I desire to give my most heart felt thanks to the young people who were so considerate as to pay my doctor bill and otherwise assist me since my accident the Fourth. Words cannot express my gratitude to the young people. AMOS KIDWELL.

Comprehensive Blessing:
The father of a family being absent at dinner, the mother called on little five-year-old Ernest to say the blessing. Folding his hands and bending his head, he said: "Dear Lord, sometimes we have more and sometimes less, but we're very thankful."

Immutable Conditions:
Another doctor has denounced corsets for women as being the source of innumerable troubles. This is a nice situation for him. The women won't give up corsets and so much the more work for the physicians. Women are what they are and cannot be changed.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Tree Resembles Umbrella:
A curious tree grows in one of the numerous islands which are studded about the Pacific ocean. It grows, at its full height, to nearly 30 feet, with branches spreading like a huge umbrella, yet it is completely leafless, the species having never been known to show signs of a single bud. Its sap is useful as a medicine, but as fuel the wood is worse than useless, being as hard as iron and quite as difficult to ours.

Iowa Farm For Sale:

That Lame Back Means Kidney Disease
And to Relieve the Lame and Aching Back, You Must First Relieve the Kidneys
There is no question about that at all—for the lame and aching back is caused by a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder. It is only common sense, any way—that you must cure a condition by removing the cause of the condition. And lame and aching back are not by any means the only symptoms of derangement of the kidneys and bladder. There are a multitude of well-known and unmistakable indications of a more or less dangerous condition. Some of these are, for instance: Extreme and unnatural lassitude and weariness, nervous irritability, heart irregularity, "nerves on edge," sleeplessness and inability to secure rest, scalding sensation and sediment in the urine, inflammation of the bladder and passages, etc.

The ancient Romans observed the lion solely as a symbol of love and friendship. With them, as with the Anglo-Saxon race today, the firm handshake was the usual form of salutation in public. In medieval times the lion became the symbol of other sentiments. The vassal had to kiss the sword of his feudal lord. The "oculus gladii" correct! was the symbol of fealty. In courts of justice the crucifix on the Bible was kissed, a custom still extant.

THE END

Butter boxes made of straw, in future the boxes containing butter shipped from Queensland to Great Britain are to be made of straw, and a $50,000 company has been formed to work the business. Butter boxes hitherto have been made of pine, but the drain upon this timber, owing to the heavy exports, have been so heavy that the wood is rapidly going up in price. In one month (March, 1908) over 20,000 boxes of butter from Queensland arrived in England. A $1,250,000 worth of straw in the new box is a mixture of kaolin and straw is used; it can be produced and sold for 1s. At present 3,000,000 boxes are used in Australia annually, costing £2,200,000. The new box will save the dairy industry about $40,000 a year, as the material for manufacturing the box can be grown in the paddock which supports a cow. It weighs about 10½ pounds, being damp proof and odorless.

BABEL BUILDING

BY REV. A. C. DUNN, D. D.
Author of "The City of Dreadful Night"

Our children now know that the purpose of these Babel builders was to make a tower that might climb into Heaven upon it has no support in the record. They did not want to go to Heaven, but, on the contrary, to remain and have fame upon the earth. Let us make us a name," expresses their purpose in building both city and tower. The expression "unto Heaven" does not mean "into Heaven." Whose top may touch the sky" expresses the meaning. In our modern speech we would say a "skyscraper." The same thought is expressed in Deut. 1:35; when the Canaanites are said to have been "great and walled up to heaven." Their walls were "skyscrapers."

The iniquity of this city and tower building was in the fact that they built only for themselves. "Let us make US a name, lest WE be forgotten," gives the motive which reveals the moral quality of the purpose. They would, like Cain, build a city and a civilization without altar or temple. They would eliminate God. They are self-centered, self-sufficient and self-satisfied.

But God will not be left out. He thrusts himself upon nations, communities and individuals who would leave him out of their lives and plans. The Lord came down to see the city and the tower which the children of men builded. They would erect monuments to man, but no temple to God. Humanity was their God. Their creed was that man is the highest expression of God and, therefore, needs no other god. They defied self. But God will not be ignored.

He saw the evil which would result from their self-defying course, and struck the note of warning. "This they begin to do," and now nothing will be restrained from them which they have imagined to do. Evil, if left alone, will grow worse and worse. "Imagination," says Napoleon, "rules the world." And evil imagination is a mighty power against God and right conscience. To let sin alone is to cultivate it. It is a wild weed which grows without attention. If it is a fire which, once started, is hard to put out.

The Lord did there confound the language of all the earth. When men leave God out of their thoughts and plans his method is to confound their language and thus break up their federation of unbelief. The infidelity of one age destroys the infidelity of another age. A few years ago agnosticism was popular in the world of unbelief; now it is almost extinct, destroyed by another cult of unbelief, which asserts that everybody can easily know God, for everything is God. When a new infidel lad arises in any quarter, you only have to wait awhile to see another infidel fade and destroy it. Babel builders of all ages are thus confounded in language and scattered. The selfish ambition of one soon conflicts with the self-interest of another and the result is alienation. Self-seeking brings confusion. It leads to misunderstandings and divisions.

