COUNTY CANDIDATES

The County Political Pot Has Commenced to Boil & Good Men Are Announcing

FOR CIRCUIT CLERK

P. D. Preston

P. D. Preston announces in this week's issue his candidacy for circuit clerk of Moultrie county.

Mr. Preston was born in Sullivan township forty-eight years ago and has made his home in East Nelson township for forty-five years. His occupation is that of a farmer. He possesses a good education and is familiar with public affairs. He has served in his township ten years as town clerk and been school trustee nine years. Mr. Preston is married and has a family of nine children, and is an active democrat. He read law one year in the office of John R. Eden in Sullivan and has applied himself to the study at home until he is well informed in legal matters.

East Nelson township has had but three county officials, and as it has always come up with a good democratic majority it is but meet that Mr. Preston be well considered in this race.

E. A. Silver

In this week's issue of the SATURDAY HERALD we announce E. A. Silver as a democratic candidate for the nomination of circuit clerk.

Mr. Silver is the present efficient circuit clerk, and has discharged the duties of the office to the general satisfaction of the public. Those who have been around the office are aware of the methodical way the business is discharged there, and that the work is tedious and complicated, and in order to be exacting an officer placed therein must know his business and attend to it. At any time on inquiring for any document in the office it can be at once produced; to one who has not noticed the files this would seem a minor thing to mention. Just step in and view the immensity of the work. It takes sometime to become familiar with all the duties, and when a man has been found to give satisfaction, why hesitate to his succession, even for the fourth term. It is simply a business proposition. Mr. Silver, through his long service as clerk and recorder is able to point out any error in the record; his knowledge, and that of his efficient assistants, makes him a benefit to the county. Mr. Silver is always ready, willing and obliging whenever a request is made of him.

He is one of the original Bryan men, voted and worked for his election in 1896 and has always been a staunch democrat, supporting the best interests of his party. His private life is quiet and unassuming, a man of integrity and his word, and if re-elected the people will have no reason to regret the choice.

STATE'S ATTORNEY.

Edward E. Wright

Edward E. Wright announces this week his candidacy for the nomination for State's Attorney of Moultrie county.

Mr. Wright is 23 years of age and is the third son of Ex-Senator S. W. Wright. He possesses good educational ability, having graduated from the Sullivan public schools, attended one year the law department in the University of Illinois, and two years at Ann Arbor, graduating with honors from that institution in June 1907.

He began the practice of law in the office of Sentel & Whitfield last July. He has been regular in attendance at court since, gaining practical knowledge thereby, and besides his individual office work he has had charge of several important court cases, acquitting himself creditably, illustrating the fact that he is well versed in law.

Mr. Wright has always conducted himself in a praiseworthy manner, and is highly esteemed by his friends. If elected he will discharge his duties in a prudent manner.

Joel K. Martin

J. K. Martin announces this week

as candidate for the nomination for state's attorney.

Joel K. Martin was born in Whitley township in 1861 and lived the greater part of his life in that township.

He possesses a good practical common school education, being practically a student all his life. He taught in the public school for six years and carried a first grade certificate.

He read law in the office of Hon. John R. Eden and was admitted to the bar in 1892. Four years of that time Mr. Martin farmed; he is very industrious, and was a painstaking, successful farmer.

For the last ten years he has been permanently engaged in the practice of law, being associated with Mr. Eden in the office. He has been engaged in the county and circuit courts during that time and his ability and knowledge of law has been made manifest.

Mr. Martin is serving his third term as city attorney.

Mr. Martin has a wife and six children dependent upon him.

He is characterized as a good citizen, straightforward in his dealings, a man of integrity and his word, discharging his duty conscientiously.

Mr. Martin has been a life-long democrat, and this is the first time he ever asked for a county office. If he should be nominated and elected his party will have no reason to regret the choice.

A New Church Ruling.

Men should be given every encouragement to go to church. Ladies, a person cannot get much spiritual strength and enthusiasm from a sermon when being compelled to gaze at a mountain of millinery, even though it is of the latest and most approved style. The churches here are thinking of posting this notice in the vestibule:

"Ladies, when you take off your hat in order to get through the door, please leave it off until after the services."

"Its shadow lies across the land,
It hides the view on every hand;
It dips and rises like a cloud,
Upon the shoulders of the crowd,
It sails, it soars, it glides, it swings,
With bloom and braid and birds and wings;
It fills the street, it frights the air,
It blocks the throbbing thoroughfare;
It fills the matinee with light,
It sets all the stage should sink from sight!
But under it when beauty goes,
Ah, let it slip, from rim to rose."

Dennis McCarthy was born in New York, July 6, 1844. Died at his home in Sullivan, April 19, 1908, at the age of 63 years, 9 months and 14 days. At an early age he came with his parents to Cincinnati, Ohio, leaving there for Piatt Co., Ill., in 1865.

In 1879 he was married to Mrs. Bridget Finley of Lovington, Ill. To this union nine children were born, all of whom survive their father, and are living in Sullivan.

Shortly after their marriage they moved to Moultrie Co., where they have since resided, the last years of his life being spent in Sullivan.

For sometime deceased has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and was regular in attendance.

For a number of years Mr. McCarthy was superintendent of Greenhill cemetery and during the period laid over 600 bodies to rest; in his work at the cemetery he was careful, sympathetic and painstaking, discharging his duties faithfully and satisfactorily and many to whom he has administered in their time of trouble, expressed sincere regrets at the news of his death.

His surviving members of the family are the wife, nine children and one grandchild.

He was a kind father, loving husband and a good neighbor and friend.

The funeral was conducted at the M. E. church by Rev. J. G. McNutt and the remains laid to rest in Greenhill cemetery.

L. at Baker City, Oregon; Peter T. and Mattie L., living at home; Mrs. W. O. Martin and Mrs. J. H. Gibbink.

Moonshiners Caught.

D. G. Will, a deputy marshal of the federal courts at Danville, notified Sheriff Funston to meet him at Bethany last Friday. They arrested at that place D. C. Shaver and Mort Jorney, of North Carolina, on warrants issued from that state charging them with moonshining within the borders of said state. The parties arrested were taken to the federal courts at Danville. Shaver was running a grist mill in Bethany until a few days ago, when he went out on a farm to work. Jorney was at work on a farm.

