Judicial Circuit, at the November Election.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.
Resolved, That we, the Democracy of the Union, in Convention assembled, hereby declare our affirmative of the resolutions unanimously adopted and declared as a platform of principles by the Democratic Convention in Cincinnati, in the year 1856, believing that Democratic principles are unchangeable in their nature, when applied to the same subject matters, and we recommend as the only further resolutions, the following:

Resolved, That it is the duty of the United States to afford ample and complete protection to all its citizens, whether native or foreign.

Resolved, That one of the necessities of the age, in a military, commercial, and postal point of view, is a speedy communication between the Atlantic and Pacific States; and the Democratic party pledge such constitutional government aid as will insure the construction of a railroad to the Pacific coast at the earliest practicable period.

Resolved, That the Democratic party are in favor of the acquisition of the Island of Cuba, on such terms as shall be honorable to ourselves and just to Spain.

Resolved, That the enactments of State Legislatures to defeat the faithful execution of the Fugitive Slave Law, are hostile in character, subversive of the Constitution, and revolutionary in their effect.

Resolved, That it is in accordance with the true interpretation of the Cincinnati platform, that during the existence of the Territorial Government, the measure of restriction, whatever it may be, imposed by the Federal Constitution on the power of the Territorial Legislature over the subject of the domestic relations, as the same has been or shall hereafter be finally determined by the Supreme Court of the United States, should be respected by all good citizens, and enforced with promptness and fidelity by every branch of the General Government.

On the 7th judicial circuit met at Shelbyville on the 6th inst., to nominate a candidate for prosecuting attorney.

On motion of H. C. Bradaby, Cap.
G. A. Smith, of Macon, was called to the chair, and Dr. H. P. Collins, of Fayette, appointed secretary.

Resolved, That ABE LINCOLN the author of the "spotty" resolutions in Congress against his own country should be long remembered by his constituents, but may they cease to remember him except to rebuke him, they have done much for him, but he has done nothing them, SAVE THE STAIN HE HAS INFLICTED ON THEIR NAME.

We learn from a late paper that the Republican majorities in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania are much smaller than was at first reported. In Pennsylvania the Opposition majority will not reach over 14,000; in Ohio, according to the Cincinnati Gazette, (a Republican paper) the Republican majority will fall short of 10,000, and in Indiana their majority will not exceed 6,000. In Ohio and Pennsylvania the Democrats have gained five members of Congress, and have lost none in Indiana. The Republicans say they are going to elect Lincoln, (which assertion nobody but prejudiced or silly ones believe;) but suppose he should be elected, what could he do, guarded as he would be by a Congress jammed full of LIVE Popular Sovereigns? But for the satisfaction of our readers we will inform them confidentially that New York, just as sure as the 6th of November comes, will go for Douglas by a very large majority; therefore we naturally conclude that "Blanket Old Abe" will be permitted to remain at home the rest of his days. Be not alarmed about the late State elections, but work the more earnestly and determinedly from now until the election. "All's well that ends well."

The November number of the Home Magazine is before us. This is a magazine that should be read by everybody, as it exerts an influence most conducive to good morals. Now is the time to commence forming your clubs for the New Year.

The Famous Decision.

The Republican Press and Republican stumpers blow off a large amount of useless and nonsensical gas about the decision of the U. S.
Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case. Nothing under the heavens was decided by the Court and declared to be law in this case, except that a negro is not a citizen of the United States. No person but an abolition amalgamationist has objection to such a decision.

A correspondent from Iowa says, that in that district that gave Fremont, in 1856, two hundred majority, will now give Douglas at least one hundred and seventy-five majority. Never since the days of Jackson have I seen the enthusiasm for a candidate for President that there is for Douglas here in Iowa.
Mark my prediction, Iowa will give ten thousand majority for Stephen A. Douglas for President next November.

A newspaper before us states that at the breaking of the ground for the commencement of the Lynchburg and Tennessee Railroad at Lynchburg, a clergyman slowly and solemnly read a manuscript prayer, at the conclusion of which an old negro, who had been resting with one foot on his spade, and his arm on the handle, looking intently into the chaplain's face, straightened himself up, and remarked very audibly, "Well, I reckon dat's de fus time de Lord's name been writ to on de subject of railroads."

