$65,000 Damage I. C. Bridge Fire Wednesday Night

Wednesday Night About 600 Yards of Bridge Across Okaw Southeast of City Totally Ruined. Expect to Have New Bridge in Place Monday.

Fire Wednesday night between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, destroyed the Illinois Central railroad bridge across the Okaw river southeast of this city. The Sullivan fire department responded but could do nothing.

The length of the structure destroyed is about 600 yards and the damage as estimated by G. H. Danvers the company's traveling engineer is about $65,000.

Indications are that the fire started from sparks from a hot box or from burning cinders dropped from an engine in passing over.

Superintendent H. J. Roth and Mr. Danvers, both with headquarters in Mattoon came to this city Thursday morning to view the damage and plan for immediate re-construction.

Fifteen men and several work cars were on the job early Thursday morning cleaning up the debris and getting ready to rebuild. The rebuilding job will be rushed and it is expected that the new bridge will be in place so trains can pass over it by noon Monday at the latest.

In the meantime trains are being routed over the C. & E. I. tracks, via Tuscola and Mattoon.

Mattoon-bound passengers coming in after the fire were taken to that city by the Cummings Bus System. All efforts are being made to cause the I. C. Patrons as little inconvenience as possible.

SHERIFF OFF TO MONTANA TO GET JOHN CRUSE ON CHILD ABANDONMENT CHARGE

Sheriff Ashbrook left Wednesday night for Montana to get John Cruse, of Lovington, who is in custody there on a charge preferred against him in this county. He is wanted for child abandonment, a criminal charge. Extradition papers were secured from Springfield the early part of the week.

Cruse is a young man who when 18 years of age married a Lovington girl named Spent. Later his father tried to have the marriage annulled, charging that his son was too young to contract a legal marriage. This action has been dropped.

The young man went to Montana and has failed to contribute anything to the support of his wife or child which was born of the union, although Judge Sentel entered an order that he pay $10.00 monthly as temporary alimony.

Election Judges Named At Board Meeting Monday

Spaugh Bridge and Sheriff's Fees Also Were Discussed; Adjournment Taken Until Saturday. Review Board Salary Fixed.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors Monday judges of election were named in most of the townships of the county. The list is incomplete in Marrowbone township and Supervisor McIntire has not named his judges in East Nelson township.

After naming the judges, allowing claims and transacting some other business matters the Board adjourned until Saturday when it will meet again to discuss certain matters brought before it.

In the voting precincts where the largest number of votes were cast for the Democratic candidate for Governor last Fall the Democrats have two judges and the Republicans one; in precincts where the Republican candidate had a majority the Republicans have two and the Democrats one.

The list so far as completed is as follows:

Sheriff's Fees.
Another matter which took up some of the Board's time was the discussion of the fee system now in vogue in the sheriff's office. This system has been followed for many years but Mr. Drennan, the auditor who is auditing the books of the county officials, in a report to the Board stated that the practice was not in accordance with the statutes governing the office. Further discussion of this matter will be had at Saturday's meeting.

Good Audience Greets Minister Christian Church

Rev. Anderson's First Day's Service a Signal Success. Morning Service Followed by Basket Dinner. Church to be Decorated. Sermon Topic.

A good attendance marked the opening Sunday of Rev. George M. Anderson's ministry with the local First Christian church.

At the morning's services it was announced that for the next two or three Sundays all of the Sunday School and church services of this church will be held in Freeland Grove Auditorium. The reason for this is the fact that on Monday Charles F. McClure started the work of re-decorating the interior of the church building. The work is being financed by the Loyal Daughters class of the Sunday School.

Following Sunday morning's services a big gathering of the church folks enjoyed a basket dinner in Freeland Grove.

The New Beginning.
"The New Beginning" was Rev. Anderson's sermon subject for his initial service in Sullivan. In brief his sermon was as follows:

In his introductory remarks he likened the coming together of church and minister to a wedding and then gave appropriate charges of faithfulness, loyalty, patience, kindness, consideration, etc to both parties.

After his introduction he gave as a key text to a successful Christian work Phil. 3:13-14. "This one thing I do, forgetting the things that are behind and reaching forth unto those things that are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus". He emphasized very effectively two phases of this text.

1. "Forgetting the Things That Are Behind"—Forgetting is sometimes as essential as remembering. We are constantly asked to remember things but very seldom asked to forget. One of the most important arts of spiritual culture is to know how to forget the hurts of injustice, unkindness and even injuries. The heaviest dreadweight in life is an old grudge. These words of Paul indicate that it was a tremendous struggle to forget his past but he felt its absolute necessity in order to go forward in the work of the Master. The dedication services of the Jerusalem temple was destroyed simply because people could not forget the past. For genuine, successful Christian service it is necessary to forget the past. "Old things have passed away and behold all things have become new."

"Pressing Toward the Goal" The new beginning has with it a challenge. We wash stains and dirt off linen and iron out wrinkles in order that the linen may be used again. The reason that Paul forgot the past was so that he could go forward. A runner, or a Christian has no time to glance over his shoulder. Many a race has been lost simply because they glanced behind. God says "Woe to them that are at ease in Zion." Again to the Sardis Church we hear these words "Thou hast a name that thou livest and art dead." In order to reach the goal, which is Christ, a Christian ought to strive to have the spirit of Christ in its four dimensions, namely, height, depth, length and breadth. Reaching this goal is man's first and most important duty of life "For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Two of the fundamental aids that a Christian has at his disposal in reaching the goal are the Bible and the church. Both of these must be simple enough so that we will make no mistake in our race of life. Our slogan as a people is "Where the Bible speaks we speak, where the Bible is silent we are silent." For the church we have one after the simple Testament pattern. "If a man contend in the games, he is not crowned except he have contended lawfully." Emerson said of Napoleon, "Having decided what was to be done he did that with might and main. He put out all his strength. He risked everything and spared nothing—neither ammunition nor money, nor troops, nor generals, nor himself."

Mr. Anderson, wife and Onabelle, their daughter, came forward at the close of the morning service to place their membership with the congregation here in Sullivan.

NEW PRODUCE HOUSE
The Whiteacre Produce Company, formerly located at Hillsboro, will open a buying station in this city in the barn back of the Bussie Garage in Hamilton street. This company buys eggs, poultry and cream. They will open in the very near future.

Arrangements For Big July 4th At Sullivan

Races, Baseball, Water Carnival, Aeroplane Stunts and Other Entertainment Features Booked. Expect Thousands to Spend Day Here.

At an enthusiastic meeting held Friday evening at the Court House, by the business and professional men and members of the American Legion detailed plans and arrangements were definitely made for a Fourth of July celebration such as has not been seen in Sullivan since 1919.

From reports made by the four finance committees approximately twelve hundred dollars has been pledged with an expectation that from two to three hundred dollars in addition may be added to the fund. This amount with the revenue that may be expected from other sources, assures a full and worthwhile program.

The business men led the discussion and among other things considered carnivals, free acts, bands, aeroplanes races, speeches, a dance and fireworks. The majority though rejecting altogether the carnival idea, formulated a program which will include daylight fireworks, auto races, a ball game, horse racing, a water carnival, speeches, band concerts, aeroplane flying, a dance and night fireworks.

