Arthur Football Team Outplays Locals And Won Easily 19-0

Visitors Scored Three Touchdowns in First Half. Sullivan to Assumption This Saturday; Seconds Lost to Decatur.

Defeat, in the shape of Arthur, visited Sullivan last Saturday. Sullivan being defeated 19-0. Speed, mostly in the person of John Phillips was the main cause of the defeat.

The game started with Arthur kicking off. Baker ran the ball back to the 35 yard line. Then on the fourth down with about a yard to go Sullivan tried to make the gain and lost the ball. Then a 30 yard end run plus a first down plus a line buck equalled a touchdown. The try for point failed. Arthur again kicked off. A fumble by Baker lost the ball to Arthur.

At the start of the second quarter with the ball on Sullivan's 20 yard line. An end run plus a line buck second another touchdown. This time a kick from placement was successful and Arthur's total went to 13. Arthur again kicked off. Sullivan got the ball to the 30 yard line and in trying a pass an Arthur end got the ball and planted the seed that developed into the third and last touchdown. An end run for 20 yards and a completed pass gave them the touchdown and there the half ended.

At the beginning of the second half Arthur again kicked off. Through the third quarter a punting duel ensued neither side having the best of it. Then toward the end Sullivan made the first down. The quarter ended with the ball on Sullivan's 70 yard line.

The last quarter was somewhat like the third. Sullivan tried repeatedly to get within scoring distance. Baker attempted a drop kick from the 30 yard line but the ball hit a goal post and Arthur took the ball on their own 20 yard line. Arthur was fined several times, in the last half for holding while Sullivan was fined only twice, both for off sides.

Sullivan plays two games this week end. On Friday the Seconds go to Decatur to play Roosevelt Juniors and Saturday the first team goes to Assumption.

Tuesday the Second team went to Decatur to play Central Juniors. The boys came out of the mix-up on the small end of the score, it being 7-0 in favor of Decatur. The boys hope to come out better Friday and are working toward that end.

Francis Arterburn, 16 year old youth whose home is on the Earl Horn farm near Sullivan, was painfully injured Saturday night about midnight when he fell from a Ford touring car in which he was riding with some boy friends on the hard road north of Sullivan. He was picked up unconscious and brought to Sullivan for treatment. He suffered a badly bruised face and otherwise not injured.

He had apparently been asleep in the back seat of the car. The lights of the car had gone out and the driver was slowing up to correct this trouble when the Arterburn boy awoke and apparently thought the car had stopped when he stepped out.

R. B. Denton Not Responsible For Death of Miner

Struck Man on Hard Road Near DuQuoin; Had Been Injured Earlier in Day, Cracked Head Showed.

R. B. Denton, formerly foreman of The Progress composing room, had the misfortune of striking a man with his car on Wednesday night of last week on the hard road at Halladayborough about 8 miles south of DuQuoin.

Mr. Denton, who is traveling for an Iowa advertising firm, was accompanied at the time of the accident by his wife and son Bobby.

Peculiar circumstances surround the accident. Mr. Denton was not driving fast at the time it occurred. Two cars were coming toward him and a car following. State Highway Patrol Officer E. N. Hansman of Carbondale, arrived at the scene of the accident, a few minutes later, and proceeded to get all available information.

The man, when first seen, was staggering in an apparent daze across the slab. The door handle of the Denton car hooked him and sent him rolling. There were plenty of witnesses at hand who saw how the accident had happened. The man was taken to a nearby hospital.

It was there found, and later evidence substantiated the fact, that the man had had his skull fractured in troubles earlier in the day and his head was covered with dried blood. The car which he had been driving was found ditched alongside a dirt road at some distance from where the man was hit. He was minus a sum of money which he had in his possession that morning, as his family testified.

The presumption is that he had been held up earlier in the day by a couple of bootleggers who had taken his money and cracked his skull. The man was in a drunken condition at the time he was picked up, besides having been dazed by the blows which his head had received.

He died in the hospital on Thursday without regaining consciousness. His name was Ben Rains and he leaves a wife and three children. By occupation he was a miner.

Mr. Denton and family remained near the scene of the accident so as to be on hand for the inquest held Saturday. Officer Hansman's testimony and that of others who witnessed the accident and of the doctors who attended the wounded man tended to entirely absolve Mr. Denton of any blame or responsibility for the man's death.

John Denton, father of R. B. Denton, went to Marion Saturday night to get the facts in the case and the story as given above is substantially what he found the situation to be.

BEARDSTOWN APPEALS TO RED CROSS; FUNDS NEEDED IMMEDIATELY

Beardstown, on the Illinois river is under water. The raging torrents which have been sweeping down the valley of the Illinois have hit Beardstown harder than any of the other cities and villages located along that stream.

Practically all of the city is under water. Basements of business houses are full and several feet of water cover the main floors of the business section. The residence section has fared as bad or worse.

The Red Cross is on the job in answer to a telegram from Mayor Harris which read "Beardstown wants you to take charge of the situation here."

The people at Beardstown are facing disaster just as vital as did those of Florida. Many will lose all they possess. Water has driven them from their homes. Some homes are collapsing. Food is scarce and clothing, medical aid and other supplies are sorely needed.

Mrs. Carrie Dedman, president of the Moultrie County Chapter Red Cross is in receipt of the following telegram from the St. Louis headquarters.

"A conservative estimate is that 1500 families are effected by the flood in the Illinois River valley. Until waters subside it is impossible to determine the full damage. The Red Cross is organizing to handle the necessary relief. Your chapter is instructed to conduct energetic campaign for funds, making prompt remittance to this office. Please make reports daily. The National organization has appropriated $10,000 for this use. William J. Baxter, Jr."

