Absolutely Pure

The Woman Makes the Home

She makes it best who, looking after the culinary department, turns her back resolutely upon unhealthful, or even suspicious, food accessories. She is economical; she knows that true economy does not consist in the use of inferior meat, flour, or baking powder. She is an earnest advocate of home made, home baked food, and has proved the truth of the statements of the experts that the best cooking in the world today is done with Royal Baking Powder.

Elmer Collins and his bride arrived in Sullivan, Monday morning. After their marriage in Mt. Vernon on Wednesday of last week, they visited in St. Louis and Chicago. They do not expect to keep house, but are rooming at F. W. Drisha's and taking their meals in Miss Sadie Scott's boarding house.

The Illinois Central has repaired the crossing on Hamilton street, near the Powers elevator. We don't know whether it was done voluntarily by the railroad company or at the suggestion of the city authorities, but it had been needed for a long time. The improvement will be greatly appreciated by the traveling public, and especially by the automobile speeders.

H. M. (Hardin) Myers will sell his personal property at a public sale on his farm four miles north of the Sullivan railroad depots Tuesday, Dec. 10 and move to Sullivan. The family will live in the residence property on East Jackson street that formerly belonged to M. G. Kibbe. W. H. Bushart has rented Mr. Myers' farm. Mr. Bushart is at present living on E. W. Lanum's farm west of Bruce.

Mrs. J. N. Mattox, living two miles south of Sullivan, entertained three of her sisters Thursday of last week. The names of the women are Mrs. Sarah Henderson living near Windsor, Mrs. Mina Edwards, near Shanghai, Whitley township and Mrs. Lucetta Britton living near Bedford, Ohio. The first three are over seventy years of age. Their maiden name was Beck, and they were reared near Cincinnati, Ohio.

A woman living in a well furnished house in Sullivan, owning a piano and giving her children music lessons, made a plea to our supervisor that she had to wash for her living and if they gave her husband a jail sentence for bootlegging the county would have to keep her. The supervisor answered, "Alright, I am ready to take you to the county farm at any time you wish to go." She still resides in Sullivan. Her husband is boarding with Sheriff Fleming.

THROW OUT THE LINE
The Kidneys Help and Many People Will Be Happier.

"Throw Out the Life Line"—The kidneys need help. They're overworked—can't get the poison filtered out of the blood. They're getting worse every minute. Will you help them? Doan's Kidney Pills have brought thousands of kidney sufferers back from the verge of despair. Read this cure: Mrs. I. P. Cooper, 700 E. Broadway, Mattoon, Ill., says: "About two years ago I was suddenly attacked by sharp pains in the small of my back and I was hardly able to get around for a few days. Soon after I began the use of Doan's Kidney Pills I was relieved. About a year later I had a recurrence of the trouble and at that time this remedy did as good work as before. I heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and willingly give a public account of my experience."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.—Adv.

IMPROVEMENT OF DAIRY CATTLE BY CAREFUL SELECTION AND BREEDING

Leland Prize, a Pure Bred Holstein.

By PROFESSOR C. C. HAYDEN, University of Illinois.

There are in Illinois over 1,000,000 cows used for dairy purposes, of which not over two per cent. are pure-bred and of only a fraction of one per cent. have accurate records of production been kept either officially or privately.

Not all persons can have pure-bred animals, but all can use good bulls to grade up their herds, and one of the best ways to convince a man of the value of well bred stock is to demonstrate to him the effect of a pure-bred sire on a grade herd.

Very little concerted action has been taken by even the breeders of pure-bred cattle to advance the interests of their respective breeds.

THREE BULLETINS RECENTLY ISSUED

Concerning Meat.—Up—up—up goes the price of meat, and the end is not yet in sight, for the demand for beef cattle is greater than the supply.

The University of Illinois agricultural experiment station has just published a hundred-page bulletin, No. 155, entitled "Relative Economy, Composition, and Nutritive Value of the Various Cuts of Beef."

Rations for Dairy Cows.—Are you one of the many dairymen who still persist in feeding your dairy cows a ration composed largely of corn and such roughage as corn stover, timothy hay, etc., which make an unbalanced ration?

Benefits of Separator.—The introduction of the hand separator has made it possible for the farmer to dispose of his cream at the highest market price and save the wife the weary work of caring for the milk, cream and churning.

been heard from this association. At the state fair in 1908 a state Holstein-Friesian association was organized which is doing a little active work.

A part of the income from a well-regulated dairy farm comes from the sale of surplus stock. The better the reputation of a community for good cattle, the more buyers it will attract and the better the prices that can be obtained.

If a breeder cannot fill an order it is to his advantage to have a neighbor who can fill it, and to this end a list of stock for sale can be published periodically.

By co-operation with farmers' institutes, better speakers on dairy subjects could be secured and general dairy information could be distributed among the members.