Two airplanes and three pilots are to be secured. Besides the programs of stunt flying, they will transfer a man from one plane to the other in the air. This act is being booked as a free attraction at a good deal of expense, but with the idea that it will interest the thousands who are expected that day.

The fireworks program will be even better than that shown in 1919. To begin with a salute that is guaranteed to be heard ten miles, will be fired at sunrise. Throughout the morning on the square bombs and shells will be exploded in the air, letting drop small parachutes in the form of animals, flags and toy balloons. The night program will be shot from the dam at the lake. It will last from an hour and fifteen minutes to an hour and a half. A man from the factory supplying the fireworks will be present to build the set pieces and shoot the fireworks. There will be twelve set pieces. Fifty-five other numbers and one big surprise. Mr. Lawrence, president of the company, was personally present to make this sale to the committee, and while here stated that this program was the same one that would be used in cities much larger than Sullivan.

It is expected that there will be auto races in the morning. The horse racing, ball game, water carnival, speeches and band concerts will take place in the afternoon. More band concerts, the fireworks and a dance will fill the evening. More complete information as to the program will be given in succeeding issues of this paper as the plans mature.

At Friday night's meeting Chairman D. K. Campbell named the following committees to be in charge of the arrangements for the day. The first named is chairman:

Budget—Frank Gibbon, Carl R. Hill.

Fireworks—R. D. Meeker, Frank Hasenmueller, Lee Taylor.

Band—R. B. Maxwell, W. R. Robinson, A. K. Merriman, John Lucas, J. H. Smith.

Free Attractions—Harve Ledbetter, J. W. Finley, J. N. Martin.

Arrangements—Grounds—J. H. Pearson, George A. Roney, J. J. Gauger, Homer W. Wright.

Publicity—Ed C. Brandenburg, Arlo Chapin, J. N. Martin, Forrest Wood.

Speakers—Geo. A. Sentel, W. G. Cochran.

Boosters—C. H. Tabor, O. C. Worsham, F. C. Newbould, R. D. Meeker.

Water Carnival—C. C. Turner, Guy Kellar, O. E. Lowe.

Base Ball—Henry J. Sona.
So far as is known no other celebration is to take place in Moultrie county or at any other town nearby. For this reason and because this is the first really big celebration for Sullivan in several years, an unusually large crowd is almost certain to come. No expense will be spared in advertising the day so that everybody far and near may know of it and that they are expected and urged to come.

McCUSKER GROCERY
Fine California cantaloupes; fresh pineapples 15c each—per dozen $1.50; nice new tomatoes, beans, peas, cucumbers, celery, cabbage, potatoes, new turnips; pimento cheese pressed ham; California orange blossom honey, just received from California, very fine; feeds, work clothes, etc.

Cash Green who has been seriously ill has so far recovered as to be able to be brought up town in a car this week. He is still in a weakened condition.

Sullivan Greys Opened Base Ball Season Sunday

Local Team Took Small End of a 5 to 3 Score, But Showed Up Well in Opening Game. Decatur Mohawks Here Sunday.

Manager Sona's nine couldn't quite hold the Mattoon Greys within the bounds of reason and as a result the big end of the score went to the visitors. The diamond is in excellent shape and is plenty fast for the best of 'em. Harsh pitched 8 innings and while he only struck out 3 men, but 1 got first via the base on balls route. Harsh's control of course, could have been better, but walking only one man speaks well for his pitching. The support back of him was weak at times and it resulted in the visitors getting 9 hits, 2 of them being doubles. A couple of chances for double plays were not handled smooth enough or the score at the finish would probably have been different. Some good fielding was done throughout the game by both teams, while at the same time a number of hot ones were cuffed around.

Fleenor, pitching for Mattoon, worked nicely, and fanned 13 men during the game. He had lots of smoke and a good control up until the last couple of innings, but won his own game, as only 8 assists were made by the Mattoon fielders.

Poland pitched the last inning for Sullivan with plenty of speed but it seemed that the boat had already sank, and Sullivan could not connect up with the ball at the right time to score.

The Decatur Mohawks come here Sunday and a good game may be expected, as this Decatur team is fast; and with the game last Sunday to warm up the locals and put them in shape for the season, you can rest assured that you will see a nice game.

Following is the game by innings:

First Inning.

MATTOON—F. Ganley reached first through Poland's error, and went on to second by an error of Chippis'. Carlisle doubled sharply to deep left. Carrington forced F. Ganley at third. G. Miller forced Carlisle at the same place. E. Ganley singled to right scoring Carrington, then stole second. T. Roy walked. Patterson skied out to Pribble in deep center. One run. Two hits. Two errors.

SULLIVAN—E. Chippis cracked one down to first for the first out. Pribble made a run for it after Patterson dropped his third stick but was too late. Poland walked then stole second. Pete Chippis out, third to first. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Second Inning.

MATTOON—Lofgreen flied out to Tabor. Fleenor out, Harsh to P. Chippis'. F. Ganley out, Crone to Chippis. No runs. No hits. No errors.

SULLIVAN—Purvis flied out to center field. Tabor skied out to left. Crone out on a sharp crack to first. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Third Inning.

MATTOON—Carlisle fanned. Carrington singled to right. Miller out to P. Chippis. E. Ganley out, Sona to Chippis. No runs. One hit. No errors.

SULLIVAN—Harsh fanned. E. Chippis singled to left field. Pribble out on a drive to second. Poland struck out. No runs. One hit. No errors.

Fourth Inning.

MATTOON—Roy made first on Sona's error. Patterson flied out to Pribble. Lofgreen singled to right. Fleenor singled to right and on the play to catch him at second Roy scored. F. Ganley forced Lofgreen at the plate on a fielder's choice to Poland. Poland booted D. Carlisle's fly and Fleenor scored. Carrington out, Poland to Chippis. Two runs. Two hits. One error.

SULLIVAN—Pete Chippis singled sharply to left then stole second and third. Purvis and Tabor fanned. Sona out, short to first. No runs. One hit. No errors.

Fifth Inning.

MATTOON—Miller flied out to Tabor. E. Ganley fanned. T. Roy out to P. Chippis. No runs. No hits. No errors.

SULLIVAN—Crone str. out.

Murry And Crist Saw Their Way Out Of County Jail

Men Under Indictment For Being Implicated in Gays Bank Robbery Get Away Saturday Evening. Munson Refuses to Make Attempt.

Monte Crist and Edward Murry, two Mattoon men under indictment for participating in the Gays bank in January, sawed their way out of the county jail and made their escape Saturday evening.

Ray Munson, convicted of having participated in the robbery and in jail awaiting the judge's ruling on his motion for a new trial, had the opportunity to escape, but instead of doing so, notified Mrs. Ashbrook that the other two men were gone. He said he had been asleep at the time they made their get-away which was about 7 o'clock.

Curley Burnes and Elmer Walling two more of the suspected bandits, were in another part of the jail and consequently did not escape.

The men sawed two bars out of the northeast window and had evidently been working on the job for some time as the sawed portions of the bars were smeared over with chewing gum. How the saws got into the jail is not known, but may have been smuggled in in papers which were occasionally sent to Murry.

Sheriff Ashbrook feels certain that the men had outside assistance and suspicion rests on several parties who may be guilty of helping the two men get away.

