cotton manufactures, woolen manufactures, and boots and shoes.

The investment in homes is so years ago, that if the Creator of large, and the acreage value of crops grown under such conditions so great, the universe had turned Adam and Eve loose in North America and told that these must not be jeoparded by the vicissitudes of seasons. to find the Garden of Eden, they would have stopped content when they reached the 'site of the present One reason why this requisite has not been supplied, and why so much of the land immediately adjacent to Denver has never been improved, is that land values would not justify the expenditure required to provide the water supply. Those lands which could be irrigated at small cost have been under irrigation, but the long limit of cheap irrigation does cover half the lands that surround the city.

PROJECT

The great increase in land values which has taken place all over the United States in the last five years has now made practicable an outlay for water which ten years ago could not have been considered. This en-hancement in land values is shown in Colorado by the increase from $25 to $2,000 an acre at Grand Junction, and from $100 an acre to $1,000 and $1,500 an acre at Cayon City.

No section or city equals Denver in the extent of its local market or in its transportation facilities for reaching distant markets, and the time has now come when the values of the lands around Denver and the possibilities for their extensive cultivation will warrant an expenditure for water in almost any amount.

It is, therefore, with great satisfaction that Denver contemplates certain irrigation projects now launched by some of its own leading citizens for the establishment of a reservoir system which shall assure a sufficient supply of water, during the entire growing season, to a large area of semi-arid lands lying within 25 miles of the state capitol building, and extending from just without the city limits of Denver to points north and northeast of the city where the lands of the Longmont, Greeley and Brighton districts are touched.

The development of an enterprise of this magnitude requires large capital, and the best business judgment. That not only the initial steps have been taken, but that the enterprise has been fairly launched and is a going concern, and that these men have

ARE PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS NOSTRUMS?

To one not qualified, and few lay-men are, to discriminate intelligently between physicians' prescriptions, pro-prietary medicines and nostrums, it may seem little short of a crime to hint even that physicians' prescrip-tions are in any manner related to nostrums; nevertheless, an impartial examination of all the facts in the case leads irresistibly to the conclu-sion that every medicinal preparation compounded and dispensed by a physi-cian is, in the strict sense of the word, a nostrum, and that the average ready-prepared proprietary remedy is superior to the average specially-prepared physicians' prescription.

What is a nostrum? According to the Standard Dictionary a nostrum is "a medicine the composition of which is kept a secret." Now, when a physician compounds and. dispenses with his own hands a remedy for the treatment of a disease—and it is authoritatively stated that probably 60 per cent. of all physicians' prescriptions in this country are so dispensed—the names and quantities of the ingre-dients which constitute the remedy are not made known to the patient Hence, since its composition is kept a secret by the physician, the remedy or prescription is unquestionably, in the true meaning of the word, a Simonpure nostrum. Furthermore, the prescription compounded by the average physician is more than likely to be a perfect jumble-replete with thera peutic, physiologic and chemical incompatibilities and bearing all the earmarks of pharmaceutical incompe-tency; for it is now generally admitted that unless a physician has made a special study of pharmacy and passed some time in a drug store for the purpose of gaining a practical knowledge of modern pharmaceutical methods, he is not fitted to compound remedies for his patients. Moreover, a physician who compounds his own prescrip tions not only deprives the pharmacist of his just emoluments, but he endangers the lives of patients; for it is only by the detection and elimination of errors in prescriptions by clever competent prescriptionists that the safety of the public can be effectually shielded from the criminal blunders of ignorant physicians.

