THE MAUD STEVENS CONCERT COMPANY.

That is the name of the last number on the local Lyceum course for this season. Frank McClure Chaffee, the present president of the Lyceum Bureau, who recently lectured here told me that he thought we would enjoy this number more than any of the others, and he is in a position to know the merits of the company. That they should be better than the Rounds and the Lyrics, is saying a great deal, and it means that you will have a rare treat. They carry an impersonator, a whistler, a violinist and a pianist; all artists of the greatest ability. You will be profited by hearing them.

They will appear on the evening of March 15th, at the Christian church. Tickets on sale at Fogue's drug store for 50 cents.

Let me say a word for the men who are guaranteeing this course. They have placed themselves behind it that the town might have a good course of entertainment, without any possibility of remuneration for themselves, agreeing that if there were any profits, they should go to the city library. But instead of there being any profits, there will be a considerable deficit that these public spirited men will have to make up, simply because the course has not been patronized as well as it has deserved to be, for we are assured that it is the best course the town has ever had. Now will not you people who have not been patronizing this course, buy tickets to this one that you may lessen the sum that these men will have to pay?

SERIOUS INJURY.

Bert Brown of Lovington received serious injuries Thursday morning by falling from the court house steps. He was very drunk and was sitting asleep on the freer stone projections just outside the north door of the court house with his feet resting on the steps. He raised up and leaning backwards overbalanced and fell a distance of about twelve feet lighting on the top of his head at the foot of the stairway leading into the basement, as the steps and all he came in contact with were stone, the lighting was hard, a bad gash was cut in his head which took a number of stitches to close. Drs. Williamson and Scarborough took care of him. He is an old man 67 years old, he exhausted his vocabulary of profanity more than once during the day as it was one continuous round of profanity from the time he was rescued and taken in to the court house, then after he was taken to the sheriff's room the same. It was not the man but rum that did it all, and yet men sign petitions and vote for saloon license.

Attention Farmers!

WORK SOLICITED—This is the time to bring in your discs and have them sharpened and plows pointed. Look over all your plow shovels and see if they need repairs. I can save you money on your new shovels. Bring in your old shovels. I make a specialty of horse shoeing. I have in connection with my blacksmith shop, Al Miers, who does wagon wood work, plow wood work, etc.

MARRIAGES

PERRY—SIMS

M. W. Perry and Miss Sadie Sims were married in Decatur Wednesday morning of last week.

The groom is a very highly respected young farmer living east of Sullivan on the R. P. McPheter's farm. The bride is a most estimable young lady. The Herald extends congratulations and well wishes.

The Sleep of Indifference.

Two young girls were drunk and in the hands of the worst set of moral lepers and lechers in this town all one night last week, while the father of one of the girls vainly sought admission to the den in which his daughter was being debauched. And these wretches for whom hell itself is far too good have been harbored in Shelbyville for years, while they have piled their devilish trade almost unmolsted, Nothing in the vice infested districts of Chicago, St. Louis, or even Mattoon, exceeds the rottenness if this festering mess. Something ought to be done about it!—Shelby County Leader.

Where are the officers of Shelbyville? The saloons of Shelbyville are demoralizing the men and boys of Findlay too. One man remarked recently that, size considered, Shelbyville harbors more sin and vice than does Chicago.—Ex.

Where are the officers of Shelbyville and other towns where girls and boys are loafing about depots, court houses, etc., when they should be with their parents? Too many people throw the responsibility on the one or two policemen, when it is the duty, largely, of the county superintendent of schools and state's attorney judges, both circuit and county, of each county to care for all the boys and girls under age, who get out of line. Let these officers do their duty if they want the support and respect of the people.

Coming home to Moultrie county, should children go home at the close of school or go to the court house parlor? Is there any excuse for a bunch of girls to go there, making pretense of studying their lessons, as some are doing now? Home is the place, and the only place for girls. Making a study room of the resting room in the court house should be forbidden. Let girls keep their places and there will be less complaint against the men.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wolf entertain fifty young people Thursday evening at their home in honor of the eighteenth birthday of their son, Frank.

See A. Chipps for fruit trees and ornamental bushes. Phone 177.

She Caught a Beau.

A 14 year old Clarksburg girl who is in the habit of making the trains and flirting with the trainmen, succeeded in landing a beau the other night, says the Clarksburg Journal.

She gaily consented when he asked to walk home with her; she was romantic still. Her newly found acquaintance asked to be led to her home and upon arriving there boldy rang the bell. Her mother came to door and Mr. Traveling Man delivered a short lecture like this:

"Madam, here is your little girl. I picked her up at the depot, a place where girls of her age should not go unless on business. I have a daughter at home about the age of this one. I am away from home a great deal and don't know for certain whether my daughter meets the trains and flirts with the trainmen and passengers or not; but it she does, I hope someone will do that which I have done for you—take her home to her mother.

Gays News

Ed Ely of Mattoon was stabbed by Pete Dunn, in Mattoon, Wednesday afternoon. He was disemboweled by the knife and it is thought he cannot recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman and children of Gays departed Monday for Pasadena, Cal. for a year's visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Bowman also goes for the benefit of his health.

February 24, Ross Beals, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Beals of Mattoon, left his home, wife and parents, in company with an adventuress woman by the name of Mrs. Treasie Tillman, or Sigel. The saddest part of the story is that he took his five year old son, the idol of two homes as the grandparents were very strongly attached to the little fellow. The mother and grandparents were grief stricken at the loss of their baby. The wife was taken into the home of the city. Beals had given a permanent home. Dan Beals is a grocerman in Mattoon and made his son a partner, and has done much for him as he is wayward and has caused him much trouble. He had sold his interest in the store and had his possessions in cash, taking $700 with him. It is reported that the woman has committed the same act before but when the bank account gave out, looked for other men with a fat purse. The parties had been searched for from the eastern to the western border of the United States. It was thought a few days ago that they were in Pasadena, California. Later a clue led D. E. Beals to Indianapolis. He was there Sunday when a telephone message told them the child was in Sullivan, having been brought there by Joseph Powell, a former resident of Mattoon, who had been living in Oklahoma City several years. Ross Beals meeting Powell in Oklahoma City, asked him to bring the child back to Illinois, he did so, arriving in Sullivan Saturday. Sunday Joseph Powell asked William Powell to come get the child and take it to Ed Beals who lives three miles distant from him, but Wm. Powell notified its grandfather and mother in Mattoon and in about two hours after he got home, they came for the child, driving from Mattoon. The mother taking her child in her arms and sobbing as only a mother can, whose lost baby is found. No further attempt will be made by Mattoon authorities to locate the runaway pair, as all that was sought from the first was the child. The child's relatives abound in and around this village. Dr. F. M. Beals a former Gays physician is an uncle. The child is a descendant of the Armantout family. Its parents lived for a number of years in and near Gays and are highly respected people.