They both have families, one a wife and one child, the other a wife and two children. The families at once, with their belongings, started for their native state.

Moonshining business near Bethany has been rumored for several months, but nothing relating to that has developed yet.

Holy Week in Rome

Wonderful Easter Services Held in Old St. Peter's

By Dora Greenwell McChesney

Inexhaustible in its mystic significance, the Holy Week in Rome, however familiar to the memory or imagination, stirs always a renewed wonder in those who witness it. Above all else Rome is a city of memories. The walls and arches of imperial days, the Renaissance palaces, and the churches which mark every step in the long march from primitive Christianity to papal supremacy—these stamp themselves on the mind. The incongruous modern elements are as transitory in their impression as is the whirling dust from a motor car blown past the tombs on the Applan Way. The walls of Aurelian, the statue of Marcus Aurelius, benignant on the capitol, the august disarray of the Forum—these are actual and imperishable. So, too, is the spacious splendor of St. Peter's, with its solemn sequence of ritual, in which, as the Holy Week advances, so mystic and superb a drama of divinity is enacted.

There are many moods in which to approach the great Easter services in the great papal city, from that of the devote to whom the ever-burning lamps round the apostle's tomb mark a spot only less sacred than that of the holy sepulcher itself, to that of the casual sight-seer, who flutters his Baedeker unabashed through the awful mystery of the mass. Perhaps those do not see least of the significance who look on the magnificent ceremonies with a haunting consciousness of Rome's twofold greatness, and who never quite lose sight of the city of the Caesars in the city of the saints.

It is impossible even to approach St. Peter's, where most of us choose to see the services, in spite of the rival claims of the Lateran, mother of churches—it is impossible to reach the curving colonnades and mighty front without passing by memorials of an earlier, hostile life and creed. Perhaps in driving thither the wanderer may catch a glimpse of the immortal pair, the Great Twin Brethren, who guard in stone the stairs to the capitol. Or, it may be, the shattered, majestic columns of the temple of Mars Ultor have lifted for a moment their stern memorial of Caesar's death and Augustus' vengeance.

Once within St. Peter's, however, conflicting memories fall away, lost, as is all sense of minor faults in the building itself, in the impression of vastness, of an all-enfolding and all-reconciling hospitality. That hospitality is taxed by the crowds which gather for the services of Holy Week. Palm Sunday initiates the series of elaborate ceremonies with its beautiful rite of blessing the palms. A motley throng it is which streams up the wide steps and gathers about the altar above which glows in a golden halo the holy dove. There are the foreign sight-seers, of course, made evident by their camp-stools and red guide-books, but there are also soldiers in picturesque variety of uniform, priests wearing their black draperies in the classic folds which recall the toga, shepherds from the Campagna, bearded and wild-eyed in their sheepskins; pilgrims from far countries with the fixed visionary gaze of those who look on their sacred places after long desire.

Sacred indeed is the spot to those who hold the faith of Rome. In front of the high altar with its baldachino—the twisted bronze columns towering up superbly, yet dwarfed by the firmament of the dome above—burn the golden, never-dying lamps which mark the resting place, so tradition says, of the apostle.

But on Palm Sunday the attention is fixed on the altar in the Cappella Giulia, and the pressure of the eager people increases cruelly as the baskets of palms are set down by the altar stairs and the canons slowly move to their places. The priests are in violet, the Lenten color. The deep hue brightened by wonderful interweaving of gold and silver, and the crucifix on the altar is also violet-veiled. There is no organ music, and the deep notes of the chanting swell with a strange solemnity through the echoing vaults.

At last the solemn final word and gesture of blessing have been given, and one by one the priests lift and bear away the palm branches. Then the olive, which is given in their stead to the people, is brought forward in great sheaves, and a priest in gold-embroidered violet robe holds out the silvery branches to the hands which reach and clutch for them, till all the nearest of the throng have received their portion and pass on twigs to those behind. Peace and blessing is that olive to bring to those who reverently receive the gleaming leaves. The distribution completed, the cardinal and canons with their attendant train move in stately procession down the church, out into the portico, and so back to the altar. They bear aloft, with the tall tapers and the shrouded crucifix, the golden palm branches; not simple boughs such as were cast before Christ by the people of Jerusalem. These are fantastically dipped and twisted till they look more like furled standards, a significant touch in that church which is so ready to turn the martyr symbol into the conquering banner.

DORA GREENWELL M'CHESNEY.

THE CHRIST

By Charles Eugene Banks

Upon a circle of the sands
That front the round, desiring sea,
I sit alone with folded hands
Thinking on Him of Galilee.
How like a perfect lily grows
His love in this earth's selfish world,
Its glory no distinction knows
But is for all alike unfurled.
You trustful gull that rocking sleeps
Upon the heaving ocean's breast,
As closely in his heart he keeps
As we who have his name confessed.
The tiger in the jungle wears
A perfect rindure on his coat,
And clear among the budding leaves
The wild bird spheres his liquid note.
The curving mountain ranges grace
The arching azure's magic rim,
And in the dewdrop's form I trace
The same perfection born of Him.
Enwrapped within its seed the rose
Awaits the word unquestioning
All everywhere the tombs unclose
In resurrection of the spring,
In Him is all the joy we know,
The way, the life, the final goal,
The fount of love whose outward flow
Is never-ending birth of soul.

HUBBY A GREAT HELP TO HER.

Wife Found Him a Careful Adviser as to Woman's Dress.

It was pleasant to hear Mrs. Hammond speak of her husband's helpfulness in domestic matters, and also of his great taste in regard to woman's dress. "Nobody could guess what a help he is to me in choosing my new gowns each year," Mrs. Hammond said, earnestly, "without really hearing our conversations."

A graceless cousin, to whom fell the privilege of hearing one of these illuminating conversations, said that ever after the peculiar fitness of Mr. Hammond for the position of censor remained in her mind.

"William," said Mrs. Hammond, on this memorable occasion, "I am undecided between a green and a brown for my winter suit. Now I know what you're thinking. You're thinking that I said I was tired of death of brown, and so I was, and am. You think I'd better have the green."