Nor can it be said that the average physician is any more competent to formulate a prescription than he is to compound it. When memorized or directly copied from a book of "favorite prescriptions by famous physicians, or from some 'text-book or medical journal, the prescription may be all that it should be. It is only when the physician is required to originate a formula on the spur of the moment that his incompetency is distinctly evident. Seemingly, however, the physi-cians of the United States are little worse than the average British physi-cian; for we find Dr. James Burnett, lecturer on Practical Materia Medica and Pharmacy, Edinburgh, lamenting in the Medical Magazine the passing of the prescription and bemoaning the fact that seldom does he find a "final man" able to devise a prescription even in "good contracted Latin." And what, it may be asked, is the status of the written prescription-the prescription that is compounded and dispensed by the pharmacist—is it, too, a nostrum? It may be contended that the patient, with the written formula in his possession, may learn the character of the remedy scribed. So, possibly, he might if he understood Latin and were a physician or a pharmacist, but as he usually possesses no professional training and cannot read Latin, the prescription is practically a dead secret to him. Furthermore, the average prescription is so badly written and so greatly abbreviated that even the pharmacist, skilled as he usually is in deciphering medical hieroglyphs, is constantly obliged to interview prescribers to scribed. It may also be contended. that inasmuch as the formula is known to both physician and pharmacist the prescription cannot therefore be a secret. But with equal truth it might be contended that the formula of any socalled nostrum is not a secret since it is known to both proprietor and manufacturer: for it must not be forgotten that, according to reliable authority, 95 per cent. of the proprietors of socalled patent medicines prepared in this country have their remedies made for them by large, reputable manufacturing pharmacists. But even should a patient be able to recognize the names of the ingredients mentioned in a formula he would only know half the story. It is seldom, for instance, that alcohol is specifically mentioned in a prescription, for it is usually masked in the form of tinctures and fluid extracts, as are a great many other substances. It is evident, therefore, that the ordinary formulated prescription is, to the average patient, little less than a secret remedy or nose or for m norance or for mercenary reasons are opposing the sale of all household remedies, why is it not equally neces-sary for patients to know the compo-sition of the remedy prescribed by a physician? Does any same person be-lieve that the oplum in a physician's prescription is less potent or less like-ly to create a drug habit than the opl-um in a proprietary medicing? um in a proprietary medicine? As a matter of fact, more optum-addicts and cocain-flends have been made through the criminal carelessness of ignorant physicians than by any other Unquestionably, there are a number of proprietary remedies on the market the sales of which should be prohibited, and no doubt they will be when the requirements of the Food and Drugs Act are rigidly enforced: many are frauds, pure and simple, and some are decidedly harmful. Of the aver-age proprietary remedy, however, it may truthfully be said that it is distinctly better than the average physicians' prescription; for not only is its composition less secret, but it is prepared for the propriétor by reputable manufacturing pharmacists in magnificently equipped laboratories and under the supervision and advice of able hemists, competent physicians and skillful pharmacists. It should not be considered strange, therefore, that so many physicians prefer to prescribe these ready-prepared proprietary remedies rather than trust those of their own devising.

JUST THE SAME AS CURRENCY.

Third Son Felt He Had Nothing to Reproach Himself with.

William Knoepfel. of St. Louis, has invented and hopes to patent a secret plowing method for the cure of baldness. "A genuine cure for baldness," said Mr. Knoepfel the other day, should make a man very rich. Why, men grow rich on fake cures. It is amazing, it really is, what fakes some of these cures are. Yet there's money in them." Mr. Knoepfel gave a loud, scornful laugh. "In their crookedness they remind me," he said, "of the third son of the old eccentric. Per-haps you have heard the story? Well; an old eccentric died and left his fortune equally to his three sons. But the will contained a strange proviso. Each heir was to place $100 in the coffin immediately before the interment. A few days after the interment the three young men met and discussed the queer proviso and its execution. 'Well,' said the oldest son, 'my conscience is clear. I put my hundred in the coffin in clean, new notes.' 'My conscience is clear, too,' said the sec ond son. I put in my hundred in gold.' I, too, have nothing to reproach myself with,' said the third son. 'I had no cash at the time, though; so I wrote out a check for $300 in poor, dear father's name, placed it in the coffin and took in change the $200 in currency that I found there."

PUSHED THE BEAR ASIDE.

Surveyor Tells of Experience He Does Not Care to Repeat.

To walk right up to a monster bear and try to shove it out of the way and then escape without so much as a scratch is an experience of a lifetime. Harry I Engelbright found it so a few days ago in Diamond canyon, above Washington, says a Nevada City correspondent of the Sacramento Bee. The young man, son of Congressman Engelbright, has just returned from the upper country, where he has been doing some surveying, and relates his thrilling experience. It was coming on dusk, at the close of the day's work In the brush-lined trail he saw protruding what he thought were the hind quarters of some stray bovine. He walked up and gave the brute a shove. It came to its haunches with a snort that made his, hair rise and caused him to beat a hasty retreat. The big brute looked around and then shuffled off into the woods. It was either asleep or else so busy eating ants from an old log that it failed to hear the young surveyor, whose footsteps were deadened by the thick carpet of pine needles. Later it was learned that the same bear, a monster cinnamon, had killed a dog earlier in the day. The dog ventured too close and with one blow of its paw the big beast sent it hurtling yards away, dead as a doornail.

