

Wm. H. Patterson

Sullivan Express

The Sullivan Express

AN INDEPENDENT JOURNAL DEVOTED TO THE BEST INTEREST OF MOULTRIE COUNTY.

James D. Moody, Publisher. "WE HOLD THE BALANCE WITH AN EQUAL HAND AND WEIGH WHATEVER JUSTICE DOETH DEMAND." $1.50 in Advance.

VOL. 1 SULLIVAN, MOULTRIE CO. IL. THURSDAY, JAN. 14, 1858. NO. 19.

SULLIVAN EXPRESS
Published every Thursday by J. D. MOODY.
Price $1.50 in Advance.

Rules of Advertisers
One square (10 lines) one insertion, $1.00
Each subsequent insertion, 50c
One square three months, $25.00
Six months, $45.00
One year, $80.00
Business cards, less than a square, 50c
No advertisement considered for change or by the year, unless a special contract is made to that effect.

THE BACKWOODS DUEL
How Bill Wade killed two persons with one blow.

"BILL WADE," as he was known among the inhabitants of the small village of C..., in Mississippi, was a young man of about twenty-four years of age, with a Herculean frame, a big shaggy head, and small gray eyes that were as quick to light up with anger as to sparkle with a joke. Bill was, by profession, a wood-chopper, yet notwithstanding his humble position in life, was quite a distinguished person in the community in which he lived. He was in fact one of the handsomest men of the time. (I am writing, reader, of what happened just twenty-one years ago this month.) Who, though surrounded by many, his superiors in wealth and education, yet maintained his position among the first in the little village in which he lived, partly because the community being small, every individual occupied a position of relative importance toward his neighbors, and partly because no one cared to slight, and in this way provoke the anger of so formidable a personage. Bill was, in fact, what is called a "scrapper." He could, for so he said himself, modestly not being one of the virtues of the wood-chopper, whip any man in the country, and would rather pitch into a fair fight than eat bread and drink beer in the State.

his remarks upon a youth named Edmund Gaskett, who had only a couple of months before entered the village. He could scarcely have been nineteen years of age, for his pale face was so smooth and soft as a girl's, and no sign of beard had yet made its appearance upon his chin. In height he stood about five and a half feet, with a slight figure, and a handsome face and a pair of large black eyes of beautiful blue color. He had only left college a few months before, and had come to the village to look after some lands belonging to his mother, a wealthy widow in a neighboring State. Since his arrival in the village he had boarded at the house of Mrs. Barton, also a widow, with an only daughter, Lucy Barton, was just sixteen years of age, and so the young men of the village said, was the prettiest blue-eyed girl in the country.

Wade made love to her in his rude way, but with little or rather with no success whatever. There was no congeniality between the gentle blue-eyed girl and the ruffian-like wood-chopper. Gaskett, to make a long story as short as possible, was at once smitten with the village maiden and the young girl, in a short time, fully reciprocated his affection. Their evenings were spent together at the house of her mother, and the youth sought no other society. Bill Wade of course hated Gaskett, for human nature is much the same all the world over, and a successful rival is as sure to be hated upon the bluffs of the Mississippi as upon the classic banks of the Arno. As usual with him, Wade took no pains to conceal his feelings. He had been grossly made to Gaskett on several occasions even during the short time he had been in the village, and once remarked loud enough for the youth to hear, that he thought it would be safe for that young puppy, Gaskett, to take up his traps and travel. All though Wade had made this remark in the presence of several persons, Gaskett had made no reply whatever, though his dark eye a moment gleamed with an expression of ferocity, which those who had not seen would scarcely have believed possible, so sad was the natural expression of his face. But all this time Wade is sitting on the returned whiskey barrel.

"Boys," said he, "I'll tell you what if that young chap puts on any airs with me, I'll treat him so, he'll think he's upset a hornet's nest with nothing on but his shirt."