"Still—" said Mr. Hammond.

"Certainly," said his wife. "It spots, and is more apt to fade, perhaps, while brown is a more trustworthy color."

"Of course—" began Mr. Hammond.

"Yes, of course brown makes me look older," assented his wife.

"But how—" ventured Mr. Hammond.

"But how much smaller I look in brown than in any other color," and Mrs. Hammond nodded approval. "And as I'm really gaining flesh all the time, perhaps I'd better not consider the green."

"You don't—" began the careful adviser.

"I know I don't look stout to you," cried Mrs. Hammond, "but you'll feel more at home with me in brown, and so it's decided, just as I thought it would be! When one has a husband who is really interested, and takes thought about one's dress," and she turned a bright gaze to the visitor, "it does simplify things so!"—Youth's Companion.

"Put End to Volubility. Abernethy was supposed to influence people by a brusqueness amounting to absolute rudeness. It is related that one day a very voluble lady took her daughter, who was ill, to see him.

"Which of you two wants to consult me?" said Abernethy.

"My daughter," replied the woman.

Abernethy then put a question to the girl. Before she had a chance to reply, her mother began a long story. Abernethy told her to be quiet and repeated his question to the girl. A second time the woman began a story, and a second time he told her to be quiet; then she interrupted him a third time.

"Put your tongue out," he said to the mother.

"But there's nothing the matter with me," she exclaimed.

"Never mind, put your tongue out," he commanded.

Thoroughly overawed, the woman obeyed.

"Now keep it out," said Abernethy, and he proceeded to examine the girl.—Grand Magazine.

Burning Up Old Letters. What more distressing occupation can one hit upon than to burn up old letters on a rainy day? It is always a wet day one chooses for this, feeling rather like a Judas one minute and like Hercules in the Augean stable the next. It is positively surprising the way letters accumulate, especially with people who are either not methodical enough or too sentimental to ruthlessly destroy letters not of any really permanent value, as they are read and answered. The gloom and pathos of this occupation are enhanced when it is our painful office to look over and weed out the correspondence of one dear to us who has journeyed "to the bourne whence no traveler returns." Certain letters are sacred, and should, I think, if kept, be labeled "Strictly Private." This is a matter which must be considered with reference to the importance of the letters to the happiness of the writers; where the disclosure of the contents of a letter would work sorrow or wrong to another it had better be destroyed at once. So much harm has been done through the careless handling of personal letters, so many friends have been estranged, that to neglect to destroy a letter is sometimes almost criminal.

He Grasped the Idea. "Tommy," said his teacher, "the words 'circumstantial evidence' occur in the lesson. Do you know what circumstantial evidence is?" Tommy replied that he did not.

"Well, I will explain to you by an illustration. You know we have a rule against eating apples in school. Suppose some morning I should see you in your seat with a book held up in front of your face. I say nothing, but presently I go round to where you are sitting. You are busily studying your lesson, but I find that your face is smeared, while under the edge of your slate I see the core of a freshly-eaten apple.

"I should know, just as well as if I had caught you at it, that you had been eating an apple, although, of course, I did not see you do it. That is a case in which circumstantial evidence convicts you. Do you know what it is now?"

"Yes, ma'am," said Tommy. "It's eating apples in school."—Youth's Companion.

Still, Who Knows? "In the old days in England they all noses and cropped ears."

"My, my! I could never go in for such styles."

NO ONE CAN ALWAYS AVOID

Catching Cold on the Street Car

Fe-r-u-na Prevents Catching Cold. One Dose in Time, Saves Nine.

Many people persist in riding on the street cars, insufficiently protected by clothing.

They start out perhaps in the heat of the day and do not feel the need of wraps.

The rapid moving of the car cools the body unduly. When they board the car perhaps they are slightly perspiring. When the body is in this condition it is easily chilled. This is especially true when a person is sitting.

Beginning a street car ride in the middle of the day and ending it in the evening almost invariably requires extra wraps, but people do not observe these precautions, hence they catch cold.

Colds are very frequent in the Spring on this account, and as the Summer advances they do not decrease. During the Spring months, no one should think of riding on the car without being provided with a wrap.

A cold caught in the Spring is liable to last through the entire Summer. Great caution should be observed at this season against exposure to cold. During the first few pleasant days of Spring, the liability of catching cold is great.

No wonder so many people acquire muscular rheumatism and catarrhal diseases during this season.

However, in spite of the greatest precautions, colds will be caught.

At the appearance of the first symptom, Fe-r-u-na should be taken according to directions on the bottle, and continued until every symptom disappears.

Do not put it off. Do not waste time by taking other remedies. Begin at once to take Fe-r-u-na and continue taking it until you are positive that the cold has entirely disappeared. This may save you a long and perhaps serious illness later on.

Red Effects from Cold. Mr. M. J. Deutsch, Secretary Building Material Trades Council, 151 Washington St., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I have found your medicine to be unusually efficacious in getting rid of bad effects from cold, and more especially in driving away all symptoms of catarrh, with which I am frequently troubled.

"The relief Fe-r-u-na gives in catarrhal troubles alone is well worth the price per bottle. I have used the remedy for several years now."

Spells of Coughing. Mrs. C. E. Long, writes from Atwood, Colorado, as follows:

"When I wrote you for advice my little three-year-old girl had a cough that had been troubling her for four months. She took cold easily, and would wheeze and have spells of coughing that would sometimes last for a half hour.

"Now we can never thank you enough for the change you have made in our little one's health. Before she began taking your Fe-r-u-na she suffered everything in the way of cough, colds and croup, but now she has taken not quite a bottle of Fe-r-u-na, and is well and strong as she has ever been in her life."

Fe-r-u-na for Colds. Mr. James Morrison, 68 East 16th St., Paterson, N. J., writes:

"I have given Fe-r-u-na a fair trial, and I find it to be just what you claim it to be. I cannot praise it too highly. I have used two bottles in my family for colds, and everything imaginable. I can safely say that your medicine is the best I have ever used."

THE MEAN MAN.

"I believe," his wife angrily declared, "that if I were dead you would be married again inside of a year."

