DEATH CALLS AGED PIONEERS TO THEIR REST

Men Who Helped to Develop This Country and its Institutions Answer Final Summons. Two Were War Veterans.

Death during the past week has called from this community a number of its grand old men. Abraham Roney, Elias Workman and Henry L. Frederick were some of the hardy pioneers who came to this county when this part of the state was virgin territory. They were permitted to live to a ripe old age and witness the wonderful development which their efforts helped to make possible.

ELIAS WORKMAN

Elias Workman one of Moultrie county's best known residents died at the Memorial hospital in Mattoon Monday morning. He had been at the hospital for some weeks. He was 86 years, 2 months and 26 days of age.

He was born January 10, 1839 near Clarksburg, W. Va. and when a young man was married to Ameline Lloyd at Anderson, Indiana, July, 1861. In 1864 he and Mrs. Workman moved to Sullivan and he had lived here since that time. They were the parents of three children, Mrs. Alice Milliken, John Workman who died some years ago and Mrs. Emma Hancock of Tujunga, California. Mrs. Workman died in 1891. In 1893 Mr. Workman married Mrs. Elizabeth Monroe who died on January 13th of this year.

Mr. Workman was a veteran of the Civil War having enlisted in 1863 in Company C, Illinois Infantry. He received his honorable discharge in 1865. He was a member of the local G. A. R.

By trade Mr. Workman was a stock buyer and feeder. He always took an active interest in all community affairs and was the owner of several residence properties in this city. Besides the two daughters above named, he leaves seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Workman residence Wednesday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. D. A. MacLeod of the Presbyterian church. Interment was in Greenhill cemetery. The pall bearers were J. M. Cummins, J. M. David, Ray D. Meeker, S. B. Hall, F. C. Newbould and Chester Horn.

Mrs. Helen McCune, Mrs. Dave Cummins, Mrs. Cora McPheeters and Mrs. Ida B. Davidson sang the funeral hymns. The members of the N. N. N. club were the flower carriers and the G. A. R. members acted as an escort for their old comrade.

ABRAHAM B. RONEY

Abraham Bennett Roney, one of the oldest men in Moultrie County, died Thursday of last week at the home of his son H. L. Roney at the advanced age of 93 years and 20 days. He had been bedfast for the past eighteen months and had lost his sight about three years ago.

He was born in this county near Todds Point March 12, 1832.

After his marriage in 1862 he engaged in farming for a while and later went to Shelbyville where he had a clothing store. The cholera epidemic drove him out of Shelbyville and for a time he again farmed and then came to Sullivan. Here he engaged in the grocery business with Addison McPheeters. He continued in business here until his retirement many years ago. His wife died twelve years ago.

Two sons survive him, Norman Roney of Decatur and H. L. Roney of this city. He also leaves four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the residence Friday at 2:30 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. Hopper. Interment was in Greenhill cemetery. The following officiated as pall bearers: James Pifer, James A. Moore, James Smith, M. B. Whitman, Ray D. Meeker and Claude Harris.

HENRY L. FREDERICK

Henry L. Frederick, an aged Civil War veteran died suddenly at his home in this city Monday at the advanced age of 85 years, 2 months and 8 days.

He was born in Ross county, Ohio, January 28th, 1840 and came to Moultrie county with his parents in the following year. In 1861 he was united in marriage with Mary Howe. To this union were born six children, all boys. Four of these sons survive. They are Henry A. of Sullivan; Atlanta of Missouri; Jacob M. of Missouri and Erastus of Iowa.

Mary Howe Frederick died April 24, 1874. Two years later, March 9, 1876 he was united in marriage with Mary Miller Kimsey. To this union were born three children, Roscoe and Otto of Peoria and one daughter who died in infancy. He also is survived by one stepson, Clifton O. Kimsey. (Continued on page four)

FIRE TRUCK COMPANY TREATS CITY SHABBLITY

The City of Sullivan bought a new fire truck from the Obenchain-Boyer Company of Logansport, Indiana last Fall and received delivery of same this year. Ever since the Council has had more or less difficulty relative to this deal. Part of the equipment was delayed and the city only received same after withholding settlement for some time. After arrival of all of the equipment the city made settlement for the job.

