Campaign Song.

BY J. A. ALBRIDGE.

Our platform's made of Hickory wood,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
It forever stands, and always should,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Stephen A. Douglas now in view,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Johnson and the Union too,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.

With Stephen A. Douglas at our head,
The woolly crowd we do not dread,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.

We'll cut and slash, and kill them dead,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
And bind them up with a woolen thread
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Abraham Lincoln, a sword or two,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
We would be pleased to say to you,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.

Against the regiment bill you did vote
And like a tory turned your coat,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.

Stephen A. Douglas is the man,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Old Abram's hide he's going to tan,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
He can tan his hide and grieve his soul,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
And hang his scalp on a hickory pole,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.

At splitting rails old Abe is good,
Especially in green Buckeye-wood,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.

Old Abe can't shine, here in this crowd
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
He smells of negro rather loud,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
He goes for Equal Laws and Rights,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.

Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Against November's first full moon,
Old Abe will wear his final doom,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.

Mr. Crittenden's Opinion of Douglas and Lincoln.

Mr. Crittenden made a speech at Mozart Hall, Louisville, on the 2nd inst. 'Of course it was in favor of Bell and Everett, but in urging them as candidates entitled to the support of the Union party, he stopped to sketch the chances of the other nominees for the Presidency. We have room for only the following extract concerning Douglas and Lincoln; Mr. Lincoln may be a very worthy, upright, and honest man. He married a Kentucky girl, and that is a wholesome influence [Laughter and applause]. I am told he is a Kentuckian himself, which is another salutary fact. Mr. Lincoln may be a very honest, worthy man; but in a political point of view, he must be regarded as the representative of the party that has made him its leader. He is the republican leader; and like all political leaders, must obey the party that bro't him into existence or be put down and crushed out by it. He must be governed by the political influence and voice of his party. Mr. Lincoln is at the head of the great anti-slavery party, a purely sectional party, which, according to all its antecedents, threatens the existence of slavery everywhere; and the apprehension which this threat excites is increased by the fact that although the leaders and wise men of that party may not proclaim such sentiments, there are enough among them in this camp who do hold and proclaim such abolition doctrines as must make every man south feel uneasy in his condition and in his property. The mere fact of Mr. Lincoln's election would be, a great calamity to the country, though he never should do an act positively offensive or injurious to any interest of the country. His election would create and confirm an alarm that would keep the country agitated and unhappy, it not create an opposition and resistance to the government itself. It is greatly to be desired that he should not be elected. It is hardly necessary to say that we should be forced to apprehend from Mr. Lincoln's election that the impulse which the anti-slavery feeling would receive their from would go further than it has yet gone, and create still greater dangers to the peace and security of the south. This pervading apprehension would necessarily make his election a great calamity. It therefore enters into no competition with the election of Messrs. Bull and Everett.

From them there is nothing to be looked for but peace and security, with all the sanction that a manly, brave and determined administration can give to both [Applause].

Mr. Douglas and his party come next. You all know, as well as I do of the rupture that has taken place in the Democratic party, and in its convention assembled for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Presidency. It divided—one party seceded. Mr. Douglas' numerous adherents assembled and nominated him, and the seceders went to a point below the nomination for a citizen of our own State—Mr. John C. Breckinridge.

Now, what is to be apprehended from Mr. Douglas, if he is elected President? Would not the Breckinridge men continue to make war upon him? Would not the republicans continue to make war upon him and, irritated by a common defeat, would they not be apt to form an alliance against the successful rival who had succeeded to the Presidency? Yes, Mr. Douglas would be in a very difficult situation in administering the Government with out the support and maintenance necessary to the task. I know Mr. Douglas very well, ladies and gentlemen. From Mr. Douglas personally, I should apprehend no danger. I have never been a Democrat, as you all know. [Applause]. A frank, fair, and honest opponent of the Democratic party, I have ever been found acting upon Whig principles, from the first to last. [Increased applause]