"Oh, no," the mean man replied, "you are mistaken. Try me and I'll prove it."

GIRL WAS DELIRIOUS. With Fearful Eczema—Pain, Heat, and Tingling Were Excruciating—Cuticura Acted Like Magic.

"An eruption broke out on my daughter's chest. I took her to a doctor, and he pronounced it to be eczema of a very bad form. He treated her, but the disease spread to her back, and then the whole of her head was affected, and all her hair had to be cut off. The pain she suffered was excruciating, and with that and the heat and tingling her life was almost unbearable. Occasionally she was delirious and she did not have a proper hour's sleep for many nights. The second doctor we tried afforded her just as little relief as the first. Then I purchased Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, and before the Ointment was three-quarters finished every trace of the disease was gone. It really seemed like magic. Mrs. T. W. Hyde, Brentwood, Essex, England, Mar. 8, 1907."

Her Kick. "John, I wish you would not be quite so polite, and so considerate of me when we are in company."

"Why, dear, I want them—the whole world—to see how I love you."

"That's all right but they—the whole world—thinks I've got you scared."—Houston Post.

Popular Misconception of the Cloakroom and dank, smelly raincoats on wet days—as the only place to which patriotic but pestered statesmen might resort when fagged or in need of a smoke.

The reality is so different, as most of us who live here are well aware, for the Republican and Democratic cloakrooms of the house, for instance, are furnished with such attention to solid comfort—not to speak of luxury—as to make the lounging room of the ordinary club look like a parlor in Thrums by comparison. There's a scrumptiously thick carpet, a perfect flock of astonishingly comfortable chairs and half a dozen leather-covered davenport of remarkably form-fitting qualities.

It is in the cloak-room that the legislative back unbends and the brow unwrinkles. Atlas, having a temporary respite, unstraps his world burden, dumps it in the nearest corner, slaps brother Atlas on the back and borrows a cigar. Relieved from a pose that is oftentimes physical as well as mental, Atlas becomes human. He listens, he tells a story, he sometimes laughs. And in the intervals of reminiscence and such—and sometimes there are no intervals—he broils to a turn, with language comprehensive and ornate, every person and thing connected with the government, from the president and the constitution down to the messenger to the eighteenth assistant secretary of state who does not know his place, and the wearing flight of steps to the second floor of the census office. And oftentimes they put each other on the pan.

Women Involved in the Hill Imbroglia easy matter to have a hint dropped that a continuation of Ambassador Tower's term would please every one concerned. The trouble consisted in the hint's being dropped in the wrong quarter.

Another supposition that seems tenable is that hinted at by a former Washington society woman, now a resident of Paris. She intimated that social, not political, enemies were responsible for the supposed turndown. She is thoroughly conversant with the secret diplomatic history of Europe, and asserted emphatically that the whole imbroglia was social.

According to this authority, there has been strong feeling in the diplomatic set against Mrs. Hill ever since she became the wife of the then assistant secretary of state. Washington social enemies made then, she declared, are striving now to accomplish her husband's downfall, although every one, even her enemies, is fond of him.

Truants Worry of "Uncle Joe" Cannon

a "plot" to retard business in the house is in process of being hatched. When the office building was completed members made complaint that they were so far removed from the chamber they had no way of finding out what was going on except by means of a telephone. This was unsatisfactory. It was then suggested that a ticker, such as is used in transmitting stock quotations, be installed, but the scheme was discarded. Then the house officials discovered a device that it is believed will fill the bill. If put into use this device will communicate over the wires to rooms in the office building every sound and syllable uttered on the house floor.

"Why not connect the wires with Washington homes of congressmen?" said a house leader. "And then probably in the process of development the time will come when measures will be adopted making it unnecessary for the members to come to Washington at all."

"First thing we know the house will rejoice in the possession of an up-to-date signal service, including a wireless outfit. From his home in Honolulu the delegate from Hawaii, by merely touching a button or sending a message by wireless, will be able to register his vote on a given measure. "Where is it all going to end? "Darned if I know."

Adulteration of Seeds to Be Stopped

the interests of the farmer, gardener, horticulturist and honest seedman. The United States has become the dumping ground for the poor seed of the world, which can be and is used by unscrupulous dealers for adulteration purposes. Seed that is held over until the germ is dead and the vital force is entirely gone, is mixed with fresh seed of the same kind. The mixed article is sold as fresh seed. In buying seed it is usually impossible for the purchaser to tell the true character or quality of the seed. It is impossible for the ordinary purchaser to see any difference in appearance between turnip seed worth 40 cents a pound, cabbage seed worth $2 a pound, and cauliflower seed worth $40 a pound.

The bill prepared by Mr. Mann is severe upon those who misbrand or adulterate seeds. A fine of $200 is provided for the first offense, $300 for the second offense, and imprisonment for one year, or both.

Mrs. H. Mutsbaugh, of Duncannon, Pa., says: "I was sick and miserable all last Spring and as I did not know what was the matter I kept going down and down until I was a physical wreck. I had smothering spells, flashes of heat over the kidneys and pain in passing the kidney secretions, which contained sediment. My husband urged me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and at last I did so. They did me much good, and I used in all eight boxes which restored me to perfect health."

MADE HIS MEANING CLEAR.

Professor's Son Translated Father's Speech into the Vernacular.

A college professor, in company with his son, was enjoying a walk in the country, when he met an old farmer. It had been a very wet season, and the professor, thinking to start the conversation in a way that would prove interesting to the farmer, remarked:

"There has been a rather abnormal precipitation of late."

The farmer seemed somewhat embarrassed, and the professor's son, who used a different vernacular, though he was a student in the college to which his father was attached, attempted to straighten out the matter. Drawing the farmer to one side, he said in a superior way:

"The governor means that we've been having a devil of a lot of rain."

MACHINE-GROUND PAINT.

Occasionally one hears the "hand-mixed" paint of the painter slightly spoken of as "unscientific" and "not thoroughly mixed." The facts are all on the side of the painter and his hand-prepared paint.

It is the most "scientific" paint there is, because it is made on the spot to suit the particular purpose for which it is to be used. It is as scientific as a good doctor's prescription. If the painter did not mix it thus it would be as unscientific as a patent medicine. Moreover, the paint which a good painter turns out is made of genuine white lead and pure linseed oil. If he does not mix it himself he is not sure what is in it, and consequently his client cannot be sure.