"Look here, Bill," said the most youthful of the four, "you'd better leave that young fellow be, or may be, little as he is, he'll pay you up. The night you said he'd better take up his traps and travel, though he said every word, I saw hell shining out of both eyes, and maybe he'll scorch you yet." The speaker said this half in jest and half in earnest, but Bill laughed scornfully and rejoined:

"What! that popinjay! Why, he hasn't pluck enough to fight a shadow, and if he had, I'm substance, and he couldn't stand that I know, and Bill showed his enormous big fist."

Bill Wade, as he was known among the inhabitants of the small village of C..., in Mississippi, was a young man of about twenty-four years of age, with a Herculean frame, a big shaggy head, and small gray eyes that were as quick to light up with anger as to sparkle with a joke. Bill was, by profession, a wood-chopper, yet notwithstanding his humble position in life, was quite a distinguished person in the community in which he lived. He was in fact one of the handsomest men of the time. (I am writing, reader, of what happened just twenty-one years ago this month.) Who, though surrounded by many, his superiors in wealth and education, yet maintained his position among the first in the little village in which he lived, partly because the community being small, every individual occupied a position of relative importance toward his neighbors, and partly because no one cared to slight, and in this way provoke the anger of so formidable a personage. Bill was, in fact, what is called a "scrapper." He could, for so he said himself, modestly not being one of the virtues of the wood-chopper, whip any man in the country, and would rather pitch into a fair fight than eat bread and drink beer in the State.

Bill Wade, as he was known among the inhabitants of the small village of C..., in Mississippi, was a young man of about twenty-four years of age, with a Herculean frame, a big shaggy head, and small gray eyes that were as quick to light up with anger as to sparkle with a joke. Bill was, by profession, a wood-chopper, yet notwithstanding his humble position in life, was quite a distinguished person in the community in which he lived. He was in fact one of the handsomest men of the time. (I am writing, reader, of what happened just twenty-one years ago this month.) Who, though surrounded by many, his superiors in wealth and education, yet maintained his position among the first in the little village in which he lived, partly because the community being small, every individual occupied a position of relative importance toward his neighbors, and partly because no one cared to slight, and in this way provoke the anger of so formidable a personage. Bill was, in fact, what is called a "scrapper." He could, for so he said himself, modestly not being one of the virtues of the wood-chopper, whip any man in the country, and would rather pitch into a fair fight than eat bread and drink beer in the State.

Sullivan Express.

JAMES D. HOODY, Editor & Publisher.

SULLIVAN ILLS.

Thursday, Jan. 11, 1888.

AGENTS.

The following named gentlemen are authorized to receive and receipt subscriptions for the "Express."

NOTICE TO ALL.

Having procured the assistance of Stephen Cannon Esq., of Lovington to act as our agent for receiving subscriptions for the "Express," we would respectfully say to all;

ANNIVERSARY.

Bible Meeting!

The friends of the Bible cause in Montrie county, are hereby notified that the anniversary meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church, in Sullivan on Tuesday evening the 19th, inst., at 6 o'clock P. M.

- Officers, Delegates, and Agents will meet one hour previous to the regular exercises.
Jan. 8th 1888.
Montrie vs. Schyler.
The following Hogs were weighed by W. L. Hayden, for Pattersons Scales, for Dole & Bros this season after being fifteen several miles:
Jacob McCune, 29 Average, 374.
Saml. McCune, 30 317.
R. Clarge, 5 348.
Jackson Hash, 20 308.
A. J. Monroe, 50 298.
Jeb Evans, 8 300.
Martin Woodruff, 69 295.

Well done for Pana. We have received the Weekly Herald, published at Pana Christian County, at the crossing of the Illinois Central, and Terre-Haute, and Aron Rail Road. The "Herald" is a large and well conducted paper, and we should judge starts under favorable auspices.

Peter Smith's new two-story frame was blown down last Sunday night - kerphunlix.

Those in need of the staff of life, had better call on McClure. He takes good bread.
Sullivan Express.
Will meet on Friday Evening Jan. 15th, at the M. O. Academy.
Question Resolved: That the interests of the United States require the annexation of the Island of Cuba as a State.
Disputants.
Jonathan Meeker, A. E. Lee, J. R. Eden, T. P. Wooten, H. Y. Keller, E. B. Rutherford, A. N. Smiser, A. L. Keller, B. W. Henry, N. W. Branson.
A full attendance of the friends of the society is solicited.
Ladies are invited to attend. Warm seats will be brilliantly lighted.
A. N. Smiser, Secy.