They have since learned, to their sorrow, that the company never has paid Newbould & Jenkins for the Hudson chassis on which the truck was built. C. R. Hill holds a chattel mortgage against this chassis for which the Obenchain-Boyer company was supposed to pay promptly so Mr. Newbould could have the mortgage released.

Failure of the company to live up promptly to their obligations has prevented Mr. Newbould from retiring the mortgage indebtedness against it and to secure a showdown, Mr. Hill has brought foreclosure proceedings. The Obenchain-Boyer Company is one of the biggest in its line and why this city has been given so scaly a deal is something that the city dads fail to understand.

SCHOOL ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

All school elections will be held Saturday. In the Sullivan districts the candidates for the Township High School Board are the following: For president, Homer Shirey; for Board Members, J. B. Tabor and Dr. J. F. Lawson; for unexpired term of W. E. Edmiston who has resigned, Dave Cummins.

The candidates for the grade school board of education are J. L. McLaughlin for president and Matt Dedman and W. R. Robinson for board members. The poll for this election will be in the Armory. The T. H. S. election will be held in The Progress office.

Polls will be open from 1 to 5 p. m.

The household goods of Mrs. Roxie Woodruff which have been stored in this city since she went to Springfield, were moved to Decatur Tuesday evening by the Bupp Transfer Company. Mrs. Woodruff spent the early part of the week here.

WASHINGTON APPROVES PLAN FOR NEW P. O.

Lease Signed For New Quarters Which Will be Fitted With Best of New Equipment. Long Continued Efforts Result in Success.

Sullivan is now assured of having one of the finest post offices that can be found in any city of its size in this country.

Through the persistent efforts of Post Master McPheeters arrangements have finally been completed whereby the Post Office department has leased the "Jim Winters" building, which has been occupied by the Haley Hardware store. The owner of the building is the Merchants and Farmers State Bank. The lease is for 10 years at a yearly rental of $1200.

The post office will be moved into that building as soon as it is ready for occupancy. The front of the building will be changed somewhat; four windows will be cut into the West wall and the interior will be fitted up with the very latest and most approved Post Office fixtures. Contract for these fixtures at $2,300 was let Wednesday morning to the Peerless Lock Company of Indianapolis, Ind. Their salesman L. G. White had been here for several days angling for the order. A new heating plant will also be put in the building. The lease is for the lower floor only. The improvements on building and the new equipment will cost over $5,000.

The need of better post office equipment for this city has long been apparent. The matter has been taken up with the Post Office department from time to time but nothing definite was accomplished until this time. During the past year there have been times when it appeared that something might be done, but the matter would gradually go to sleep. Mr. McPheeters has kept continually on the job and through Congressman Adkins and Senator McKinley has endeavored to impress on Washington officialdom the crying need for better quarters and better equipment for the people of Sullivan. Persistence has won out. Sullivan gets what it has asked, pleaded and prayed for.

RELIEF ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS AND AMENDS ITS BY-LAWS

The Moultrie County Mutual Relief Association held its annual meeting Monday night. Secretary Cash Green made a report on the work of the association since its organization in 1919.

Judge O. F. Cochran was re-elected president; J. L. McLaughlin, vice-president; Homer W. Wright, treasurer; Cash W. Green, secretary and Dr. J. F. Lawson, medical adviser. The following five were elected directors: J. H. Pearson, C. A. Corbin, Charles Patterson, C. E. McPheeters and Ed C. Brandenburg.

Several amendments to the by-laws were submitted and accepted. The most important of these provided that the annual dues be $1.00 per year per member and that 50c of this be collected with the first death benefit assessed after January 1st and the other 50c with the first such assessment after July 1st of each year.

Seventy-five per cent of such dues are to be applied as compensation for the secretary and the remaining 25 per cent are to constitute a fund out of which the expenses of the association shall be defrayed.