But I have known Mr. Douglas in the public council and have acted with him. Although generally opposed, and especially upon party questions, we have at times acted together, and particularly upon one momentous occasion, when we acted together in opposition to that infamous Lecompton constitution [Deafening applause.] Mr. Douglas was there making a great sacrifice to his sense of duty. [Applause.] He was sacrificing his connection, on that occasion, with many old political friends; he was breaking up the relations of a long political life; he was sacrificing an flattering prospects for the highest office of the government as my man in the country had. I fully believe he did what he conceived to be his duty; and in defiance of all opposition, the rank of the President, offended friends, and open foes, he acted like a man. [Tremendous cheering.] He might have been mistaken in what he did, but that little diminished the value of the act. He thought he was right, and he knew he was making a sacrifice, and he was capable of making it, when he believed the interests of his country demanded it. [Cheers.] I can have no quarrel with him; he is a Union man I can always trust, when I believe him to be sincere and in earnest, as I believe Douglas to be. [Continued applause.] But still this is not the question. Mr. Douglas represents a party, at feud, in the first instance, with the republican party, calling forth its bitterest opposition, and now at feud with the southern wing of his own party, that has rejected him for another. I have spoken not to compliment Mr. Douglas merely; I have spoken because I desire to give my testimony to his truth. I believe Mr. Douglas to be a patriot, and I know him to be a Union man by all the evidences that one public man can give another of his sentiments. [Applause] He is a generous, bold man, speaking what he thinks, and doing what he knows to be right.

The City of Damascus—Its Great Antiquity—The Late Massacre of Christians There.

Damascus was an important place, as early as the time of Abraham, so that it is not less than four thousand years old. Etymologists dispute about the meaning of the name. It was the ancient capital of Syria, and was thus the quintessence of the quick-witted race it represented. It is called by some the most ancient city in the world. This is, no doubt, Eastern exaggeration, but the fact that everything said by the orientals about this famous capital effect upon their vivid imagination. A celebrated epistle of an ancient writer calls it "the great and sacred city of Damascus, surpassing every city, both in the beauty of its temples and the magnitude of its shrines, as well as the timeliness of its seasons, the limpidness of its fountains, the volume of its waters, and the richness of its soil." Its people call it "a pearl surrounded by emerald." "Of all the cities of the East it is perhaps the most oriental.

The descriptions of Buckingham are not considered entirely reliable. But there has seldom anything been written with human pen more beautiful than his picture of the plain of Damascus. He compares it to an English seat in the country, surrounded by an immense park. The visitor inquires for the family, and finds that they have been a year in Italy. Meanwhile the place has been delightfully unkept. Its rich cultivation is everywhere partially grown up; the trees untrimmed and dipping their branches in the sparkling rivulets; the roses grown almost into trees and covered with innumerable blossoms. Everywhere is seen rich verdure, luxuriant growth, with but such a touch of wildness as to give the finishing grace to the landscape. Such, he says, is Damascus in the bloom of the year.

Damascus was conquered by David, who made it tributary. After being held by Solomon, it revolted, and afterward was at the head of thirty and two kings. It was subsequently taken by Assyria and Persia. After the battle of Issus, it fell into the hands of Alexander the Great, and Pompey annexed it to the Roman Empire. After being celebrated for its wealth and splendor under the Greek Emperors, it was conquered by the Saracens, and became for a time the capital of the Mohammedan world. The sceptre of Islam passed over to Bagdad, but Damascus is still famous in the history of Saladin. It was besieged by the Crusaders in the twelfth century, but they failed to take it. Later still, it was captured, with circumstances of great barbarity, by Tamerlane, and finally fell into the hands of the Turks under Selim I. It possesses too, a high moral interest, for on that beautiful plain it was that St. Paul "became obedient to the heavenly vision." Among the points of interest connected with this famous city are the Damascus blades, so malleable that they might be bent to a right angle without losing their elasticity; so keen that they could sever down a gnat floating in the air, or divide iron, without destroying their edge. For ages the secret of their manufacture was unknown. General Anousoff, in the Ural mountains, however, succeeded, in quite recent times, in making a sword which seemed to equal the best Damascus, "with a blade of reticulated lines—such as always appeared on the finest Damascus blades—in broad stripes, and showing a bright, gilded reflection. He cut through a game handkerchief in the air, and split bones and nails, feats which cannot be performed with the best English steel." Anousoff, in his recent travels in Siberia, state, however, that the secret died with Anousoff, as these swords are not made at Damascus.

