71ST. YEAR. NO. 26

Decatur Greys to Play Here Sunday And on July 4th

Baseball Fans to See Two Exhibitions of Their Favorite Sport. Danville Proved Easy; May Join Six-Team League.

Sullivan will have two big days of baseball—July 3rd and July 4th. On these days the Sullivan Greys are going to play the Decatur Greys on the local field. Among the out-of-town teams that play here the Decatur Greys seem to be favorites. The boys play fast, snappy and clean ball.

The home team has been going along in great shape this year. They have not won all of the games they played but have won enough to convince the fans that it is about the best team Sullivan has had in recent years.

Last Sunday a team from Danville, the Allith-Proutys came here expecting to mop up the earth with the Sullivan boys. The tale had another ending and the visitors had to be satisfied with the short end of a 4-2 score. Dennis, pitching for Sullivan held the visitors at his mercy until the ninth inning when some of his support grew tired or careless and Danville put over the only two runs they got. Perhaps the Sullivan boys did not want to whitewash the visitors entirely and that may account for the two runs.

The score by innings was as follows:

Danville	000	000	002
Sullivan	001	210	000

May Join League

Manager Harsh is negotiating with a Central Illinois league that is looking for a good sixth team and city that can handle a Sunday-holiday baseball franchise. There are six teams in the league now but one of them is not making good, and if Sullivan gets in, it will be in place of that team. The five going teams are the Decatur I. T. S., Clinton, Springfield, Taylorville and Jacksonville.

Negotiations are now under way. The local team plans buying new suits if it gets into this classy league company.

Grace Patterson Funeral Wednesday; Died at El Paso

Grace Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Patterson died at the family home in El Paso, Texas, Friday, death being caused by tuberculosis.

The remains were shipped to this city and arrived here Tuesday. They were taken to the Webb Tichenor home, from where funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in charge of Rev. W. B. Hopper. Burial was in Greenhill cemetery beside her brothers Herschel and Lowell who preceded her in death from the same cause.

Grace Patterson was born in this county February 28, 1902. She graduated with high honors from the Sullivan High School class of '21, ranking first in many of her classes.

The dread disease which had already taken her two brothers had affected her health and with the hope that a change in climate might prove beneficial the Patterson family left here August 8th 1921 for El Paso where they took up their residence. For some years her health showed marked improvement but several months ago the disease became more acute and nothing could be done to check its ravages and she succumbed.

She is survived by her parents and one sister Mabel.

The following friends served as her pall bearers: Cyrus Robinson, Lee Taylor, Herman Lambrecht, James Lehman, A. R. Poland and Fred Sona.

Opha Tichenor, an uncle from O'Fallon, Ill., and Mrs. Minnie Jennings, an aunt from Little Rock, Ark., met the funeral cortege at St. Louis and accompanied it to this city. Other out of town relatives who came for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Stark, Herschel Stark and Paul Stark of Indiana; Mrs. Nora Lane of Chicago and Miss Hazel Ramsey of Decatur. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and daughter have not decided just how long they will remain here, although Mr. Patterson plans to make the return trip Sunday. He is engaged in the oil business at El Paso. The ladies may make a prolonged stay or may return home with him.

REV. MACLEOD RETURNED FROM WESTERN TRIP

Rev. D. A. MacLeod, pastor of the local Presbyterian church returned Thursday evening of last week from a Western trip. His objective in going west was to attend a Presbyterian convention in San Francisco. He spent three days there and preached to his old congregation on Sunday.

While in the Northwest he also visited Salem, Eugene and Portland, Oregon, Seattle in Washington and Vancouver, Victoria and Banff in Canada. He came as far West in Canada as Moosejaw and then returned to the United States, with a stopover at Minneapolis before returning to Illinois.

Mrs. Nettie L. Roughton received a message Monday morning informing her that her father was seriously ill in Bloomington. She started for his bedside at once but he died before she reached there.

His name was Francis M. Lindley and he was past 70 years of age. He was a farmer by occupation and had been visiting at the home of his daughter Mrs. James Phillips in Bloomington when stricken down by paralysis. He is survived by the two daughters, Mrs. Roughton and Mrs. Phillips. The funeral was Wednesday afternoon.