An amendment relative to fee charged for admission to membership and as to age of applicants was discussed but not passed. In order to get more light on this subject a committee was named to revise the constitution and by-laws of the association and a special meeting is to be called to receive the report of this committee whenever it has completed its task. The chairman of the committee is Secretary Green and the members are C. A. Corbin and Ed C. Brandenburg.

The reports submitted by the Secretary at Monday night's meeting show that the association is in sound finance, and faces a future of expanding usefulness.

PERSECUTED MARTYRS!

Now that the indictments against Fall, Sinclair and Doheny have been quashed, it may be in order for the government to extend to these men an apology for its interference in their activities in trying to steal the nation's oil reserves. Also, a bill might be introduced and passed in Congress appropriating a sufficient sum to reimburse these crooks for their defense expenditures and for the mental anguish that they may have suffered when it appeared for a time that they might be Uncle Sam's guests at some federal penitentiary. It's another case of the big ones getting away while the poor dupes like Gaston Means feel the hand of their vengeance.

Monday was the eighth anniversary of America's entry in the World War. This mighty struggle was fought to a successful conclusion and then the petty politicians got in their dirty work and frittered away the fruits of victory to satisfy their spleen against the great war president.

THE SEEDS OF DISHONESTY

Every worth-while American parent wants his or her children to be honest. No parent ever had any desire to raise a brood of crooks.

Many do, however, sow the seeds of dishonesty where the children can plainly see. Some even brag about how they "get by" in some transaction that is obviously dishonest. We have all heard of people telling of how "Johnnie still passes for less than 5 years old on trains" when Johnnie is all of 8 years old or more. Also we hear of "Mary still riding for half fare" when Mary passed her 12th birthday anniversary two or three years ago.

And parents take a pride in saving the few pennies in fares which the rules of the railroads say should be paid. Just a little money saved—but your child taught dishonesty with itself as the tool for practicing the deception.

This is just one instance where unthinking people—not all of them, but many—sacrifice part of the love and respect which their children may have for them, but worse still they set an example which sinks deep into the child's consciousness. If Dad or Mother can fib and get by with it, even be proud of it, why should not the child try it also?

Watch your step, folks, it's these little things that count. You may pull a shady business deal and apparently get by with it but eventually your crookedness will return unto you. Your seeds of sin sown in daily transactions will some day bear a harvest of shame and degradation, which will convince you that the few paltry dollars which you made were but a trifling mockery.

100 PER CENT AMERICAN

There are but few communities like Sullivan in one respect, at least, and that is the Americanism of its citizens. We believe that it is a 100 per cent American community. We use this expression "100 per cent" not in the distorted and egotistical sense that a certain secret society has misused it in recent days. What we mean by 100 per cent is that we have in this community none but Americans, born in this country or naturalized under its laws. We have no negroes. We have no foreign element. We have no persons who do not speak our American language in their homes and in every day business affairs. We hear no foreign tongues on our streets.

We have no element that seeks to tear down American institutions. Of all of which things we may be justly proud.

But consider this—we have no factories; we have no mines; we have no big payrolls; our city shows no growth as the years go by. There are many other things which we lack, all of which makes it apparent that an influx of other elements is desirable if this city is to grow, unless we, the 100 per cent Americans wake up, grasp our opportunities and build a city that is 100 per cent in initiative in enterprise and get-up and go.

Just sort of think this over at your leisure.

EUGENISTS MEAN WELL, BUT—EARTH—BIG ALMA MATER WHY THE TEN COMMANDMENTS BUT CAN YOU ENFORCE IT?

The eugenists in the birth control convention plan for a better race by "artificial selection," which would mean picking the right husband for the right wife.

You can do that with cows, horses, etc but with them you only breed a body. Among human beings you produce that very mysterious thing called a soul, and that's different.

You might marry a John L. Sullivan to Hypatia, or a Michael Angelo Moses to the Venus of Milo, and be bitterly disappointed in results.

On the other hand, a tall, fierce country girl, Nancy Hanks, probably unable to read or write, marries a local ne'er do well, and the result is Abraham Lincoln. The Lord seems to reserve for himself certain problems.