Another point of interest is the famous Damascus stuffs. They are properly silk, though sometimes made of other fabrics. Large quantities of silk are still manufactured, and the Damascus roses have lost nothing of their immemorable beauty.

There is at Damascus a considerable trade both with India and Europe. From India are brought by the Persian gulf, Bassora, Bagdad and Aleppo spices, cotton goods, coarses and fine muslins, and gold stuffs. English goods come through Beyrout and Tripoli. The people are Mohammedans, Druses, Oriental Christians, Jews, &c. The population is about one hundred thousand.

The Right Stimulant.

There is scarcely a heart that will not endorse the following which is so well said by the Louisville Journal:

There are times when the pulse "lies low" in the bosom and beats slow in the veins; when the spirit sleeps the sleep, apparently, that knows no waking, in its house of clay and the window shutters are closed and the door hung with the invisible crape of melancholy; when we wish the golden sunshine piteously blackness and very willing to "fancy clouds where no clouds be." This is a state of weakness when direct may be none of it. What shall raise the sleeping Lazarus? What shall make the heart beat music again, and pulse dance to it through all the myriad-thronged halls in our house of life? What shall make the sun kiss the eastern hills again for us with all his old awakening gladness and the night overflow with "moonlight, music, love and flowers?" Love itself is the great stimulant—the most intoxicating of all—and performs all these miracles; but it is a miracle itself, and is not at the drug store, whatever they say. The counterfeit is in the market, but the winged god is not a money changer, we assure you.

Men have tried many things—but still they ask for stimulants, the stimulants we use, but require the use of more. Men try to drown the floating dead of their own souls in the wine-cup, but the corpses will rise.—We see their faces in the bubbles.—The intoxication of drink sets the world whirling again, and the pulses playing wildest music, and the thoughts galloping—but the fast clock runs down sooner, and the unnatural stimulation only leaves the house it feels with wildest revelry more silent, more sad, more deserted, more dead.

There is only one stimulant that never fails, and yet never intoxicates.—Duty. Duty puts a blue sky over every man, up in his heart, maybe—into which the skylark Happiness always goes, singing.

"Property in Man."

It is a favorite expression of the Republican papers and orators, that there cannot be "property in man," and as they contend that a negro is a man, it follows there can be no property in a negro. We have been told that one of the Republican speakers in this country has asserted that nobody ever contended that there was "property in (negro) man," except Democrats of the "Mississippi school." For the information of this gentleman, as well as those who may believe him, we will quote from Henry Clay, on this subject. In the Senate of the United States, Feb. 7, 1850, Mr. Clay said: "I know that there is a visionary dogma, which holds that negro slaves cannot be the subject of property.—I shall not dwell long on this speculative abstraction.—That is property which the law declares to be property.—Two hundred years of legislation have sanctioned and sanctified negro slaves as property. Under all the forms of government which have existed upon this continent during that long space of time—under the British government—under the colonial government—under all the State constitutions and governments and under the federal government itself—they have been deliberately and solemnly recognized as the legitimate subjects of property. To the wild speculations of theorists and innovators, stands opposed the fact that in an uninterrupted period of two hundred years duration, under every form of human legislation, and by all the departments of human government, African negro slaves have been held and respected have descended and been transferred, as lawful and indisputable property. They were treated as property in the very British example which is so triumphantly appealed to as worthy of our imitation. Although the West India planters had no voice in the united parliament of the British isles, an irresistible sense of justice extorted from that legislature the grant of twenty millions of pounds sterling, to compensate the colonists for their loss of property."—[Mallory's Life and Speeches of Henry Clay, vol. 2. p. 368.]