Grand Jury Indicts Homer Hawkins For Changes in Records

Bryant Garage Yeggs Also Indicted. Arguments in Criminal Cases to be Heard Oct. 29th; Was County Clerk Qualified?

The Moultrie county grand jury made a partial report Saturday and then adjourned until October 25th.

The most interesting feature of Saturday's report was two indictments against Homer Hawkins, son of County Treasurer H. H. Hawkins.

One of these indictments charged larceny and falsifying records and bond on this was set at $2,000; the other indictment charged embezzlement and bond on that was set at $7,000 but later reduced to $5,000.

The indicted appeared in court in the afternoon and gave bond with his father, M. L. Lowe and J. B. Tabor as sureties.

These indictments grow out of the changes in figures found on the books of the county treasurer and on vouchers in the county clerk's office. These changes were discovered by Leroy Bacchus, who recently made an audit of the county officials' books.

The states attorney on instructions from some of the members of the board of supervisors placed this matter before the grand jury for investigation. The theory is that young Hawkins, an employe in his father's office, raised the figures appearing on cancelled vouchers in the county clerk's office $100 each and changed figures on the books of the county treasurer to correspond to these totals or $3,600 in all.

When the change in figures was discovered, there was no shortage in the funds of the county treasurer. It is presumed by the prosecution that treasurer Hawkins discovered what his son had been doing before the auditor did and placed enough money into the county funds out of his personal funds to cover any shortage that may have existed.

This is the theory of the prosecution. The defense, of course, contends that this is all wrong and admits no guilt on the part of Hawkins, Jr. Attorney C. R. Patterson and the firm of McLaughlin & Billman have been engaged as attorneys by the father of the accused.

Auto Yeggs Indicted.

Other indictments returned by the grand jury are against James D. Allison, burglary and larceny, bond (Please turn to page 8, Column 3)

EDITORIAL

One of the flimsiest of campaign documents ever devised is the supervisors' statement attached to the bond which County Clerk J. B. Martin recently gave. It states that Mr. Martin's bond given in 1918 was still O. K. and that they were legally informed as to that matter. If this bond was correct and O. K. in every particular, why did he give a new one? The committee says it was done to "technically comply with the law." We arise to ask whether there are classifications in complying with the law. This word "technically" is mere subterfuge, a sort of smoke screen as it were. If the committee had left this word out of the report and simply said that the bond was filed "to comply with the law" they would have hit the nail on the head.

And the question arises—why all this delay in complying with the plain word of the law? Why place the county's transactions so far as the county clerk's office was concerned in so uncertain a state; why all the negligence and carelessness concerning this matter?

WHERE'S THE PROSPERITY?

The Republican party nationally is making its campaign on the issue of prosperity and Coolidge.

We know where Coolidge is, but where is the prosperity?

There is none of it here in the Middle West. To a certain extent the Republicans are to blame for this condition. How?

By refusing to enact any legislation for Farm Relief and by being heart and soul in love with the high tariff policy.

The Hagen-McNary farm relief bill would have meant much to the middle west. It would have applied the principle of tariff legislation so as to benefit the farmers. President Coolidge and his followers were able to and did thwart any attempt for legislation of this kind. To them it was too radical. The manufacturing East objected to it.

The East loves its high tariff. It gives it special privilege and special opportunity to make the middle West farmer and laborer pay it high prices for its manufactured goods.

The Hagen-McNary bill was an attempt to give the farmers an opportunity to share in this prosperity. It would have raised and stabilized the prices of farm products.

The tariff-protected manufacturer saw in it the menace of higher wages. He disapproved of such legislation and it was killed.

To add insult to injury Chairman Butler of the Republican National Committee and other Coolidge spokesmen now come forth with a tariff revision program. Downward? Not on your tintype. Upward, ever upward is the slogan. And when the tariff is revised upward, your farmers are going to pay even higher prices for clothing, shoes, implements and in fact everything you buy.

The policy of the Republican party, and even the most ardent Republican partisan farmer must admit, if he is fair to his own interests, is biblical in its adaptation:

"To him that hath (the tariff protected manufacturer) shall be given and to him that hath not (the farmer) even that little which he hath shall be taken away."

But then again the Republican politicians are prosperous. The signs of the times shows that. In Pennsylvania a fellow named Vare, a staunch and tried Republican, paid a million or more for a mere senatorial nomination. In Illinois the Republicans spent about a million for the same kind of privilege.

Are politicians of that calibre in sympathy with the needs of the farmers? Give the matter some serious thought; don't travel and vote with the crowd which throws you and your interests down flat all of your life.

If that report of auditor A. Ray Drennan on the way the affairs of the office of county clerk were conducted from December 1, 1922 to Dec. 1, 1924 was a credit to that office, why all the efforts to suppress it and keep its contents from the people? The people are even at this late date entitled to a complete publication of that report. If there is nothing wrong in it, the supervisors, in justice to Mr. J. B. Martin, ought to have that report published in full in the county papers. Suppressing it is injuring all concerned and doing nobody any good.

The people want to know how the county offices are conducted. It is their right that they should know. Suppressing anything is ill-advised and cannot do otherwise than injure all concerned.

DR. FRANK CRANE SAYS

THEY ARE THE HOUR OF THE ROSE

A Hebrew psalmist, who knew well the quiet of beauty of the countryside at twilight, sang the words:

"Be still and know that I am God."