Union Church Services Will Start Sunday Night

Beginning Sunday night the churches of Sullivan are going to co-operate in union services in the Auditorium in Freeland Grove.

Rev. MacLeod and Rev. Robertson are arranging the program for the months of July and August during which time these services will be held. District Superintendent Wells of the M. E. Church will be here to preach one night and Rev. Harry Cochran of Cisco will also preach.

The Christian church, which is without a pastor at present, will also co-operate and the first night's service will be under the auspices of this church.

There will be no preaching services Sunday night but the Eureka Male Quartette from Eureka College will have complete charge of the services and will bring their gospel message in song and music.

There is no charge for admission but a silver offering will be taken to assist in defraying the quartette's traveling expenses.

It is planned to have several out-of-town speakers, later in the season, besides those already mentioned. The Moultrie county Men's Chorus will also participate in the meetings.

NEW LAW WILL GOVERN PURCHASE AND SALE OF POULTRY; DEALERS LICENSED

After June 30th, if the man who buys live poultry from you, seems rather inquisitive, do not blame him. He is acting in accordance with the law just passed which requires all dealers in live poultry to procure a license and to keep records or such transactions. The law was proposed and approved and enacted as a measure for the prevention of chicken stealing by making it impossible for thieves to find a market for their loot, according to S. J. Stanard, director of the Illinois department of agriculture, the branch of state government which will enforce this law.

In order to acquaint all who are interested, with the provisions of this act, Director Stanard offers the following outline of its requirements, and of the action his department has taken that all dealers may comply with the law.

"All who deal in live market poultry will do well to write to the Department of Agriculture, Springfield, Illinois, and ask for blanks on which to apply for a 'Poultry Dealers' License." A form that calls for the required information will be forwarded. This should be properly filled out and returned to this office, with the fee the law requires. A separate license is necessary for each place of business or vehicle used in purchasing or trading for live market poultry, and the fee for each license is one dollar. Licenses issued now remain effective until June 30, 1928.

Records of poultry procured by purchase or in exchange, as required by law, must contain the following information: The date of the transaction, the number, weight and breed of the birds received, and a brief description and distinguishing marks, if any, of the poultry procured. In addition, the record must give the name, address, and a brief description of the seller. The type of conveyance he uses, must be shown, and if it is a motor vehicle, the license number is required.

"This record shall be open to inspection by all peace officers upon demand."

"Are you aware, Mrs. Shinbone, that your dog has just bitten my little Willie?"

"What, your Willie, who has just got over scarlet fever? Oh, Mrs. Sausley, if anything should happen to Fido I'd never forgive you."

Margaret C. Wood Died Saturday at Life-Time Home

Death Followed Stroke of Paralysis. Had Reared Large Family and Spent 70 Years of Usefulness in This Community.

Mrs. Margaret Wood, an aged and respected resident of Moultrie county died at her home Northwest of this city Saturday. She had suffered a stroke of paralysis several days earlier and sank into a gradual decline. Her children were all at her bedside when the end came.

Margaret Caroline, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Evans and was born in Licking county, Ohio, October 25, 1854. At the time of her death she was 72 years and eight months of age.

When she was between the age of two and three, her parents moved to Illinois by prairie schooner and settled in the same locality where she grew to womanhood, reared her family and passed away.

March 14, 1875 she was united in marriage with William N. Wood who preceded her in death in 1909. To this union were born seven children. Mary died in infancy. These surviving their mother are: Elizabeth, Harley, Charles, Howard and Burr of this community and Adeline of New York city. She also leaves one aged sister, Mrs. Anna Weaver of Siloam Springs, Arkansas and two nephews, Peter McMullin of Portland, Oregon and Burr McMullin of Lovington, both of whom were reared in her parents' home and were the only brothers she ever knew.

While Mrs. Wood had been in failing health for a few years and suffered a severe illness the past winter, yet the past few months she had been in exceptionally good health and greatly enjoyed her family and her friends.

Wednesday while reading her paper, she was stricken with paralysis rapidly going into unconsciousness and sleep, sleeping into peaceful death at 2:40 o'clock Saturday morning.