AND FOR THE CHRISTIANS OF SYRIA.—The British and American residents of Beyrout and vicinity have organized a committee for the purpose of soliciting from the people of England and America relief for the Christians who are sufferers by the sanguinary war between the Druses and Christians of Lebanon. The committee in their circular say:

Of this vast number of sufferers, a very large majority have, moreover, had their houses burnt (there having been upwards of one hundred and fifty towns, villages and hamlets destroyed by fire) and are therefore now homeless wanderers; while upwards of 10,000 are made widows and orphans, the majority not in legitimate warfare, but by cold-blooded massacre, at Rasheya, Hasbeyta, Dier-el-Komar, and the neighborhood of Sidon. Many thousand of these wretched victims have fled to Beyrout, Damascus, Sidon, and other places, for refuge, crowding every available shelter, and lying about in open air, depending for the daily necessities of life upon the charity of the inhabitants. But it is obvious that, however liberal that charity may be, it must soon be exhausted, while the destitution and suffering, instead of diminishing, must become vastly more intense on the approach of winter, when better shelter, clothing and food will be essential to the preservation of their lives.

Donations in aid of this charity will be received in the United States by James M. Gordon, Esq., Treasurer A. B. C. F. M., 33 Pemberton square Boston, and the agents of the A. B. C. F. M., in other cities and towns, who will transmit the money through their agents to the Beyrout branch of the Ottoman Bank, which will act as treasurer, under the direction of the Committee.

DAINTIES.

Charity would lose its name were it influenced by so mean a motive as human pride. Cultivate true sentiments, and good manners will suggest themselves. When modesty is once extinguished, it never returns. Slender, luscious from red and beautiful lips, are like foul spiders crawling from the heart of a blushing rose. To quell the pride even of the greatest, we should reflect how much more we owe to others than to ourselves. Turn over the sheet.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Resolved, That we, the Democracy of the Union, in Convention assembled, hereby declare our affirmative of the resolutions unanimously adopted and declared as a platform of principles by the Democratic Convention in Cincinnati, in the year 1856, believing that Democratic principles are unchangeable in their nature, when applied to the same subject matters; and we recommend as the only further resolutions, the following: Resolved, That it is the duty of the United States to afford ample and complete protection to all its citizens, whether native or foreign. Resolved, That one of the necessities of the age, in a military, commercial, and postal point of view, is a speedy communication between the Atlantic and Pacific States; and the Democratic party pledge such constitutional government aid as will insure the construction of a railroad to the Pacific coast at the earliest practicable period. Resolved, That the Democratic party are in favor of the acquisition of the Island of Cuba, on such terms as shall be honorable to ourselves and just to Spain. Resolved, That it is in accordance with the true interpretation of the Cincinnati platform, that during the existence of the Territorial Government, the measure of restriction, whatever it may be, imposed by the Federal Constitution on the power of the Territorial Legislature over the subject of the domestic relations, as the same has been or shall hereafter be finally determined by the Supreme Court of the United States, should be respected by all good citizens, and enforced with promptness and fidelity by every branch of the General Government.

GRAND DEMONSTRATION AT SULLIVAN.

Douglas & Johnson Ration National Meeting!

What Anti-Slavery has done. It has divided the Methodist Episcopal Church. It has divided the New School Presbyterian Church. It induced the American board of Missions to abandon all of its missions among the Indians of our country.

PEOPLE ON THE GROUNDS!