One of the finest things about a vacation in the summertime is the opportunity it gives to get out under an open sky in the peace of the twilight.

In those moments between the burning reality of day and the black actuality of night comes what someone has called "the hour of the rose."

The world is warm and tired and pacific; the day is calm with the calm of old age.

Heavy with earth odors the air drowns as twilight on little grey feet creeps with the lengthening shadows.

The hour of the rose is an hour of meditation, an hour of vision, an hour when the spirit burns like a candle flame, straight and calm, unworried by the winds of toil.

It is a time of contemplation.

Under an open sky, like a hand in benediction, it is good to sit and inwardly let the days fly by.

The trouble, worries, injustice, troop past softened by the quiet perspective. The tangled skein of active life seems less a hopeless snarl.

Humanity, sky and kindly, draws close; the jangle and the discord sink away and we feel more in tune with life.

Wisdom lays its hand upon our shoulder; the ideal beckons from the sunset lighted hill-tops; and we are strong and wise again.

A recent writer truly says: "Men should spend more time with stars and sunsets."

The soul bathes and is refreshed in the open and quiet of a summer twilight in the country.

Getting out in the open at the hour of the rose helps to smooth out the creases of life. And it helps make you stronger for the fight in the days that follow.

AN HONEST MAN

Col. Frank L. Smith, republican candidate for Congress is making his defense and campaign on the plea that he is an honest man. The fact that his campaign manager took about $175,000 from utility magnates in donations, which were used to help Smith beat McKinley is a matter which the Colonel would have the people forget.

The doughty Colonel in fiery campaign addresses is berating the people who even for a moment doubt his honesty.

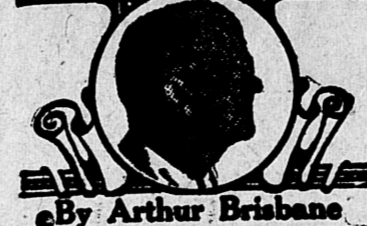

Thanks to Mr. Magill the independent Republican candidate, the Democrats need not carry the entire task of bringing to the attention of the voters the ridiculous attitude in which Col. Smith finds himself, seeking a seat in the United States senate and defending himself against a very apparent violation on his part of the laws of his state, and the laws of common decency.

Leeds and family, the men went to the National Stock Yards in East St. Louis and bought a carload of feeder cattle for Mr. Lane. The cattle arrived here last week and are now on feed.

Doing an injury puts you below your enemy; revenging one makes you but even with him; forgiving it sets you above him. Be civil to all; sociable to many; familiar with few, friend to one; enemy to none.—Benjamin Franklin.

This Week

ONE EYE WEPT. NOBODY KNOWS COOLIDGE. CALAMITY INSURANCE. PRESERVE THE TREES.

When you fall from your glory, as the British Cardinal and the French Emperor discovered, it is a short story. So with the fall of Dempsey. Reporters that acclaimed him, and told just why Tunney could win, say "Jack had one eye closed, and was crying with the other, as he lost his world championship."

There is a lesson, of course. Aim at some result that cannot be taken from you, a championship in the things worth while. No one will take away Edison's championship.

One hundred and fifty years ago, Nathan Hale was standing before a British firing squad and making his famous last remark, President Coolidge says every child should know by heart:

"I regret that I have but one life to give for my country."

Young gentlemen will note that Nathan Hale's championship is one that no Tunney could take from him. Many young men, unfortunately, are not interested in fame that pays no dividends.

Bruce Barton, student of character, adds one to his "men that nobody knows." He spent an hour talking with President Coolidge, who said this: "As I now recall it, I had always rather hoped that I might keep store when I grew up."

Little Calvin on the Vermont farm didn't yearn to be a policeman, railroad engineer, pirate, or President. Nobody even predicted that he would be President. He wanted to "keep store."

And, "attractions being proportionate to destines," as Fourier says, President Coolidge is actually keeping the biggest store in the world. He is general manager for Uncle Sam, champion wholesaler and retailer, in every line except flying machines.

President Green, of the American Federation of Labor, says that "firm labor," or labor organizations built up within great employing corporations, and controlled by the corporations, are a menace to harmony between employers and employees. They are certainly a threat against the whole labor union movement. But, if employers are intelligent enough to realize that good wages pay good dividends, what can organized labor do?

Florida fruit growers lose $5,000,000 in the tornado. 1,200,000 boxes of grapefruit, 500,000 boxes of oranges are included in official estimates of the loss.

Public relief contributions are praiseworthy, but insignificant in a loss that runs into hundreds of millions.

Could not the Government establish an insurance fund to meet such emergencies and make that fund responsible, under careful management, for such miscalled "acts of God?"

When Judge Gary took charge of United States Steel, he established a fund to do his own insuring, instead of paying out the money to insurance companies. He put into that fund what insurance would have cost and soon had $30,000,000 saved up for stockholders after meeting five losses.

The Government might ask Judge Gary to establish a "calamity insurance fund" to take care of great disasters, floods, tornadoes, earthquakes.

California voters will pass upon a plan to exempt from taxation during the growing period all lands newly planted with trees in a campaign of reforestation. The plan should be approved in California and copied in other states.

Vigilance would be necessary to prevent fraud and prevent carrying prospective oil and mineral lands free of taxes, but honest administration would take care of that.

WARD WALKER ON VACATION INVESTIGATES HISTORICAL INDIAN BURIAL GROUNDS

Ward Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker is spending his vacation at his parent's home. He expects to return to his duties at the municipal zoo in Milwaukee October 16th.