Burns who made several confessions is said to have repudiated his last one in which he implicated Crist and Murry and it is stated that with Burns' testimony out of the way the state did not have much of a case against the two escaped men. Crist is wanted in Charleston on a larceny charge and is said to have been in conflict with the law on several previous occasions.

The trials of the two men were slated to be held in June, the next day of court being June 22nd.

Authorities all around this part of the country were promptly notified of the escape and it is deemed certain that it will be but a short time before both of the men again taken into custody.

Asked why he did not go with the two when he had the chance Munson remarked that it looked "foolish" to try to get away. He persists in declaring his innocence of the crime for which a jury convicted him on the first ballot after a hard fought trial.

THE FARM BUREAU

"It's going over in good shape". This is the opinion of the men who are in charge of the membership drive for the Moultrie County Farm Bureau. This drive has been in progress now for several weeks and it will take a few weeks more to complete it.

Farm Adviser Turner has the assistance of several field men and organizers from the I. A. A. (Illinois Agricultural Association.) Despite the unfavorable farming conditions which have prevailed the past few weeks the response to the efforts of the membership campaign is good. Indications are that at the close of the drive the Bureau will have 200 to 400 more members than it did when the drive started.

There is a reason for all this. The farmers realize the need of co-operation in selling and of maintaining the fertility of their farms along the least expensive and most approved lines. New problems arise and must be met. The individual farmer cannot do battle for equitable conditions single handed, but as a member of a big organization, he can help and derive the benefits to which he is justly entitled.

In the membership drive the farmers are not promised things unreasonable. They are solicited on a basis of a good program of work already accomplished. Farm Bureaus are not experiments. In co-operation with the University of Illinois they are the one greatest force in Illinois that is working wholeheartedly for the good of the farmer.

Since the organization of the first bureau in 1912 the movement has had its ups and downs. At one time it had a membership of about 120,000. Many dropped out. The far-seeing ones did not. They stuck. They worked and they got results. Today the membership in the state is approximately 70,000, but the new campaigns under way are bringing back into the fold many of the old ones who had dropped out during the financial depression of 1922-23. Many new members who have not heretofore belonged are being enlisted in this great work.

The workers go forth with the zeal of missionaries. They have a good thing to sell the prospective members. They believe in it with all their heart. To them it presents a solution of many of the difficulties which farmers have faced in the years gone by. They realize that with practically every other trade and profession organized the farmer is at a distinct disadvantage when he goes it hit-or-miss.

Moultrie County ought to have at least a thousand farmers enrolled in its Farm Bureau. Here's hoping the drive will get close to that mark!

MYSELF AND I

Myself and I close friends have been Since 'way back where we started. We two, amid life's thick and thin, Have labored single-hearted. In every season, wet or dry, Or fair or stormy weather, We've joined our hands, myself and I, And just worked on together.

Though other friends have been as kind And loving as a brother, Myself and I have come to find. Our best friend in each other. For while to us obscure and small May seem the task they bend to, We've learned our fellow men have all They and themselves can tend to.

Myself and I, and we alone, You and yourself, good neighbor, Each in his self-determined zone Must find his field of labor. That prize which men have called success Has joy nor pleasure in it To satisfy the soul unless Myself and I shall win it. —Nixon Waterman.

Federal income tax officials investigating "hand bookmakers" discover a bookmaker who deposits between $16,000,000 and $19,000,000 a year in Cincinnati banks.

A bookmaker can deposit only what the little betting fools lose. Let them think it over.

A zoological garden for insects only, and occupying forty-one acres, will furnish a national object lesson. It will show the good done by some insects, the harm done by others. Without insects, for instance, there would be no blackberries.

Without bumble bees, as the Australians discovered, with amazement, you cannot have clover for your sheep. It would be easy to destroy all the insects in an orchard, but if you did that you would ruin the fruit crop. With insects, as with other animals, the dangerous kinds are in a minority. But the dangerous ones are very dangerous.

The insect Zoological garden is much more important to human beings now than the old fashioned kind. Man's dangerous enemies are no longer wolves, lions, catamounts and snakes. Where wolves at their worst might kill 500 people a year, one little demon of a microscopic life, the colon bacillus, carrying with it Asiatic cholera, will destroy millions of lives.

Kissing children that do not belong to you is offensive and dangerous stupidity, and that applies to politicians, and all others.

You need not be diseased to be a carrier of disease. Your own system may resist germs that would be fatal planted on a delicate mucous membrane of a child.

The automobile industry is now greatest in the United States totalling more than $3,163,000,000. The steel industry comes second, about $100,000,000 behind the automobile. Third comes the business of slaughtering and selling animals, more than $500,000,000 behind steel. We have reached the age of billions, our first ten industries being above the billion mark.

This is to be a great automobile year. April produced 420,373 cars. May is expected to go 20,000 higher.

The ancient gentleman, warned by the oracle that he would be killed by a house falling on him, did not save himself by sleeping out of doors. A flying eagle dropped a huge turtle, crushing the man's head. The turtle's shell was his house.

Miss Rose Maretta, in private life Mrs. Gerber, and a grandmother sixty-six years old, recovering from a long illness, returns to bareback and trapeze work in the circus.

A woman should be healthier at sixty-six than at any younger age, says this determined grandmother, and she is right.

Women have one advantage, with all the hardships that have followed them since the episode of the apple and the snake.

Once they pass fifty their chance of long life is much better than that of a man past fifty. For this there are several reasons, the most important, that they behave themselves and thus give themselves a chance to live. Many old men don't do that.

THE GOSPEL MISSION

H. H. Smith, Supt.

9:30 a. m. Sunday School.
11:00 a. m. Morning Worship
6:30 p. m. Young peoples services
7:30 p. m. Evangelistic service.
8:00 p. m. Thursday, preaching.
The Tuesday evening cottage prayer meeting this week will be at home of Mr. Selby. On Thursday evening there will be a Salvation Army worker speak at the preaching hour; we are not able to announce his name, but understand he was formerly an Allenville boy. Mr. G. S. Thompson will lead the young peoples service on Sunday evening.

The vacation time and the warm days tend to cause many to loose interest in the Lord's work. We pray that it may not be so this vacation time. Why not obey God and go right forward with his work. Did you ever hear of the devil taking a vacation or letting up the least bit on account it was too warm or too cold? The Lord might come soon or death may call. I don't want to be found on a vacation then, but I would be found fighting right in the midst of the battle.

Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Geo. M. Anderson, Minister.

Your pastor and family wish to express their appreciation and indebtedness to the church for the elaborate reception given them on their first Lord's Day in Sullivan. The program of the day was of a fine wholesome kind that will long be remembered. The special features of the morning service were accepted with a great deal of honor and glory. The fine words of introduction given by your representative Bro. Brandenburg, were flattering indeed but assured your servants that they were receiving a most warm reception by the church and a Godspeed in the work.

The floral display and church decorations for the day were very beautiful. This required much work and showed that there was a great deal of interest on the part of the decorating committee.

The dinner was by no means the smallest part of the day's program. This was very elaborate and was fully appreciated. The fellowship during this hour was also of the very best.

May the day be long remembered by all who were privileged to participate in its fellowship as an outstanding pleasant wedding day of pastor and church.