Remember that one week from next Monday is election day. Let every Democrat be on his "pins."

On motion of H. C. Bradaby, Cap.
G. A. Smith, of Macon, was called
to the chair, and Dr. H. P. Collins,
of Fayette, appointed secretary.

On motion, the chair appointed H. C. Bradaby, of Macon, Jacob Fouke, of Fayette, J. W. Johnson, of Shelby, Wm Stillwell, of Piatt, Dr.
Fisher, of Effingham, and A. B. Lee of Moultrie, a committee on credentials, who made the following report: Present—from Moultrie, A. B. Lee authorized to cast six votes.

Fayette, H. C. Bradaby and G. A.
Smith, authorized to cast twelve votes.

Shelby, R. H. Burton, D. Smith, B.
Roberts, L. B. Keeler, Wm Middle-worth, J. W. Johnson, James Cutler, W. Truitt, W. M. Manning, V. Truesler, J. Wentling, H. German, J. R. Logan fourteen votes. In all 53 votes—necessary to a choice twenty-seven.

Messrs. Fouke and Middleworth were appointed tellers.

On the first ballot B. W. Henry received the following votes: Six from Moultrie, eight from Fayette, eight from Shelby; in all 22. J. P. Boyd received eight from Effingham, five from Piatt, twelve from Macon, six from Shelby—31 votes.

On motion, it was ordered that the proceedings be published in all the Democratic papers in the district.

On motion, convention adjourned.

HIGH COMPLIMENT TO MR. DOUGLAS FROM A REPUBLICAN.—The Boston Traveler, a leading republican paper, in speaking of Douglas says, that in his contest in 1858, "he won the greatest personal victory ever known in our history." In reviewing his political career the same paper says:

"Thus he has had eighteen years of Senatorial life conferred on him, and six of that representative, besides having had half a dozen other offices, though he is only forty-seven years of age. Should he be elected President, his congressional career will have covered exactly eighteen years, fourteen of which will belong to his senatorial history. It is seldom that the life of any man presents so much of success, in so short a time as we find in twenty-six years that have passed away since his minority was completed. As a general thing, his success has not been undeserved; if we look only at the intellectual side of things, Mr. Douglas has no superior among the statesmen and politicians of the United States. His speeches and writing are strong, clear concise and logical. He has participated in all the great congressional debates of the last seventeen years, not to speak of his enormous labors on the stump, and in caucuses and conventions. It has rarely been his lot to be beaten. He was more than a match for Mr. Webster in 1850, when that illustrious man endeavored to show that the democracy were responsible for the pro-slavery character of the government."

SEDUCTION AND MURDER.—The Hamlet (Iowa) Freeman learns that a young man at Iowa Falls, boarding in the family of a respectable citizen seduced the two daughters of his host. The youngest aged but fifteen years, he poisoned, and married the eldest about an hour before she gave birth to a child. The horrid affair is now undergoing legal investigation.

—No Mormons have got to voo yet, and it is supposed that the large number making the way to that place, reported to have been eaten up, devoured, swallowed without being chewed, and otherwise disposed of.

WHAT WE ARE COMING TO.

We clip from the Cincinnati Enquirer an advertisement taken from a Pittsburg paper, which we give below.

COLORED MEN OF PITTSBURG AND VICINITY:
You are requested to meet and form yourselves into WIDE AWAKE CLUBS immediately, for the purpose of furthering the interest of the friend of the human race, ABRA-HAM LINCOLN. Our colored brethren had a tremendous demonstration in Boston recently. Already New York has spoken in favor of universal suffrage. "They who would be free themselves must strike the blow." And if colored men would have their rights, they should move for the success of their friends. Do not leave the Dutch and Irish monopolize all the honor of electing Lincoln and Hamlin. Colored men have a right to act at the polls as a Vigilance Committee, for the prevention of illegal voting. John Brown, the hero of Harper's Ferry, is to be avenged.