MADE A CLEAN JOB OF IT

First Time Old Gentleman Had Eaten a Crab and He Left Nothing on the Dish.

A jolly old boy, from the Midlands entered into one of the hotels at the seaside, and, seeing on the slab on the right a crab dressed on the shell with legs, claws and parsley ranged round, said to the landlord:

"What do you call that?" "Crab," was the answer.

"Looks good. I'll have 'un; and give us a pint o' ale." Bread and butter was added and the dinner left to his dinner. In about an hour the genial landlord entered the dining-room to see if his guest was getting on all right.

"Yes; he was capital. I never tasted one afore. But I think you baked 'un a little too long; the crust was hard. Let's have another pint."

He had eaten the lot—shell, claws and all complete.—London Tit-Bits.

RASH SPREAD TO ARMS

759 Roach Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.—"At first I noticed small eruptions on my face. The trouble began as a rash. It looked like red pimples.

They itched and burned so badly that I scratched them and of course the result was blood and matter. The eruptions feasted, broke, opened and dried up, leaving the skin dry, and scaly. I spent many sleepless nights, my back, arms and face burning and itching; sleep was purely and simply out of the question. The trouble also caused disfigurement. My clothing irritated the breaking out.

"By this time I had used several well-known remedies without success. The trouble continued. Then I began to use the sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Within seven or eight days I noticed gratifying results. I purchased a full-sized cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and in about eighteen or twenty days my cure was complete."

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston." Adv.

ROYALTY WELCOMES THE AMERICAN SETTLER

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, WELCOMES AMERICANS TO CANADA.

It was a happy speech, that on that beautiful October day, the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada, made at Macleod, Alberta.

"I am well aware that among those whom I am now addressing, there are a very great proportion who were not born under the British flag. Most of these will have realized by now that residence under that flag implies no disabilities.

"With this provision every one is free to come and go, to marry, to live and to die as seems best to him, and as it pleases Providence."

"We bring no pressure to bear on anyone to adopt the Canadian nationality, for we do not value citizenship which is obtained under compulsion." "Our American cousins are welcome from over the border. Thrice we welcome our Canadian and British brothers, who return to the Union Jack, after living under the Stars and Stripes."

"History is repeating itself. For many years hundreds of young Brit-landers have sought fortune in the western States. Time has brought about a change, and the tide has set in the other direction, bringing across the frontier numbers of our neighbors to whom we are glad to return hospitality."

"What it has lost from the picturesque point of view, it has gained in the material side, and I wish, in conclusion, to express the hope that the prosperity which has evinced itself here for the past ten years, may continue unabated in the future."

There is no reason why at a hundred places on this educative, instructive and interesting trip of His Royal Highness he might not have expressed himself in the same terms, and on each occasion, addressed large gatherings of Americans who are now settled on the prairies of Western Canada.—Advertisement.

Not Needed. While a traveling man was waiting for an opportunity to show his samples to a merchant in a little backwoods town in Missouri, a customer came in and bought a couple of night-shirts. Afterwards a long, lank lumberman, with his trousers stuffed in his boots, said to the merchant:

"What was them 'ere that feller bot?" "Night shirts. Can I sell you one or two?" "Naup, I reckon not," said the Missourian: "I don't set around much o' nights."—Lippincott's.

Counsel of Despair. "I want a piece of meat without any bone, fat or gristle," said the bride, on her first trip to market. "Yes, ma'am," replied the butcher. "I would suggest that you take an egg."—Youth's Companion.

After Dinner Joke. In the great Pecos valley apple country of New Mexico the latest arrival is always asked: "What is worse than biting into an apple and finding a worm?" He is stumped. They tell him: "Finding half a worm."

Equivocal. "Thrifty habits are your friends." "Yes, I suppose a man nowadays is known by the bank accounts he keeps."

JUST WHAT THEY EXPECTED

Committee Made No Mistake When They Looked for Almost Inevitable Comment.

A committee of investigating scientists approached a lady.

"Madam," said Professor Prewins, the spokesman, offering her a magnificent chrysanthemum of rare and lovely hue. "Madam, permit me to present this flower to you as a token of our high regard."

She clasped the splendid blossom in her lily white hand. Breathlessly the committee waited for reply.

"How beautiful it is," she answered. "What an exquisite shade of purple! I should love to have a dress of that color."

Doctor Prewins nodded knowingly to the committee, as if to say, "I told you so."

The committee winked to the professor and whispered, "You win."

Similarly Minded. The village tailor only received occasional orders from the vicar for such articles as hats, collars, or handkerchiefs. "You see," remarked the vicar one day, having called with his usual order, "when I went to London. They make them there."

Calling again a few days later, the vicar remarked that he had not seen the tailor at church lately.

"No," replied the tailor, "when I want to hear a good sermon I go to London; they preach them there."
