THE SULLIVAN PROGRESS

The Progress Strives always to enlarge Sullivan's trade area

WILL THE DRIVE SUCCEED?

Friday's Work Brought Good Results. If All Who Are Holding Back on Their Quotas Would Sign, Success Would be in Sight

Farmers and Neighboring Towns Can Help Themselves by Assisting

A Number of Farmers Have Already Voluntarily Pledged. Some Non-Resident Pledges Also Received. See the Farmers and Non-Resident Honor Roll in This Issue. Red Mark on Thermometer at Headquarters Keeps Going Up Slowly. $100,000 Mark May Soon be Reached.

It will take a strenuous effort if success is to crown the effort to get a Brown Shoe Factory for Sullivan.

Friday's work yielded encouraging results. The total up to 12 o'clock noon today was as stated above. The number of subscribers had reached 597.

But a very substantial sum is still to be raised. Can it be done? The committees in charge think that it can, but it will require all the support that it is possible to get.

The city has been working hard. The people are responding. We have not as yet gone outside the city to ask for help. We now know that we must do so.

This is not really a city proposition, but rather a community proposition. The farmers and people of neighboring cities will benefit through the building of a factory here.

It stands to reason that if a factory is built here that will employ in a few years 500 to 700 people, that among such employes will be many from our neighboring towns. Mr. McCarthy has always expressed doubt that Sullivan can grow fast enough to assure a sufficient labor supply for the factory. He says that the factory may develop faster than labor is forthcoming. He has been assured that there will be plenty of labor available. In making this assurance we have had in mind the supply that will come from the neighboring towns.

For this reason it is to the interest of these towns to also get into this drive and help to their utmost to insure jobs for their people. The hard roads now here and to be built in the near future will place these towns within a few minutes driving distance from Sullivan. That will make it easy and convenient for the wage earners to come here for employment and still retain their present place of residence.

Appeal to Farmers

On this page appears an honor roll of farmers. These people have not been asked to subscribe any certain quota. They have not been solicited. They have come in voluntarily and have made very liberal pledges.

One farmer has placed the matter in this way:

"Sullivan has always treated us farmers in a very nice way. The business men have always been ready to make donations to any farmers' project that has been brought up. They have helped to finance our picnics, our shows and in fact have never held back on anything that we have asked of them. Usually they have not even asked us farmers to do the soliciting but have done that themselves and turned the money over to us.

"These merchants have financed the band concerts and other community affairs in which our people have participated and which have been a pleasant feature of our community life.

"Now Sullivan needs the help of the farmers, if it is to put this drive over the top. We farmers have not yet been asked to help. We have been told that no quota cards have been prepared for us. Sullivan has first of all tried to do all that it possibly could in this drive right among its own people.

"We farmers are beginning to realize that the proposed factory will furnish labor to our sons and daughters when they reach that age where they want to strike out for themselves. They will not have to go to distant cities to find employment. It will be right here close to home. The family will not be scattered all over the country in search for employment. So in helping Sullivan we are really doing something to help our selves and our neighbors."

The committees in charge of the drive are planning to make a canvass of the farmers the early part of next week. No quotas will be presented. Each farmer will be asked to give what in his opinion he thinks is his own fair share of this fund.

One of the vice chairmen of the executive committee stated Saturday morning:

"We are not letting up on our pledge drive here in Sullivan. We are still trying to make some of the holdouts on the quota see that it is their civic duty to help in this matter. We are beginning to have a feeling of confidence that with what additional quota signers we can get in Sullivan, added to the non-resident signers, the people in the neighboring towns of our community and among our farmer friends, we will soon be able to telephone to Mr. McCarthy and ask him to come to Sullivan with his contracts, so that we can sign up and the preliminary steps in putting up the factory building can be taken."

There is always the prospect that Mr. McCarthy and the other officials of the Brown Shoe Company may decide that Sullivan has had all of the time in this drive that it can reasonably expect and that if success is too far distant to make of it a certainty, the plea of other cities which want the factory will have to be given due consideration. The Brown Shoe Company is anxious to start work on this new factory, as the demand of shoes is far exceeding its present ability to supply.