Another significant demonstration of the friends of Douglas and Johnson was held here on the 23d day of August. From the best judges of the number present we estimate this meeting at Eight Thousand persons. Early in the morning the people began to pour in to town in wagons, on horseback and on foot, alone and in crowds, till about 11 o'clock when the large delegations began to come in from the surrounding country and towns. A splendid delegation from Mattoon and Charleston amounting to near 2,000. One from Lovington numbering near 1,000, with a magnificent ladies wagon—a perfect palace, containing 33 beautiful young ladies dressed in white. A large concourse from Shelbyville of, perhaps, 1,000 persons with another ladies wagon which with its freight of 33 handsome young ladies, was a thing of real beauty. And numerous smaller delegations from neighboring communities, made up as large a meeting as this town will ever see. The most beautiful thing of all was the ladies wagon gotten up here under the direction of David Pater & Co. It was the most elegant and exquisitely tasteful thing of the kind we have ever seen. And then the ladies—little Moultrie can't be beaten by any county in 33 charming fair ones to fill a wagon representing the 33 sovereign States. And then several wagons made of green hickory branches, a perfect bower of beauty, filled with little girls in white. Upon the whole this was the grandest and most beautiful display we have ever seen.

This vast crowd, after passing through most of our principal streets repaired to Dr. T. Y. Lewis' grove near town where they were addressed by a number of able speakers from two stands. The most prominent speakers were Hons. J. C. Robinson, A. Green, of Paris, Anthony Thornton, J. S. Post and O. B. Ficklin. These gentlemen displayed much ability in the treatment of the political topics of the day. We have long been placed upon the defensive by our opponents, but now the tables are turned. We are crowding upon them the issues of their own making with marked success and telling effect. Now, the longer the race the more power will be concentrated in the Democratic party. Victory is ours if we will continue as we have begun, which we will surely do.

The fire-works and torchlight procession at night, were magnificent. Every one seemed well pleased with the meeting and its glorious accompaniments, except our Republican friends, a few of whom got close enough to the wit and sarcasm of Robinson and Thornton to get a little cut and scorched. One gentleman particularly that we observed got himself handsomely scalped by Jim Robinson, but not content with that, tried Thornton, who had even less mercy than Jim. We will only add to Democrats to stand to your arms and victory is ours.

John R. Eden Will address his fellow-citizens on the political topics of the day, at the Spring near Ed. Alexanders, on the West Fork, on Tuesday September the 4th, at 3 o'clock P. M. Mr. Nichols, the opposing candidate for the Legislature, has been invited to be present and participate in the discussion.

fixing to get off, and—guess the rest!

What Anti-Slavery has done.

- 1. It has divided the Methodist Episcopal Church. 2. It has divided the New School Presbyterian Church. 3. It induced the American board of Missions to abandon all of its missions among the Indians of our country. 4. It filled Kansas with blood and carnage. 5. It has carried on for years an organized system of freebooting upon the Southern States. 6. It has stolen the negro from his comfortable home, to one in the midst of poverty and crime. 7. It has inflicted a deep wound upon our noble medical schools. 8. It is laboring to devise this magnificent Union. 9. It is at this hour staying the wheels of the General Government to the untold injury of the nation. 10. It is warring upon the interest of our nation's business men, to the amount of millions of money. 11. It has alienated the hearts of countrymen, the one from the other to a fearful extent. 12. It has made the press of our Northern and Western States to groan with the most infamous falsehoods against the South. 13. It has desecrated multitudes of our pulpits, and influenced many of the professed ministers of the gospel to become belligerent instead of men of peace. Remember that the county convention and Sands' mammoth show come off next Saturday. Everybody be on hand, without fail. We learn from the Okaw Democrat, that the time appointed for the debate between Thornton and Swett at this place, has been changed by those gentlemen from the 15th to the 29th of September. FAIRBANKS' SCALES.—A significant fact, which the public will be put upon the market, as large numbers have been from time to time during the last thirty years, it seems to be the first and chief aim of the makers to show that they are the same as Fairbanks', or like them, or improvements upon them, or have taken premiums over them, thus recognizing the latter as the standard for excellence, and showing the strong hold they have upon the public confidence. It is a well-known fact that while most of these scales have, after more or less trial, past mainly out of use, Fairbanks' have gone steadily forward, increasing in public favor year after year, and are now much more generally used than all others, not only in this country, but wherever American commerce has been carried. This could not be so, if they were not all that is claimed for them in respect to their durability, as well as convenience and accuracy. Chicago Press & Tribune.