As for not being thoroughly mixed by machinery, that is simply a misstatement. White Lead as made by National Lead Company is thoroughly incorporated with 7 or 8 per cent of pure Linseed oil in the factory, making a paste. This paste need only be thinned with additional linseed oil to make it ready for the brush.

The thorough incorporation of pigment and oil has already been accomplished before the painter gets it. To know how to tell pure white lead is a great advantage to both painter and house-owner. National Lead Company will send a tester free to anyone interested. Address the company at Woodbridge Building, New York, N. Y.

Now that it is known that in the year just closed nearly sixty thousand from the United States declared their intention of making their homes in Canada, it might not be out of place to search for some reasons that would bring this about. These people are but following the example of the fifty-five or sixty thousand who did the same thing the year previous, and an almost equal number who the year before that but followed the example of the thousands of the year preceding. An excellent climate, certain and positive crops of grain of all kinds, good markets for their produce, land—and good land, too—at low prices, easy terms of payment, (not forgetting the 160 acres of land given free by the Government, particulars of which the Canadian Government Agent whose name appears elsewhere will tell you about) and then the splendid social conditions. The situation is pretty well sized up by a writer in one of the magazines. Quoting from this article, we find this: "Those of us who made good in the States," interjected another settler as if to continue the story of his neighbor, "have had it easy from the start; a little money is a mighty good thing on coming into a new country. But those who make an entry, or even buy lands at low rates, are able to square things in two or three seasons' crops. There are hardships in building shanties, and then with increasing prosperity getting things into shape for better homes. But affairs go much as in the States. We have the largest liberty in the world; there is more home rule in the Provinces than in the several states of the Republic. Taxes are light and with only a few million people west of Winnipeg we don't get in each other's way. One's friends over the line probably thought we would not live through the winter; and while it is cold, real cold, it is free from the moisture experienced in the east. Schools are good as encouraged by the Government; the enterprising American promoter and Yankee drummer see to it that we take notice of the latest improvements and best agricultural machinery. Altogether we are as near to affairs as we would be on our own farms in the States. Winnipeg bears the same relation to us as Chicago did at home; and Edmonton with the surrounding region advances as Omaha did in the days when we were as young as the boys yonder. We get together much as they did in the granges over the border; the government has established experimental schools of agriculture, and progress in every line is stimulated. This is a great region for grazing," we hear the Calgary citizen continuing, "and then with building elevators of wheat at one dollar a bushel, many of us find time to go over to the live stock exhibition in Chicago or visit old friends during the course of the winter. Every man is taken for what he is worth or for what he can raise; and in this good air and on this fertile soil we intend to show our old friends that we are made of the right stuff—that we are chips of the old block who built up the American West."

CHURCH SERVICES.

CHRISTIAN.

The pastor preached Easter to a well filled house. The lesson taught was, "The Contribution of Christ and Civilization to This Age." The admonition to us today was, "To Build So the Succeeding Age May Build Yet Greater By Us Having Lived." Miss Cora Haydon and Ed Wright sang a duet at the morning service.

At the night service, Easter the house was crowded. Rev. Ewert of Mattoon led the prayer service. After services—Cunningham of the Masonic Home was immersed.

The contest of the Reds and the Golds of the Junior Christian Endeavor closed Sunday. The Reds won in the contribution and attendance. The Golds in answering the questions of the lesson. The offering made by these Juniors in this contest will reach $40. Their offering for the year will exceed $50. This is the greatest offering ever sent out in one year by the Juniors of this church. In their examination Sunday on the lessons of the bible, these Juniors answered questions that would puzzle older heads than theirs.

The Easter dinner given in the basement of the church last Thursday was a success in every way. The dinner was not as well advertised as it might have been, but there was a good attendance at both dinner and supper, and the ladies of the Aid are well pleased. The management of the dinner was in charge of Mrs. Dawdy and Mrs. Nannie Patterson.

PRESBYTERIAN.

The services last Sunday were interesting and well attended; audiences large at each service, and very appreciative. The congregation is very grateful to Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Pleasants and Mr. Hall for their services in the music.

Services next Sunday at the usual hours and preaching by the pastor.

The prayer meeting services are growing each week in number and also in interest. The topic last Wednesday evening was "Several Good Reasons Why We Should Study Our Bibles."

The monthly Koffee Klotch of the Aid society met this week at the home of Mrs. Lone Butler on Friday afternoon.

The pastor attended a meeting of the Mattoon Presbytery at Vandalia last week. He reports a brief, but interesting session. The two branches of Presbyterianism which have lately been united are running along smoothly in this presbytery.

All Presbyterians in this part of the state should be making their arrangements to attend the State Sunday School and Christian Endeavor convention which meets the first days in June in the city of Mattoon. It is expected that this city and county will be well represented.

BAPTIST.

The Easter exercises were enjoyed by all. We had a good Sabbath school Sunday.

Next Sunday is our regular meeting. The morning theme will be, "The True Life" and the evening subject, "The Importance of Regeneration."

Prayer meeting each Wednesday night at 7:30.

F. T. KLOTZCHE, Pastor.

T. F. Pemberton, contractor and builder, wants your carpenter work. Good workman; does satisfactory work with promptness.

Camel Races.

Camel races are held regularly in the south of Algeria, where valuable prizes are offered for the encouragement of the breed of racers, and as much interest is taken in their preparation and performance as in that of race horses in this country. The racing camels are the result of very careful breeding through many generations, and in size, temper and appearance they are so different from the ordinary beast of burden that they might almost be considered a different race of animals. Perhaps the most conspicuous characteristic of the ordinary camel is its extreme slowness. Nothing on earth will ever induce it to hurry. A twenty dollar note will buy a very fair specimen, but for a mehari, or racing camel, five or ten times that sum is required to effect a purchase.

The racer, however, can be depended on for nine or ten miles an hour kept up for sixteen or seventeen hours almost without a stop. The pace in a camel race is generally fast and furious at the beginning, when all the animals are together and seem to realize that a contest is in progress.

ous at the beginning, when all the animals are together and seem to realize that a contest is in progress.