Public Speech.

Delivered by N. W. BRANSON, at the public installation of the officers of the Sons of Temperance held at the Christian church, January 2nd., 1888.—Ed.

Brothers & Sisters, LADIES & GENTLEMEN:

One of the pious ancients, wishing to bring down upon his enemy the sorest evil he could conceive of, uttered the prayer, "O that mine enemy might write a book!" Now the vexations and difficulties and disappointments of authorship are confessedly great; but I know of one thing in which they are immeasurably greater.

The subject is so vast and comprehensive, that it requires the widest grasp of intellect to embrace it; and at the same time it is so old and hackneyed, that only the most brilliant imagination can render it attractive. Genius itself can scarcely handle it with success; and for a person of ordinary attainments to attempt it, is to insure a failure.

Naturalists tell us of a large and fatal serpent, which, slowly and stealthily coiling himself around the sleeping traveller, wraps himself around limb after limb, until he has the whole body in his unrelenting folds. The unhappy man now wakens, but his struggles are in vain.

There is a serpent near the fireside and in the domestic circle of many in this community, no less unrelenting and fatal than that which, roams in the wilds of Asia and Africa. With like gradual and stealthy approaches, he is coiling himself round the unsuspecting victim, ready to crush him the moment he awakens.

How often do we hear the remark: "Mr. A. or Mr. B. is a young man of rare abilities. He has talent and skill, and might pursue a path of unclouded usefulness and honor, but ah! he drinks!"

the drunkard's grave. "O that men should put an enemy into their mouths to shut away their brains that we should with joy, pleasure, revel and joyous transform ourselves into beasts!"

Are there any here to-night around whom the serpent has begun to coil himself? Any round whom the folds are beginning to contract?

But this requires a mighty effort. The serpent is huge and powerful, and will never yield an inch until you make him. You perhaps will need assistance. You would like the sympathy of friends and brothers.

And, my friend, distrust those who would cast stars upon such a noble organization. Put no faith in those, who, though professed friends of temperance, will talk sneeringly of its inefficiency, or bribe unworthy members.

But let's look a moment at these objections. We admit, you say, that we have occasionally an unworthy member! But has not also the church of Christ?

But it is objected that there are peculiar reasons to justify secrecy in each of the cases to which you have referred. Granted; but there is no single one of those reasons which will not apply with equal force to our order.

the drunkard's grave. "O that men should put an enemy into their mouths to shut away their brains that we should with joy, pleasure, revel and joyous transform ourselves into beasts!"

Are there any here to-night around whom the serpent has begun to coil himself? Any round whom the folds are beginning to contract?

But this requires a mighty effort. The serpent is huge and powerful, and will never yield an inch until you make him. You perhaps will need assistance. You would like the sympathy of friends and brothers.

And, my friend, distrust those who would cast stars upon such a noble organization. Put no faith in those, who, though professed friends of temperance, will talk sneeringly of its inefficiency, or bribe unworthy members.

But let's look a moment at these objections. We admit, you say, that we have occasionally an unworthy member! But has not also the church of Christ?

But it is objected that there are peculiar reasons to justify secrecy in each of the cases to which you have referred. Granted; but there is no single one of those reasons which will not apply with equal force to our order.

and secretly. It is the successor of a great and powerful temperance movement, which finally failed through lack of the advantages of secrecy. It took up the ball when the W. M. G. T. dropped it, and has kept it moving ever since.

It has succeeded where mere moral suasion has failed, where law has failed, where kindred societies have failed, and where the church has failed.

And now, fellow-citizens of Sullivan, I put you some home questions. Do you want to see our beautiful village take a high rank among inland towns? Would you draw in light-minded and liberal-hearted men from all sections of the country to build up the town and county and make the waste places rejoice and blossom as the rose?