He Was Not to Blame. Little Bartholoméw's mother over-heard him swearing like a mule driver, says the Cleveland Leader. He displayed a fluency that overwhelmer her. She took him to task, explaining the wickedness of profanity as well as its vulgarity. She asked him where as its vulgarity. She asked him where he had, learned all those dreadful words. Bartholomew announced that Cavert, one of his playmates, had taught him. Cavert's mother was straightway informed and Cavert was brought to book. He vigorously de-nied having instructed Bartholomew, and neither threats nor tears could make his confess. At last he burst out: "I didn't tell Bartholomew any cuss words. Why should I know how to cuss any better than he does? Hasn't his father got an automobile,

"One can never be too careful about apparently harmless articles, setting about the house," said a housewife the other day. "Not long ago my husband brought home one of those big tall bot-tles of ink from the office. It had got to be such a nuisance buying one of the small five-cent bottles every time we ran out of ink, that he said he would bring home a supply.

"About a week after that I got a new maid, and when she did the washing she took the big bottle of ink for bluing. Of course every stitch of our white clothes in the washing was ruined."

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right Starch were used. In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trouble can be entirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes.

Late Already.

Five minutes after the tardy gong had struck, the principal of the school was walking through the lower hall when he saw a pudgy little fellow scampering toward the first grade room as fast as his fat legs could carry him. "See here, young man, I want to talk to you," called the principal to the late comer. "I hain't got time to talk to you; I'm late already," replied the breathless beginner as the door of his classroom closed.-The Circle.

Fresh Fuel.

The scrap between the married couple had died down to a few listless mutterings, and the canary bird in the cage was beginning to think about singing again, when she remarked, as a sort of afterthought:

"At any rate, everybody in my famfly thinks I am very intelligent." "Yes, by the side of them you are."

he replied with a bitter snort. After this the scrap was renewed jubilantly.

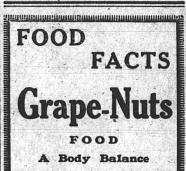

One to Reckon With.

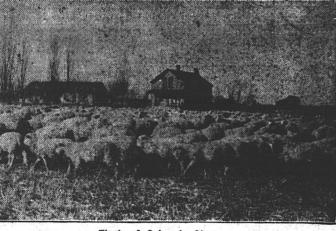

There's a little girl who gave her folks a shock the other day. "Ma, I want a bathing suit," she said.

'You shan't have any," ma replied. "Then I'll go bathing without one. The bathing suit matter is now ing arbitrated.

the great resources of the state to day are found in its agricultural rather than its mineral development and possibilities. The true development of agriculture

They do some things better in Great Britain-rewarding public servants, for example. It is announced that Lord Cromer, who served his country as diplomatic agent in Egypt for many years, is to receive a gift of fifty thousand pounds in recognition of what he has done. The sum is enough to enable him to live in comfort the rest of his days, and to main tain a position in society fitting for an ex-officer of his distinction. If he had devoted his great abilities to the ac cumulation of a fortune in private business, he might have been receiving an annual income fully equal to that of the proposed gift.

This has stimulated not only eastern capital but also the farmers and townsfolk of the middle west so that new enterprises for the irrigation of arid lands are being developed and there is a continual migration of settlers from the eastern and central states to these

One goes immediately out of Denve upon arid plains, and the city to-day. on many sides, has a fringe of tin cans and cactus. But it is neverthe less, unsurpassed by no city on the continent in the attractions it might offer to those who have the desire and the means to enjoy both city and ountry life.

Two things have been lacking: Adequate transportation facilities and an ample and reliable water supply for the irrigation of this land. Excel lent transportation facilities are now being provided. Trolley systems are projected to Boulder and Greeley and to various other towns in the neigh borhood, and the extension of these interurban electric lines will make points 15 to 20 miles from Denver practically as accessible to the business man as any points within the city. It will mean a matter of a few minutes travel only.