Harvard will spend $12,000,000 to improve the study of agriculture. That's sensible.

English-speaking nations study Latin and Greek. The Romans studies Greek. The Greek philosophers studied the Egyptian language and hieroglyphics. Millions are spent teaching many kinds of knowledge little used after the student leaves school.

It is about time to begin studying seriously old Mother Earth, the original Alma Mater from which we Spring, upon which we depend absolutely during life, and to which we all return.

In Paris, a young girl, fifteen years old, Irene Laurent, evidently of the Madame Curie type, has produced a new fuel for automobile engines. It is made from sugar, and is cheaper and more efficient than any substitute for gasoline thus far discovered.

If events justify the prediction of Professor Haldane that chemistry will soon make sugar as cheap as sawdust, the gasoline problem may temporarily be solved by "sugar power."

Religious organizations, convinced that public school should include religious training in the daily routine, demand that the Ten Commandments be read to the children at least once a week.

Wouldn't "The Sermon on the Mount" be better reading for children than the Ten Commandments? In a general way every child of ten knows of the Ten Commandments, or as many as a child should understand.

Two or three of the Commandments are fortunately not necessary to the child up to fifteen.

Why not leave religion to religious teachers, and public school education to public school teachers, and keep the two separate, which has been the American plan thus far?

A man, just dead, was at one time a clergyman in the Protestant Episcopal church. Later he belonged to the Greek Orthodox church, and when he died he was one of the Gray Friars in a Roman Catholic monastery.

You admire such earnest seeking after truth and wonder what this man of three religions learned about religion when he passed over to the other world.

Did he find that only one religion is officially recognized above, or is one better than the others, or does it all depend on how you act toward your fellow man, the Creator of the Universe not being so much interested in what you think about Him? Definite answers would be interesting.

President Coolidge says the States should help the national Government to enforce the dry law. So they should, out of respect for Constitution and law.

But while the necessary seventy-five per cent of the States ratified the Constitutional Amendment, nearly one hundred per cent violate it, and their juries sympathize with the violators.

The question for the President and the nation is this: How can the use of whiskey be stamped out? What is to be done to stop drunkenness and open drinking of bootleg whiskey among school children? Prohibition seems to have put millions in this nation on a whiskey drinking basis. What can be done about that?

OUR SUITS FOR BOYS

"Cravenette" Processed

Are great friends on rainy days, when they protect the boy from unexpected—or unrespected—showers.

The "Cravenette" Process accounts for that. It makes these boys' suits wear like iron, and shed water like a duck's back. "Cravenette" doesn't mean a particular kind of cloth. This is a scientific process which, when applied to any fabric, gives it greater durability and makes it resistant to water.

You'll like the outstanding smartness and style of these suits. Two pairs of trousers.

To complete the Easter attire you'll want a STETSON from our newly arrived stock. You'll also find here just what you want in shoes, ties, etc.

"I have been bad off with stomach and liver trouble and bloating for many years. No doctors or medicine helped me. On the advice of my druggist, I bought a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and I don't want to miss a single dose. It has given me more benefit than all the medicine I have ever taken. I feel I am doing good to recommend it to others." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

BLANCHE RACHEL MARTIN DIED SATURDAY FOLLOWING LONG SIEGE OF ILLNESS

Blanche Rachel Martin, daughter of Joel K. and Belle Eden Martin, was born in Whitley township, Moultrie county, Illinois, April 1, 1896. She died at the home of her parents in Sullivan township, Saturday.

She graduated from the Sullivan High School with the class of 1924. After graduating from the high school she entered the Illinois State University and graduated from that institution with the class of 1917. After graduating from the university she was employed as a teacher in the public schools of Sullivan. Because of ill health, she was obliged to give up her school work and seek a different climate. In the fall of 1919 she went to California to reside. For a time her health improved but in the summer of 1922 while staying at the home of her sister in Riverside, California, she suffered a relapse. Her mother then went to California and mother and daughter went to a health resort in the mountains and resided for two years. This proved to be of little value and a few months ago they returned to the farm home near Sullivan.