The Famous Basilisk. According to the ancient writers, the basilisk—sometimes called cockatrice—was a monster to be greatly dreaded. Its breath filled the air with a deadly poison and burned up vegetation, and the glance of its eye was fatal to both man and beast. The only creature that could face it and live, they said, was the cock, and travelers were advised to take loud crowing cocks with them as a protection against the monster. So much for superstition. As a matter of fact the basilisk is a harmless lizard, living a quiet life in the woods and feeding on insects. Its appearance, however, is formidable, and it is this perhaps that gave it a bad name. It grows to a length of from twenty-five to thirty inches, including its tail, which is much longer than its body. Rising from its head and inclining backward is a broad, winglike expansion, which gives it some resemblance to the flying lizard. The crest of this expansion is formed somewhat like a crown, and that gave the basilisk its name, which is from the Greek word meaning "king."

Naturally. "Some of the steam roads are beginning to feel the competition of the electric lines." "Yes; it gives them a shock."

Why He Does It. "It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said druggist, J. R. Pogue, to one of his many customers, "but I am glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan." "The Howard Co., in order to get a quick introductory sale authorized me to sell the regular fifty cent bottle of their specific for half-price, 25 cents, and although I have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory." "One great advantage of this specific" he continued, "is its small dose and convenient form. There are sixty doses in a vial that

Brought by a Poss

John Albe, a German 66 years of age, who has lived alone on a farm in the northeast part of the county for the past twelve years has been the cause of many conjectures and fears.

Twelve years ago he drove his wife from their home, and at times those living in the vicinity were afraid to pass the house.

The farm, 120 acres, on which he resides was sold under a foreclosure of a mortgage sometime ago, and purchased by a Mr. Gross of Atwood. Mr. Albe's son, Henry, rented the farm and when he went to the place his father chased him away with a target rifle. Sheriff Funston was then called to go to the rescue and explain the situation to the old gentleman. He promptly did so, and proceeded to the old gentleman's domain with the necessary writs and credentials, when he was met by Mr. Albe with a corn knife in hand, with which he gave the sheriff a blow on his left arm, cutting through the sleeves, and inflicting slight wounds on the arm. Mr. Funston beat a retreat and brought his gun to the scene. After the two fired at each other a few times, and Mr. Funston being alone and satisfied he could not subdue the man without inflicting injuries at the risk of his life, postponed the capture. Monday, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Newbold, Ernest Hughes, James Harris and George Baker, he again visited Mr. Albe. When they arrived the old man was about a rod from his house on the walk; when he noticed them he made a rush for his house, got in and barricaded the entrance. Mr. Funston asked him to come out several times, promising him he should not be hurt, no response, the door was solid and could not be opened. He then told Mr. Hughes to take a post and knock the window in, again invited the old man out, no response. The second window was knocked to pieces, which subdued the old gentleman and he promised to go with them if they would wait until he changed his clothes. The men then entered the house through the window and had a chance to survey the interior while the old gentleman prepared his toilet. He had his four room house securely fortified, large "nigger-head" rocks were piled up against the doors, the head-boards of some tall bedsteads were set before the windows and building tile piled up back of them, until in the bed room there was just enough space to get to the bed. To defend himself near the bed was found a gun, pitchfork, corn knife and butcher knife.

He passed in and out of his house by going in at one of the windows over the bedstead. The first covering to the windows were blankets, all light was excluded. The interior of the house was clean, as was the clothing and person of the old gentleman.

He was the father of three children and said he had no friend and wanted none.

He was taken on an insanity writ, brought to Sullivan Monday evening and lodged in jail for trial.

Mr. Albe was given a trial on the charge of insanity Friday at 10 a. m., but we go to press too early to get the verdict.

To Delinquent Subscribers

SUBSCRIPTION have been coming in to exceed our expectations. We have several delinquent subscribers on our list who have come to us and proffered to pay their amounts in installments, as they did not feel able to pay it all at one time. We are very thankful, indeed, for this spirit of upright business principle manifested. It makes us feel downright mean to present statements, and we have given our patrons ample opportunity to come to us. We need the money; and, besides, the postoffice department forces us to adopt a cash basis, which in the long run is the better policy for ourselves and our patrons. Please call and settle any in indebtedness due this office. In a few days we must present the statements.

Eczema Now Curable.

All Itching Skin Diseases Which are Not Hereditary Instantly Relieved by Oil of Wintergreen.

Can Eczema be cured? Some physicians say "Yes." Some say "No."

The real question is, "What is meant by eczema?" If you mean those scaly eruptions, those diseases which make their first appearance, not at birth but years afterward, and perhaps not until middle age—then there can no longer be any question that these forms of eczema are curable.

Simple vegetable oil of wintergreen, mixed with other vegetable ingredients, will kill the germs that infest the skin. Apply this prescription to the skin, and instantly that awful itch is gone. The very moment the liquid is applied, that agonizing, tantalizing itch disappears, and continued applications of this external remedy soon cure the disease.

We carry in stock this oil of wintergreen properly compounded into D. D. D. Prescription. While we are not sure that it will cure all those cases of skin trouble which are inherited, we positively know that this D. D. D. Prescription, whenever rightly used, will cure every last case of genuine eczema or skin trouble which did not exist at birth.

We know this. Anyway you, yourself, will know that D. D. D. Prescription instantly takes away the itch the moment it is applied to the skin. Sam B. Hall Sullivan, Ill. Stop that itch today—Instantly. Just call at our store and try this refreshing and soothing liquid; also ask about D. D. D. soap.

Having heard of Doan's Kidney Pills I decided to try them and procured a box at Pate's drug store. Since using them I have felt much better, have had no backache and the kidneys are acting normally and naturally, the secretions being clear of sediment. I feel confident that the use of a few more boxes will cure me, and am very thankful for the benefit I have received. I hope others will try them and be convinced of their superior merits."

TO SUPPRESS "REDS"

SPECIAL MESSAGE ON ANARCHISTS FROM PRESIDENT.

ADDITIONAL LAWS NEEDED

Senate Passes Employers' Liability Bill Without Change — House Makes Progress Despite Democratic Filibuster.