Then join us in our holy crusade against intemperance! Help us to reclaim the inebriate and depopulate the dram-shop, send us the light of your countenance and the smile of your favor in our efforts for the reformation of the fallen and the strengthening of those who yet stand.

Another Suicide.—A young man named George B. Smith, well known from his connection with both the Chenery and St. Nicholas Hotels in the capacity of clerk, was found dead in his bed at the last named house on Sunday about noon.

He lay stretched upon his bed, with a ghastly wound in his left side, one of Cor's revolvers lying beside him, and his hands crossed upon his breast. He had a note, inclosing a sum of money to pay his funeral expenses, and directions where to apply for more in case the amount was insufficient; also stating that he had no cause to assign for the rash act he was about to commit.

HENRY W. LONGFELLOW. The day is done, the darkness falls from the wings of night, as a feather is wafted downward from an eagle's flight.

I see the lights of the village, Glow thro' the rain and the mist, And a feeling of sadness comes o'er me, That my soul can't resist.

For the sinner of Ananias and Sapphira. Their mighty thoughts suggest Life's endless toil and endeavor, And to-night I long for rest.

Read from some humble poet, Whose songs' come from his heart, Ashowers from the clouds of Summer, Or tears from the eyelids start.

And the night shall be filled with music, And the great deep shall infest the day, Shall fold their tents like the Arabs, And silently steal away.

I have lost my way. "I have lost my way," said a little girl to me this morning. She had wandered too far from her father's house. "I want to go home," the child said, and her tears fell thick and fast upon her little hands.

God has made the parent a type of his own infinite love; and if an earthly father can say, "It was meet that we should be merry and be glad, for this my son was dead, and is alive again, and was lost and is found," how much more will our Heavenly Father welcome the wanderer's return to his protecting love!

We call attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Zwick & Burg, who are engaged in the Shoe & Harness business. They do up their work in a neat and expeditious manner, and in a most satisfactory manner.

Those in need of the staff of life, had better call on McClure. He takes good bread. Sullivan Express. Will meet on Friday Evening Jan. 15th, at the M. O. Academy. Question Resolved: That the interests of the United States require the annexation of the Island of Cuba as a State. Disputants. Jonathan Meeker, A. E. Lee, J. R. Eden, T. P. Wooten, H. Y. Keller, E. B. Rutherford, A. N. Smiser, A. L. Keller, B. W. Henry, N. W. Branson. A full attendance of the friends of the society is solicited. Ladies are invited to attend. Warm seats will be brilliantly lighted. A. N. Smiser, Secy.

THE ANNOUN STORE.

P. B. Knight & Co.

In the building formerly occupied by J. J. & L. Hadden on the corner of Main and Madison.

We have now on hand and coming a large stock of all kinds of which have been selected especially for this market. We can and will offer great inducements to our old friends and the public generally.

DRY GOODS,

Goods will be offered at such prices that those wanting to purchase cannot fail to carry a few home with them.

Our stock consists in part of the following:

- DRY GOODS,
- GROceries,
- HARDWARE,
- QUEENSWARE,
- BOOTS & SHOES,
- HATS & CAPS,
- CUTLERY,
- YANKEE NOTIONS,
- JEWELRY,
- GUNS AND

STOVES,

and in fact every thing usually kept in dry goods stores.

We call the attention of the ladies particularly to our stock of Dress Goods comprising all of the latest style, all of which we will sell at small profit; please give us and your own county a call and examine our stock and prices before purchasing elsewhere, and you will be satisfied that you can save money by buying at our establishment. We will take great pleasure in showing you our goods.

P. B. Knight & Co.
Sullivan, Sept. 17.

ATTENTION ALL.

J. PERRYMAN,

Is still selling Goods

at the old stand.

He has a good stock of

DRY GOODS,

GROceries,

BOOTS & SHOES,

HATS & CAPS,

READY MADE

Clothing!

Hardware,
Queenware, &c.

with most other articles usually found in this market, which he will sell at ready prices, to make room for the large stock of new goods he intends bringing on soon. He invites his old customers and every body else to come along and take some of the good bargains.

My Motto is

Quick sales and small profits, and no stock!