What is now needed is 'to improv the country traversed by these trolley lines, making it a continuous suburban district, where men can have from one to five acres of land each and where they will have all of the attractions of the country, the cheap ness and comfort of country life, and every advantage of the city.

of Denver will be felt immediately by every business interest in the city. The project has now reached stage where the actual work of construction is beginning on a reservoir, to be completed in two years, which will probably be the largest irrigation reservoir ever constructed by private capital.

is in the hands of a company able to carry it to a successful conclusion, and

Not less noteworthy than some of the other unique features of this mammoth scheme is the fact that its promoters are doing it all themselves. They are not asking any stock subscriptions or bonus assistance from Denver capital.

They have put up their own money for the purchase of some large systems of canals which have, for many years, been irrigating successfully, for early crops, large tracts of land, with water taken from the streams during the flowing season.

They have bought large bodies of he land which is to be irrigated, besides sites for reservoirs, rights of way for main canals, laterals, etc. The union or merger of all these interests in order to secure a maximum of results at a minimum of cost is an ccomplishment which, after many months of patient and involved nego tiations has brought about the organ ization of the Denver Reservoir Irrigation company.

The effect will be seen in the rapid development of small farms, within an hour's ride of Denver, devoted to the raising of high-priced crops potatoes, tomatoes, sugar beets, fruits, etc.—So that, almost before we real-ize it, Denver will be the center of a community of market gardens of 10 to 40 acres each, whose incomes will be enjoyed by thousands of families formerly slaving away their lives to raise a crop of grain on the uncertain farming lands of the middle and eastern states.

On the other hand, the formulae of early all the proprietary medicines that are exploited exclusively to the medical profession as well as those of a large percentage of the proprie tary remedies that are advertised to the public (the so-called patent medicines) are published in full. Under the Food and Drugs Act. every medicinal preparation entering interstate commerce is now required to have the proportion or quantity of alcohol, oplum, cocain and other habit-forming or harmful ingredients which it may contain plainly printed on the label. As physicians' prescriptions seldom or never enter interstate commerce they are practically exempt under the law. Magnifying Choir Leader's Voice. In the old village of Braybrook in Northamptonshire, England, is a monster trumpet, five six inches in length, and having a bell-shaped end two feet one inch in diameter. The trumpet is made up of ten rings, which in turn are made up of smaller parts. The use of this trumpet-only four of the kind are known to exist at the present day-was to magnify the voice of the leader in the choir and summon the people to the church service. At the present time neither the choir nor the service is in need of this extraordinary "musical instrument," but the vicar of the church takes care of the ancient relic and is fond of showing it to all visitors.

Painfully Exact.

A New England man tells of a prosperous Connecticut farmer, painfully exact in money matters, who married a widow of Greenwich possessing in her own right the sum of $10,000. Shortly after the wedding a friend met the farmer, to whom he offered con-gratulations, at the same time observ-ing: "It's 'a good thing for you, Malachi, a marriage that means $10, 000 to you." "Not quite that, Bill," said the farmer, "not quite that." "Why," exclaimed the friend, "I under stood there was every cent of $10,000 in it for you!" "I had to pay $2 for a marriage license," said Malachi.

People hesitate at, the statement that the famous food, Grape-Nuts, yields as much nourishment from one pound as can be absorbed by the system from ten pounds of meat, bread, wheat or oats. Ten pounds of meat might contain more nourishment than one pound of Grape-Nuts, but not in shape that the system will absorb as large a proportion of, as the body can take up from one pound of Grape-Nuts.

This food contains the selected parts of wheat and barley which are prepared and by natural means predigested, transformed into a form of sugar, ready for immediate assimilation. People in all parts of the world testify to the value of Grape-Nuts. A Mo. man says: "I have gained ten pounds on Grape-Nuts food. I can truly recommend it to thin people." He had been eating meat, bread, etc., right along, but there was no ten pounds of added flesh until Grape-Nuts food was used.

One curious feature regarding true, health food is that its use will reduce, the weight of a corpulent person with unhealthy flesh, and will add to the weight of a thin person.not properly nourished. There is abundance of evidence to prove this.

