

A goal to Shoot at 5000
for Sullivan by 1940

THE SULLIVAN PROGRESS

A goal to Shoot at 5000
for Sullivan by 1940

ED C. BRANDENBURGER, PUBLISHER

SULLIVAN, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1930

74TH. YEAR NO. 46

STATE WILL MAKE SURVEY OF ROUTE 133

Efforts of Moultrie Boosters for Road from Arthur to Lovington Meet With Success. Rumor says Work Will Start in Two Weeks.

The Progress has learned from an authoritative source that a survey of the Arthur to Lovington section of route 133 may be made in the very near future. Weather permitting, work on the survey may be started within the next two weeks.

This is one of the road building projects that The Progress has been pushing for inclusion in the 1931 road building program. Prospects now look very bright that by this time next year a concrete slab will connect Arthur and Lovington and thus give the people of Lowe township a hard road connection with Sullivan.

The following letter of thanks and commendation was received this week, relative to an editorial on next year's road program that appeared in The Progress of November 7th:

"STATE BANK OF ARTHUR
Arthur, Ill.
November 7, 1930.

"Mr. Ed C. Brandenburg,
Sullivan, Ill.
Dear Sir:

"The Officers and Directors of this bank want to extend our thanks to you for your good editorial on the 'Two Roads that Moultrie County wants built in 1931'.

"If all influential citizens will take your advice and go after this we can accomplish the building of Route 132 and 133 next year.

"Keep the good work up we are with you.

"Yours very truly,
J. D. Eads, President."

MASONIC HOME FOLKS TO BE GUESTS AT GRAND THEATRE SAT.

Manager Everett Hayes of the Grand Theatre has extended an invitation to all of the members of the Illinois Masonic Home to be his guests at a matinee at the Grand Theatre Saturday afternoon.

An excellent feature program has been provided for the occasion. The big Masonic Home bus will not be able to transfer all of the members here for the show, so local Masons have volunteered their cars and will assist in looking after the transportation.

OLAF MCINTIRE ANXIOUS TO CARE FOR YOUR CAR

Olaf McIntire now owns and operates the biggest auto storage garage in this city. A deal was closed the latter part of last week whereby he came into possession of the big garage on north main street which John A. Davis has conducted from some weeks and prior to that it was known as the Jenkins garage.

Mr. McIntire is an experienced garage man and knows what service people expect. Such service he is anxious to give. His adv. in this issue gives information which motorists may be interested in.

COMMITTEES NAMED FOR MEN'S S. S. MEETING

President Albert Walker of the Men's Bible class of the Christian church Sunday morning named the following committees to prepare for the Association meeting to be held here on the night of Monday, November 24th:

Program—Rev. C. E. Barnett, C. R. Patterson, Loren Brumfield and Ed Brandenburg.
Refreshments—Tobias Rhodes, Howard Wood and G. R. Fleming.

ARMORY BASKETBALL SEASON TO OPEN SOON

The Armory will have a strong basketball team this year and offers for games are already being received from neighboring Indiana teams. The Witt-Decatur Speed Boys may be here to open the season. These boys won the Indiana championship last year when they played the title of Moran's.

CLIFFORD WILLIAMS ILL.

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Bushart were called to Chicago Saturday by the serious illness of their son-in-law Clifford Williams.

Mr. Williams took ill Friday with an attack of appendicitis and was operated on Saturday afternoon at the Chicago Osteopathic hospital. Mrs. Williams was formerly Miss Etha Bushart of this city.

OTIS DONOVAN AND THELMA COURTRIGHT MARRIED SUNDAY

Otis Donovan and Thelma Courtright, well known young couple of this city went to Shelbyville Sunday and were united in marriage by County Judge Kelley. They have returned to this city and taken rooms in the Charles Loveless home.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Courtright. The groom is a barber employed in the Yates tonsorial parlors on Harrison street.

MOULTRIE TEACHERS TO BANQUET HERE ON MONDAY NITE, NOV. 24

The annual banquet of the Moultrie County Teachers' Association will take place Monday evening November 24th at 6:30 o'clock at the Sullivan township high school.

The toastmaster will be H. I. Metter, principal of the Bethany high school.

Teachers who have failed to return cards, but desire to come are urged to call Miss Helen Keyes, the secretary.

The present officers of the association are: Loren Brumfield, president; H. I. Metter, vice president; Helen Keyes, secretary; Joseph Lucas, Elizabeth Gifford, Mabel Roney, Marie Hoke, Orville Powell and Miss Rowe, executive committee.

The banquet program is as follows:

Orchestra
Dinner
Short talks: Joseph Lucas; J. A. Alexander; R. A. Scheer; Mrs. Nettie Roughton, Albert Walker.