The B. Sands' Gigantic Combination Circus. The reputation of R. Sands, as an equestrian manager, is sufficiently well known and appreciated to make it almost unnecessary that we should do more than mention the fact that the splendid establishment named after him will shortly arrive among us. From a glance at the advertisement in another column, we see that the attractions offered are in all respects equal, if not superior, to those heretofore presented. First, we have the renowned Mons. Ferdinand, the great bare-back rider; then Madame Virginia Sherwood, a beautiful woman and a peerless artist; Charles Sherwood, the artistic personator of the eccentric Pete Jenkins; Master Charley; Mademoiselle Ida; the great Clown, Tony Pastor; the Bonnet Brothers, and a host of other artists of no less distinction in their profession. In addition, and though we mention them last, we look upon them as the attractions par excellence, we have the team of gigantic mules, lately imported by this enterprising firm from the Royal stables in Spain.

The Pony Express which left San Francisco on the evening of the 8th, arrived in this city last evening, two days behind time. By the following note to the agent here, Mr. Frank Guekert, from the Pony agent, at Salt Lake, it will be seen that two more Indian fights have occurred: SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 13, '60. This express was detained by an Indian fight at Egan's Canon, between Lieut. Perkins' command and the Bannocks. Seventeen Indians were killed and three soldiers badly wounded. A fight also occurred at Shell Creek, between the mill employees and the Pah Utah Indians, in which five Indians were killed. A. B. MILLER. [St. Joseph Gazette, 21st]

GARIBALDI'S PERSONAL FEATS AT MELAZZO.—The correspondent of the Times thus describes Garibaldi's personal feats during a charge of a few Neapolitan troops at Melazzo: "Garibaldi had only time to step aside, when the horsemen passed sabering right and left. But they did not go far, for after the first panic, the infantry recovered and soon emptied the greater part of their saddles. The captain, a sergeant and a private tried to make their escape, and would have succeeded but for Garibaldi's personal bravery. He went into the middle of the road, and, having left his revolvers in the holsters when he dismounted, he drew his sword and placed himself in a position to stop the captain. The only person with him at the time was Capt. Misori, of the Guides, who was likewise on foot, but armed with a revolver. His first shot wounded the horse of the Neapolitan captain—brought him to his haunches; Garibaldi seized hold of the bridle, intending to secure the captain as his prisoner; but the captain answered the demand to surrender by a blow with his sword at Garibaldi, who parried and retaliated, cutting the Neapolitan captain with one stroke down the face and neck, and prostrating him dead at his feet. While Garibaldi was thus engaged in this single-handed combat, Capt. Misori shot down the sergeant who came to assist the officer. This one dispatched, he seized hold of the private whose horse had been shot, and when he resisted, shot him also with another barrel from his revolver."

DIED, At Greenland, Illinois, on the 22nd instant, of Cholera Infantum, CHARLES JAY, only child of E. E. and Amanda J. Wagoner, aged four months and two days.

The State Fair.