Grape-Nuts balances the body in a condition of true health. Scientific se-lection of food elements makes Grape-Nuts good and valuable. Its delicious, flavor and powerful nourishing prop-erties have made friends that in turn have made Grape-Nuts famous. "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Springfield. — Interpreting section 109 of the new negotiable instrument act, Attorney General Stead rendered. an opinion that if a waiver is printed in the body of a note in connection with the power of attorney it becomes a part of the contract, and is binding upon all the indorsers and guarantors as effectually as if written over each signature. The opinion was rendered in response to an inquiry as to whether if a waiver of presentment, notice and protest is printed in the body of a note in the portion which contains the power of attorney to confess judgment and other similar matters, will such waiver be held to be binding upon all indorsers and guarantors of the note as fully and Mectually as if written over each sig-nature. Attorney General Stead says the language of the act is clear and positive that where a waiver is em-bodied in the instrument itself it is binding upon all parties and from decisions rendered on similar laws in other states it is clear that the particular position in which the waiver appears in the body of the note is immaterial, if it is in fact a part of the note before the note is executed or indorsed.

Illinois Bankers Confer. Group six of the Illinois Bankers' association held its first convention in Hoopeston. The idea of dividing the state into groups was the outgrowth of the desire of the Chicago bankers to become better acquainted with their customers in the smaller cities. Several representatives of leading Chicago banks were present at the meeting. President George M. Reynolds of the Continental National bank was the chief speaker. Speaker E. D. Shurtleff of Marengo and Congressman W. B. McKinley of Champaign also spoke. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, B. F. Harris, Champaign; vice president, R. G. Sutherland, Paris; secretary-treas-urer, J. R. Beggs, Arcola; executive council, V. W. Johnson, Champaign county; George Richmond, Coles county; H. G. Dulaney, Clark county; S. Welshner, Cumberland county; A. H. Cline, Crawford County; S. Y. Whitlock, Douglas county; R. H. Kyle, Edgar county; O. S. Scott, Jasper county; William Dighton, Platt county, and E. H. Whitman, Vermillion county. The visitors were treated to a picnic dinner at McFerren park.

Auto Accident Delays Deneen.

Gov. Deneen's automobile met with a series of mishaps as the chief executive was on his way to attend the Old Settlers' picnic at Dinfield, and as a result the crowd was kept waiting for more than an hour to hear the governor speak. After the governor had passed through Peoria from Springfield and was well on his way to Dinfield, one of the tires of his auto became punctured. It was hastily repaired by the chauffeur, but broke again half a mile farther on. In the automobile with the governor

Ask About Alcohol Power. Farmers of Illinois are taking great interest in the manufacture of dena tured alcohol, made possible to them by the action of the last congress, which remoyed the disabilities of small producers. Thousands of inquiries are being made by farmers in every section of the state as to the new law and regulations. Every farmer who writes to the United States secretary of agriculture is supplied with a process for making the alcohol and placing it on the market for four cents a gallon, including a profit of nearly two cents. Heretofore denatured alcohol has been kept off the market by a provision in the United States revenue act which required the presence of a United States officer wherever it is manufactured and the manufacturer was compelle to pay a revenue sufficient to meet the officer's salary. This provision neces-sarily operated in favor of the big manufacturer, and kept farmers out of the business entirely. It gave the big manufacturers, nearly all located at Peoria, a monopoly, and the price has been held up to that of gasoline, practically the entire priduct of which comes from Standard Oil refineries. Congress repealed the provision re quiring the presence of a United States official at the plants, putting each and every small manufactures on his honor to make proper returns to the government, including a small tax. By doing this the government

Equalization Board Meets. The railroads of Illinois see trouble ahead of them in the meeting of the state board of equalization, which met here, and at once took a recess for two weeks. Heretofore the board has assessed railroads on a basis of 70 per cent. of their full value, that basis being fixed as the foundation of values on all property. As farm lands have increased in assessment, it will, therefore, be necessary to increase the as sessment of corporations and rail roads. Railroad attorneys are wait ing to see what the county assess ments will show in the way of increase in real estate. The board meets early this year, because the new law provides for meeting on the first Tuesday after the tenth of August and after November 1 the members may not draw their per diem. In or der to enable the state board to finish by November 1 the new law fixes

September 7 as the time at which the per diem of the county boards of review shall cease. There is nothing, however, that compels these boards to complete their work on these days, and the state board is of the opinion that its work cannot be closed by November 1.

CAR COLLIDES WITH A TRAIN IN MASSACHUSETTS

Man, Mother and Aunt Killed and Two Others Seriously Injured Near Great Barrington.

Great Barrington, Mass.-An auto mobile containing a party of five per-sons from Bristol, Conn., collided with the New York-Pittsfield express at Ashley Falls Crossing, near here, Sunday. Three of the motoring party were killed and the other two probably injured.