There are several other things that your pastor wishes to mention and that is the fine progressive spirit that the church is manifesting at present in changing the lighting system of the church, repairing the parsonage and the big undertaking of the Loyal Daughters class of re-decorating the interior of the church. These are big steps in the progress of the church work and all concerned should be commended for their fine loyalty and sacrifice. May God bless your every effort.

On account of the church being decorated at this time all church services, until further notice, will be held at the auditorium in Freeland Grove.

IST BAPTIST CHURCH

A. J. Burville, Pastor

We will observe Children's Day on this coming Lord's day the 14th of June. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Preaching services at 10:45 a. m. Subject, "The Sunday School an active service band." Sunday night at 8 p. m., the children will entertain us. Our Sunday School has an enrollment now of about 30. We especially invite all of our friends for our Sunday night Children's day program. We think that it will be worth while. Remember our Baptist church is a government for the people and by the people. It is not run by one or two but a majority vote of its membership. Our last Lord's day Sunday School was the largest we have had since we have been here. It has gone up from 9 to 30 in Sunday School in two months. But this has taken some work by the pastor. I have visited some two or three hundred families, and given out tracts at every home. Our Bible Class will be on this coming Wednesday night at Mr. Frank Coles, 1615 Anderson Street at 8 p. m. Please let every Sunday School teacher be there. Cottage prayer meeting at the home of the pastor, 618 Grant Street at 8 p. m. Please bring your Bibles as we are studying the book of Ephesians on Friday night.

METHODIST CHURCH

Milton Wilson, Pastor

Our people did good work last week and we made some permanent progress along the various lines of church activities. The Children's Day program committee are doing nice work and will be ready to give a good program at the church Sunday night at 7:30. See program elsewhere in this issue. Mrs. J. A. Sabin and her assistants served a good supper to more than eighty guests last Wednesday night, June 3. The folks rendering the program for the evening did their parts well. A slight falling off in patronizing the suppers and in attending the program. The W. F. M. S. report a good attendance and a good program at the home of Elmer Richardson Thursday afternoon. Just a small number present for the prayer meeting on Thursday night. We had a good meeting. Next week the prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday night at 7:30. It is too soon to report the results of the third quarterly settlement program.

which closes Wednesday, June 10. The pastor is doing all that he can to complete the benevolent canvass. It is a tedious task. Be patient. All homes will be visited and canvassed in the interest of our benevolences for the year.

The fellowship supper will be served Wednesday night by Mrs. George Cogdal and the ladies living in units 3, 4 and 5. The following program for the evening consists of appropriate singing, piano duet by Misses Helen and Eleanor Cummins, readings by Miss Edith McCune, vocal solo by Mrs. H. V. Gifford and address by Mayor C. R. Patterson.

This will be the last of the series for the season. If the plan is followed again next conference year, the ladies of the four country units, 19, 20, 21 and 22 will be asked to do the serving in the beginning of the season.

Last Sunday was one of variations. The Sunday School receded to 192 in attendance. The Junior League had a good time at 2:30 with only nine present. The Senior Epworth League had an interesting program and struck low tide in attendance with only twenty-four present. The morning congregation a little below normal in attendance, and at night, was much better than usual.

Meet us at church next Sunday. Sunday School at 9:30. Public worship at 10:45. Sermon theme "Imprisoned Apostles." Junior League at 2:30. Children's Day program at 7:30.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Last Sunday was so fine, the good roads so tempting, and nature every where so beautiful, that some forgot the regular hour or worship in the churches of the community. But we are glad to know that the services in all the churches held up for the day, and were glad to welcome those who found a place to worship in. These June days are fine, but we will appreciate the day and the true beauty of Nature, even better if we remember the Giver of all good, and come before Him in worship.

Subject for next Sunday morning, "The Faithful Creator."

Subject for evening, "New Testament Theory of Evolution." Bible study before the morning service. Glad to see many out last Sunday and hope we may be able to keep the attendance up during the month of June. You can help by your presence. You are always welcome.

CADWELL-ROSEDALE

James T. Wilson, Pastor.

Both Sunday Schools had a good attendance last Sunday. The number present at Cadwell, 48 and at Rosedale, 46. The Rosedale Epworth Leaguers reported 40 present for their program.

The attendance for preaching services at Cadwell for morning and evening was good. The stewards at both places are doing nice work in the way of collecting for the third quarter. June 10 is the third quarterly settlement day. Rosedale has made the 100% grade and Cadwell is doing her best to reach it.

The pastor had the pleasure of preaching to the Masonic Home congregation Sunday afternoon. A new experience but an exceedingly pleasant one.

The pastor urges the Rosedale Epworth League to send delegates to the district convention to be held in Assumption, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 16 and 17. He also urges the Cadwell church to send some of her young people as representatives to the same convention. This convention will prove to be profitable to the young people of the churches.

The program for next Sunday: For Rosedale—Sunday School at 10 and Epworth League at 11. A fine Children's Day program will be given at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. On account of Illinois Wesleyan baccalaureate services next Sunday in Bloomington, the pastor will not preach next Sunday.

For Cadwell: Sunday School session at 10:00 a. m. The Sunday School session at 10:00 a. m. The Sunday School is making preparations to observe Children's Day, Sunday, June 21. The program will be announced next week.

The memorial services held at the Center school house Sunday afternoon was well attended. A good program was given by citizens of the community. The pastor of the Sullivan Methodist church delivered the address.

START ACTION TO CLOSE ESTATE OF PERRY S. TURNER

Through his attorneys Cochran, Foster and Cochran, K. I. Turner has started action in the county court to settle the estate of Perry S. Turner. On January 8, 1912 Irving Shuman, then a resident of this city was named administrator of this estate. He gave bond in the sum of $7,000 with John P. Elder and L. B. Scroggin as sureties.

At about the same time assets of the estate totalling $3258.44 were paid to Mr. Shuman by a Lovington bank.

The complainant states in his bill that Mr. Shuman never did make an accounting and that no settlement has ever been made with any of the heirs of which he is one.

The action in court is a citation to Mr. Shuman and his sureties to appear and show cause why an accounting should not be made at this time.

REAL ESTATE DEAL

By warranty deed Rosa A. Reeves and husband this week transferred to Edward T. Guthrie, the Mattoon banker, the tract of land described as the North half of the northeast quarter of section 21, township 13, range 6. The consideration given is $8,000.

This seems to have been the only place where the wind struck with such velocity.

ERRING HUSBAND'S CAR AND JOY-RIDE WRECKED

BY HIS INDIGNANT WIFE
Tuesday night about 7:30 o'clock Mrs. Victor Clark ran down and wrecked an automobile in which her husband and two other women were taking a joy-ride. The Ford in which the trio were riding was totally demolished. Mrs. Clark's Dodge was slightly damaged.

Following this happening Clark hurriedly left town. The two women did likewise.

Mrs. Clark had come to this city to attend a meeting of the local Tent of the Daughters of Veterans. It was found that a key needed at the hall was missing and Miss Julia Brown stated that the key was at her home. Mrs. Clark and Miss Brown motored to the Brown home to get the key.

In leaving the home they spied a car on the side street near Jackson. Mrs. Clark remarked to her companion "I'm going to see who is in that car" as she had evidently recognized the car as belonging to her husband.