The members of the family surviving are the father and mother, two brothers, Edgar and Kenneth and two sisters, Mrs. Emma Denton of Riverside, California and Miss Grace Martin. The two brothers and Miss Grace reside at home with the parents. Miss Grace is a teacher in the public schools of Sullivan.

The father is very ill at his home at this time and because of this the funeral services were held at the home of I. J. Martin, 2004 West Jefferson street, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Milton Wilson of the Methodist church officiated and was assisted by Elder E. D. Elder, representing the Baptist church. The funeral was largely attended by friends of the family. The floral offerings were beautiful and were cared for by Mesdames J. N. and E. J. Martin. The funeral hymns were sung by Mrs. Gay Fleming, Mrs. Edith Haydon, J. B. Martin and Walter Riggs with Miss Helen Chase at the piano.

The casket bearers were Kenneth Roughton, Ray Light, James Pifer, Carl Wolf, Burney McDavid, and Roy Fitzgerald. Burial in Greenhill cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS We desire to thank the neighbors and friends who were so kind to us during the illness and death of our beloved daughter and sister, Blanche. Respectfully,
Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Martin and family.

Ellie's Reckless Philosophy Shocks Sallie

"You're a perfect lamb, Ellie, to want to get me out of this and after Father has been home a few days, Doctor Gray will probably be glad to have me leave as he still thinks I need a change."

"How is your Father?" asked Ellie.

"In fine shape again, bless his heart, but I know he is going to wonder what made Curtiss clear out."

"There you go worrying about him again, Sallie, it's so unlike you to be on this side of the fence. It's usually that string of suitors you keep intact who go in for the worrying game."

Snap out of it. If Curtiss Wright doesn't like your own attractive self prefers Anne Coddington who is positively drab, YOU should get a permanent frown."

"Ellie I wish I could take life as you do. I used to be able to until I met him. He makes me see how worthless we are." I sighed.

Ellie reached for a fresh cigarette, tapped it on the back of her daintily manicured hand, opened her mouth to reply and then became silent again.

"What's your philosophy, sport?" I asked.

"It's this way, I think, Sallie," her voice took on a more serious tone, "decide first what it takes to give you the most happiness in life. If your conscience is geared to the pitch where you have to walk the straight and narrow every minute to make things square when you're face to face with yourself, then walk it by all means, my dear, but—" she tapped the ashes from her cigarette, regarded it thoughtfully and smiling like Peter Pan, continued her remarks, "on the other hand, if you have figured out that your conscience will stand the things that give you the sort of happiness you want, then—disregard all traffic signals and sail ahead."

"I don't think I get you, do you mean—"

"Just this, Sallie, I take what bit of bubbly, thrilling, joyousness each day holds forth. I must have excitement to make me feel alive. You're different. You're always puzzling your pretty head over problems of right and wrong. That takes all the kick out of the wine. For instance, I don't want to get married. In the first place, I've seen too much of this luke warm affection and mental stagnation among our own little crowd. Why would I be any different from all the lovely girls who have ceased to amuse or be amused?" she laughed.

"But don't you want babies, Ellie?" I asked, rather amazed at her viewpoint for, while I knew Ellie was ultra modern in her ideas, it was startling to hear them actually voiced.

"Not if they have to be parked on other people as I've been since my arrival was announced."

"But, Ellie, surely you are not an advocate of free love?"

"No," she hunted for the next words, "I never got quite to that until I fell for the wiles of a distracting Lethario who couldn't be led to the altar in chains."

"Too bad," I thought, Ellie had probably fallen in love with one of the many men in our set who balked at matrimony and it's ties.

"Well, what are you going to do?" I asked.

"I'm not going to enter a convent and try to kill my infatuation with fasting and prayers."

"Ellie," I went over and sat beside her on the chaise longue. "This isn't like you. You know you'd ten times rather be married than—, think how awful it'll be when you're old. If a man isn't married to you, he'll never stick."