He now offers his heartfelt acknowledgements to a generous and appreciating public for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon him.

For this Spring, and he hopes by strict attention to their wants, to merit a portion of their patronage.

We often hear it said and never knew it fall, the least a man gets cheated the sooner he'll come again.

N.B. All persons indebted to me whose accounts were due last Christmas, and prior to that time, must pay up. It takes something more substantial than promises to satisfy those to whom I am indebted, and I intend to pay them with what is due me.

JOHN PERRYMAN
Sullivan Sept. 17, -1 y

NEW AND FINE STORE.

B. W. HENRY & CO.

Would say to our customers and friends generally that we are Determined,

notwithstanding the present embarrassed condition of the commercial relations of our country, to continue to sell at the lowest practical rates.

GOODS,

We have on hand a good stock of

Winter Goods,

HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES,

AND DRY GOODS,

GROceries,

Thankful for the very liberal patronage that has been extended to us; we hope to merit the continuance of your favor.

To those that will pay cash for Goods we offer rare inducements; but will continue to sell on time at fair rates.

We would respectfully suggest to our friends who are yet in arrears to us that we must pay for our Goods and if you do not respond to our call and pay up, we can possibly be forced to collect every Dollar due us.

J. B. Knight & Co.
Sullivan, Sept. 17.

JOHN LOVE, S. M. KEARNEY,
Love & Kearney,
Take pleasure in announcing to their old friends and the public generally that they have on hand and are constantly receiving a large and well selected lot of

FALL

WINTER

DRY GOODS,

HATS & CAPS,

BOOTS & SHOES,

SADDLERY,

Clothing,

HARDWARE,

QUEENSWARE,

GROceries.

Call and see as we change nothing to show goods as we have no stock.

JOHN LOVE & KEARNEY,
North West corner public square,
Sept. 17, 1857. 2 tf.

NEW AND FINE STORE.

JAMES ELDER & SON.

Having bought out the stock of Goods At the Old Stand of Kellar & Cleeland, south of the public square. And are now opening a

SUPERB STOCK

OF

FASHIONABLE AND DURABLE

FALL & WINTER

GOODS,

Which they will sell At Prices to suit the Times.

Our stock of staple and Fancy Goods IS COMPLETE, embracing all usually kept in Dry Goods Stores. Our stock of is large and well assorted and we feel sure we can hold out great inducements for purchasers to buy.

BOOTS & SHOES

Our goods have been purchased during the recent financial convulsion at almost our own price. The buyer will see at a glance, the advantages to be had in patronizing this establishment, and an early call is respectfully solicited.

Dec. 17, '57.

KEEP YOUR FEET DRY.

Just received and for sale low for cash, a superior lot of

BOOTS & SHOES,

call and examine for yourselves as we will charge you nothing for showing goods.

J. E. Elder.

NEW CASH STORE.

H. F. Vadakin.

In Nabb's New Brick, west side Public Square. Having purchased the entire stock of

DRY GOODS,

HATS AND

LOWER PRICES

than ever offered before in this market. He cordially invites the attention of all in want of

CHEAP GOODS,

to an examination of his stock, as he will sell regardless of profits. He has now and will keep constantly on hand a well selected stock of

Dry Goods,

GROceries,

QUEENSWARE,

STONWARE,

HARDWARE,

BOOTS & SHOES,

HATS, & CAPS,

READERS ATTENTION!

CLOTHING,

My Terms are cash, or exchange for country produce, and no mistake. Please call, Gentlemen and Ladies, and see for yourselves.

Dec. 31 '57. 1762

EXCITEMENT.

To the readers of the Sullivan, press and the community at large, we would direct the attention to the downward in price, as well as the extensive assortment of our goods, and would ask as a favor to ourselves and to come and buy now, if you want to have the honor of carrying home of our goods. They are going off like hot cakes before a starving multitude. Therefore, now is the time, and now is the day for securing to yourselves a complete suit and at come quick, for delays are dangerous. If you wait too long and let the opportunity pass we will not hold ourselves responsible for the consequences.