The dead are: Charles J. Root, 40 years old, an automobile manufacturer, of Bristol; Mrs. Root, his mother, who died from her injuries while being removed to Pittsfield by train, and Miss Roberts, sister of Mrs. Root.

Miss Mary Root, daughter Charles J. Root, was removed to the hospital at Pittsfield, where her condition was reported as very critical; Miss Katherine Root, aged 14, niece of Mrs. Root, was knocked unconscious and is suffering from internal injuries.

Atlantic City, N. J .- John H. Hook and his two sons, William and Henry, of Lancaster, Pa., were almost killed Sunday in an automobile accident near Pleasantville. The machine was destroyed by fire after falling 20 feet over an embankment. Charles Young, who was driving the car, has disappeared.

The party left Lancaster for Townsend's Inlet. They lost their way and were retracing the route through Pleasantville when, it is said, the chauffeur fell asleep and the machine jumped the embankment. Young was caught under it and was extricated with difficulty. The Hooks were thrown violently to the ground. The father, who is a paralytic, was in-ternally hurt, and the sons were bruised and cut. Cape May, N. J.--By reason of an uutomobile skidding and running into orgetown, British Guiana. Much excitement has been caused here by the invasion of Venezuelan territory by Capt. Calder in the com-mand of a small frontier force from British Guiana, and his seizure of a quantity of balata (the gum of the bullet-tree, used for insulating wires, etc.) which it is alleged had been collected on British territory. Capt. Calder's force went down the Barima river and crossed the boundary into Venezuelan territory, where Capt, Calder, at the point of a re-volver, demanded that the Venezuelan commissioner surrender to him 4,000 pounds of balata. The commissioner gave up the gum. He has made a protest, however, to President Castro and the British consul here against the seisure of the balata and the in-vasion of Venezuelan territory. Fears are entertained of retailation at Morawhanna, the British frontier headquarters. There has been much trouble over the balata trade for some time and the British officials have made strong attempts to prevent illicit trading in the gum.

SCORES ANTI-CANTEEN LAW.

Acting Judge Advocate Tells of Its Evil Results.

-The annual report of Washington. Acting Judge Advocate General Porter shows that there was a decrease of 683 in the number of courts martial in the army during the last fiscal year. The total number was 3,913, including 32 officers, 23 of whom were convicted. Among the enlisted men by far the greater number of court martial trials were on account of desertion, there being no less than 1,101 cases, and 732 cases of absence without leave Four officers were dismissed by sen tence, as against 14 last year.

The report dwells upon the evil re-sults following the passage of the antiundoubtedly caused the location near military reservations of resorts for the sale of intoxicating liquors which pander to the appetites and passions of these enlisted men, who, largely by reason of the prohibition in question. frequent the same. These resorts are beyond the control of the military au-thorities and their presence is highly detrimental to military discipline.

Five Persons Killed, Many Injured, and Much Property Damaged.

Chicago.-Chicago was the geographical center of a terrific wind and rain storm which attacked northern Illinois, northwestern Indiana and the lake region of Wisconsin.

The heaviest toll of the storm was collected in Chicago when five persons were killed and fourteen injured. Over the territory within the boundaries affected buildings were destroyed, live stock killed, trees uprooted and minor lake craft beached. The death list in Chicago and a majority of the injuries which were recorded come as the result of the total destruction of a building used as a boarding house at 55 Fry street. The wind struck the house and carried it along for ten feet before it was crushed. In the ruins five lives were lost and eleven were injured three seriously. The dead were suffo-cated and crushed by the falling timbers.

WATER ROUTE IS APPROVED.

Business Men Indorse Scheme Which Will Aid Commerce.

Cairo .- The report of the review board of the engineers' corps of the United States army favoring the plan of providing a continuous freight route from Pittsburg to Cairo by a system of canals and locks and the deepening of the Ohio river between the two points to a nine foot stage was presented at a meeting of the business men of nearly every town along the river. The plan was universally indorsed by the assemblage.

Decatur Woman Assaulted. Decatur.—"If the law doesn't do any-thing to him, I'll kill him," says Mrs.

Elizabeth Pifer, referring to the who assaulted her daughter, Mrs. May Mundy. The police have a description of the man and are looking for him. Mrs. Mundy had attended a picnic at Fairview park, on the west side of Decatur. About 11 o'clock she was walking to her home, at the corner of Clinton and Sangamon streets, when the assault occurred.