"And if he IS married?" she was cynical and shrugged her shoulders with a bitter little laugh.

Again I asked her, "What are you going to do about it?"

"Why should I worry?" she demanded. "With Mother and Dad chasing all over the world, I have absolute freedom of the house. One gets damnably lonesome with no family or anyone to care."

I patted her but she drew away. "Ellie, this man has forced his distorted views on you. You never felt like this before."

"Well, what if he has?" she flashed back, "I'm getting along pretty well. We're planning a wonderful time down South."

"You mean HE'LL be there?" I asked.

"You don't think I'd be all pepped up over the prospect of rushing around to a bunch of dances and cocktail fights with a crowd of callow youths?"

"Who ever it is. I think he's a cad!" I cried, "taking advantage of you just because your Mother and Father are away."

"But, Sallie, even the qualms of conscience aren't as bad as being neglected. Delicate attention and a perfect lover aren't so dusty after all, besides," she added, "there's always a distant chance of wedding bells, if that eases your Puritanical mind."

She spoke lightly but when she mentioned marriage, I noticed she brightened perceptibly and there was an eager light in her eyes.

If I were any judge of human nature, Ellie wanted to get married for some reason, the suitor of whom she had spoken, did not.

METHODIST CHURCH

Milton Wilson, Pastor.

"Intensive" was the Methodist key word last week. The key word for this week is "Strenuous". The folks kept things moving last week according to program and got through in good shape. The many social, business and religious activities all well taken care of.

The interest on Sunday was below normal. The Sunday School registered 186; rather small congregation for morning worship; seventeen at Junior Epworth League at 2:30; thirty-two attended Senior Epworth League services at 6:30; a small representation of Methodists in the big congregation at union services in Christian church at night. One addition to the church by transfer.

Some matters to occupy our time this week: An interest in union Holy Week services every day. Directing the Epworth League "egg roll" every day for Chaddock Boys School at Quincy. Send or bring the eggs, or an equivalent, any day this week to the parsonage or bring them when coming to any church service on Sunday. "One Hundred Dozens" is the slogan.

Practicing self-denial each day this week in order to have something to put in the special self-denial envelope on Sunday for benevolences. The envelopes will be given out Sunday morning.

Practicing every day for the program to be given by the Sunday School in church auditorium Sunday night at 7:30. See the program elsewhere in this issue.

Fellow ship supper served by unit number eight, under the direction of Miss Blanche Monroe, Wednesday night from 6:30 to 7:30.

Choir rehearsal on Thursday evening to prepare for Easter services on Sunday morning.

The pastor will attend Decatur District group leaders' meeting to be held in Decatur on Friday and will assist in meetings at Cadwell Thursday, Saturday and Monday nights.

Come to Sunday School at 9:30 Sunday morning. Take part in our Easter Day services Sunday morning at 10:45. Sermon theme, "The Living Christ." Special Easter anthems by members of the choir. Will be glad to baptize or receive folks into the church.

The Junior Epworth League will meet at 2:30. No Senior Epworth League at 6:30. Sunday School folks assemble early in order to be ready for big program to be given in church auditorium at 7:30. Preaching at Masonic Home at 2:30.

The 150 new Sunday School song books have come and will be in use on Sunday.

WILL ROGERS

Another 'Bull' Durham advertisement by Will Rogers, Ziegfeld Follies and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

EVERYWHERE you go every body is figuring out a Cross Word Puzzle. Nobody is working or even exercising. America will lose the next War but win the next Puzzle Contest. It's the greatest craze that hit this country since Prohibition. People say to me, "Why Will, you don't understand, it is an Education, it learns you more ways to say one word." If you know one way to say a word, what do you need to know any more for? Nobody is going to give you anything for nothing, I don't care how many ways you ask for it. Our nation has never been short on words. We might lack ideas sometime but never words. This puzzle has done one thing, it has learned us which is Horizontal and which is Vertical. But a Cross Word Puzzle is not new. Railroad Time Tables have been out for years. Smoke 'Bull' Durham while working one, that is, if you want to, if you don't, why smoke wherever you want to.