On one of the pages of this edition you will find the names of all who had subscribed up to 12 o'clock today, Saturday, September 28, 1929. The names of the 100 per cent firms are also listed. Is your name on the list today. Look it over. Many names have been added since yesterday's Daily was issued.

FARMERS PLEDGE TO FACTORY FUND

The following farmers have voluntarily pledged very substantially to the Shoe Factory fund.

R. P. FRESH
EARL HORN
LESLIE HORN
W. J. PATTERSON
CLAYTON POLAND
CLYDE PATTERSON
MR. & MRS. DAN ROBINSON.

EMMETT FLEMING
LEHMAN BROS.

GRANDPA PLEDGES FOR HIS FIRST GRANDSON

Friday afternoon W. P. Stricklan walked into headquarters and asked for a pledge. "I want to get my first grandson in on this," he said as he filled in the pledge and signed it. The grandson who thus helps the factory fund is Walter William Stricklan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Stricklan of Decatur. He was born Sept. 11. "In years to come" said Mr. Stricklan "when this boy comes to Sullivan and sees our big factory I want him to be able to say 'I helped build that'."

SYLVIA FERN BOLIN HAS MADE HER PLEDGE

A shoe factory pledge was solicited Saturday morning from Sylvia Fern Bolin and through her father was readily granted. You may ask "Who is Sylvia Fern Bolin?" The answer is that she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bolin. She was born Friday and thus becomes the youngest subscriber to the shoe factory fund.

THE CHILDREN ARE STEPPING UP AND DOING THEIR SHARE

Of course none of the little folks in this city have been solicited for funds in the shoe factory drive, but so interested are they to see it succeed that they have been eager to do their bit.

Betty Foster opened her Christmas Savings bank Friday and found 52 pennies in it. She decided to give it to the factory fund. Her brother Richard, not to be outdone, also did his bit. James, Jack and Joseph McLaughlin were among the first subscribers and Harris Wood and Hugh I. Grote have also come across. Mildred Chapin a high school student who won one of the theme prizes, indorsed her check and handed it back, as her factory investment.

Some of the youngsters take great delight in ringing the bell in front of headquarters to tell the world that another pledge has been placed on record.

OWNER OF WADLEY BUILDING PLEDGES

Among the non-resident property owners of Sullivan is L. A. Sales of Fisher, Ill. He was sent a quota card with a request that he pledge the amount thereon. Mr. Sales thought this matter too important for handling by mail and in company with Mrs. Sales drove to this city Friday and gave a check for the amount asked of him. He is the owner of the brick building occupied by the Wadley Company.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFER

John L. Guingrich of Hoopston is the new owner of the building known as the Tabor Garage. Title was transferred to him by warranty deed from C. E. LaMotte.

MOTHER'S PENSION

In the county court a mother's pension has been granted to Mrs. Hilda Harden to assist her in supporting her three children. Her husband Frank E. Harden died several weeks ago.

NON-RESIDENT SHOE FACTORY HONOR LIST

Contributions had been received up to the noon hour Thursday from the following non-residents of this city:

W. I. McMULLIN LEASES CORBIN RESIDENCE

A deal was closed Friday whereby W. I. McMullin of Lovington bought the undertaking business and equipment of C. A. Corbin. Mr. McMullin leased the Corbin residence property on West Jackson street for a period of years and is going to remodel it into a modern funeral home. All improvements on the property will be made by Mr. McMullin.

The upper story of the dwelling will be retained for residence purposes and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McMullin will live there and he will be in charge of the local business. They now have an undertaking and furniture business in Lovington. W. I. McMullin will retain his residence there and manage that business.

Mr. Corbin retains the furniture business and the uptown store. The Corbin family will move into the Swisher residence property in the south part of the city. They expect to vacate their present residence so Mr. McMullin can take possession October 1st. The Corbin Furniture and Undertaking business is the oldest business in Sullivan. It was started here in 1851 by William P. Corbin and he retained an interest until his death several years ago. When he first opened for business here he manufactured the caskets used in the business.

The business has since that time from its present location on the south side of the square, where Mr. Corbin will continue in the furniture line.