We are all building babels or temples. A temple is a structure built for God, dedicated to God in every part and used only for God. A Babel is a structure built for self, dedicated to self and used for self. Is our business a temple for God or a Babel for self? Is our home a temple or a Babel? Is our single purpose to glorify Christ or would we like to share the glory with him? Is it, then, half temple and half Babel we are building? May these questions search our hearts in such a way as to result in every life's becoming a temple for God.

Napoleon III of France decided that Rosa Bonheur, the famous painter of animals, was worthy of the cross of the Legion of Honor, but he hesitated about giving it, for no other woman had been thus honored. One day the empress visited Rosa in her studio and found her in soiled working garb, no little embarrassed by this sudden appearance of royalty in her workshop, and the embarrassment was increased when the empress gave her an affectionate kiss. But after the empress had departed, imagine the surprise of the artist, when she saw pinned on her soiled jacket the cross of the Legion of Honor. It came when she was busy with her routine duties, doing the next thing the best she could. And so God's "well done" comes to the humblest of his servants while they are busy with the humdrum work of carving stones out of daily duties and placing them in Life's temple to his glory.

A SURE SIGN

When It Appears Act at Once

Trouble with the kidney excretions is a certain sign that your kidneys are deranged and that you should use Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure all irregularities and annoyances, remove poisons and stale fluids and restore the kidneys to health.

Charles Cole, 204 N. Rockway St., Iola, Kansas, says: "The kidney excretions were irregular, scanty and painful, and contained sediment. My back was stiff and lame and my limbs swelled. I grew weak and discouraged. Doan's Kidney Pills removed these troubles entirely. I have been well for two years."

Remember the name—Doan's. Sold by all druggists. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

HEARTLESS

Horace—Ah! Miss Grace, what should a young man do when he wants to write spring poetry?

Grace—He should see a doctor.

Physician's Mean Trick.

A doctor was one day stopped in the streets by one of his woman-patients whose malady was purely imaginary. The doctor, who was known for his intolerance and nonsympathy with such invalids, after listening somewhat impatiently to the woman's detailed account of all her feelings and symptoms, told her to shut her eyes and put out her tongue. She promptly did so. On opening her eyes in a few seconds the doctor was nowhere to be seen, and the woman awoke to the fact that he had left her standing by herself in a busy thoroughfare with her eyes shut and her tongue hanging out.

The Water Hole.

He was six years old and had never gazed into the mystic lens of a microscope. Several slides containing animalcules had been displayed to his astonished vision. He was too amazed to make any comment until he came to one slide that seemed more weirdly than any of the others. It was merely a drop of water.

The little fellow gazed at it a long time, with all its nimble particles of animal life, and finally exclaimed to his mother:

"Oh, mamma, now I know what it is that bites you when you drink soda water."

And the Old Man Grinned.

"Duke," said the waitress, eagerly, "did you see father?"

"Yes."

"Well?"

"We talked about the weather."

"What? Loss your nerve again? Why don't you brace up and talk like a man?—a subject of a king on whose domain the sun never sets!"

"Can't," moaned the duke. "All the time I was in your father's office he kept grinning at a big painting."

"What painting?"

"The battle of Bunker Hill."

THE NEW WOMAN

Made Over by Quitting Coffee

Coffee probably wrecks a greater percentage of Southerners than of Northern people for Southerners use it more freely.

The work it does is distressing enough in some instances; as an illustration, a woman of Richmond, Va., writes:

"I was a coffee drinker for years and for about six years my health was completely shattered. I suffered fearfully with headache and nervousness, also palpitation of the heart and loss of appetite."

"My sight gradually began to fail and finally I lost the sight of one eye altogether. The eye was operated upon and the sight partially restored, then I became totally blind in the other eye."

"My doctor tried to urge me to give up coffee, but I was willful and continued to drink it until finally in a state of severe illness the doctor insisted that I must give up the coffee, and I began using Postum, and in a month I felt like a new creature."

"I steadily gained in health and strength. About a month ago I began using Grape-Nuts food and the effect has been wonderful. I really feel like a new woman and have gained about 25 pounds."

"I am quite an elderly lady and before using Postum and Grape-Nuts I could not walk a square without exceeding fatigue, now I walk ten or twelve without feeling it. Formerly in reading I could remember but little but now my memory holds fast what I read."

Several friends who have seen the remarkable effects of Postum and Grape-Nuts on me have urged that I give the facts to the public for the sake of suffering humanity, so, although I dislike publicity, you can publish this letter if you like."

Read "The Road to Wellville," in plgn. "There's a Reason."