About this time Clark became aware that he was being followed. He hastened out on Jackson street with Mrs. Clark's car in pursuit.

The thrilling chase ended about two miles West of this city when Clark slowed down, evidently with the intention of taking a side road. Mrs. Clark tore into the Ford and totally wrecked it. She then grabbed a tire pump and bore down on the pile of wreckage. Miss Brown followed her to see what would happen. In the collision she had sustained a severe jolt on her nose.

When Mrs. Clark reached the car she demanded, "Faye, come out of there." "Yes, Grace, I'm coming" was the reply and Mrs. Faye Watson and Mrs. Nettie Hoke emerged from the car. Taking a few swipes at the women, Mrs. Clark then turned her attention to her errand husband and belabored him with the weapon she had in her hand. After scuffling for a time both Clark and the two women got away and a passing car picked up Miss Brown and brought her back to Sullivan, where she proceeded to her Tent meeting.

Mrs. Clark went to the County Farm nearby and telephoned to the home of her husband's parents and in a short time several members of the family arrived. Mrs. Clark was then taken home. Her husband had been there before her and taken a few belongings and skipped. It is said the two women left on the 9 o'clock train.

That nobody was killed in the wreck seems miraculous. The incident has started the tongues of scandal and gossip wagging at both ends and plenty of tales are current. The story as related above seems to be the authentic version as it was related by an eye-witness to the entire affair.

The case is exceedingly unfortunate as it serves to bring sorrow on the unfortunate and innocent members of the families of those who participated.

FARM ADVISER TURNER TELL COMMUNITY CLUB OF FARM PROJECT WORK

At Monday night's meeting of the Community Club Farm Adviser Turner made a short address telling those assembled what work the Farm Bureau is doing and asking for co-operation.

He distributed May copies of the Farm Bureau News with maps showing location of the project work and names of those co-operating.

He stated that poultry culling work will be undertaken this fall from August 15 to September 15th.

He also gave an optimistic view of frost damage, saying that the harm done had been greatly exaggerated by the metropolitan press.

In soil improvement work, he stated, that the farmer was being urged to keep up fertility by applying "limestone, legumes and livestock."

The speaker had to cut his talk short as he was booked for a big farm bureau membership drive meeting at Allenville.

BRIDGE BIDS REJECTED

PUTTING ONE OVER

The girl about to travel alone was warned not to talk to strange men. At the station, the conductor asked: "Where are you going?"

"To Detroit," she answered, so he put her on the Detroit train.

As the train pulled out she looked back and said:

"Ha, ha, I fooled him that time. I'm going to Chicago."—Exchange.

THE TASK OF HAPPINESS

There is an idea abroad among moral people that they should make others good. One person I have to make good—myself.

But my duty to my neighbor is much more nearly expressed by saying that I have to make him happy—if I may.

To be honest, to be kind—to earn a little and to spend a little less, to make upon the whole a family happier for his presence, to renounce when that shall be necessary and not be embittered, to keep a few friends but these without capitulation—

Here is a task for all that a man has of fortitude and delicacy.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

PROPER PRIDE

I like to see a man proud of the place in which he lives. I like to see a man who lives in it so that his place will be proud of him. Be honest, but hate on one; overturn a man's wrongdoings, but do not overturn him unless it must be done in overturning the wrong. Stand with a man while he is right, and part with him when he goes wrong.—Abraham Lincoln.

He that doth not know those things which are of use for him to know is but an ignorant man, whatever he may know besides.—Tillotson.

SHE THOUGHT SHE'D DYE!

Ordinary pastures are practically worthless owing to dry weather. Mr. Miller is one farmer who never complains of drouth or hard times.—Arthur Graphic-Clarion.

POEM BY UNCLE JOHN

Backward, turn backward, O time in your flight—bring me an old-fashioned supper tonight; Buttermilk biscuits and blackberry jam,—Good country butter and sugar-cured ham. I would have doughnuts like Ma used to make,—Pass me the steak, Brother—pass me the steak!

Once I ate hominy—finer than silk; now, it's ground corn-cobs and racket-store milk—stuff that was never inside of a cow—made out of whitewash, the devil knows how! Dizzy, fainthearted and weak in the legs—Pass me the eggs brother, pass me the eggs!

I have grown weary of "tailings" and "shorts" said to cure janders an' ring-worm an' warts. Weary to death of their synthetic flakes—copyright wafers and patented cakes. Weary of "health-food" that leads men to kill, Bring me my bill, waiter—bring me my bill!

WHEN THE TRAIN GOES BY

By Joseph S. DeRamus

What do you see as you stand by the track,
When the train goes rumbling by;
Is it just a mass of steel and smoke,
Like a streak against the sky?

Back of the steel and the smoke and noise,
Do you see the human side,
Do you see it all as a human thing
Where the fates of mankind ride?

Do you see the countless folks who wait
For the food and clothing it brings;
Do you see it bearing unto the world
All the daily needful things?

Do you see the lover who is hurrying back
To the girl he left behind;
Do you see the youth who is leaving home
With the hope of fame to find?

Do you see the chap who has had his fling,
And is longing to be back,
Where he'll be content to spend his days
With the folks in the old home shack?

Do you see the heart downcast in gloom
When a friend is forced to leave;
And the sorrows and tears that death oft brings,
And a soul going home to grieve?

Oh, what do you see as you stand by the track,
When the train goes rumbling by;
Is it just a mass of steel and smoke
Like a streak against the sky?

—Rock Island Magazine.

WORLD'S HIGHEST TEMPERATURE IS PRODUCED BY GAS HEAT

What is said to be the highest temperature yet produced by man is reported to have been reached at the University of Leeds, England, by the use of ordinary manufactured gas and oxygen, according to the university's "Fuel and Metallurgical Reports." These reports state that a temperature of 7,677 degrees Fahrenheit was reached.

The impracticability of manufacturing commercial oxygen on a large scale is one of the barriers to wide use of manufactured gas and oxygen, a combination which American engineers claim will solve a great many industrial heating problems.

SMILES GO EVERYWHERE

A smile is quite a funny thing
It wrinkles up your face,
And when it's gone you never find
It's secret hiding place.
But far more wonderful it is
To see what smiles can do;
You smile at one, he smiles at you
And so one smile makes two.

He smiles at someone since you smiled
And then that one smiles back;
And that one smiles until, in truth,
You fail to keeping track,
Now, since a smile can do great good
By cheering hearts of care,
Let's smile and smile and not forget
That smiles go everywhere.—Exch.

SEES ILLINOIS AS SOURCE OF DAIRY STOCK IN FUTURE

Illinois may some day become a source of good dairy cattle.

Whether it does or not, depends upon the farmers themselves, asserts the dairy marketing department of the Illinois Agricultural Association, in a statement to Farm Adviser Turner of Moultrie County Farm Bureau.

"At present," says A. D. Lynch, the I. A. A. director, "Illinois dairymen who wish to replace reactor cattle with clean, quality stock, must go to other states to replenish their herds. Yet the time may not be far off when farmers will come to our own state for good dairy stock."