Funeral services were held at the family home Sunday afternoon and were in charge of Rev. W. B. Hopper. Interment was in the Kellar cemetery south of Lovington. The pall bearers were A. G. Wood, Bryce Shirey, John Lucas, George Elliott, Mel Fultz and J. N. Foster.

Welfare Worker Makes Report on Year's Activities

Annual Meeting of T. B. Association Held Tuesday. All Officers Re-elected. Much Work Done Among the Schools.

The board of the Moultrie County Tuberculosis Association met Tuesday afternoon in the office of the county welfare worker, Mrs. Clyde Harris.

Officers re-elected for the ensuing year are:

President—Dr. W. B. Kilton. Vice-president—Mrs. Arlo Chapin. Treasurer—J. B. Martin. Secretary—Martha L. Harris.

The county superintendent of schools, Mrs. Nettie L. Roughton cooperates with these officials in the work that is done.

Mrs. Harris submitted her reports for the past year, which was read and accepted.

The report shows that the biggest item of expenditure is cost of keeping tuberculosis patients at St. John's Sanatorium. For this purpose the sum of $1620.14 was spent during the past year. There are four patients at St. John's Sanatorium as follows: William Puckett, Sullivan; Ruth Nihiser, Dalton City; Earl Soper, Bethany; Denzel Kestner, Lovington.

In the way of school work, all grade schools in the county were visited and children were examined. Health talks were made and health literature distributed. Records of children's physical condition were made, copies filed and also sent to parents.

105 visits were made to homes of sick and needy.

The Christmas Seal sale realized $440.00. 2500 booklets and leaflets on matters pertaining to health were distributed from the office.

Two clinics for examination of T. B. suspects were held. Over 300 pieces of clothing were distributed among the needy.

The total expenses of the office for the year were $3393.22.

As the work which is being done from this office is bound to result in much good in the matter of health conditions in the county, as well as caring for those in need now, this amount of money is perhaps one of the best investments that Moultrie county makes.

WE NEED THE RUBBER

Governor General Leonard Wood, who has been Uncle Sam's boss in the Philippines for some years says that independence would ruin that country. He presumes that it takes the paternal guiding hand of men like Wood to guide these people to peace, prosperity and happiness.

The fact that the Filipinos are clamouring to throw off the yoke of the foreigner is not taken into consideration. It is not what the Filipinos want but what the United States wants that governs this situation.

Furthermore Governor Wood says that the Philippines are the most wonderful place in the world to grow rubber. The United States is a large consumer of rubber, so the Governor advises holding on to this rubber domain till doomsday.

That the Filipinos may have some rights and some aspirations toward self government does not enter into the calculations so long as American capitalists can exploit its resources and make a profit.

In Chicago last week a woman bootlegger and murderer was sentenced to hang for the murder of her husband. There is no doubt about her guilt. It is a safe guess that right now the big Chicago dailies are dicker with this woman for the rights to publish "The story of my Life."

Decatur is broke. Macon county is broke. That is to say they are way behind in payment of their debts. Their financial situation looks punk. The Elder administration busted the city, even though it was the pet of the Herald and Review. Now these two esteemed contemporaries are taking great delight in razzing the new officials because they refuse to continue the stupid contracting of debts which Decatur has no money to pay.

PERHAPS THEY DESERVE IT

Many years ago the farmers were told that the protective tariff was a good thing for them. Valiant patriots like Hon. John R. Eden of Sullivan, Horizontal Bill Morrison of Waterloo and others of that class of Jeffersonian-Democratic statesmen orated loud and long against this fallacy. They pointed to the day of reckoning which was bound to come, when capital invested in protected manufacture, would dominate the affairs of this country to the detriment of the farmers and laboring classes.

That day is at hand. The federal courts are getting the harvest of the farm failures. Business men in the smaller communities, banks and others dependent on prosperity of agriculture are feeling the heavy hand of adversity.

The farmers have had a hard enough time of it with large crops at small prices, what will they do when a crop failure stares them in the face? The lean years have sapped their reserve. The cost of living keeps going upward. Tariff protected goods costs them high prices, while they—the farmers—sell their goods in an open market at a price which the speculators and gamblers set for them.

The fleece is being shorn short. The Coolidge administration is helping do the shearing. Pets such as the steel corporation are given additional protection while the farmers are denied the right to even experiment with any relief measures.