While Mr. Walker has been making investigations into the matter of Indian mounds and burial grounds He has done work of this kind in connection with some young Milwaukee scientists and decided to devote part of his vacation period to it.

It may be news to some people to know that there are Indian mounds in this county, but Mr. Walker knows of quite a few.

One such opened on the farm where Robert White lives disclosed an Indian grave with a skeleton of an Indian. It was the custom of the Indians to fold up the limbs of their dead so as to place the body in a small space and in such place this skeleton was found.

There are some very promising mounds on the Ed Cazier farm which are now in a cornfield. No excavation work has been permitted on these reminders of ancient days.

DECATUR SMART ALECK TELLS HIGHLY-COLORED TALE OF CHARLEY SMITH FAMILY
Our esteemed contemporary The Decatur Herald, is great on "staff representatives" and "special representatives" who go to neighboring towns and cities to write up anything they may be able to locate which will prove interesting reading. This is in line with what other big newspapers are doing and is approved newspaper custom, so far as it remains within the bounds of newspaper ethics and common decency.
One such "staff representative" visited Sullivan last week and to dig up some wonderful reading matter, he called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Smith. The head of the house is known hereabouts by different names than "Charley" but out of respect to the family of growing children, who call him "father" these names have not appeared in print.
The "staff representative" of the Decatur Herald had no such scruples, however. He says that "Charley frowned as he opened the door. He appeared to resent the intrusion of a well-dressed stranger." The "well-dressed stranger" referred to being of course that "staff representative."
This same "staff representative" then in his articles proceeds to detail the filth of the clothing and the conditions of the miserable hovel which the Smiths call home. Not even the poor woman, a victim of tuberculosis who lay on her pallet in the room escaped a description at the pen of the enterprising reporter. Nor did the smell of a pile of dirty children's clothes.
The language which this "staff representative" — a well-dressed stranger, put into the mouth of Charley Smith is exaggerated in its uncouthness to make a good reading story.

Sullivan people know the story of the Smith family. They know that the family is holding together as best it can; ignorance, carelessness and dirt there may be, but in their unenlightened state the Smiths do the best they know how. They are unfortunate. Sullivan folks freed them. They take care of them perhaps as well as Decatur takes care of its poor.
Anybody that knows anything at all about Decatur knows that a whole flock of "staff representatives" could be kept busy in Decatur's city limits writing up cases where dirt and smell and other things would prove as abundant or even more so than does this one isolated case.
The people of Sullivan resent this intrusion into the affairs of the poor of their community even as Charley Smith seemed to resent the entrance of the "well dressed stranger."

Agricultural Notes

Last week we said that our agricultural work in the S. T. H. S. is practical. We submit the following proof.

During the last month the boys have had part in vaccinating 216 hogs for cholera, hauled out 32 large loads of manure, selected 800 ears of seed corn, introduced two purebred hogs and one purebred sheep, riddled 40 hens of lice, planted 8 acres alfalfa, killed 90 rats, culled 220 hens, whitewashed the interior of five henhouses, made one mash hopper, tested 90 acres for acidity, cleaned 7 henhouses weekly for at least four times, constructed dropping boards in four hen houses, worked a total of 41 hours pulling snakeroot, kept feed and milk records on three cows, kept balanced ration before one flock of poultry and fed balanced ration to three groups of swine.

We know you laughed about us killing all those rats. Do you know that if your farm is of average size it provides a home for at least a hundred of the pests, and that the nations national rat bill is estimated at $200,000,000. Now laugh. Did you know that rats destroy $50,000,000 worth of poultry each year in this country, and that they are filthy creatures carrying all sorts of diseased germs and that they cause fires and fires and fires. Do not kid the boy when he goes out for a rat hide—and extra points for his work. Have him tell you the latest methods for their extermination.

We have learned a few pointers about the Ohio Experiment Station's new method of feeding poultry by the "All Mash System". Here are some things in its favor and are worthy of your consideration.
1. It is simple and effective.
2. It provides for a uniform rate of growth for pullets.
3. The per cent of mortality is less than for other systems.
4. Every chicken has an equal opportunity for "eats".
5. The birds get clean feed, not litter and trash.

"California Fig Syrup" is Dependable Laxative for Sick Children

Children Love Its Pleasant Taste
If your little one is out-of-sorts, won't play, seems sick, languid, not natural—suspect the bowels. A teaspoonful of delicious "California Fig Syrup" given anytime sweetens the stomach and soon moves the sour fermentations, gases, poisons and indigestible matter right out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again.
Millions of mothers depend upon this gentle, harmless laxative. It never cramps or overacts. Contains no narcotics or soothing drugs. Say "California" to your druggist and avoid counterfeits. Insist upon genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages plainly printed on bottle.

6. Mouldy and diseased feeds are not picked out of the litter.
7. Less feed is wasted or spoiled.
8. Time and labor is saved.
9. You do not have to be so careful about feeding, once your ration is made up.
10. The mash is used from the time the chicks eat anything until grown, and they go right into the laying season without any abrupt change of ration.
Some of us are going to try it out. Here are the mash mixtures. For chicks: 70 lbs. ground yellow corn, 20 lbs. middlings, 5 lbs. medium meat scraps, 4 lbs. chick size bonemeal and 1 lb table salt. Milk should be kept before the chicks.
For hens: 65 lbs. coarse ground yellow corn, 20 lbs. middlings, 10 lbs. meat scrap, 4 lbs. monemeal, and 1 lb. salt. If milk is not available, increase the meal scrap 10%.
This method of feeding does away with scratch feed.