"At the present rate of T. B. eradication work in Illinois, indications are that within the next five years, this state will be the cleanest among dairy states. This will mean that dairy cattle from Illinois counties will command a premium over cattle in other states. For this reason it is time for Illinois dairymen to begin to think of their herds as sources of stock in years to come."

Visits Wisconsin Sources

During the last week the I. A. A. director visited Clark, Marathon, and Wood counties in Wisconsin with a view toward finding reliable sources of good dairy cattle with which to stock Illinois herds. He consulted county agents and breed association secretaries, inquiring about sources of grade stock.

"The I. A. A. is not a buyer of dairy cattle," states Mr. Lynch, "but the association is willing to assist in locating dairy cows, T. B. free and of good dairy strains, as we are in touch with sources in Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota. This information is on hand and is available to farm bureau members through their county Farm Bureau."

FARMER SPOKESMAN TO ADDRESS THROGS AT ANNUAL I. A. A. PICNIC

Moultrie county farmers and home makers will have the opportunity this summer to see and hear the nation's foremost agricultural spokesman.

Wm. M. Jardine, secretary of agriculture, has accepted the invitation of the Illinois Agricultural Association to speak at the association's annual state picnic to be held this year at Taylorville, Christian county, August 27, with the Christian County Farm Bureau as host.

Although he has not announced the subject of his speech, it is expected that he will express a crystallized viewpoint of the administration on the agricultural situation, first hand information of which he is now obtaining in his tour of the West.

The annual picnic of the Illinois Agricultural Association in a gala affair for Prairie State farms. Last year it was held in Logan county at Lincoln. Farmers came from the majority of the 93 farm bureau counties, from Pulaski in the South to Lake in the North.

State farm bureau champions in baseball and horseshoe are settled each year on the picnic day. Last year the Marshall-Putnam Farm Bureau won the baseball honors, while a team representing the McLean Co. Farm Bureau won the horseshoe championship of 26 counties competing. Illinois is the only state having farm bureau baseball teams, and organized leagues. Nineteen counties have teams this year. Interest and rivalry is keen in both sports. Large loving cups are given each year by the Illinois Agricultural Association.

About 15,000 farmers attended last year and with the secretary of agriculture as chief speaker this year a record-breaking crowd is expected.

Local arrangements are being made by the host, the Christian County Farm Bureau, and other interesting features are being considered which will be announced later.

One special new feature planned for this year's picnic is a woman's program in the forenoon under direction of the Illinois Home Bureau Federation.

Evidence From an Owner

Below are extracts from a letter recently received from Dr. W. P. Davidson, our well known local physician:

"On May 12th, 1924 the Davidson party left Sullivan for points West and South touching Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, Old Mexico, California, Idaho, Wyoming Montana, Nebraska and Iowa. During this trip we traveled 7355 miles, using 598 gallons of gas and about 30 quarts of oil. The entire expense on the car besides the gas, was $38.50. The car carried 1450 pounds tonnage.

"We found the car to be a most wonderful mountain climber with best cooling system. At all services stations they expected to fill but never found it short on water. It would only be warm when other cars were boiling on reaching mountain top. Chrysler cars were a rare sight on the way."

"On May 15th, 1925 Dr. W. P. Davidson and party left Sullivan passing through some parts of Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, New Jersey, New York, Canada, Michigan and Illinois. The distance traveled was 2770 miles. The car did wonderful work. It had plenty of power and too much speed (we were fined once.) We had no tire trouble, thanks to the big extra-ply balloon tires." Signed DR. W. P. DAVIDSON.

An Interview With Mrs. Warren Fisher

"But you don't understand, Sallie, she told me to tell you that—Gosh, this is hard—that—"

"Yes, yes, go on," I encouraged. "That she didn't want you here any longer."

It was out—the words had fallen. Slowly and separately, they crept into my mind and then came the full import of their meaning. Little threads of white flame crawled through my brain, like tendrils tightening and squeezing my mind. Thoughts would not form clearly.

Then I laughed. It was a hideous sound, even raucous.

"Don't, Sallie, stop it. Strive for poise or your nerves will snap. I'll admit, though, that you've been through enough to make you go crazy."

She gripped my waist and at her touch, I regained some of my composure.

"So I'm ordered out. Mrs. Divine doesn't want me here. Oh! Ellie, I'm so embarrassed. Was it because of the late hour this morning?"

"She said that she had been thinking it over and that if any scandal came of your strange behavior, she wouldn't want Muriel's name to be mentioned. She asked me to be very tactful about it as if there were anything to be gained by miserable dissembling. It's my fault, Sallie, for ever getting you to come here to these nouveaux riches (?) people. They don't speak the same language. They've pushed their way in through determination and a lavish expenditure of their money but—well, they just don't belong and when people don't belong, they will go to any lengths to keep from jeopardizing their flimsy positions."

"But, Ellie, what would father think? It would kill me to bow his proud head in humiliation."

"He doesn't have to know it, Sallie. We'll find some plausible reason for returning."

"You—?" I questioned.

"Of course, I'm going with you."

"But Ellie, I wouldn't have you get mixed up in it. And besides, your visit is just beginning."

"Don't ever think I'll have anything to do with this bunch. I'll tell you I'm jolly well glad to get away from such people."

***

And so we returned to Jacksonville. I told Father that Ellie and I had decided to come home and that she was going to stay with me for a visit. He was glad to have us with him and was as happy as a dozen bees to be back at his beloved railroad business.

After we had been home for about a week, there came a note from Mrs. Warren Fisher. I was amazed and uncomfortably puzzled at its contents.

"It is imperative that I see you at once," it began abruptly, "I have arranged to visit a friend of mine in Jacksonville and hope to have a private talk with you immediately upon my arrival."

I showed it to Ellie. Her face went white. I had thought she was disturbed when she told me about the interview with Mrs. Divine the morning of our departure from Miami but the note left her worried and restless I could not account for her emotion.

The next afternoon, the telephone announced that Mrs. Warren Fisher had arrived and it was decided that she should call on me a few hours later.

Ellie said she would stay clear of her as the note sounded like the call was to be strictly private.

I remembered Mrs. Fisher as I had last seen her on the night of the dance in Pensacola. She had come suddenly upon us as her husband was making love to me and was furiously jealous, though at that time he was just harmlessly flirtatious.

From the moment she entered the room, I could feel that the visit would be anything but pleasant. She wore an air that was ill-humored and forbidding.

"We might as well go at once into the matter," she began almost before she was seated.

"Of course," I answered.

"To begin with, I knew everything—," she paused, waiting for some sign of discomfort on my face from her announcement.

"You're most ambiguous, Mrs. Fisher," I said politely, "may I ask you to be more explicit?"

"It's just this then, I know of your conduct with my husband. I am aware of your trip with him on the train to Miami. I have been informed in detail about your little affair at the Inn. Need I discuss the matter further?"

I was not used to dealing with women like Mrs. Fisher. She was a cold woman, absolutely devoid of sympathy or a sense of humor. There was no unbending. No halfway measures. This was this and that was that. No concessions could be made for people being stumbingly human.

"And your husband? Is he your source of information?"

It was a foolish question.

"It was not necessary for him to inform me," she leaned forward and regarded me with uncontrolled suspicion, "other eyes were watching your movements."