OSAWATOMIE.
People of Illinois, read the above, and ask yourselves whither you are going. It needs no comment.

WOULD NOT LET HIS CHILDREN READ IT.—While Lincoln was in Congress, he spent his time making speeches against the Mexican war.
These speeches were sent to Mexico, were translated into the Mexican language and scattered among the Mexican troops by thousands, to satisfy them that they had friends in this country who justified them in murdering our American soldiers.
Lincoln sent one of those speeches to an old Whig friend who resided in Coles county, Ill., and his friend sent it back to him with the following rebuke to Lincoln's treachery written on the back of it:

I dare not let my children read it, lest it should corrupt them; I dare not show it to my neighbors, lest they should suspect me of TREAS-ON. If I expected to live twenty years, I would preserve it to SHOW POSTERITY WHAT TRAITORS
WE HAD IN 1848; as I am an old and infirm man, I cannot survive so long, and therefore send it back to him that gave it birth.—[Ex.]

TOBACCO UNDER THE BAN OF THE CHURCH.—The Ohio Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church has issued its anathema against tobacco, in the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted at its late meeting at Gallipolis:

WHEREAS, The use of tobacco is a great evil, and leads to other evils; therefore,
Resolved by the Ohio Conference, That, after the present session, we will not receive any person into full connection who persists in the use of tobacco.

The Cincinnati Commercial finds fault with this action of the church, for the reason that it does not go far enough. It suggests that the Conference should add to its list of anathematized commodities tea, coffee, and hard boiled eggs.

THANKSGIVING.—The Executive of Michigan has appointed the 29th of November as a day of "Thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God for His continued favors."

THE WACO (TEXAS) DEMOCRAT says: A man was found hanging to a live oak in the vicinity of town on Saturday last. A coroner's inquest was held over the body, and the verdict of the jury we have understood to be: "We suppose he died for the want of breath—there being no opes of his becoming a better man."

—Andrew G. Curtin, governor elect of Pennsylvania, is six feet two inches high; Hannibal Hamlin is six feet three, Abraham Lincoln six feet four, and Jan Wentworth tops the Republican pyramid with six feet five.

—Well, Susan, what do you think of married ladies being happy?
—Why, I think there are more than a thousand in that sort.

Notice to

In a notice that appeared a few weeks since, it was stated that the school fund would be paid to but one of the schools in district No. 1 T 13 R 5 E. This was done for the purpose of saving a large expense for rent, fuel, &c., as was observed at the time. Since then, however, arrangements have been made, to allow the funds to be paid for scholars attending both schools; inasmuch as no expense will be paid out of the funds other than the private tuition. It is a matter of no little regret to the board to learn that its effort to sur-tail expenses has been characterized as mean, partial, and partisan, and that it has been actuated by sordid motives, and political influence, to adopt the policy made known to the public. While the board feel the mortification consequent on such bare, contemptible insinuation, it still is determined to pursue a decided course, irrespective of the prating of those changlings, who, themselves prompted by partisan predilection, consider all others moved by the same spirit, and while justice to all is the motto, no pains will be taken to please all or any whose chief object is disturbance.

The per diem allowance will be made for all scholars attending Mr.
Smith's school, for the ensuing six months, beginning with October 1st, A. D. 1860.

The Prince of Wales.

The grand climax of the royal visit has been reached. The great demonstrations in New York and the grand ball given the young Prince at the Academy of Music, substantially close the scene. The impression to be made on the American public by the visit of the Prince, and the impression to be made on that of England by his reception, have already been made.— We are happy to believe that the impression has been favorable on both the great nations.