P. S. I'm going to write some more pieces that will appear in this paper. Keep looking for them.

In 1860 a blend of tobacco was born—'Bull' Durham. On quality alone it has won recognition wherever tobacco is known. It still offers the public this—more flavor, more enjoyment and a lot more money left at the end of a week's smoking.

MAKING EXCUSES

'Twas many and many a year ago
When excuses first came into style,
And whatever we do or wherever we go
We'll need them after awhile.

They're easy to make as you'll soon find out,

Unless you use the carefulest care.
As truth will out, so without a doubt
An excuse undiscovered is rare.

A mania, a prevailing style, a custom that never grows old, a subtle undefined thing which stays near all the time, a whim, a thing amongst rich and poor alike, a thing that confoundest perjury is the habit of making excuses.

How often we say or hear other people say, "If I'd only had time I would have done so and so" or "If I had felt real well I would have written my theme etc, etc." Time worn excuses—those. If only some new excuses could be thought of. We have new styles, new improvements, new modes, but the same old excuses prevail today as they did a hundred years ago.

And after all what good does an excuse do? It is fact that in making excuses we lose some of our strength of character. Who admires anyone who comes slinking into a classroom without his lesson and when called upon to recite mutters that he didn't have time to get the assignment. It is the very acme of foolishness—an excuse of that sort.

The results of constantly making excuses are easily, quickly, and plainly seen. One who always has an excuse on the tip of his tongue when asked to do anything will soon lose his popularity. Especially is this true in school. Students class the excuse makers as lazy, indifferent fellows with no pep or school spirit.

Of course it is all right to make excuses sometimes. But a habit of procrastinating and then giving a belated reason for it is nerve racking. We all strive to have a beautiful face but no one is good to look upon less they have a beautiful character and a lovely character is only obtained by striving daily to overcome little faults like that of making excuses.

In conclusion—the excuse makers are a detriment to school and home life. They are obstacles in the path of development—a hindrance to our school in social, moral and mental progress.

—Vera Wooley, '26.

Juniors are dreadfully busy, thinking of programs and eats. Banquet will soon be arriving with dates, toasts, bright dresses and sweets.

THE VILLAGE CENSOR

"No sir-ee, I never go around and talk about my neighbors. Why only yesterday Mrs. Smith came over and was telling me about how that new Mrs. Jones looked at church last Sunday. I thought I could never stand to hear her through. And you should have seen the color she had on herself. A bright red blouse with black dots in it, a large yellow tie, and a purple skirt. She had her hair all frizzed up and it made me think of some one I've seen at the circus. When she finally left I just had to run across to Mrs. Green's and tell her about it. I thought Mrs. Green would die laughing when I told her.

Mrs. Green she does have such a hard time trying to keep that family of hers clothed and fed. And that worthless husband of hers never was known to do even a day's work. They say he even borrowed the money to buy their marriage license. This is such a cruel world. Mrs. Long had all of her curtains down and was starting her spring house cleaning. And you should have seen her curtains; they were just one large hole right after the other, and her house was all upside down till you could hardly get inside the door. I couldn't stay there as I saw I was interfering with the day's work so I went over to see Miss Katy who has been ailing for some time now. Katy's mother met me at the door and gave me such a cold stare that I dared not go in. So I just asked how Katy was and started on over to the grocery store.

Old man Smitt, at the grocery store is getting so feeble he can't hardly walk anymore. He's had an awful touch of rheumatism this winter.

The new milliner was there too. They say she's real good at decorating hats and real cheap too. Well, I'm glad some one has come to work against Miss Scott, around the corner. She always did make us pay twice the regular price and I've heard she's kept lots of hats over and sold them for new.

Finally I got my groceries and started home. You always have to wait half an hour to get waited on at that place. Looks like they'd get some one else in there to help.

Oh yes, I heard that Sally Lee and Sam Kitter had got married at last! I'd began to think they never would marry. They say they've been going together high on to fifteen years. I reckon Sally's ma will have another one of her spells and its a pity she don't die.