The Bank as a Community Builder

Your Bank—in spite of what some people suppose—is not a cold storage house for gold

Some part of the funds, entrusted to its care, cannot of course be loaned. The law, and good banking practice too, prevent this.

But the Bank is not miserly.

It cannot prosper unless its community does—and the community as a whole cannot grow unless funds, in ample sums, are available for the maintenance and expansion of its agriculture and commerce.

Your bank is a clearing house for the community's cash and credit. It guarantees the safety and immediate availability of moneys deposited, but at the same time sees that the community's surplus cash is not lying idle.

Your bank therefore plays a most important part in general prosperity—enabling men of known character and industries of time-tried worth to realize commercial and financial opportunities to the full.

Far from being a cold storage house for gold—a good bank is the very life blood of the body politic.

PERTAINING TO THE MATTER OF THE FAMILY HEALTH

A Springfield youngster was taken to a specialist the other day for treatment and advice about a nasal infection of the catarrhal type. "Strip him to the waist and let him play out of doors most of the time" was the doctor's prescription. "That," says the state health director, "is one of the best prescriptions that any mother can get as a general health measure for her children."

Let the Sun Soak in.

Taking sun baths is one of the best preventative of rickets and malnutrition and the prevention of these disease offset the development of many other ailments. Sun baths to be most effective must consist of sun rays coming into direct contact with the body. That means no clothing and no glass to penetrate. The valuable short or ultra-violet rays do not penetrate glass and even dust, clouds and smoke prevent them from reaching the surface of the earth.

Sun a T. B. Cure.

Heliotherapy, as the use of sunshine in treating sickness is called, is extremely valuable in treating certain kinds of tuberculosis as well as rickets and malnutrition. The best time of day for getting maximum benefits from the sun bath is between eleven and two, the closer to noon the better. At first care must be taken not to cause sunburn but after a preliminary course of short period baths, gradually increasing in length, a very young baby will profit by two hours sun baths daily. Of course, the infants must have their eyes protected and for this reason a good plan is to let the mother or nurse hold it in the sunshine. This permits two to profit at once.

Heat Kills More than Cold.

While cold weather is regarded as more strenuous on physical health, excessive heat results in more fatalities. Last year, for example, 12 deaths were reported as a result of excessive cold while excessive heat was charged with 55. This merely emphasizes the necessity for reasonable care in exposing oneself to over-exertion on hot days. In no sense does it suggest avoiding sunshine. Sunshine is the finest kind of a health tonic but like every other good things it can be overdone.

Ignorance and Carelessness.

The postmaster general says that the exercise of a little more care and judgment would prevent 21,000,000 poorly addressed letters that contain $3,000,000 in money orders from flooding the dead letter office each year. Putting a little keener edge on the same faculties with reference to physical well being would save the people in Illinois from some 15,000 cases of diphtheria, 5,000 or 6,000 cases of smallpox and not a few deaths every year. In other words ignorance and carelessness are mighty expensive attributes in any form and when they concern health they steal away the comfort and joy of life to boot.

Shacks vs. Tents.

Summer camps are wonderful institutions for health building if they are properly equipped and conducted. "Shacks" with open sides are preferable to tents as sleeping quarters because the average tent is hard to ventilate. Most tents are less desirable for living quarters than sleeping porches.

Summer Camp Necessities.

In choosing a summer camp resort whether for child or adult the main features to consider are safety of water supply, safety of milk supply and the means for protection against flies and other insects. The coolest breezes, the most remarkable swimming and boating facilities and the most wonderful scenery are not sufficient to overcome the danger of a polluted water supply.

JUNE 30, 1925 LAST DATE FOR INDUCTION INTO VOCATIONAL TRAINING

We wish to call to your attention the fact that the last date for induction into Vocational Training under the U. S. Veterans Bureau is rapidly approaching. The last proviso in section 403 of the World War Veterans Act of June 1924 states that "no training shall be furnished to any person under any of the provisions of this title unless such person shall actually commence such training on or before June 30, 1925."

The Bureau has not been accepting original applications for training filed after June 30, 1923, in accordance with Section 405 of the World War Veterans Act. There are men, however, eligible to training who have deferred it and who should be reminded that they must actually be placed in training on or before June 30, 1925, or they will forfeit their rights.

All training will be discontinued effective June 30, 1926, but emphasis at this time should be laid on their earlier date. Will you please use what means you have at hand to give this publicity so that there may be no men in your community who are not fully informed on the subject?

Very truly yours,

David F. Tilley,
Assistant Director of War Service.

SALE OF GRAIN MERGER STOCK SUSPENDED 'TIL JULY 28 BY I. C. C. ACTION

No stock of the $26,000,000 grain merger, the Grain Marketing Company, can be sold nor offered for sale in Illinois at least until July 28, in accordance with a stipulation entered into in proceedings before the Illinois Commerce Commission and signed June 1 by Donald Kirkpatrick, I. A. A. legal counsel and Mayer, Meyer, Austrian and Platt, counsel for the Grain Marketing Company.

Hearings will begin after this date if the merger goes through, according to Mr. Kirkpatrick.

Chairman Frank L. Smith of the Illinois Commerce Commission suggested the stipulation after repeated continuances had been asked for by the Grain Marketing Company and some facts had been presented by the Illinois Agricultural Association. July 28 is the date when the property and leaseholds of the vendor companies brought into the merger are supposed to be turned over to the Grain Marketing Company in return for $4,000,000 of cash, expected to have been derived from the sale of stock to farmers.

Prospects for completing the merger are considered negligible since the farmers of the country have not been induced to buy the stock as was anticipated by the promoters. Meetings have been held in Washington in an effort by Grain Marketing Company officials to get Secretaries Jardine and Hoover to appoint a national advisory committee for the Merger. Failing in this, an attempt to form a committee to resurrect the merger and get the confidence of the farmers has been attempted by officials of the company, but co-operative leaders have generally declined to serve.

The stipulation filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission in which it is agreed that no stock shall be sold in Illinois in considered an indicator of what will be done by other states which are now considering the company's stock. In some states, notably Indiana, judgment has been withheld on the stock pending the outcome in Illinois. This decision is considered the death knell to virtually all stock selling operations of the grain merger. It is generally understood that the vendor companies did not wish to come to a public hearing since facts in possession of the Grain Marketing Company which have not been obtainable heretofore could be pried loose in such a hearing.

Farm Bureau's Membership Drive Goes Big

Reports From Townships Show a Substantial Increase. East Nelson Doubles Its Membership. Sullivan Township Last in Drive.

Under the direction of Farm Adviser Turner, assisted by Fred Halm of Peru and other I. A. A. workers of the state, the Moultrie County Farm Bureau is making a successful drive for membership renewals and for new members.

The following taken from The Farm Bureau News shows how well the drive is succeeding:

The plan of reorganization is to hold a meeting or two in each township to be followed the next day by a canvass for members by local solicitors. Only one day is to be spent on the first drive; at a later date a clean up drive will take place with the assistance of a state solicitor. It is not expected that every township will exceed its quota of old members on the first day's drive, however, every township has done it so far.

The present indications are that the membership will be increased from 25 to 50%. The first five townships canvassed; Marrowbone, Dora, Lovington, Lowe and Jonathan Creek have secured one hundred new members. It has developed that the present time is not the finest in the world for a drive, due to the drought and poor outlook, but the drive is succeeding in spite of everything.