It was not to be expected that a people, so fond of novelties and so disperately determined to practice Lincoln's motto of "to see and be seen" should fail to exhibit a pardonable curiosity to see a live prince; that of some instances fankeyism should have exhibited themselves among twenty millions of good people, is not to be wondered at. The true wonder is that we have exhibited so little. The American people have evidently improved in that particular of late. But independent of all considerations merely affecting our good manners, the visit of the Prince must certainly be regarded as an event of no small moment. Perhaps nothing could better illustrate the utter obliteration of past feuds and ill-will between the two nations, nothing could more clearly show the cordial sympathy and sincere confidence existing between the two branches of the Anglo-Saxon family.
The trust and compliment implied, on the one hand, in sending the heir apparent to travel among our democratic masses where he would be protected from danger or insult solely by the universal honor of the people, was very great. The great grandson of George III making a pilgrimage to Mount Vernon and planting a tree above the grave of Washington, is a very wonderful fact and a very great compliment to our people. On the other hand, whatever attentions may have necessarily been entailed on the Prince by the excessive efforts to demonstrate it will not fail to impress every one that all sections of the country have exhibited a laudable desire to do honor to the occasion, and to testify their respect for the English people and their profound respect for their admirable Queen. Whatever croakers may say, we are content to believe the victims of Albert Edward has proved a grand success and a most happy illustration of the advancing civilization of the age.—Chicago Times & Herald.

HOW'S IMPROVED SCALE is fast taking a lead in the market on account of its simplicity and durability, the doing away with check rods, and taking the wear off the knife edge by receiving the friction on balls, is an extremely happy thought of the inventor. We have been shown a number of certificates of the accuracy and durability of Howe's Scales, and others the following decisive one as to its merits:

The Delaware, Lockport & Western R.R. Co.
Local Department Agency at Washington D.C., September 11, 1860.
Mr. John Howe, Jr.:
Dear Sir: The continued use of your 200 ton Scale at Plane No. 4, only strengthens my opinion as to the accuracy and durability of the Scale. We shall weigh on it this year at least 700,000 tons, and I consider it as good as the day it was put up.

Respectfully yours,
A. P. BARNUM, Agt. North Canal.

Mr. Dickson, the Western Agent, informs us that the above Scale has been in constant use for nearly four years, and that it is set out of level seven feet. A large stock of these Scales, including the 20 ton track and 4 ton Hay Scale, are not up and can be had at the same Agency.

Death of Gen. Walker.

It is now satisfactorily known that this filibuster has been shot. A letter from Trujillo, published at Havana, thus describes the last moments of Walker:

"As soon as Walker entered the prison he was heavily ironed, and asked if he wanted anything. He only asked for water. He then sent for the chaplain of his post, and protesting his faith as a Roman Catholic, he was seen thereafter, almost constantly, kneeling at the feet of the priest, in front of a small altar, on which, by the dim light of the tapers, the image of Jesus was distinguished. Among other things, he once said to the captain: "I am resigned to die; my political career is concluded."

"On the 11th inst., at 7 o'clock p.m.
Walker was notified of his sentence of death; and to this startling message the only reply he made, was to ask at what hour it would be executed, and whether he had time to write.

"On the 12th, at 8 o'clock a.m., the culprit marched to the place of execution. He walked with a crucifix in his hand, upon which he cast all his regards, looking neither to the right nor to the left, but listening devoutly to the psalms which the priest recited in his ear. He entered the hollow square formed by the soldiery in the place of execution, and there full of resignation he pronounced the following words—"I am a Roman Catholic. The war which I made upon Honduras, in accordance with the suggestions of some Spaniards was unjust. Those who accompanied me are not to blame. I alone am guilty. I ask pardon of the people. I receive death with resignation—would that it may be for the good of society."

"Walker died with remarkable firmtitude. He remains were buried into a tomb, and rest in peace for a perpetual example."

A TEMPLE OF HYMN.—The Spence House, in Cincinnati, Ohio, last Saturday night, contained no less than nine brides with their grooms.
Two of the couples were of from Kentucky, two from Tennessee, one from Arkansas, one from Ohio, one from Louisiana, one from Missouri, and one from Mississippi.

"Why, John, I don't think you like liver." "O, yes," said John, "I like it very well for fifty or sixty meals; but I don't like it as a steady diet." The old lady cooked something else for the next meal.

RECEPTION OF JUDGE DOUGLAS.

DIMENSE OUTFLOWING OF THE PEOPLE.

The reception of Judge Douglas last evening was signalized by an outpouring of the people never before witnessed in this city, and which fully vindicated the strong hold which the Little Giant has upon the feelings of the people.