The local committees of the Morgan county Agricultural and Mechanical Association are happy to inform the public, that the preparations for the Illinois State Fair, to be at Jacksonville, on the 10th of September, 1860, are now nearly completed. And it has been conceded by all visitors who have seen the grounds, that they are the finest, and most thoroughly fitted, that have ever been prepared in any State. Thirty acres of a beautiful grove, about one mile and a half west of the city, is the place of location; and the principal improvements consist of an Amphitheatre, extending three-fourths around the ring—three hundred feet in diameter—containing eight tiers of seats elevated at an angle of about thirty degrees, giving every occupant a most advantageous view of everything exhibited in the ring; the whole is covered with a double board roof. There is also, a promenade twelve wide around the rear of the entire structure. Underneath the seats, are forty-five booths for refreshment stalls, ten by eighteen feet. In the center of the ring a Pagoda is constructed, eighteen feet across, in the form of an Octagon, three stories high, surmounted by a flag-staff sixty feet high, and the whole most artistically finished and painted. The supply of water will be abundant, and the facilities for dispensing it over the grounds complete. Eight large wells have been dug in different parts of the enclosure, for the convenience of stock, &c., affording an ample supply for all emergencies. Added to the above, will be several fine fountains of pure, fresh water, constantly overflowing, which have been brought from a distance by means of underground-pipes, and forced up by steam-power. The one on the north side of the pagoda is very elegant, as well as to supply refreshing draughts to those engaged in the ring. The buildings already completed, are large and commodious, well lighted and agreeable. The hall for textile fabrics is 31 by 40 feet, and elevated in the back to give a more perfect view of the articles on exhibition. The Horticultural hall is in the form of a cross, and 104 feet through each way. In the center of this small fountain will send forth a gushing stream of clear cold water for the use and convenience of all. Mechanical Art and Natural History halls are perfect in design, and well adapted to their respective uses. Besides these, there are the buildings for the farm products, eating houses, President's business, and Treasurer's offices, well arranged, in the best manner to give variety and effect. Added to these are 500 stables for cattle and horses, with a variety of other small buildings contrived and arranged both for comfort and convenience. Great preparations are being made to give our friends from abroad a warm reception. The hotels are making preparations, and boarding houses, private dwellings and Colleges will be thrown open for the reception and accommodation of visitors. Good camping grounds well shaded and convenient to the enclosure, have also been provided for those who may wish to make use of them. It is expected that the coming exhibition will be the largest and best, the most successful, and the pleasantest ever held west of the mountains. The citizens of Morgan county extend a cordial invitation to all. Come to the Fair! COL. JAMES DUNLAP, Pres. Local Board. Wm. M. Mayo, Cor. Sec.

It is rumored that Mr. Breckinridge has sent a letter of resignation to the secession committee at Washington, which letter has been suppressed by the committee. The New York Herald states that Mr. Breckinridge has subsequently called a consultation of his friends to decide on the propriety of his withdrawal. The recent elections have shown Mr. Breckinridge that the southern disunion party has no strength. ARKANSAS O. K.—H. M. Reelfor, Douglas Democrat, has been elected governor of Arkansas, by 3,000 majority. The Douglas electors are in the field, and this State is safe for the Little Giant. The regular Democratic nomination appears to be gaining rapidly in all the Southern States, as well as in the East.

Two Indian Battles—22 Indians Killed.

The Pony Express which left San Francisco on the evening of the 8th, arrived in this city last evening, two days behind time. By the following note to the agent here, Mr. Frank Guekert, from the Pony agent, at Salt Lake, it will be seen that two more Indian fights have occurred:

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 13, '60. This express was detained by an Indian fight at Egan's Canon, between Lieut. Perkins' command and the Bannocks. Seventeen Indians were killed and three soldiers badly wounded. A fight also occurred at Shell Creek, between the mill employees and the Pah Utah Indians, in which five Indians were killed. A. B. GARIBALDI'S PERSONAL FEATS AT MELAZZO.—The correspondent of the Times thus describes Garibaldi's personal feats during a charge of a few Neapolitan troops at Melazzo: "Garibaldi had only time to step aside, when the horsemen passed sabering right and left. But they did not go far, for after the first panic, the infantry recovered and soon emptied the greater part of their saddles. The captain, a sergeant and a private tried to make their escape, and would have succeeded but for Garibaldi's personal bravery. He went into the middle of the road, and, having left his revolvers in the holsters when he dismounted, he drew his sword and placed himself in a position to stop the captain. The only person with him at the time was Capt. Misori, of the Guides, who was likewise on foot, but armed with a revolver. His first shot wounded the horse of the Neapolitan captain—brought him to his haunches; Garibaldi seized hold of the bridle, intending to secure the captain as his prisoner; but the captain answered the demand to surrender by a blow with his sword at Garibaldi, who parried and retaliated, cutting the Neapolitan captain with one stroke down the face and neck, and prostrating him dead at his feet. While Garibaldi was thus engaged in this single-handed combat, Capt. Misori shot down the sergeant who came to assist the officer. This one dispatched, he seized hold of the private whose horse had been shot, and when he resisted, shot him also with another barrel from his revolver."