LIVING PRICES,

We can and will sell twenty five per cent cheaper than any other store in town, for cash only.

You can find us always on hand at the old stand, ready and willing to wait on our friends for a few more years.

We have just returned from the Eastern cities with the choicest, most extensive and best selected lot of which have ever been offered for sale in this market, comprising, none but the latest fashions for fall and winter wear. Every description, as to quality, texture, hue, price, size and style of

CLOTHING

COATS, PANTS,

and Vests; also a heavy and well assorted variety of other articles indispensable for gentlemen's wear, consisting of

- Handkerchiefs,
- Neckerties,
- Cravats and Neck Ties,
- Shirts of all kinds,
- embracing
- Fine, Plaid, Hickory, Gloves,
- Socks,
- Collars

Suspenders, and every possible style of the best Clothing that it has fallen to our lot to offer to this country. Come men, boys and girls, some k-o-z-e, come in; you will find some of the clearest fliers to wait on you in that line you ever saw; and if you want a wedding suit, let us know it, for we don't show them to any but the boys.

LIVINGSTON & BRO.
Sullivan, Sept. 17, 1 y

At the South East Corner
Keeps constantly on hand a well selected stock of

DRY GOODS,

AND

GROceries,

HATS AND

CAPS,

and

Clothing.

QUEENSWARE, HARDWARE, and every article usually kept in a Dry Goods store. Cash purchasers and prompt time payers, will get goods as low as they are retail elsewhere in the West.

To his friends who have favored him a fair share of trade, he returns their thanks, and desires to make it to their interest and property, to take a few moments of their time, to call on him at the old stand, which is now located at the South East Corner, where he will be happy to receive their patronage.

CHOLEN,
A FULL STOCK of Hats & Shoes, Hardware, and Groceries, & W. H. & Co.

EXCITEMENT.

C. BURROUGHS,

BLANK BOOKS,

Window Blinds, Fancy Articles, etc.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

Cash paid for Hats, &c.

STRATTON & HUBBARD,

Dry Goods, CARPETS, BOOTS & SHOES, HATS & CAPS.

& C. STEPHEN, D. D. S.

DENTISTRY,

Dental Office over Wood's store formerly occupied by Dr. Yeaver, Decatur, Ill. Sept. 17, 1857, 1 y

EAGLE HOUSE.

FELLOWSHIP OF TRAVELERS.
I have again moved to my old stand, known as the Eagle House. I can say to my friends, and customers that I am prepared to give as good entertainment as can be had in central Ill. JOSEPH THOMAS, Proprietor.
Sullivan, Sept. 17.

STEAM MILL,

THIS MILL is now in full operation, and I am prepared to manufacture Flour of a superior quality, on the shortest notice. Flour will be given for Grain.

I will sell Flour at Rail Road prices.
Dec. 10, 1857. JONATHAN PATTERSON.

D. PIFER & BRO.

Carriage & Buggy MANUFACTURERS,

Sullivan, - Illinois.

THEY keep constantly on hand an extensive assortment of Carriages and Buggies, of the very latest style now in use, and made of the very best material, and warranted not to be surpassed for neatness, cheapness, or durability, anywhere. Eastern work not excepted.

REPAIRING

of all kinds such as

- Blacksmithing, Trimming,
- Painting, Wood Work &c.

done on short notice.

Orders from a distance promptly attended to.

Sullivan, Oct. 8th. 51f.

Job Printing Office.

THE Attention of our friends, and the public generally, is invited to the fact that we are prepared to execute on the shortest notice and in the neatest and best manner, all kinds of

JOB PRINTING,

SUCH AS

- Handbills, Posters, Programmes,
- Horse Bills, Cards,

CIRCULARS,

Blanks of every Description, and in short all kinds of printing usually demanded of a country printing office. Having a large supply of Job Type, of modern styles, we flatter ourselves that we will be able to execute work promptly, in superior style, and on very reasonable terms.

JAMES D. MOUDY,
Office in the second story of J. Perryman's block.

Chicago Type Foundry.

PRINTING HOUSE,
No. 96 Washington Street
CHICAGO - ILLINOIS.