At an early hour in the evening the Douglas Civil Guards of the Third, Fourth and Fifth Wards, gathered around their Headquarters, near the Herald office, and were soon afterward joined by their brethren from the extreme upper and lower wards, amid the firing of cannon and the display of fireworks, from whence they moved to the Levee, accompanied by an immense concourse of people. On the Levee, on the arrival of the steamer City of Alton, which was throughout all its decks densely packed with people, the scene was one of unsurpassed grandeur. As far as the eye could reach from Carr street to Plum, the Levee was a densely packed mass of human beings, overcrowded with banners, flags and transparencies, and all anxious to again get a glance at the popular young giant of the West. At the immediate landing of the Company the crowd was so dense that it was with much difficulty that a passage-way could be secured for the Judge from the boat to the carriage in which he was to be conveyed. It was only after a long force of the Guards had surrounded him and forced a way through the multitude that it was effected. The Judge, accompanied by Mr. Davis and others, took a seat in an open carriage, drawn by six black horses and driven by Mr. Arnot. The procession moved along the route previously marked out, passing the Republican, Chronicle and Herald offices, the mentioned of which was brilliantly illumined at the occasion. At the west front of the Court House, where the Judge had a seat, he was speaking another message presented. As far as the reach, on Fifth and Chestnut and Main ket streets, it rested upon a sea of turned faces. On the Judge's speech we do not propose to speak. The late hour at which he concluded, prevents our giving even an abstract of his address. The able defense of the panel of the Democratic party, with the independence which has always characterized the man, and his clear and concise manner of speaking, were the only ones proceeded to state his position on the exciting political questions which now agitate the public. The Judge spoke until a late hour, and was surrounded until the close, by an audience immense in number and enthusiastic beyond any former gathering we ever witnessed in the city.—St. Louis Herald.

of the same plan for the ensuing year.

Dr. Mann's Ague Balm is a perfectly triumph remedy for chills, fever, and ague, and all diseases arising from a diseased or inactive condition of the liver.

Indeed it will never fail, and the one who fails to use it at once will deeply regret the neglect. Reader you will never again have a fever, that is, unless you use Dr. Mann's Ague Balm, and continue until the system is perfectly re-erected; if this be done, there will be no one who will suffer long from chills, fever, or ague.

Dr. Mann & Co., Gallion, Ohio.—Gentle: We are at a loss to find language sufficient to praise to the public the great success of your Celebrated Ague Balm in this community. The fact is it never fails to cure in the most rapid manner, and we can only say—

Yours, &c. Honorable T. T. Brown, District Court, West, Oct. 20th 1859. Messrs. J. E. Mann & Co.—Gentle: I have procured a supply of your Ague Balm, and tested it thoroughly in many cases, and of long standing, where all the popular remedies of the day had failed. I found in all cases your Balm effected a safe and speedy cure. It is just the medicine we want here in this section.

Respectfully Yours, Josiah Brown, District Court, Gallion, May 18th 1860. Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co. Gentlemen:—I would say for the benefit of those suffering with chills, fever and ague, that I can confidently recommend your Ague Balm to do what it is recommended to do, having used it myself, and in my family also; having known it used in many other cases, where it has universally proved effectual; leaving the patient soundly cured. I give this for the benefit of all whom it may concern.

R. F. Manna, Gallion, O., May 1860. St. Louis, Sept. 10th 1860. Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co. Gentlemen:—After using several other preparations for fever and ague, and only getting partial relief, for the disease soon returned again on me. I took two bottles of your Balm, and have had neither chill nor fever since. I feel that you are right, and believe it to be the only thing that will never fail, and hence, I recommend it to others.

Yours Truly, J. G. Wagon, Alexandria, Mo., June 1860. Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co. Gentlemen:—Please send me a dose of your Ague Balm. It gives the best satisfaction of any ague preparation we have had in our place. The fact is, it never fails to cure properly taken. Respectfully Yours, Moore & Berry, O. J. Wood & Co., Proprietors, Gallion, Ohio.