Washington.—Suppression of anarchy as the greatest question before the nation was called to the attention of congress by President Roosevelt in a special message. The executive submits what has been done under existing statutes, but says there should be further legislation.

The anarchist is declared the enemy of all mankind and no paper, published here or abroad, propagating anarchism should be permitted to circulate in the mails, the president declares.

This message, containing only about 100 words, is one of the shortest Mr. Roosevelt has transmitted to congress. With the message he transmitted a report reviewing the legal phases of the question by Attorney General Bonaparte.

Message of the President.
The message of the president follows:

"To the Senate and House of Representatives: I herewith submit a letter from the department of justice, which explains itself. Under this opinion, I hold that existing statutes give the president the power to prohibit the postmaster general from being used as an instrument in the commission of crime; that is, to prohibit the use of the mails for the advocacy of murder, arson and treason.

"I shall not upon such construction. Unquestionably, however, there should be further legislation by congress in this matter. When compared with the suppression of anarchy, every other question sinks into insignificance. The anarchist is the enemy of humanity, the enemy of all mankind, and his is a deeper degree of criminality than any other. No immigrant is allowed to come to our shores if he is an anarchist; and no paper published here or abroad should be permitted circulation in this country, if it propagates anarchistic opinions.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

SENATE PASSES LIABILITY BILL.

The employers' liability bill, recently passed by the house, was passed by the senate Thursday without amendment, so that it is ready to go to the president for his approval.

The scope of the bill is limited to common carriers by railroad. The senate adjourned at 5:50 o'clock until Monday.

HOUSE BUSY, DESPITE FILLIBUSTER.

Three times in the house the Democrats caught the Republicans "napping" and forced them to produce a quorum. On one other occasion a vote by tellers disclosed the absence of a quorum but Speaker Cannon peremptorily applied the Reed rule and declared a quorum to be present. In doing so he had a brief but lively clash with Mr. Williams.

Notwithstanding repeated roll calls, progress was made in the transaction of public business. Both the army and the fortifications appropriation bills were sent to conference; the senate bill to increase the efficiency of the revenue cutter service was, with Democratic help, passed, and the bill to promote the safe transportation in interstate commerce of explosives was considered. It will be finally disposed of Friday.

The Democrats prevented the adoption of the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill and caused it to be sent back to conference.

"OPEN SHOP" ON GREAT LAKES.

Vessel Owners Adopt Policy of Ignoring Unions.

Cleveland, O.—The "open shop" policy will be adhered to by vessel owners, in the operation of boats upon the great lakes this season. A stand of this character in dealing with organized labor was unanimously agreed to at the annual meeting of the Lake Carriers' association here Thursday.

The rule will be put into operation at once and will affect upward of 40,000 men. Whether the plan adopted by the boat owners will be opposed by the various unions is unknown. None of their representatives was present at the meeting.

FIERCE RIOT IN PENSACOLA

IMPORTATION OF STRIKE BREAKERS CAUSES BATTLE.

Street Car Men from St. Louis Are Attacked and Fifteen of Them Are Beaten.

Pensacola, Fla.—The bringing of a carload of strike breakers from St. Louis Friday afternoon by the Pensacola Electric company was the signal for rioting and disorder which resulted in the injury of 15 of the imported men.

No sooner had the strike breakers arrived and started for the car sheds than a fight occurred between them and the sympathizers of the union men and from the corner of Palafox and Wright streets, where the first battle occurred, there was a continual riot in which bricks, bottles and shells were hurled at the strike breakers, and in turn the latter fired shots and used heavy sticks and bricks. For over an hour the riot continued, the strike breakers gradually getting nearer to the car barns, but before they reached there 15 had been wounded.

When near the car barns, so fierce was the onslaught on the body of imported men, that they separated and fled, 30 running into a negro's house, while the remainder reached the car barn and barricaded the doors. The 30 men in the house barricaded the doors and it took the police over an hour to disperse the mob and remove the men to places of safety.

All night there were great crowds on the streets.

The mayor has issued a proclamation closing all saloons and the board of public safety has ordered the marshal to swear in a sufficient number of deputies to quell the disturbance.

Seventy strike breakers were marched to the city jail, where they were kept in safety all night.

Benjamin Commons, vice-president of the International Association of Street Railway Employees, made an address, urging the strikers to disperse and go to their homes quietly.

DETROIT JURY IS SCORED.

Judge Angered by Acquittal of Self-Confessed Murderer.

Detroit, Mich.—"This is one of the vilest miscarriages of justice that has ever been heard of in this community," said Judge Phelan in the recorder's court Thursday afternoon, when a jury found 18-year-old Percy Bowin of Woodville, Ont., not guilty of the brutal murder on January 7 of 63-year-old Mrs. Cornelia Welch, proprietress of a disreputable place on Congress street east which Bowin had frequented.

Bowin had admitted his guilt and made a detailed confession of how he killed the old woman and stole and pawned her diamonds. This confession, signed by Bowin, was placed in evidence. Then Bowin took the stand and repudiated it absolutely, saying that Capt. McDonnell induced him to make it by talking of the strong case against him and promising to help him to a pardon later. This the captain and other officers denied absolutely. The police offered a great deal of evidence to confirm the statements in Bowin's confession.

OFFERED MONEY FOR MURDER.

Serious Evidence Against Thomas McGonnigle and Mrs. Burnett.

Richmond, Mo.—In the trial here Friday of Thomas McGonnigle and Mrs. Jane Burnett, accused of the murder of Mrs. Margaret McGonnigle, Thomas Bailey, 21 years old, son of a farmer, said that in 1907 Thomas McGonnigle offered him $150 if he would kill Mrs. McGonnigle. Bailey said he refused to do so, and that McGonnigle then threatened to kill him if he revealed what he had said.

Mrs. Fannie Davis testified that Tom McGonnigle and his sister, Mrs. Burnett, had offered her $50 to kill Mrs. McGonnigle. Thomas, she testified, had fixed a bottle of wine with poison in it to give to Mrs. McGonnigle, but witness had destroyed the wine. Then they wanted her to shoot Mrs. McGonnigle, she testified, and leave the revolver and a hat at the house to give the impression that a man had killed her. At another time they gave her some poisoned cake to give to her. Mrs. Jane Burnett, the witness said, had told her that she would kill Mrs. McGonnigle.