Acrobatic dance—Emadee Gregory, Lovington.

Song—Miss Vivian Clark.

Selections—Imperial quartet.

Election of officers for the year.

Games and social hour.

Farewell songs.

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE CLUB HAD ANNUAL FAMILY PARTY FRI.

The Sullivan Household Science club held its annual family party Friday night in the I. O. O. F. hall. One hundred and fifty were present for the pot-luck supper at 6:30 and fully 200 were in attendance for the program which started at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Susie Anderson announced the 5 nights of Chautauqua program which was the form of entertainment.

The first night was a Chautauqua Concert Company with wartime songs and readings under direction of Mrs. Jessie Wood.

Second—Group of Living Pictures—Mrs. Leone Miller.

Third—"Jimmie" play company under direction of Mrs. Lela Bupp.

Fourth—Farmers' night in charge of Mrs. Minnie Rhodes.

Fifth—Cooonville Jubilee singers directed by Mrs. Coral Hughes and Mrs. Leona Stone.

Every one had a good time and announced the entertainment very good.

JUDGE MEETS JUDGE DURING COURT SESSION

"Judge Wamsley, let me present to you the new County Judge" said O. F. Cochran, Monday morning, making formal presentation of Col. Jennings to the presiding officer of the Moultrie County Circuit court.

It was a very nice gesture of good will, as Judge Jennings had but lately defeated Mr. Cochran for the office of judge.

FOUR APPLICANTS FOR HIGHER CERTIFICATES

In the teachers examination held last week in the office of County superintendent of Schools, Mrs. Nettie L. Roughton, only four appeared to write. These were teachers who are trying to get supervisory or high school certificates.

DEEDS PROPERTY TO SON

Mrs. Belle Martin has by warranty deed conveyed to her son J. Kenneth Martin the property described as the east half of block 14 of Elizabeth Titus addition to Sullivan. The consideration was $1,000. The property is at present occupied by the Tom Pierson family.

MARQUETTE HOME-COMING

Purvis Tabor returned home on Sunday evening from Milwaukee where he had gone to attend the home-coming at Marquette University. A feature of festivities was a football game with Iowa U. which Marquette won 7 to 0.

Chairman Purvis Selects Aids For Membership Drive

Organization to Handle Sullivan's Red Cross Membership Drive Perfected Thursday Night. Drive to Take Place Next Week.

Sullivan's Red Cross Roll-call drive will be staged some day next week. At a meeting of the work-week Thursday night, exact date will be decided on and the roll call organization will be completed.

The chairman of the roll call this year is Francis Purvis. For the purposes of membership solicitation he has divided the city into four sections, Harrison street and Main streets being the dividing lines.

Each section has a chairman as follows: Northeast—Mrs. R. A. Scheer; Southeast Mrs. Elmer McIlwain; northwest, Mrs. E. A. McKenzie and southwest Miss Cora Gauger. Each chairman was asked to bring two lieutenants with her to Thursday night's meeting. The captains and lieutenants are to select their workers and see that a thorough solicitation is made for memberships in this community. Other chairman named for special work are: Ed Russell at the Shoe factory; Miss Leona Dundas at the High school and Miss Etha Lindsay at the grade schools.

The roll call chairman and chapter chairman expect to call on the officials of the various branches of the county later in the week and deliver to them supplies for their roll calls.

The Red Cross has done great things for this community and deserves hearty support. To belong to the Red Cross is a mark of merit.

HUNTZBERGERS BOUGHT LAND NEAR DALTON CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Huntzberger of Iowa have bought a tract of land near Dalton City from Mrs. Jennie A. Shuey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tipword and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mitchell. The tract borders on the new hard road and contains 19½ acres less the 2.86 acres that were taken for road right of way. The consideration is $5250.

The Huntzbergers are former Sullivan residents but left here many years ago to make their home in Iowa. For some weeks now they have been looking for a suitable location for a home in Moultrie County.

GRAND JURY INDICTS SEVEN WEDNESDAY

The grand jury, recalled by Judge Wamsley's order Monday, met Wednesday. After considering the evidence brought before it, it returned indictments against seven and was dismissed in the afternoon.

Samuel Grant Kesterson and William Gray were indicted for murder.

Claude Nihiser and Everett Hicks were indicted for forgery.

A corrected indictment charging burglary and larceny was returned against Fred Cogdal, George Harchous and Carl Blue, accused of having stolen chickens.

DECATUR FOLKS MUST OBEY THE STATE LAWS

Officer Hochstetler of the state police, arrested James C. Patton of Decatur Wednesday for paying no heed to the stop sign on North Main street where that street intersects Jackson street (Route 132). The offender was taken into the court of Judge Charles S. Edwards where on his plea of guilty he was assessed a fine of $10 and costs.