Independent Republican Candidate for Senator Flays Small-Smith Corruption

Speech of Hugh S. Magill, independent Republican candidate for United States Senator, delivered Monday night, Oct. 11, in the courthouse at Springfield, Ill.

Fellow Citizens of Springfield:

It is a real privilege to deliver the first address of my campaign for United States Senator here in my old home, before friends and neighbors who have known me for many years. It is an even higher privilege to be permitted to speak in this courthouse with which the life of the immortal Lincoln was so intimately associated, and in this room where he delivered one of his greatest addresses.

I entered this race for United States Senator at the earnest solicitation of many of the best citizens of Illinois. These men and women were actuated by the highest motives. They recognize, as thoughtful people everywhere must, that the public affairs of Illinois are in a deplorable condition. If government by the people and for the people is to survive in this state, the civic conscience of the people must be awakened and the voters by their ballots must free Illinois from the blighting and destructive influences of the corrupt political machines that now control it.

Disgraceful Conditions.

During recent years my work in a national position has taken me throughout the United States. I have heard the public affairs of Illinois discussed in every part of the nation. Those who have little interest in Illinois have spoken in scorn and derision of the scandalous political conditions in our state. Those who for some reason love Illinois have spoken in sadness of the political degeneracy of our beloved commonwealth, known and revered throughout the world as the home of Abraham Lincoln.

The eyes of the nation are on Illinois. It is a source of deep regret to every loyal citizen of our state that political conditions are such that we can not be proud of Illinois' present as we can be proud of her glorious past. The regrettable facts compel us to acknowledge that the present state administration is the most corrupt that the state has ever known, and that public affairs have sunk to the lowest level of political corruption and maladministration.

Governor a Defaulter.

The people of the nation behold in Illinois today a governor at the head of the state administration who has failed to account for more than a million dollars of state funds collected by him as state treasurer five years ago. The Supreme Court of Illinois in its final decision holds that during Governor Small's term as state treasurer more than one million dollars in discounts was collected from the packers as a result of loans directly from the state treasury, and that the records do not show that this money was ever returned to the state treasury.

Since the Supreme Court has decreed that Governor Small must render an accounting for this money, the office holders under the state administration have been called upon to contribute to a fund to make good the governor's default. Thus thousands of employes of the state are forced to participate in this shameful condition of public affairs, which further breaks down the civic conscience of the people. While this is going on, the governor tries to quiet the public conscience by building roads with the people's money. With these facts definitely established, is it any wonder that the people of the nation are shocked at the political conditions in Illinois?

From Bad to Worse.

And now the people of the nation behold another scandalous condition revealed by the United States Senate Investigating Committee. This committee found that Frank L. Smith, while chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commission, accepted more than $150,000 in campaign contributions from public utilities of the state which were under his direct supervision as commissioner. This was done in direct violation of the laws of Illinois which specially provide that "No commissioner shall solicit or accept any gift, gratuity, or emolument from any person or corporation subject to the supervision of the commission or from an officer, agent or employe thereof." The law further provides that a commissioner violating this provision of the statute shall be removed from office and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Voters Must Awake.

Many good people, accustomed to large campaign contributions, have failed to comprehend the full significance of Mr. Smith's actions. The public utilities of Illinois were under his direct control as chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commission. Their very life was in his hands. He had supervision over their capitalization, their issuance of stocks and bonds, and the fixing of their rates. His position was of a judicial character. What would the public think of a judge that would accept a contribution of $125,000 from one under trial for his life before the bar of his court?

In accepting contributions from the utilities under his supervision, Mr. Smith disregarded the most sacred obligation of a public servant, and struck a blow at the very foundations of free government. And now with brazen effrontery this same Mr. Smith is asking the voters of Illinois to exalt him to the office of United States Senator. The people of the nation are dumfounded at this apparent paralysis of the public conscience, and utter disregard of public honesty and decency.

Anti-Saloon League's Position.

But even worse than the looting of the treasury and the disregard of the laws of the state enacted to regulate the great public utility corporations, is the attempt of these corrupt politicians forces to stifle the conscience and control the votes of the moral and religious forces of Illinois by controlling the leaders of the Anti-Saloon League and through these leaders demanding that the decent people of Illinois shall support the candidacy of Mr. Smith for United States Senator on the dry issue alone. Can the good people of Illinois expect an upholding of the dry laws by one who has trampled the laws of his state under foot and who is supported by the wet Republican machine in Chicago?

It is well known that personally, and as a candidate for United States Senator, I am uncompromisingly dry. I believe in upholding and enforcing the Constitution of the United States, including the eighteenth amendment. But I believe it is no less the sacred duty of every citizen to uphold and enforce the constitution and laws of Illinois, including those laws with respect to the handling of public funds and the control of the great corporations within the state. There is no security for free government if the moral and religious people of this state blindly follow a false and compromising leadership that has been reached and prostituted by these powerful corrupting influences.

Smith's Election a Disgrace.

The election of Mr. Smith to the United States Senate would more firmly fasten the grip of these corrupt and powerful political machines on the state of Illinois. If he were permitted a seat in the United States Senate he would, to the extent of his ability, extend these conditions throughout the United States. This would sink Illinois into even deeper disgrace in the eyes of the nation. But it is hardly conceivable that if Mr. Smith were elected he could be seated in the United States Senate, for the civic conscience of other states of the Union has not been so completely stultified.

What Small Aims At.