Marrowbone township—Marrowbone township put on its membership drive May 28th and on the first canvass over the township secured 90 members, 22 of these being new members. Marrowbone will reach 110 members and possibly more.

Dora Township—The drive in Dora township took place May 29th. Complete returns are not in but a check up indicates about 50 have signed, there being 15 new members.

Lovington Township—Lovington township drive took place June 1st and went over with a bang. They went over the top the first crack. They had 62 old members. They have already 37 new members with a total of over 80 members. The township promises to run up to near 100.

Lowe Township—The drive in Lowe township took place on June 3rd and they went over their quota the first day. They had 43 old members and secured six new ones and the returns are incomplete.

Jonathan Creek Township—Jonathan Creek put on its drive June 5th. They had 33 old members. On the drive they signed 40 members, 15 of which are new members. They should reach 50.

East Nelson had a big booster meeting at Allenville Monday night. The speakers were Mr. Turner, Mr. Halm, G. F. Spitzer of the Ag extension department of the U. of I. and Mr. Ford, president of the Peoria County Farm Bureau.

The membership drive on Tuesday showed great results, the membership of East Nelson township being doubled.

Following the East Nelson drive Whitely township was invaded. Meetings were held at Gays on Tuesday night and at Whitfield church on Wednesday. At these meetings a working plan for the teams who solicit is worked out and Mr. Halm gives the workers a thorough sales manager talk.

The exact time for the Sullivan township drive has not been set. It will doubtless be some time next week.

Following the general drive, Mr. Halm will be in charge of a re-canvass or a cleanup campaign.

Indications are that the increase in membership for the bureau may run as high as 50 per cent. Much of this is due to the most excellent work which Mr. Turner has been doing.

FLAG DAY SUNDAY IT'S ALSO FATHER'S DAY

Sunday will be a triple holiday. It is of course the Lord's Day; by government sanction it is also National Flag Day and people are requested to display the national colors. Last but not least, the day has also a sentimental significance for it is "Father's Day."

On Mother's Day, the first Sunday in May, flowers are regarded as the appropriate present. For Father's Day the slogan seems to be "Buy him a Tie."

DROUGHT DELAYS WORK OF OILING COUNTY ROADS

Due to the prolonged drought the work of oiling roads in the various townships has been somewhat delayed. Wherever a road that is to be oiled was graded up this Spring, the grade has not settled due to the lack of rain. As a consequence such roads are very dusty and rutty. Rain is needed to pack these roads before a good job of oiling can result.

A portion of the old state aid hard road West of this city "blew up" near the W. R. Huff place one day last week due to the heat.

CARNATIONS—Saturday special 75c per dozen, not delivered, Sullivan Greenhouses.

PASTURES

Blue grass pastures have about fizzled out. They usually are "all in" by the middle of July, right when we need them the most. Alsike clover is usually too short to cut for seed or hay, and is being pastured off. Red clover is faring better and will make some hay. As for a seed crop of red clover, there is very little seed indeed. Early June clipping would have helped a seed crop providing we have rains.

OATS

Early oats are shooting head and will be very short. Drilled oats are in much better condition than the broad cast oats, due to the deeper and more uniform seeding. In some cases the oats have fired and the clover killed so that they are being pastured off. In the event we get a good soaking rain many of the fields of oats will be plowed up and put in soy beans.

HAY

Hay of all kinds promises to be very short this year and every one is searching for some way of filling the hay mow this fall. In the emergency hay crops we have our choice of soy beans, sudan grass and millet. We can with reasonable assurance of a hay crop, seed soy beans and sudan grass as late as June 20th. Sudan grass is a hot-weather crop and will thrive if given any chance at all. Seed 25 lbs. to the acre.

S. O. S. FROM SAN PEDRO

San Pedro, Cal., June 4, '25 Ed C. Brandenburg, Sullivan Ill.

Dear Sir:

Will ask you to change our address from 738 Averill Ave. to 1329 West 8th St. We always get our paper on Mondays and never later than Tuesday mornings and as my wife and I look for it as we do our letters from home, we don't want any delay. We have been getting our home town news first handed the last two weeks as only last week Harland Grigsby and Russell Jenkins arrived in our city via a Southern Pacific Coast Line "Special" Sam B. Hall was another visitor this morning for just about a half hour, all the time he could get away from the Springfield Shrine band, that are now in the city. Dr. Bateman's who are spending the week with us, had just gone to town so they didn't get to visit with him what little time he was here. And I know Doc would have liked to talked with him.

Now as this letter was only to notify you of the changes in address I must close before it is more.

Thanking you for all favors.

Yours truly,

R. B. Jenkins.

TEETH AND SUPERSTITION

In a recent issue of the technical magazine Dental Cosmos, two physicians, Leo Kanner and Charles E. Remy, call attention to the generally unappreciated fact that from time immemorial and in all lands teeth have had a conspicuous place in popular beliefs and usages. There is actually an uncommonly interesting dental folklore, concerning which Drs. Kanner and Remy give us many particulars.

Thus, as long ago as the time of Lucian it was thought that gout could be relieved, if not cured by the curious device of placing on the gouty foot a weasel's tooth wrapped in a piece of skin taken from a freshly killed lion. The ancient Hebrews recommended, as an aid to the sleepless, the wearing of a tooth taken from a dead fox.

To this day, the untutored superstitious in Germany, Russia and elsewhere carry in the pocket or wear about the neck a tooth of some animal as a preventative against human toothache. Occasionally this usage is extended to include treatment of toothache.

And in some rural districts in Europe it is oddly specialized. In Mecklenburg and Silesia, for example, curative virtue is thought to be peculiarly inherent in the tooth not of an animal, but of a man killed in war or executed as a criminal.

Nor is the use of teeth as a cure confined to wearing or carrying a tooth. The Tibetans, or at least some of them, find healing virtue in tartar scrapings from teeth. In Swabia a powder of wolves' teeth is deemed a valuable remedy for vertigo. Powdered teeth from tigers are favored by the Anamites as a specific for whooping cough.

So, too, the folk mind in numerous countries invests teeth with the properties of charms and amulets. This phase of dental folklore would indeed seem to be almost worldwide.

In Italy teeth of the wild boar, of fish, of horses, teeth of every kind, are carried as a protection against the evil eye. The same usage obtains in Morocco and the Sudan. People of Madagascar, as a protection against all kinds of evil, give particular preference to crocodiles' teeth, which they wear about the neck.

The preference of superstitious Hindus, on the other hand, is for tiger teeth, while, as noted by Drs. Kanner and Remy, the Ostiaks of Siberia believe that by carrying the tooth of a bear they are strongly fortified against disease and danger in general.

In numerous countries, again, teeth sometimes of human beings, sometimes of animals, are hung around the necks of young children to promote the growth of the children's own teeth. German, Switzerland, Portugal, Italy, India, Palestine, Turkey and Siberia are a few of the lands in which this custom more or less obtains.

Of the origins of such varied practices it is not possible to speak with certainty. Their continuance and prevalence, though, manifestly testify to an instinctive universal tendency on the part of mankind to faith in occult influence. —H. Addington Bruce.