If all people had the same idea about these "Stop" signs that Officer Hochstetler has, there would be no need for arrests. He contends that "Stop" on a sign actually and truly means just what it says.

JUDGE W. G. COCHRAN WAS 86 ON THURSDAY

Judge W. G. Cochran observed his 86th birthday anniversary on Thursday. The judge has been in failing health for some time but is able to get up town once in a while.

JIM FARLOW TO BE TRIED

A writ of habeas corpus was directed out of the Circuit Clerk's office this week, directing the superintendent of the Illinois State Reformatory at Pontiac to turn over to Moultrie county officials Glen Welton, who is confined there and who is wanted here in the trial of Jim Farlow on a burglary charge.

Y. Y. Club Calender

President—Addie Patterson.
V. President—Cora McPheeters
Sec.—Lucille Foster.
Guide—Lewis Gauger.
The Y. Y. sorority met with Mrs. Fannie Harmon on Friday, Nov. 7.

The calendar for the year is as follows:
Helen Lawson—Nov. 21.
Elizabeth Shirey—Dec. 5.
Lillian Bryant—Dec. 19.
Nina Ashworth—Jan. 16.
Carrie McCauley—Feb. 6.
Eunice Worsham—Feb. 20.
Grace Richardson—March 6.
Lucille Foster—March 20.
Maude Conklin—April 3.
Open date—April 17.
Myrtle Bacon—May 15.
Winnie Sentel—May 29.

ALMA REYNOLDS DIED SATURDAY; BURIED SUNDAY

Mrs. Alma Reynolds, wife of James Reynolds died Saturday after a long illness, caused by diabetes. Death called her at her home northwest of this city.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the French chapel and burial was in the cemetery adjoining.

She was a daughter of D. L. Maxedon and was born in East Nelson township February 8, 1911. On May 18, 1929 she was united in marriage with James Reynolds who survives her with one infant daughter Twila Jeanne.

She also leaves her father, one sister Mrs. Opal Martin of Omak, Washington and four brothers, Emery, Herman, Fred and Harrison Maxedon.

son Maxedon. Her mother and one sister Icel Irene Hudson preceded her in death.

She became a member of the Whitfield church several years ago.

CHICKEN STEALING CASE BEING HEARD BY JURY

Fred Cogdal, George Harchous and Carl Blue are on trial before a jury in the Circuit Court on an indictment charging them with having stolen chickens one night last summer from the home of Howard Hillgoss in Whitley township. The State Attorney is being assisted in the prosecution by C. R. Patterson. Attorney Francis Purvis was named by the court to defend Harchous and his services have been retained by Cogdal and Blue.

Witnesses who will be heard for the prosecution are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hillgoss, Grover Garrett, Ollie Baugher, Charles and Halac Lansden, Howard Williamson, Charles Getz and Fred Maxedon.

Legion Auxiliary District Convention Meets Here Monday

Many Delegates Expected From the Counties Which Constitute this Congressional District.

Many delegates are expected here Monday to attend the Nineteenth district meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The meeting will start at 10 o'clock in the morning in the M. E. church. Lunch will be served in the basement of the church at the noon hour.

The official program for the meeting is as follows:

Pledge of Allegiance.
"America."
Prayer—Sullivan Chaplain.
Reading of Preamble.
Address of Welcome—President of Sullivan unit.

Response.
Call to order.

School of Instruction.

Roll Call.

Reading of Minutes.

Treasurer's Report.

Bills and Claims.

Luncheon Program—Musical number, Speaker, Solo.

Call to order.

Introduction of Officers.

Unit Reports.

Reading of by-laws and revisions.

Reports of District officers.

Unfinished business.

New Business.

Closing ceremony.

FINISHED RURAL JOB

Mrs. Clyde Harris, county welfare officer has finished her work of weighing and measuring the children of the rural schools. She is now making her plans for the annual T. B. Christmas Seal campaign. Her supply of seals are already on hand.

Many Cases Heard In Short Session Of Circuit Court

Grand Jury Recalled; Verdict Against Bank; Thieves Plead Guilty; Two Sentenced; Howell Cited for Contempt of Court.

Circuit court was in session here two and one half hours Monday morning. Recess was then taken until Wednesday. The petit jurors who had reported for duty were not needed. They were paid and dismissed till further notice.

At Monday's session Judge Wamsley acceded to the petition of States Attorney Foster for the recall of the September grand jury to pass on the cases of Samuel Kesterson and William Gray, both charged with murder and on any other cases that may be brought to their attention. The jury met Wednesday.