As might be expected Governor Small and his political machine are appealing to the people to elect Mr. Smith. But the Governor's motives appear to be quite different from those of Mr. Smith. Smith wants to be elected United States Senator, and no doubt hopes that if elected he may be seated. The concern of the state administration, as reflected in the published speech of Lieutenant Governor Sterling, is to have the power to appoint a Senator to fill the vacancy in case Smith were elected but refused a seat in the Senate. Will the people vote to put this added power in the hands of the present state administration?

George E. Brennan.

The people of Illinois cannot remedy these political conditions by electing Mr. Brennan United States Senator. The principal plank in his platform is the nullification of the Constitution and laws of the United States. He, too, accepted campaign contributions from the powerful utility corporations. He, too, is notorious for his relations with the corrupt political forces of the state through party and bi-party political combinations. The people will not better political conditions nor enhance the reputation of Illinois throughout the nation by electing Mr. Brennan.

Honesty Comes First.

All other issues in this campaign are secondary to that of restoring honest representative government in Illinois. To the accomplishment of this purpose every loyal citizen of the state should give his most earnest co-operation and support. My father and mother settled on the raw prairie here in Sangamon County over seventy years ago. I was born and raised on the old home farm which our family still owns. I have been a citizen of Illinois all my life. I am deeply interested in everything that pertains to the welfare of my native state. I feel that the interests of the farmers have not been properly conserved. If elected I shall do my best to establish better agricultural conditions. But we can not build a sound and enduring prosperity on the rotten foundation of political corruption.

A Great Moral Issue.

In one of his debates with Douglas on the slavery question, Lincoln declared that in all great moral issues was the eternal struggle between right and wrong, and that this struggle would go on long after the tongues of Douglas and himself were stilled. We face today in Illinois another great moral issue. The people of our beloved state are enslaved by a powerful and shockingly corrupt political machine. The civic conscience must be awakened. The people must arise in their right as free citizens, and with their ballots throw off the crushing tyranny of political corruption and restore Illinois to her place of honor among the states of the Union.

SULLIVAN'S ARMY AND FRIENDS SERENADE MR. AND MRS. FRED PUNCHES

On Friday night of last week, the members of the local headquarters company I. N. G. turned out in force, unofficially, to do honor to one of their bravest, Fred PUNCHES, who had but lately enlisted in the ranks of matrimony. Mrs. PUNCHES was a young lady from Virginia, Ill. The newlyweds were given a serenade in which every imaginable kind of noise was brought into play and made things sound for a time as if though this city had won a world championship of some kind or other. After showing this honor to Mr. and Mrs. PUNCHES, the merry-makers disbanded.

Charles Collins went to Decatur Saturday and is spending a week with his sons, in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Gauger and Mr. and Mrs. James Wright motored to Jacksonville Sunday where the Wrights visited with Maxine and Henry Wright, while Mr. and Mrs. Gauger spent the day with their daughter Miss Cora.

If you know any news items call home 128 or 411 and tell us. We'll appreciate the courtesy.

Mrs. Wm. Seidel of Los Angeles, California, arrived Monday for a visit at the home of Mrs. O. J. Gauger.

SHOE FACTORY FOR GREENUP

Greenup, Oct. 12.—Thanks to the untiring efforts of a few of our citizens Greenup is to have another factory. The Eitallbright Shoe Company of St. Louis will move its factory to Greenup. Greenup citizens raised a fund to help finance the business and also raised money to build a building in which to house the factory.

The factory at St. Louis will continue to make shoes there and take care of the trade until the building at Greenup is completed and machinery installed, then teachers will be sent here to teach local help to make shoes, and finally the whole concern will be running in Greenup. The firm is now swamped with more orders than they can take care of and every effort will be made to get the factory started in Greenup as soon as possible, with more machinery and more people employed than at present in St. Louis.

The weekly pay roll at St. Louis now runs about $500 per week and will be larger when the plant gets in full operation here. This will mean quite a bit to the citizens of Greenup, as we have an example in the Greenup Broom Co. Since they have been going in Greenup many homes have been bought and paid for and it has furnished employment to many men, who would have been idle had it not been in operation here.—Neoga News.

MODERN EVE WALKS INTO RESTAURANT SANS FIG LEAF

Belgrade, Sept. 30.—The present craze for nudity in Central Europe almost caused a riot in one of the city's most fashionable restaurants, it was learned today. The place was crowded with diners when a taxi drew up before the entrance and a beautiful but entirely unclad young woman alighted. The surprised audience gazed at her back as she calmly counted out the fare to the driver.

But when she turned around to enter the restaurant it was disclosed that she did not even wear the conventional fig leaf. As she came into the crowded room, there was a furor. Some people jumped to their feet to depart, others jumped to their feet, the better to gaze at the scene. Some were sympathetic, some horrified, according to their age and temperament.

But ignoring her reception, the young Eve walked with leisurely measured pace through the rows of tables on the terrace and into the main dining room. She sat down at a table and nonchalantly waited for someone to take her order. Managers and waiters were not so tranquil, however. As a crowd of obliging guests crowded around to hide her from the vulgar gaze, police arrived and flung their coats around the disturber.

Later they ascertained that she was a respectable married woman with two children.

"I have only gone a step further than the modern style," she said in explanation. "Why should women not go entirely unclad? It would be more decent."

But the judge failed to agree, and gave the modern Eve a two-day sentence.—Exchange.

ANOTHER THEATRE FOR SULLIVAN

According to reports from the county seat they are clearing ground again for a new theatre. This time the theatre is to be located on the site of the Jefferson, which was destroyed by fire a few years ago. Building theatres seems to be a popular pastime at Sullivan. They are having about as much trouble getting a new theatre there as Lovington is getting its coal mine started.—Lovington Reporter.