BRISBANE

LINDBERGH.
BULL WHALE AND ATHEIST.
HE WHO FIGHTS ALONE
THANKS BE FOR LINDY

Deeds of individual courage still arouse the world more than any other achievement. Lindbergh's welcome proves that men feel, today, as they did about Grillon, Duguesclin or Perseus. The individual fighter; doing it himself, is the man adored by the crowd.

Any man is courageous with many around him. With a crowd it is easier to go than not to go. But, by yourself, it is different.

The great crowds that howl for Lindbergh, and that were asleep when he started off in the fog, alone, at daybreak, know why they applaud him.

A lookout on the cruiser Memphis, bringing Lindbergh home, called out, "There she blows, broad on the starboard bow." Lindbergh, on the bridge, saw a big bull whale, accompanied by his "cows", keeping close to their lord and master.

Nothing could have made that bull whale believe that the tiny man on the bridge had flown across the Atlantic Ocean, in the other direction. How can you hope to make an atheist believe that there exists a Divine intelligence flashing from one universe to another, pervading all space? The bull whale and the atheist KNOW. You can't fool them.

Thank heaven for Lindbergh. He may make this Government realize that to be defenseless in the air IS TO BE ABSOLUTELY DEFENSELESS. He told the Chamber of Commerce in New York: "We don't want war, and the way to avoid it is to be prepared for it. We need greatly enlarged commercial air service, greatly increased air mail service, to develop good pilots. It takes longer to make a pilot than to make a flying machine."

He reminded New York of the disgraceful fact that the richest city in the world has no air port, and must travel far off to Long Island to find one.

And he said in substance this: "They talk about anti-aircraft guns as a defense against airplanes. A hundred fast planes would soon clear a battleship's decks of its anti-aircraft guns. Then a dozen bombers would sink it. The anti-aircraft guns might, but probably wouldn't, bring down a few pilots, destroy a trifling sum in airplanes. But airplanes would wipe out a $20,000,000 battleship and its great crew of men."

Many people, including the Government, must listen to Lindbergh. That's the advantage of climbing to a high place among men. You can MAKE others listen.

Much of woman's trouble has been caused by her prejudice against her own sex, her lack of mercy for other women that go wrong, her contempt for women generally. Miss Pessie Mack of Chicago, accused of flirting by two large policemen, "beat them up" when they sought to arrest her. She surrendered peaceably to a very small policeman, saying, "No woman can arrest me."

Sir Oliver Lodge, who believes in ghosts and spirits says that with synthetic protoplasm life can be created in the laboratory. This says Lodge, does not belittle God's power, for man is God's creation and might well imitate his Maker on a small scale. He MIGHT, but he WON'T. That is, he will not create the only life that counts—the life that THINKS. Real life is THOUGHT, not MATTER.

MOULTRIE COUNTY GROWN NORWEGIAN WHITE PINE

W. L. Rhodes this week exhibited a piece of white pine grown on his farm northwest of Bethany. This farm was the home of Davy Crowder, an old pioneer who after settling there brought a large number of Norwegian pine trees and set them around the place. This was more than 50 years ago. Quite a number of the pines still exist, but the wind some time ago twisted off several of them. They were about 18 inches across at the stump and made nice saw logs. The quantity of white pine boards will be used for building repair on the farm.

—Miss Ruth McCusker left Sunday for Madison, Wis., where she will take a course at the State University.

"I go to prepare a place for you, And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again." John 14:2 and 3. John and others testified to the fact that He did go. No one has testified to His return having occurred, therefore we are looking for Him, And He tells us in His word, "to him that is looking for Him will He appear the second time." So many people tell us, I am not concerned as to when or how He will appear, just so I am ready for Him when He comes. We are taking no chances. We are expecting Him to come as He said He would, and in like manner as He left. We are looking for Jesus to come back, and receive us unto Himself, that where He is, there may we be also. Often we look up into the heavens to see if we might see Him coming. No we are not ashamed to be caught looking for Jesus. We love Him, and Love maketh not ashamed.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Please note that there will be regular service during the morning hour and your presence will be an inspiration and help in Bible Study and regular worship. We are glad to note the interest taken in the Sunday school during the past months and hope that the same interest may be manifest during the coming weeks.