Fears Death; Leaves Home. Decatur.—Mrs. Thomas Fadden left her home in company with her 11year-old son unbeknown to other members of the family, and took up quarters at the Wabash hotel. When aroused from their sleep Mrs. Fadden informed the officers that she left because of visions and an imaginary fear that she would be killed. Her husband later appeared at the hotel and made an effort to induce his wife to return home. This she refused to do.

Hoboes Shun Kankakee.

Kankakee .--- Hoboes have cut Kankakee from their itinerary. Since all hoboes have been arrested and tenced to ten days' labor in the city stone quarry, members of the traveling fraternity have kept a safe distance from this city. When the plan was first adopted about 30 tramps were kept at work breaking stone all the time, but now the number is growing smaller, and only three luckless wanderers are working for the city.

Methodists Observe One Hundredth Anniversary of Shiloh Church.

O'Fallon.-Methodists from all parts of Illinois and neighboring states gath-ered at Shiloh to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the first permanent Meth-odist church west of the Ohio river, and also the first church of the denomination in Illinois.

The church was organized by Bishop McKendrie, who was then a young missionary, and who afterward, in 1828, founded McKendrie college at Lebanon, Ill. A feature of the cele-bration was the reading by W. H. Chamberlin, president of McKendrie college, of the sermon delivered by Bishop McKendrie at the organization of the church. The sermon was taken down on that day, August 14, 1807, by J. B. Lemen.

CONVICTED WOMAN A WRECK.

Mrs. McKinney, of Aledo, Reported Failing in Health.

Peoria.--Word comes from Dr. W. E. Taylor, superintendent of the Watertown asylum, that Mrs. Mary McKinney, the Aledo woman who was tried in the Peoria county circuit court in June, 1906, for gross cruelties upon the person of her ward, Stella Grady, a former Chicago foundling, is a phys-ical wreck and that her health has suffered a marked decline in the last few weeks. Mrs. McKinney was found to be insane and was committed to the Watertown asylum for treatment, and after being cured was to begin serving her term in the penitentiary for her criminal acts.

Sanitary District Fight On.

Chicago.--The opening guns in the legislative contest which will decide whether the sanitary district of Chi-cago is to extend the drainage canal through Joliet and have the right to develop power at Brandon's road have been fired.

The summer armistice by which eace was maintained between the drainage board and the Econ-omy Light & Power company, of Joliet, a private corporation, was broken by a broadside from John H. Garnsey, a Joliet' lawyer. In a letter which he has written to the members of the legislature Mr. Garnsey attacks the sanitary district's bill which will be considered at an adjourned session in October.

In answer to Mr. Garnsey's letter R. R. McCormick, president of the drain-age board, issued a statement which will also be sent to the members of the legislature and other interested bodie Dog Joins Mistress in Death. Chicago .-- Mrs. Lena Mason, by swallowing poison. Her pet dog licked the poison-sprayed lips of its mistress and died at her side. The woman left behind a pathetic letter to her mother in which she mentioned a lover. The police are searching for a man named C. L. Delpeak. A letter to the dead woman's mother was found. It was addressed to Mrs. Catherine Nicholson, of Yates City, Ill. It read as follows: "Dear Mother: When you read this I will be in another world. Forgive me for what I have done and blame me for it all. It was for the man I love that I have done this, but do not blame him. Good-by. Yours,- were a number of prominent politicians and newspaper men. In his ad-dress at Dinfield the governor said that when his ancestors arrived in the state there were only 20,000 persons here, 10,000 of whom were Indians. He spoke of the development of com merce and transportation facilities in the state and expressed the belief that the children and grandchildren of those present will look back at this age as being only the beginning of transportation by water. The governor said he expected that the state legislature, which will meet in Octob will take definite action to provide for deep waterways.

Militia Tries Buzzer Signal.

The First Illinois cavalry, now at Camp Lincoln, experimented with new buzzer device for field work in keeping various portions of the command in communication with each other. Under command of Col. Milton n, the cavalry regiment at night scattered over the northwest portion of Sangamon county, some sections being 20 miles apart. With this new invention, which is a combination buzzer, telegraph and tele-phone, and many miles of wire, the ns were put in communication with each other.

Roads Increase Stock.