THE MAYOR'S TURNIPS

Mayor Pargeon has brought us some specimens of turnips that ought to take a prize at any fair, if size counts for anything. The largest in the group measured 18 1/2 inches in circumference, but as Abe Martin declares that "any kind of a turnip crop is a failure," the mayor is not expecting any unusual income from his Irish apples.—Lovington Reporter.

TEAPOT DOME AGAIN

A little hiss of pent-up steam has escaped from the Teapot Dome case, over which the lid of obscurity seemed to have been clamped until further orders. A dry, polite statement has broken into the Associated Press: The U. S. circuit court appears has reversed the decision of the district court in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

The lower courts said Harry F. Sinclair could keep the lease to oil lands at Teapot Dome, and the circuit court says he should not. It's a long way yet through the U. S. supreme court, and the nine weary old men who sit in those high-backed chairs in Washington will have plenty of time to decide how much of a result the public must have for all the exposures that took place back in the days when the "Ohio gang" was sitting pretty in Washington.

Fall is gone, and stories about the hundred thousand dollars carried to him in the little black bag are being forgotten, as well as the amazing tale of the gift of blooded cattle to Fall by oil men. Jesse Smith killed himself, latest reports say because he gambled and lost millions of dollars in Republican party campaign funds entrusted to him. Daugherty, another of the boys, is on trial for graft in another connection.

They were a great bunch, but they were just the sort of administrators that Big Business wants, and is willing to pay for.—Illinois Miner.

THE FARMER'S NEED

What the farmer needs is a square deal and not increased indebtedness. The farmer is already paying interest on too large an amount of indebtedness and an additional loan will only make the situation more deplorable.

What the farmer needs is profitable prices for his products and that alone is the only thing that will help him. The price that he gets today would go a long way in relieving the situation if the things which he does not produce and needs in his business were not so over-organized and over-advertised.

The present method of selling at wholesale and buying at retail, paying taxes on inflated values while other pay on net incomes, and carrying the tariff burden of industry besides being subject to the gambling and speculating in his products, are some of the things that change the names on the warranty deed and make the "Free Owned American Homestead" as scarce as hen's teeth;—destroying democracy and adding tenant recruits.—Equity News.

AS YOU WERE

The day was drawing to a close. Judge, jurors, witnesses, and lawyers all were growing weary. Counsel for the prosecution was cross-examining the defendant.

"Exactly how far is it between the two towns?" he asked at length.

For some time Paddy stood thinking, then, "About four miles as the cry flows," came the answer.

"You mean 'as the flow cries!'" corrected the man of law.

The judge leaned forward. "No," he remarked suavely, "he means 'as the fly crows.'"

And they all looked at one another feeling that something was wrong somewhere.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

AWFUL.

He had choked her; he had killed her. There could be no doubt about it. He listened to her dying gasp; she was still and cold—cold as the hands of death.

Yet is his fury, he was not convinced. He stepped on her—stepped on her again, with his big, heavy foot. A faint gasp—was she groaning? No, she was still dead.

"Damn that engine," he muttered. —Wampus.

"Don't you think these eggs are very small?" she asked critically.

"I do," answered the grocer, "but that's the kind the farmer sends me. They are fresh from the country this morning."

"Yes," said the shopper, "that's the trouble with those farmers. They're so anxious to get their eggs sold that they take them off the nest too soon."

HOW IT STARTED

The Charleston is reputed to have been originated by a college student who absent-mindedly stuck a lighted pipe in his hip pocket.—Red Cat.

ATHLETIC NOTES

The S. T. H. S. was defeated by their old rivals Arthur, Saturday. Arthur had a very good team, making most of their gains by their good interference. The game during the first half was loosely played. Arthur made three touchdowns and kicked one goal. The last half was played in the Arthur territory. Although it looked as if Sullivan was due for a touchdown, they failed to get it.

The next game will be played at Assumption.

The lineup for the Arthur game was:
L. E. Finley; L. F., Lundy; J. G. Christy; C. Kellar; R. G., Neddan; R. F., Dedman; R. E., Hostetter; L. H., Baker; R. H., Hollonbeck; Q. B., Hoskins; F. B., Martin.
Substitutions: Freeman for Finley; Elder for Christy; Bolin for Dedman; Walker for Hoskins; Gregg for Hollonbeck.

PAID FANCY PRICES

"I paid an international authority on disease of the stomach $1,500 and he didn't do me five cents' worth of good. I have been to various Spas in Europe, as well as this country and have spent fully $30,000 fruitlessly in search of a cure for my stomach trouble. Naturally I lost faith in any remedy for my case. My wife's brother had taken MAYR'S and praised it so highly that I tried it and am now entirely rid of that trouble." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. GRAND JURY INDICTS HOMER HAWKINS FOR CHANGES IN RECORDS

$7,000; Charles E. Golloday, burglary and larceny, bond $7,000; Francis Uttinger, burglary and larceny, bond $2,500. These three men are the ones who are accused of having stolen a truck and tires from the Bryant garage in Lovington. All are in jail here.

Judging by the legal array engaged to defend these men the cases will be hard fought. The attorneys are Grover E. Hoff and Mr. Whitley of the firm of Fitzgerald and Whitley of Decatur and Judge E. J. Hawbaker of Monticello.