The sound of the fire crackers remind one of the glorious Fourth, but even without the sound of the same we of mature minds are now reminded of the birth and life of the nation. It is well to recall what has made this nation great, and the thing necessary to keep it great. The mightiest safeguard in past and present is the church of the Living God. Hence the church, the home and the school on every hill side. Like our fathers we would seek to make its influence felt throughout the land, and keep the light of righteousness, shining throughout our own land and before the nations of the world. We can all have a part in this great work, by doing what is possible in our own community. We can show our patriotism and loyalty to our country as a whole in no better way, than being loyal to a great cause in our own city.

—Mrs. Jess Hodge went to Chicago Sunday where she visited with her daughter Valeria who is a student nurse in the Presbyterian hospital. She returned Monday.

You need buy nothing and this contest is open to all. Everybody is entitled to one guess.

In order to register your guess, kindly fill in the attached blank and mail at once to the Home Oil Co., Sullivan.

We are daily adding new SHELL enthusiasts to our already large number of patrons. Fill up at a Shell Station.

The NEW Shell . . . 400 "Extra Dry" . . . has scored a tremendous success from the start. Sales are rolling up . . . gaining momentum . . . breaking all records . . . as more and more motorists find that this fuel is just what they have been looking for.

A higher grade . . . more volatile . . . more powerful gasoline . . . at the price of the ordinary kind!

At one stroke (reducing the end point to 400°) . . . Shell made a revolutionary departure in gasoline refining . . . a change that immediately put Shell on a higher plane . . . in a class by itself . . . the greatest gasoline value on the market.

It's EXTRA DRY . . . which means it is unusually free from heavy, greasy, less volatile parts that deaden the action of the motor. It's purer, cleaner, finer, more powerful . . . and as a consequence, improves the performance of any car and adds immeasurably to the joy of driving.

It's easy to prove these facts for yourself. Wait till your tank is nearly empty . . . then fill it up with 400 "Extra Dry" . . . and note the difference.

Any Shell Yellow-red Service Station or Shell dealer is ready to supply you with this wonder gasoline at the regular price . . . not one cent extra for the extra quality it contains or the extra service it will render.

CHAPTER XII

Lowell was appalled at the swift-ness of Kennedy's deduction. He stared nervously over the gray man's head at Armitage. Armitage seemed cool enough, but as a matter of fact he was in the clutch of a mild form of hypnotism.

"Well, I'm waiting," said Kennedy. "Which of you two took Jeanne Beaufort away from me?"

"Kennedy," returned Lowell, "we admit you to be the shepherd of this flock; but sometimes you go a little too far. We're not under your orders, you know. And yet you storm into this room and demand—as if you had authority!—to know who snatched Jeanne Beaufort out of your claws. She came into the city, at the risk of her life, for no other purpose than to ask me the name of the man who married her. I refused; but I gave her twelve hours in which to leave the city. I consider that I acted a gentleman and with honor, military or civil, whichever you will."

"I too," said Armitage. Kennedy, choking with insane rage, whirled upon Armitage. "You were the man?"

"Yes. And I would do the same thing over and over, as many times as you contrived to catch her. Is that frank enough?" Armitage got up, throwing off his dressing gown. "Let us have the truth while we're about it. What is the North or South to me so long as I love Jeanne Beaufort?"

None of them could ever recollect how it started, that terrific contest which carried all three of them here and there about the room, toppling chairs, banging into bookcases, surging into corners, two against one, the two oddly enough, fighting desperately for their lives.

At length, bruised, panting and disheveled, they drew back from this Hercules. The battle came to its end quite as abruptly as it had begun. Kennedy staggered over to a chair and fell into it, covered his face with his hands—and wept!

"Kennedy," said Armitage. "Yes, son! I—I guess I'm quite mad. It came over me with a rush. I had to do it. . . . Quite mad!"

Kennedy dropped his hands from his face. "I might have killed you both. I'm sorry, but I couldn't help it. I'd better be getting along—dizzy."

"Drink this sherry," said Lowell. Kennedy drank it and rose. Then he picked up his hat and left the room without turning his head.