SYSTEM FROM SEA TO SEA

LAST LINK IN HARRIMAN'S BIG CHAIN ALMOST DONE.

Opening of Illinois Central's Birmingham Division April 19 Completes Trans-Continental Line.

Birmingham, Ala.—The official announcement by the Illinois Central that the new Birmingham division will be opened for traffic April 19 calls attention to the completion of the link in the great Harriman transcontinental route, for by controlling the Union Pacific, Illinois Central and Central of Georgia, this system will extend from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

In addition to supplying the last link in this chain, the opening of the Haleyville branch will give the Illinois Central an inlet to the great coal and iron fields of Alabama with their immense annual tonnage.

The Central of Georgia terminals here connect with those of the Illinois Central, thus giving a direct connection from all Illinois Central points with the sea at Savannah over the Central of Georgia. Connection of the Illinois Central with the Union Pacific thus gives a complete system from one ocean to the other. The connection is expected to benefit the southeastern states and to increase Savannah's importance as a seaport, for in addition to making it the terminal for much of Alabama's coal and iron, it will receive much of the grain and other traffic of the Mississippi valley.

The Mobile & Ohio will open its new Birmingham branch on April 20 and present plans contemplate having the first trains over both lines reach Birmingham the same day. To this end the commercial organizations of Birmingham have planned an elaborate reception.

The entrance of the Illinois Central has been accomplished by certain traffic arrangements and by the building of an entire new line from Corinth, Miss., to Haleyville, Ala., a distance of 80 miles.

During the past few days Mr. Watson has conferred with the leaders at both ends of the capitol in regard to adjournment, and all of them are anxious for an early date. He thinks there is ample time between now and May 9 for the completion of the legislative program. The principal measures in the house which remain to be disposed of are the naval appropriation bill, the sundry civil appropriation bill, the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, the military academy bill and the Aldrich currency measure.

BAD FLOODS IN SOUTHWEST.

RELIEF IS PROMPT

MUCH MONEY BEING RAISED FOR CHELSEA SUFFERERS.

LOSS PUT AT $5,675,000

City Authorities Decide to Rebuild the Flame-Swept Area—Comparatively Little Suffering Experienced.

Boston.—From the embers of Sunday's conflagration in Chelsea there arose Monday a well-organized movement for aid and relief of the 10,000 homeless, a counting of the cost by insurance companies, whose representatives placed their losses at three millions and a half, and a determination by the city authorities to rebuild the 350 acres swept by the flames where stood, before the fire, property valued at nearly $6,000,000.

No further deaths were reported, and of the injured persons taken to the various hospitals only two were believed to be in a critical condition. The three bodies which were taken to the morgue in Boston Sunday night remained unidentified.

Revised figures indicated that the losses were divided, according to the various classes of property destroyed, as follows:

Churches and schools.....	$55,000
Public buildings.....	475,000
Factories, business blocks and contents.....	825,000
Dwelling houses.....	2,750,000
Total.....	$5,675,000

The insurance of $3,500,000 is divided among about 80 companies.

There was comparatively little suffering reported among the fire victims. So prompt and efficient was the relief work that practically no one was without shelter during the night. Monday the relief work was taken up by those who handled the Massachusetts fund for San Francisco sufferers.

Early in the day Mayor Beck issued an appeal to the country, but after a conference with Acting Gov. Eben S. Draper, the appeal was amended so as to include only the state. Announcement was made that $39,238 had been raised by subscription in Boston before night. In addition, the city of Chelsea appropriated $10,000, and a resolve for $100,000 from the state was introduced in the house of representatives. Many nearby cities announced the starting of subscription papers.

TO PRESERVE STREAM RIGHTS.

President Sends in Veto Message on Power Privileges.

Washington.—In a special message Monday vetoing a dam bill, President Roosevelt warned congress that there are pending in this session bills which propose to give away without price stream-rights capable of developing 1,300,000 horse-power whose production would cost annually 25,000,000 tons of coal; urged in vigorous terms the establishment of a policy, such as the filibustering minority in the house demands, which would safeguard the granting of bridge and dam privileges and require the grantees to pay for them, and definitely announced a future policy on his part with regard to prompt utilization of construction privileges, by refusing his signature to a bill giving an additional three years to the Rainy River Improvement company within which to build a dam in the Rainy river.

Recommended His Wife.
Irvin Cobb, humorist of New York, was recommended to a lecture management. The latter sought an introduction through a friend, Mr. McVeigh.
"Come here, Irvin, I want you to meet a friend of mine," said McVeigh. After a few minutes' conversation, the lecture man broached the subject of lecturing as follows:
"I was just wondering, Mr. Cobb, what you would think of a proposition to do some lecture work next season?"
Cobb looked at his questioner for just a moment in blank amazement. Evidently such a thought had never entered his head before. Then reaching out his hand confidentially, he said:
"I've got it. My wife will do it. She is the best one I know."—Lyceum and Talent.

LOST $300.

Buying Medicine When Right Food Was Needed.

Money spent for "tonics" and "bracers" to relieve indigestion, while the poor old stomach is loaded with pastry and pork, is worse than losing a pocketbook containing the money.

If the money only is lost it's bad enough, but with lost health from wrong eating, it is hard to make the money back.
A Mich. young lady lost money on drugs but is thankful she found a way to get back her health by proper food. She writes:
"I had been a victim of nervous dyspepsia for six years and spent three hundred dollars for treatment in the attempt to get well. None of it did me any good.
"Finally I tried Grape-Nuts food, and the results were such that, if it cost a dollar a package, I would not be without it. My trouble had been caused by eating rich food such as pastry and pork.
"The most wonderful thing that ever happened to me, I am sure, was the change in my condition after I began to eat Grape-Nuts. I began to improve at once and the first week gained four pounds.
"I feel that I cannot express myself in terms that are worthy of the benefit Grape-Nuts has brought to me, and you are perfectly free to publish this letter if it will send some poor sufferer relief, such as has come to me."