Besides these criminal cases there are others on the docket which are of particular interest at this time when the matter of the county clerk's qualifications may come under consideration. Attorney Real of Mattoon represents Curly Burns, who wants a change of venue. Arguments on this petition are to be heard Saturday. Attorney Real successfully fought for his clients last year when he raised the point of the states attorney not having been qualified when he secured indictments against Burns and Munson. The Supreme Court upheld Mr. Real's contentions and turned Munson and Burns, two convicted bank robbers, loose.

Delayed Official Bond.

As County Clerk J. B. Martin waited three years and ten months before filing a bond as county clerk for his present term, the issue may be raised that all litigation which has taken place in the circuit court, as affects grand jurors and petit jurors is illegal, because of the lack of a properly qualified county clerk.

Motions, arguments and pleadings in all criminal cases now on the docket will be heard in the circuit court October 29th, and if this matter as pertains to the county clerk will be raised at all, it may be raised then.

The next day of court at which time the petit jurors have been ordered to report will be October 25th. The court settings for that and succeeding days are as follows:

John Moody vs. A. C. Scott, attachment.

Felix Fiest vs. C. H. Grace, appeal from J. P.

William G. Davis vs. Osae Bupp, et al., action on case.

Tuesday, October 26.

Butler Bros. vs. Roy F. Dixon, certiorari.

Nellie J. Miller vs. Robert C. Miller, confession.

Lyon & Healy vs. E. J. Gilham, assumption.

Earl O. Nichols vs. S. R. Underwood, Case.

John W. Hines vs. North American Benefit Corp., plea of trespass.

Dora Purcell vs. North American Benefit Corp., Plea for Trespass.

I. L. Carroll vs. William E. Phipps, Trespass on case.

Criminal—Wednesday, November 3.

The People vs. Charles E. Holladay, Burglary and larceny.

The People vs. Homer Hawkins, Larceny and falsifying public records.

The People vs. Clarence Hissong, alias Curly Burns, robbery.

The People vs. Henry Cummings, rape.

The People vs. Fred Lee, rape.

All motions and arguments, and all pleadings in above criminal cases to be heard October 29.

Grade School Notes

A Word of Warning.

All children should be careful when crossing streets.

Last Thursday afternoon Mary Misenheimer, one of our first grade children, was run over by an automobile while crossing the street near the North Side School and was quite badly hurt. The teachers are using every effort to protect the children. The parents of the children of the North Side School especially should impress upon their children the danger they encounter at street intersections. We hope no more accidents will occur and ask that all parents will warn their children. I want to say to the children; before crossing a street, Stop and look!

Examinations.

The first examination of the year will be given this week. Let us try and make good grades. The teachers have been working hard to teach you this work.

Membership Drive.

The children of the Grade School in their membership drive secured 195 new members for the Parent-Teacher's Association. We appreciate the manner in which the parents and others respond when solicited. Now that you are members you should attend the meetings. The association needs you. It is a good place for the parents to meet and get acquainted with the teachers. We should become better acquainted if we accomplish the work that should be accomplished.

The new fire escape arrived for the South Side building this Wednesday and will be put in place immediately. This is a very necessary improvement and yet we hope we may never have an occasion to use it in a real case of emergency.

Oil has been placed on the street on the east side of the South Side School. This will make the street useable during the winter. This will be greatly appreciated by parents who come to this building in automobiles for their children in bad weather.

Mr. Roney is now giving the grade school boys some training in basket ball. We expect to match a few games with some of our neighboring grade schools.

C. L. Brewer, Superintendent.

SEVEN CALVES SEEK HONORS IN BEEF CLUB

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 14—Seven calves are now making the race for a membership in the Illinois half-ton club and the chances are that enough of them will be successful to give the membership list of the honor club a substantial boost, it is reported by E. T. Robbins, livestock extension specialist of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, who has charge of the club. To win a membership each of the calves is required to make a weight of at least 1,000 lbs by the time it is a year old. Some of the calves will soon have reached the end of their allotted year. Six of them are Shorthorns and one a Hereford. All sections of the state are represented in the group of seven.

In requiring the winning calves to reach a weight of at least a half ton by the time they are a year old, the club is serving to demonstrate that good breeding, proper feeding and the right kind of care and management pave the way for economical and profitable beef production.

Owners of the seven calves which are now bidding for membership in the club, together with the breed of of the calves and the date of birth, are: James Brown, Aledo, Mercer county, Shorthorn, dropped November 13, 1925; John R. Hamilton, Bartolph, McDonough county, Shorthorn, dropped December 4, 1925; William Chinland, Aledo, Shorthorn dropped December 31, 1925; R. W. Gates, Tuscola, Douglas county, Shorthorn dropped May 11, 1926; James Love, Edwardsville, Madison county, Shorthorn, dropped May 29, 1926; G. C. Butzow, Milford, Iroquois county, Shorthorn, dropped June 9, 1926; and Harold Hixon, Wellington, Iroquois county, Hereford, dropped August 12, 1926.

Each calf that is nominated for membership in the club is inspected by a farm bureau committee and weighed before it is 30 days old and again when it is just a year old.

Two calves have succeeded in meeting the requirements of the club since it was started by the agricultural college. A Shorthorn fed by H. L. Gates & Son, Tuscola, won the first membership in the club when it reached a weight of 1,120 pounds, while another Shorthorn fed by Gilbert Longbons, Albion, Edwards county, got handily over the line at a weight of 1,010 pounds.

Calves which conform to the nomination rules of the half-ton calf club can well be fed by boys and girls in club work, Robbins pointed out. The club member who feeds a home-raised calf, whose birth date can be verified, has an opportunity for added honors, he said.