Leonard McMullin is well known in this city. He served a time been conducted from present location on south side of square,

ROBBERS AT WORK

The Jim Morrison store at Dalton City was entered some time Wednesday night and the thief stole a complete outfit of clothing, cigarettes, etc.

On the same night some one entered the office of Dr. Scaggs in Lovington and stole a bundle of papers out of the safe and took all of the supply of morphine which the doctor had for medical purposes. The papers were later found.

This represents the total pledged up to 2 o'clock today. The latest 100 per cent business firm reported before closing forms was the National Inn.

Subscription reported after 12 o'clock, in addition to amount then in, totalled $2,910, bringing the total up to $96,199.42.

Those whose subscriptions were recorded after 12 o'clock were J. B. Martin, L. C. Loveless, Harry Foster, Dewey Dow, Walter William Stricklan, Presbyterian S.

C., Bridge Luncheon Club, Anonymous (2) Mrs. M. J. Miller, Roman Harshman, Robert Carter, Ralph Blystone, Donald VanHook, W. T. Pierson.

High School teachers—Leona Dundas, Clayton Taylor, Waverly Ashbrook, Ida Wilson, Iinis Matthew, Wilma Delassus, Clara B. Whitfield, Clark E. Dennis, Ruth Emel, Ruth Campbell and Irene Dixon. Those of the teaching staff whose pledges were received earlier appear in list on page 3.

Editorial

Ring the bell boys, here's another pledge.

And the old court house bell, which many years ago, was used to ring out the fire alarms, swings on its pivot and the clapper bangs out the news that another quota has been signed.

The shoe factory headquarters on the southwest corner of the square is the busiest place in Sullivan. It is open early in the morning and late at night. A big crowd of workers is continually on hand. Some are coming in to report and others are bringing in parties who want to sign up. Others rush in and hand Purvis Tabor, the secretary in charge, a signed quota blank and then the bell rings.

The old court house bell is the cash register bell in this drive. When it rings, it is an indication that the total subscribed have gone up another notch.

Close tab is kept on all of the signed pledges as they come in. The pledge goes to the secretary and the attached note to the treasurer.

Among the most encouraging features of this drive is the fact that so many have come in voluntarily and signed up. Farmers have done so, laboring men have done so. Now and then some wage earner comes in and asks why he has not been asked for his share. If the quota blank is in some worker's possession, a new one is made out for the same amount, as appears on the card file and the party signs up and walks out proudly wearing his white ribbon which has on it the words: "I have Signed—Have You???"

Travelling men are dropping in to see how things are moving along. Several very substantial contributions have come in from out of town wholesalers. Several travelling men have gone down in their pockets and pledged.

The spirit at headquarters seems to be "This must not fail." When workers get discouraged and need new inspiration they come to headquarters, where after a few minutes consultation with others, they pep up and start out anew.

Farmers are inquiring "When are you coming to see us and what will our quota be?"

Among the subscriptions Friday morning was one from Miss Mildred McClure, a teacher in the Evanston, Illinois schools. It was very substantial.

THE OLDEST AND THE YOUNGEST HAVE PLEDGED THEIR SHARE

This factory drive knows no age limit. It has often been stated that all must do their share and they are coming across loyally. A few days ago Daddy Bell, past 93 signed up his quota. Saturday morning Mrs. Martha Jane Miller, past 97, who makes her home at the Dave Cummins residence made her pledge. That takes in the older folks. But the young people are also represented and their representative today is Sylvia Fern Bolin, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bolin of Jonathan Creek township. Through consent of her father her pledge was recorded before she was 24 hours of age.

EXPRESS COMPANY CHANGES MIND

A report reached this city Saturday morning that the uptown Express office was going to be discontinued because of lack of business and that the express business would henceforth be handled from the depots.

Secretary Purvis Tabor called the divisional headquarters at Terre Haute immediately and told Superintendent Hines of what Sullivan was engaged in doing. He received assurance that if the drive is put over the order closing the uptown office will be recalled.

The question of the day is "How's the drive coming along? How much have they now?"

And just about that time the old bell rings again. But she will have to ring many times more before the total amount is pledged. There is a long, hard battle still ahead.