HOWARD ASSOCIATION,
 PHILADELPHIA.
 A Benevolent Institution established by Special Endowment for the Relief of the Sick and Distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic Diseases.

The Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practiced upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITABLE ACT worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give medical advice gratis to all who apply by letter with a description of their condition (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.) and in cases of extreme poverty, to furnish medicine free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors of the Association in their Annual Report, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of their surgeons in the cure of Spermatorrhoea, Seminal Weakness, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism, or Self-abuse, Disease of the Kidneys and Bladder, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhoea, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or Self-abuse, and other diseases of the sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), free of charge, on receipt of two stamps for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment of Sexual disease, diet, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.

Address, for Report or treatment, Dr. J. SKILLIN HOUGHTON, Acting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 3 south ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

By order of the Directors,

Patent Medicines.
THE GREATEST Medical Discovery OF THE AGE.

DR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, From the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth. One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face. Two or three bottles will clear the system of all humors.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach. Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of erysipelas. One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes. Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair. Four to six bottles are warranted to cure eczema and running ulcers. Fifteen to twenty bottles will cure scaly eruptions of the skin. Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm. Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism. Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum. Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula. One to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of dyspepsia. I know from the experience of thousands that it has been caused by canker in the stomach. One or two bottles are warranted to cure sick headache. One to two bottles are warranted to regulate a costive state of the bowels. One to two bottles will regulate all derangement of the kidneys. Four to six bottles have cured the worst cases of dropsy. One to three have cured the worst cases of piles: a relief is always experienced; what a mercy to get relief in such an excruciating disease! A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken. No change of diet ever necessary; eat the best you can get and enough of it. The MEDICAL DISCOVERY is admirably adapted to the western country where FEVER AND AGUE, DYSENTERY, BILIOUS COLIC, BILIOUS FEVER, LIVER DERANGEMENTS, are so prevalent in their respective seasons. The great cause of the prevalence of these diseases is that many have secreted in their system some Putrid and Fatal Humor which is the source of all diseases, and many a young man and woman in the BLOOM OF LIFE are wasting away whose faded cheeks and sunken eyes warn their friends of a speedy dissolution through the effects of some Acid Humor preying upon the vitals, and many thousands die annually from the effects of these humors, who, if they but purify their blood with a few bottles of Medical Discovery would live to a ripe old age.

Another great cause of diseases is Costiveness; for this Discovery is an infallible remedy, its action on the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels is all that you could desire.

For Scrofulous Ulcers you will follow the directions in pamphlet around the bottle.

For Ulcerated Sore Legs you will find full directions in the pamphlet. Quarantons For Use—Adults, one table spoonful daily; children over ten years, fifteen spoonful; children from five to ten years, ten spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

MANUFACTURED BY DONALD KENNEDY, No. 120 Warren Street, Roxbury, Mass.

Indeed it will never fail, and the one who fails to use it at once will deeply regret the neglect. Reader you will never again shake or have fever that season if you take it as per directions, and continue until the system is perfectly resto ed; if this be done there will be no one who will suffer long from chills, fever and ague.

Bucyrus, Ohio, Feb. 2th 1858
 Dr. MANN & Co., Gallon, Ohio—Gents: We are at a loss to find language sufficient to portray to the public the great esteem in which your Celebrated Ague Balm is held in this community. The fact is it never fails to cure ague in its worst forms, and we can sell nothing else.
 Yours, &c.,
 HOLLOWAY & TAYLOR, Druggists, Corinth, Miss., Oct. 20th 1857.

Messrs. S. K. MANN & Co.—Gents: Having procured a supply of your Ague Balm, and testing it thoroughly in many severe cases of long standing, where all the popular remedies of the day had failed, I found in all cases your Balm effected a safe and speedy cure.  JOSEPH BUCHANAN, Druggist, Gallon, May 9th 1858.

Messrs. S. K. MANN & Co.

I give this for the benefit of all whom it may concern.
