REPORT OF MOULTRIE COUNTY DAIRY IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION FOR DECEMBER

The members are feeding better rations and are devoting more care and attention to their herds than at any time since the association was organized. That this extra attention pays is demonstrated by the production attained by many herds during December.

During the month seventeen different herds averaged to produce better than 30 lbs. butterfat per cow. Eight of these herds are listed in order of their production. The herd of pure bred and grade Jerseys owned by Lewis Wheeler led the association with the average of 669 lbs. milk, 42.1 lbs. fat per cow. N. D. Helmuth's herd of pure bred and grade Jerseys averaged 744 lbs. milk, 40.2 lbs. fat. Paul Wilson's herd of pure bred grade Jerseys reached an average of 728 lbs. milk, 39.6 lbs. fat per cow. Other herds producing above a 35 lb. average are owned by A. J. Yoder, J. A. Powell, Rush Weeks, Illinois Masonic

The highest producing cow for the month is a grade Holstein owned by the Illinois Masonic Home. This remarkable cow produced 80.9 lbs. fat in 28 days.

The second highest cow, also the highest Jersey for the month, is owned by A. L. Vaughan. This cow, a three year old grade Jersey, produced 61.1 lbs. butterfat.

A pure bred three year old Jersey owned by V. I .Winings was third highest with a production of 57.1 lbs.

A total of thirty-three cows exceeded the 40 lb. mark for December; of the Supreme Court ruling in the Munthese, three are owned by Rush Weeks, J. A. Powell has three, Illinois Masonic Home three, Lewis Wheeler three, N. D. Helmuth three, J. J. Helmuth three, A. J. Yoder three, A. L. Vaughan two, Clyde Patterson two, Paul Wilson two, R. C. During the month about fifteen unprofitable cows were disposed of. Two members sold high producing grade Jersey cows for $125.00 each. Without the official records of production back of these cows it is unlikely they would have sold for more than $75 each.

Supervisors Face Problem Of Supplying A States Attorney

69TH YEAR. NO. 2.

Will Meet Saturday to Make Jury List and Tackle Re-organization of County's Law Enforcing Machinery. May Re-appoint Brown.

A special meeting of the Board of Supervisors will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The call for the meeting states that the board is compelled to "make a new jury list to comply with recent rulings of the Supreme Court" and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

The Supreme Court has ruled that women cannot serve on juries in Illinois. Moultrie county has the names of women on its jury lists. Such list s, accordingly, illegal and a new list becomes necessary.

Among such other business will doubtless be the matter of deciding what action shall be taken relative to the office of States Attorney.

A. A. Brown is officiating as States Attorney at this time. He was elected on the Republican ticket in 1924, after a pre-election endorsement by the Klan which at that time took an active part in county politics. Mr. Brown had not sought a place on the ticket, but was put on by the Central Committee after Merril Wehmhoff, who had been nominated in the primary, refused to be a candidate for re-election.

Mr. Brown at the time of his election was not a licensed member of the Illinois bar. This fact, according to son case, has invalidated much of the county's legal procedure since that time. All indictments returned by grand juries since Mr. Brown has taken office seem to be open to question.

Mr. Brown has, since taking office, been admitted to the bar and the defect originally existing has been removed. It is doubtful, however, Leslie Horn's cow, a pure bred whether his later qualifying makes

> Two courses of action are open for the solution of this difficulty. Quo Warranto proceedings can be started through the office at the Attorney General at Springfield. Such action would put it up to Mr. Brown to prove that he is legally holding the office of States Attorney. The proceedings would take quite a bit of time, however, and the county would be put to a big expense in handling its part of the case.

The other course of action is for Mr. Brown to resign and give the supervisors the opportunity of nam-Thursday and Friday, January 20, 21 ing a man to act as states attorney until the next general county election willingness to resign, provided the The children of the various grades board of supervisors appoint him. will give a special program each even-ing in connection with the exhibit. Here in Illinois our taxes are raised. The state needs more money. Gov. Len Small and his tax commission have decided to raise the state tax rate 20c on the $100 this year. Last year we had a similar raise over the previous year. This means that Moultrie county tax payers must cough up about $15,000 more in taxes this year than they did last year.

Long after Curtiss had gone to his room I lay awake thinking over the fine philosophy that he had made his own by just living. High-principled himself, it was remarkable that he showed such tolerance towards my shortcomings. It had evidently annoyed him because I had accepted the attentions of Barrington Pierce and yet some primitive instinct in me rejoiced in the knowledge that I was still able to be attracted to men-an inhibition no doubt of less civilized days when man was the pursuer and woman the pursued. I drifted on through waves back to my wedding night. What was it the dapper little friend of father's had said? "The butterfly type. Something that's incapable of change. Either one is or one isn't. Matrimony won't make you over temperamentally -it will only add piquancy and charm."

And Marjorie Chenoweth. What was it she had said? "Things are always going to happen to you, Sallie, and its not your fault. You can't help it if you're not a vegetable, you know.'

Were they right?

Was Curtiss justified in being hurt? I wondered.

These and many other chaotic thoughts played hide-and-seek until the Goddess of Sleep took them in hand and skillfully woven them into dreams.

(To be continued) Next week Sallie and Curtiss arrive in Paris and—(?).

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH Geo. M. Anderson, Minister

Last Sunday marked the beginning of a new year for the church and Bible school. Figuratively speaking, the first marks on the clean slate of 1926 were made at last Sunday servthe part of officers and teachers to build even more stately mansions during the year 1926 than any previous year. The new year stands before us as a mighty servant, ready, to yield to our enthusiasm and any effort that we might put forth. "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls; who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it." Thus the new year is an adventure. There should be many new discoveries made

REGULAR S. S. ATTENDANCE HONORED AT ALLENVILLE

The community dinner which was held at the I. O. O. F. hall on New Year's Day was largely attended. The affair was held under the auspices of the Christian church. Many outof-town guests were present. At the noon hour the dinner was served cafeteria style. Two large tables were well loaded with delicious food. Just preceeding the dinner nine persons, J. W. Hoskins, E. P. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hawkins, Miss Ruth Davis, Blanch Hall and Homer Hawkins were pre-sented gold pins, for having a perfect Sunday school attendance record for the year 1925. The presentation speech was made by Fred Hoskins, who is a student at Illinois College. Radio music was enjoyed throughout the morning. In the afternoon, the guests went to the church where a program was enjoyed. ### HARRY SEES HIS ERROR

Harry C. Gilpin, publisher of the Atwood Herald, recently reduced the price of his paper from $2.00 a year to $1.50. A very lew months con-vinced him of his error, and he now announces a return to the $2.00 price. Country papers can not be produced for a mere song and any good paper is worth more to the town and its people than its price, whether that price is $2.00, $3.00 or even $5.00.— Windsor Gazette.