On a certain spring morning, Morgan rode madly along the pike toward the Beaufort plantation. He did not stop until he reached the commanding officer's tent.

"General," he said, "I have to report that the Yankees, ten thousand strong, are within an hour's march, perhaps less. Their cavalry will be on us in half that time. Their object is to outflank us and cut us off from joining Lee."

"Five or six miles away?" cried the General, astonished. "I received information last night that the Yankees were still in camp, thirty miles away." "They have marched all night, sir. I know—because I marched with them. I got away by the barest chance," said Morgan, indicating his forehead. "I could not cut for it any sooner. I've been inside their lines for three days. I was discovered by a man named Parson Kennedy. He seized the nearest musket and tried to skewer me. I caught the bayonet in time to prevent its going into my skull. I knocked him flat with the butt. Anybody got a drop of whisky? I'm about done."

He sat down on a camp-stool, accepted a flask, and drank rather deeply for one who wished merely a tonic.

The aide who had offered the whisky had seen men drink this way when they sought for something called "Devil-may-care."

Morgan returned the flask, ripped the sleeve from his left arm and made a rude bandage for the cut on his forehead.

The General was already issuing orders. The batteries were in position, and a thousand men were to remain with the guns to hold the Union forces in check until the little army were beyond the danger of a flanking movement.

"Major Morgan," called the General, "will you take command of the battery? This battery guards the river. I want an hour."

"You shall have it, sir—that is, if they don't blow us out," Morgan saluted.

After her escape from Parson Kennedy, an escape which she still credited to Lowell, Jeanne returned to the plantation and remained there. Her military career was ended, finished. But she did think of Armitage constantly. She was thinking of him this very morning as she watched the hurlyburly outside without fully comprehending what it signified.

The general explained the situation briefly. She and her aunts must prepare at once to leave the house.

"Then there will be battle here?" asked Jeanne.

"Yes. And this spot will be particularly dangerous. Jeanne turned gravely toward her aunts. "You two go. Take the things that you want."

"But you?" cried the aunts.

"I shall remain."

Boom! Jeanne saw a fountain of water spring up from the river where the shell struck.

She saw the negroes scurrying southward like a flock of frightened geese. She was alone. She went back into the house and brought out bandages, basins, water and sponges. The deep sound came from the north again, once, twice, three times. A shell burst in the garden. A tattoo rattled against the side of the house. She experienced not the least fear. Indeed, her sensation was one of detachment; she was here and yet not here; it was only her soul, her body was elsewhere, and so nothing could hurt her.

Through the broken window she saw men in butternut running, turning to fire as they ran.

A man pushed in through the door. A bloody bandage was wound around his head at a rakish angle; the grime of battle was upon him. He ran to the window and emptied his revolver into the shadows pouring into the smoke. He turned back to reload—and discovered Jeanne.

"God in heaven, you here yet?" "Morgan," she murmured. The house rocked. A rubble of brick and mortar came piling into the fireplace. A shell had struck the chimney.

"So you wouldn't run away? That is like you!" Morgan laughed sarcastically. "We're beaten! But what of that, sweetheart? While there's life there's hope!" He laughed again. In the face of this new danger Jeanne forgot all about that outside. The man was battle-mad, shorn of civilization's veneer, reckless and primordial.

"Henry Morgan—" "Yes, I understand. You've found out the truth. Yes, I was there in Richmond that night. I was one of the eleven. Can't you guess which one? What then?"

He walked over to her. She stepped behind the table. She was unarmed; and she was no longer without fear.

"Do you know why I am here, Jeanne? Have I not told you a thousand times that you were mine, mine? Bah! Let the fools cut each other's throats; you and I will begin the honeymoon!"

Yellow 80 Day Seed Corn

This is the Minnesota No. 13 developed by the Minnesota experiment station that pushed the corn belt three hundred miles farther North than it was ever known before. Due to its hardiness and earliness it is known to be the best yielding early dent in existence. We know when planted in Illinois on the 10th day of July it is well dated on the first day of October. We have grown this variety for six years on our own land, short supply left at this time, going at $5.00 per bushel.