Type, Presses, Ink, Cases, Galleys, and every article required in a Newspaper, Book or Job Office, on hand and for sale at lowest market prices.

Having removed to our new Foundry; Buildings at the above location, we are now prepared with greatly increased facilities to supply the wants of the Trade throughout the West.

The improvements which we have made in the preparation of Metal, give to the Type manufactured by us great reputation for durability.

We have recently started in connection with our other departments, an

ELECTROTYPING

and collect orders for the kind of work as we possess peculiar facilities for executing it in a superior manner.

We shall continue to keep on hand a large stock of Type and Cases, and every article from the well known Manufacturing of Messrs. Rogers & Co., New York.

Also a large assortment of the celebrated Chicago Job Press.

Other Prices will be furnished at Manufacture Prices.

Public Sale

from the above named stock, we have secured from the Publishers of this State to our establishment, a stock of all the various styles of standard text books, which will be sold at very low prices, and on liberal terms, and in order, on application, to D. D. DODGE, Treasurer.

WANTED

1000 Bushels Wheat at Vadakin's cheap store.

J. R. SWIFT,

GENERAL LAND AGENT AND COMMISSION MERCHANT,
Tolono, Champagne Co., Ill.

Principal Agent for the SALE OF TOWN LOTS AT TOLONO. Refer to John Smith, Springfield.

R. AMERICAN,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
Monticello, Ill.

Will practice in Platt and the adjoining counties.

S. W. MOULTON,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
Shelbyville, Illinois.

Will practice in Shelby and the adjoining counties.

J. S. POSE,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
Sullivan, Illinois.

Will practice in Boone and the adjoining counties.

H. P. BROWNELL,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
Monticello, Illinois.

Will practice in Boone and all counties in the 14th Judicial District.

EDEN & MEIER,

Attorneys and Counsellors at Law.
Having formed a partnership will attend to all professional business entrusted to them. Particular attention will be given to the collection of claims.
Office on the East of Perryman's store, where one of the firm will always be found.
Sullivan Ill. Sept. 17, 1857. 1 tf.

W. B. PORTER,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law, and Notary Public,
SULLIVAN, ILLINOIS.

PARTICULAR attention paid to buying and selling lands, paying taxes, redeeming lands, examining titles and conveyancing. All business entrusted to him will be promptly attended to at moderate prices. 16m.

James D. Moudy,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,
Sullivan, Illinois.

Will promptly attend to all business entrusted to his care.
Office in the "Express" Building, South side of the Public Square.

DR. A. BIRCH,

Thankful for former patronage, Respectfully continues to tender his professional services to the citizens of Sullivan and vicinity.

He is prepared to practice in all the departments of the profession. Office on the West side of the public square, one door North of P. B. Knight & Co's Store.
Sullivan Sept. 17, 1857. 402f.

B. B. EVERETT,

Physician and Surgeon.

Respectfully tenders his professional services to the citizens of Sullivan and surrounding country.

Office one door west of Walker's dwelling, where he may always be found, except when absent on professional business.
Sullivan, Oct. 8.

E. E. WAGGONER, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.

TENDERS his professional services to all persons needing Medical or Surgical aid. Office in Perryman's Brick - up stairs - one door East of the Printing Office.
Residence one corner North of the Christian Church, Sullivan, Illinois.
December 24, '57. 16-1y

DR. J. VAN SICKLE,

TENDERS his professional services to the citizens of Sullivan and vicinity.

Call promptly attended day or night. Office in Perryman's Building, Residence West side of town.
December 21, 1857.

J. T. RIVE,

Physician & Surgeon,
Sullivan, Illinois.

Respectfully tendering his professional services to the citizens of Sullivan and vicinity.

Being well provided with surgical instruments they are prepared to attend to any operations in a Surgical way, and promptly attend to all calls by day or night, regarding the assistance of nature's handmaid, Office on the West side of the public square, two doors South of Nabb & Brown's block.
Sept. 17, 1 y.

C. C. BURROUGHS,

Decatur, Ill. Sept. 17, 1857. -1 tf.