Two of the McKinley syndicate of interurban railroads filed with the secretary of state certificates of increase of capital stock. They were the Dan-ville & Eastern Illinois Railway com-pany, increased from $5,000 to $500,-000, and the Springfield Belt Line Railway company, increased from $5, 000 to $500,000.

an apparatus with which they hope to destroy the weeds which crop out in healthy abundance along the com pany's tracks and about the country stations. The new discovery is being given a test along the company's lines out of Bloomington. The apparatus consists of a number of tanks filled with a solution of water and chemicals deadly to weeds. The car is pulled along the tracks and the fluid forced out through perforated pipes by means of a steam pump. It throws the fluid sufficiently far and the right-of-way may be well covered with the mixture while the train is traveling at the rate of ten or 12 miles an hour.

Roads Immune for Rebating.

The immunity bath administered to the Chicago & Alton railroad in the rebate cases leads to the belief that similar immunity has been or will be extended to other roads that have been involved with the Standard Oil company in illegal traffic agreements and hence there is a feeling of grea security among the roads of Illinois In this matter the whole force of the government appears to be concentrated on the Standard Oll company on the theory that it is the great of fender and that the railroads that have granted rebates to it have been compelled to do so by the overwhelm-ing power of the giant trust.

FIRE SWEEPS AMUSEMENT PARK.

Panic in Crowd at Steeplechase Island, Bridgeport, Conn.

Bridgeport, Conn. - Fire swept the amusement grounds at Steeplechase island Sunday, causing $60,000 damage and creating something of a panic upon the 20,000 visitors. No one was seriously injured.

Six structures were burned including the grand stand and the bleachers on the baseball diamond. where 8,000 persons had gathered for the Chicago-Bridgeport game. The greater part of the loss falls upon George Tilyou, proprietor of the anusement grounds, whose Steeple-chase park at Coney island was burned a few weeks ago.

BLOODY TRAGEDY IN NEW YORK.

Man Murders His Wife and Is Killed

by Daughter.

New York.-George Wasser, 57 years of age, murdered his wife and was in turn slain by his daughter at the home of the women in Harlem Thursday. Wasser fired upon his wife and then exchanged shots with the daughter. The latter was not wounded. Mrs. Wasser soon succumbed to her injuries and her husband died a little later. The daughter was arrested. She asserted that the father had persistently practiced cruelties upon his amily.

of the journey. W. W. Michler, of Mr. Taft's office. and an attendant accompanied the secretary. Mrs. Taft and son. Charles will join the secretary in the Yellow stone park for the remainder of the trip and Fred W. Carpenter, secretary to Mr. Taft, will join the party at Seattle

Final Trial of the Vermont.

Washington.—The final trial run of the battleship Vermont has been fixed for September 8. In addition to the test of the engines, the battery of the vessel will be fired sufficiently often to enable the inspection board to de termine whether the guns, gun car riages and their fittings work properly, and whether the vessel is sufficient ly strong to stand the shock caused by firing. October 5 has been fixed as the date of the commencement of cement of the final trial run of the Kansas.

Law Hits Amateur Plumber.

Aurora. -- Nicholas Shlentz, the wealthy Aurora citizen who was charged with violating the state law by plumbing his own house without a license, was fined $9 and costs by a justice court jury here. The case was merely to test the law, and has been appealed to the upper court. The jury was out five hours before arriving at a verdict.

Horse Killed by Bees.

Bloomington .- Killed by bees-that was the fate of a valuable horse owned by J. W. Shores, farmer, near Lacon. While the horse was quietly grazing a swarm of bees owned by Mr. Shores settled on his head. Frightened, the animal snorted and moved away. Instantly the bees began to sting him. Inside of a minute the horse was driven crazy with pain, and ran amuck among the other animals, lashing out savagely with his heels, and biting everything that came near him. ' For half an hour he ran about the field, finally dropping from utter exhaustion. Then paralysis came on; gradually the animal's legs stiffened, and in ten minutes more he was dead.

The Land of Inverted Orders

The following objects of inters pertaining to the Australian continent are part of the class works of the pupils of the eighth grade, Blue Mound school. There are so many characteristics peculiar to this continent that one can hardly believe that they are true, but by carefully studying the climate, surface, and the history of the continent you can see why they are different when compared with the rest of the world. The Australian life region is very peculiar in many respects. Nearly all of the native four-footed animals either are hatched from eggs or are so helpless at birth that for some time they are carried in a pouch or fold of skin on the breast of the mother.
