Poultry Train and Egg Show Big Attraction in Sullivan Saturday

The C & E I Better Poultry train will be here from 9 o'clock to 2 p. m. Saturday. It will be on the tracks in the West end of this

On both of those occasions followed by a pie supper. There thousands visited the train and its was plenty of music and enterexhibits and listened to the lec- tainment for all.

This poultry train Saturday is said to be a big improvement over last year's effort. It not only shows the best way to raise chicks, but also how to keep them healthy, how to keep them laying and profitable. It has exhibits of some of the leading breeds, and has brooders, incubators and all time. other modern methods of poultry culture on display.

Accompaning the train is a corps of poultry experts, who will lecture and advise relative to any information that may be wanted by those who visit the train.

A play car for the kiddies has been arranged and will be in charge of local ladies, so the visitors may leave the children there while they pass through the train or listen to the lectures.

Sullivan merchants will stage a bargain sale in connection with this event. Thousands of circulars have been distributed in Sullivan's trade territory and the local papers are carying the message to many more.

WHAT ILLINOIS NEEDS

- 1. Plain, common honesty.
- 2. Officials willing to serve the people at the salary fixed by law, without any rake off or side graft.
- 3. State employes who are paid what they earn and not robbed of their earnings through assessments for politi- day afternoon in the parsonage cal purposes.

- 6. Voters who will have enough decency not to sell their votes for payment in hard roads or any other graft.
- 7. Less of political bunk and more of plain, hard facts. 8. Less of hypocrisy and hot air and more of decency and performance. If you can approve this sort of political platform for Illinois, measure your candidates by these requirements and then let your conscience be your guide.

THE DAYS OF 1920

Does your memory go back to the year 1920?

James Cox and Warren Harding, both from Ohio were candidates for president.

Mr. Cox charged that the Republican campaign was financed by a fund of $10,000,000. He stated that the G. O. P., under the leadership of Will Hays, its national chairman, was out to buy the presidency for Mr. Harding.

Do you recall the howl of indignation that went up over the land at Mr. Cox's charges? Every Republican regarded it as an insult and doubtless many Democrats thought that Mr. Cox was overstating the case, for in November of that Isaiah 55:6. year they rushed to the polls and gave Mr. Harding a record-breaking majority. It took just about eight years to justify Mr. Cox's charges. The full $10,000,000 has not been found, but as the covers are being rolled back, the oil contributions are disclosed, and Will Hays' financial manipulations are revealed, people are about ready to believe anything.

SMALL BUILT THEM ALL

The biggest campaign lie of the century is the line that heads this article. It is being liberally used in Len Small's primary campaign. Len Small deserves no credit for building Illinois hard roads. Any other man in the governor's office could have done as well or better.

The truth of the matter is that the PEOPLE of Illinois built their own hard roads. They are paying for them. They pay the men who design them and anybody and everybody that has anything to do with them.

During the administration of Frank O. Lowden as governor thousands of Illinois men fought in the World War. Did you ever hear Gov. Lowden claim that he won the war? He could just as truthfully have claimed that, as Len Small claims to have built Illinois roads.

Here is what Len Small, a man hired by the state of Il linois has done. He has made the building of roads a political issue by appropriating road funds to bribe the people of this state to continue him and his machine in power. He has placed hard roads as political favors for those who have given him votes and support. He has meddled in the affairs of an efficient state highway department and made of it a political joke.

Mr. Farmer, if you hired a man to harvest a crop and the fellow then turned out to be a blow-hard telling everybody what a wonderful crop he had raised and then suppose further that he tried to run your farm ,sold your grain to elevators, where the selling would be to his own advantage, you'd can such an onery cuss, wouldn't you? Well why let Len Small get by with his bunk. He's only your hired man. You help pay his wages. You've got a voice in whether or not you want to continue him on the job.

Again we repeat that the slogan "Small Built Them tury. All" is the biggest lie of the century and everybody with an ounce of common sense knows that it is.

AND WHERE IS ALLEN MOORE?

Have you noticed that the rest of the Republican candidates are not chumming or campaigning very much with Col. Frank L. Smith, who is again a candidate for the Republican Senatorial nomination? Also have you noticed how absolutely absent Allen F. Moore is from Republican political news in Illinois these days? Sam Insull has gone to Europe to avoid any unpleasantness he might be subjected to in the oil investigation. Even the Anti-Saloon League seems to have abandoned its erstwhile pet, whom it helped to elect to the United States Senate. Poor old Smith seems to have to go his route all alone.

At a meeting of the members of the Sullivan Country Club Monday night a plan was adopted ing. for the purchase of the forty acre tract now in use as a golf course. The option on the tract made four years ago was for $8000 and still has a year to run. The executive committee has negotiated with Harshman brothers, owners, for a purchase at $7,500 and an agreement on this basis was reached which was ratified by the club Monday night.

Under this plan a first mortgage of $3,000 will be put on the tract: $1000 will be paid out of the treasury and the $3500 balance will be taken care of by 35 $100 certificates, which will be taken by as many club members and retired as the club finance permits. These certificates will bear 5% interest until retired. Twenty of these certificates were immediately subscribed and a committee was named to dispose of the other fifteen.

This week two Republican sen-ators thought they had a bright idea and expounded it on the floor Findlay. of the Senate. These bright boys were Arthur Robinson, Jr. the Klan senator from Indiana and Gerald Nye a small town editor who is senator from North Dakota

These gentlemen gave the Republican side of the Senate a thrill of joy when they asserted it as their opinion that in 1920 Harry Sinclair contributed liberally to Alfred E. Smith's campaign for governor of New York.

That was hot stuff. The big newspapers made the most of it. In fact the two senators found it as uncomfortable as holding a red hot poker. They heard from Gov. Smith without delay. He called TO BUY ITS GROUNDS them a set of "liars" although he used more dignified words than this one to fully convey his mean-

An attempt is also being made to inveigle the public into believing that Wilbur Marsh of Iowa. democratic national committee treasurer had entered into an agreement with Fred Upham to hide the scource of various campaign funds. The basis for this charge is the testimony that a secretary for Upham heard a conversation which his chief had with someone over the telephone and that he thought the party at the other end of the line was Marsh. Mr. Marsh indignantly denies the accusation.

So far so good. The Democratic chieftains seems to be still in the clear. But if the Republicans hunt long enough they may yet find a fellow like George Brennan who took some of Sam Insull's graft, not that he need ed it but to give it to his friends.

There is just one flaw in Club work for this year in this county.

It was explained to him the way that it had been carried on for the last three years.

The plan has only been a makeshift one and we were advised by him to put it on a bisis as recommended by the university and organize it on the 4H club plan so that all members that followed instructions and requirements could receive their proper credits the thing on Mr. Conklin and if he is same as the members of the calf really serious about his assertion and pig clubs.

The members of the County Association are perfectly willing to do their part in this good work if the members of the club and their parents will do as they agree to do when they sign their contract. But if it is started again, the parents of the children who fail to report to the association or to show their birds at the annual show will be required to pay the price agreed on for the eggs. This is urged by Mr. Gates as he says the child would never make the effort if they knew that they were not going to show their birds or to pay for the eggs.

Under the new plan the member will be furnished a record book and will be required to keep it and when the year is finished to turn it in as it will be graded and help to make the total credits for man and while here successfully the project.