Yes, and Mr. Yantz has a new car. a Ford, too. He was learning to drive it yesterday and ran into a fence and ruined a perfectly good fender.

And Maizie Brown has left home and says she won't come back until her pa buys her a new Easter bonnet.

Oh its such a beautiful day and I see you are washing so I'll not stay any longer now for fear of wearing my welcome out. Yes, you come over and see me. I must be going. Oh I almost forgot to tell you. The new minister's have arrived. They've got five girls and six boys. They will all go to school I guess. You ought to see their furniture. It looks like a millionaire's.

Here comes Mrs. James so I'll run along now and walk a ways down the street with her. My she is such a gossip but she is so interesting to talk to. Yes, you come some time. Good-bye."

—Olive Libotte.

A RECIPE FOR EDUCATION

To infinite patience add a little wisdom, carefully strained through profitable experience. Pour in a brimming measure of the milk of human kindness and season well with salt of common sense. Boil gently over a friendly fire made of enthusiasms, stirring constantly with just discipline. When this has boiled long enough to be thoroughly blended transfuse it by wise teaching to the eager mind of a restless boy, and set away to cool. Tomorrow he will greet you an educated man. (This same applies to girls).

Viva: "Why?"

Marjorie: "Because he's always going around yawning."

Miss Stuart: "Fern, don't use that clean dish towel to clean off the stove. Use your head."

Hulbert Henton: "I have on my golf socks today."

Gerald Tusler: "Why golf socks?"

Hulbert: "Eighteen holes."

Miss Sullins: "Quote from Antony's oration at Caesars' funeral, George."

George Hoke: "Friends, Romans, Countrymen, I come to praise Caesar but I won't bury him."

Otis Burcham: "Why do false eyes have to be made of glass?"

Herman Martin: "How could they see through them if they wasn't?"

—Orpha Goodwin.

THREE FIRE CALLS

On Thursday evening of last week fire was discovered in the wallpaper room of the City Book store. Will Snodgrass who was in the store at that time applied a few buckets of water and had the blaze extinguished by the time the fire truck arrived.

Friday night there was quite a bit of excitement when the alarm sounded about 10 o'clock. The awning in front of the Farm Bureau office had caught fire and was burned. No other damage was done. A meeting had been held in the K. of P. hall above the Farm Bureau office earlier in the evening and the presumption is that a cigarette stub was thrown out of the window, landing on the awning, where the breeze fanned it into flame.

On Sunday morning the department responded to a call at the home of J. L. McLaughlin. No damage was done as it was only a flue burning out.

CADWELL-ROSEDALE

James Wilson, Pastor
Rosedale Sunday School went up a few notches in attendance last Sunday. Number present, fifty-six. The Epworth League reported 24 present. The attendance at preaching services in the morning was exceptionally good. Rather a small audience for services at night.

The Rosedale folks are invited to attend the special Easter evangelistic meetings at Cadwell. Rosedale program for next Sunday—Sunday School at 10:00 a. m. and Epworth League at 11:00.

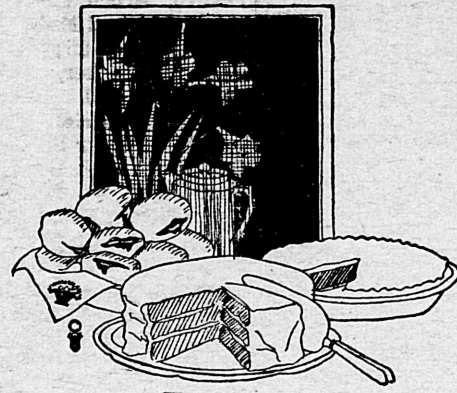

Cadwell had a good Sunday School with 29 present. Easter season program for Cadwell—Evangelistic services at 7:30 Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday nights. Sunday School Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock and preaching services at 11:00 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. Let all rally to the support of the church and do the best we can under existing circumstances. The finest Easter service that a church can hold is the reception of members into the church.