Sunflower is good yet will pay better than any corn

Rather late at this time for the Russian tall varieties therefore plant Crowder-Wonder and Crowder-American, both the low growing stalks with large single heads. We are contracting the crops and will take them in the fall at a specified price now. Just as we have been doing for several years. The market is limited on sunflower. Late as the season is there will be lots of them planted. We are open for contracts now but it won't be long until we will have all we want.

Soybeans 99 per cent Germination

Perfectly clean, no cracks or morning glories. Black Ebony, Manchus, Black eyebrow, the latter bean is 20 days earlier than the Manchus. All varieties $2.50 per bushel.

(We will give you a time price on beans if you want it, pay next fall)

A Road of Rails

Railroad and track constitute the foundation of railway service. This foundation has had to be strengthened from time to time in order to handle heavier and faster trains safely and economically. Except for the addition of preservative chemicals, crossties have changed little, but ballast rails and all other elements of roadbed and track have made notable advances in quality and weight.

Crushed stone, gravel, cinders and slag are now the principal kinds of railway ballast. They make the roadbed resilient, easy-riding, long-wearing and relatively simple of maintenance. Many railroads, the Illinois Central System among them, obtain considerable ballast from their own quarries and gravel pits.

Steel rails have long been standard, superseding iron, and they are constantly being made stronger and heavier. Measured in weight per yard, rails now in use on the Illinois Central System range up to 110-pound. The heavier rails are used under high-speed, main-line traffic, the lighter for branch lines, sidings and yards. The life of a rail under heavy traffic is approximately ten or twelve years. The total weight of all rails now in use on the Illinois Central System is nearly one and one-half million tons. Laid end to end, they would nearly encircle the earth.

Important accessories of roadbed and track are tunnels, cuts, fills and bridges. They too must be strengthened, enlarged or rebuilt from time to time to keep pace with the weight and speed of trains. Curves and grades also must be reduced or eliminated to improve operating conditions.

The Illinois Central System last year spent nearly $30,000,000 in the maintenance of its road-way and structures. The system's investment in roadway property has increased during the last five years at the rate of more than $23,000,000 a year. Both a satisfactory rate of investment and a suitable degree of maintenance must be continued if the roadbed and track are to keep pace with modern standards.

What is true of this railroad is true, in propor-tion, of the railroads generally. They must make money in order to continue providing modern trans- portation.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are in- vited.

L. A. DOWNS,
President, Illinois Central System.

We have heretofore mentioned but desire to bring it to your attention again that the free acts program has been greatly augmented. With the tight wire, tumbling dogs' acts which will give three complete performances that day we feel that we have made an important contribution to the entertainment.
Horse Races
V. E. Hawbaker assures us that he is going to have excellent horse races. His entries already approximate forty for the four races. With this large a field there ought to be a tight race in each event. These events are as follows: 2:15 pace with a purse of $100.00, a green pace $100.00, a 2:19 trot $100.00, a green trot $100.00, and a pony race $15.00.

The band will furnish music at the race track during the running of these races.
Water Carnival
The water carnival will take place at Wyman Lake at 3:30 p. m. with the following events and prizes:
Men's Events

The Committee in charge wishes especially to announce that all contestants are requested to place their entries with Mr. Turner at the Farm Bureau not later than Saturday evening.
Other Events
Space will not permit a further detailed explanation of the other events on the program. From past experience you well know that the band concerts, daylight fireworks, dance, ball game, and the carnival will all come up to your greatest expectations. Note that the night fireworks have been moved back one half hour to 8:30 p. m. This was done to be sure of absolute darkness so that the display would be seen at its best.
Traffic Regulation
Mr. Lansden, as sheriff, has asked for and has received the promise of a number of motor cycle policemen for the day. 30 ex-service men will be deputized. The local boy scout troop and two troops from Shelbyville will also be on hand. A courteous compliance with the commands of these men and boys is especially requested. In particular we want to observe a wide space along the shore line on the north side of the lake in which no cars are to be parked and which will be reserved for observation of the fireworks.
Mention Your Appreciation
After the celebration you who enjoy it will be indebted to the merchants and professional men of this city. It is they who make possible this full day of entertainment and fun without cost to you. It should not be too much to ask of you that you make it a point to mention your appreciation to them.

—Harry Hill, Ted Cooley and Buster Buxton who have been working in Detroit returned home Sunday.