Verdict Favors Roberts

The suit of the State Bank of Arthur against A. C. Roberts to collect a note and interest on which Mr. Roberts name appeared as surety for his son F. L. Roberts and wife, was decided in favor of Mr. Roberts in a verdict which the jury returned several weeks ago and which has since been in the custody of the sheriff. Attorney J. E. Jennings for the bank, made a motion for a new trial.

Tuttles Plead Guilty

Homer Tuttle 23 and his brother Benjamin Tuttle 18, who were turned over to Moultrie officials by Macon county officials some time ago, to answer charges of having robbed the James Morrison store in Dalton City on July 7th, both entered pleas of guilty and asked for probation. The cases were referred to Sheriff Lansden

(Con. on Page 5; Col. 2)

TWO YOUNG MEN WERE ARRESTED IN DECATUR CHARGED WITH FORGERY

Everett Hicks and Claude Nihiser of the northwestern part of this county were arrested Sunday in Decatur on orders from Sheriff Lansden of this city. The Sheriff later went to Decatur and got the two young men who are accused of having forged the name of C. H. Grace of Dalton City to a check for $18.65. They passed the check on LeRoy Trulock. Dalton city merchant and then went to Decatur where they spent the proceeds in buying clothes.

The facts in this case were brought to the attention of the grand jury at Wednesday's session.

TRIANGLE GIRLS PRESENT AT MISSIONARY MEETING

The Belle Hopper Missionary circle met at the home of Etha Lindsay Monday evening at 7:30 in Lovington. The Triangle Girls being guests. Twenty-four members and 14 guests were present. A short business session was held by the circle. The meeting was then turned over to the Triangle girls with the following program with Charlotte Baker, leader.

Song, "America, the Beautiful"
Lesson Theme—"Sharing Life with others."

Devotional—Jennie Seitz.

Song—"America."

Prayer—Mrs. Eva Hill.

Talk, "Here's where we share in lands afar. Irene Myers.

Quartet—Mary E. Lewis, Charlotte Baker, Beatrice Hill, Letha Bushart.

Talk, "The Hi Tris and World Service"—Norma Gene Clark.

Piano Duet—Bernice Fultz and Dorothy Brumfield.

Paper, "Figure it out for yourself." Mae Bathe.

Benediction.

DOING PRELIMINARY PROBATE COURT WORK

In order to familiarize himself with all unsettled cases now in the county court, Judge-elect J. E. Jennings had a list of them made this week by his son Benjamin Jennings. The newly elected Judge takes office December 1st.

HUNTERS BUSY

The quail season opened Monday and many hunters were out beating the brush for the birds. Farmers are making complaint as usual that the hunters are entirely too careless with their shooting and that many of them trespass on fields where they are not wanted.

SETTLED OUT OF COURT

George Elder recently swore out a replevin writ in the court of Judge Edwards to get a dog which was in possession of Clayton Poland. The case was set for a hearing Wednesday but was settled out of court and dismissed.

MRS. ELIZ. LEFFLER NATIVE OF ENGLAND DIED AT ALLENVILLE

Mrs. Elizabeth Leffler died at her home in Allenville Sunday morning after an illness of two weeks.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon by Rev. G. R. Ridgway.

She was a native of England, having been born in Yorkshire, April 12, 1846. She came to this country in her youth. Much of her early life was passed in St. Louis and Collinville. Her husband Elmer Leffler died in 1921. She leaves a brother and nephew in England.

NEW OFFICIALS ANNOUNCE SELECTION OF THEIR DEPUTIES

The new Moultrie county officials elected last week take office on the first of December, with the exception of Albert Walker, superintendent of schools who does not take office until the 1st of next August.

County Clerk elect, Paul L. Chippis has announced that his temporary deputies will be Cash W. Green and Miss Mary McIntire. Mr. Green served as county clerk twelve years before Mr. Martin took the office. Miss McIntire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McIntire is an experienced stenographer and clerk and has been employed at the Masonic Home in a secretarial capacity.

Treasurer Orman Newbould has offered the deputy place in his office to Clark Lowe and he has accepted it. Mr. Lowe is a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lowe and last year graduated from Illinois College at Jacksonville. Since graduation, he has been assisting his father on the farm.

County Judge Jennings has no deputy to appoint, nor is there a deputy in the office of county superintendent of schools.

As announced prior to election Halac Lansden who was elected sheriff will retain his father Chas. Lansden as his deputy and this office will continue to be conducted as during the past four years.

REEDER ART STUDIO ATTRACTING THOSE WHO LOVE THINGS OF BEAUTY

Mrs. J. A. Reeder is meeting with signal success in her newly opened Art Studio on the second floor of the M & F bank building. Many pupils have already enrolled and interest is growing daily.

She has discontinued her out of town work to devote her entire time to the studio work and instruction.

Teachers from Villa Grove, Monticello, Lovington and other nearby cities come here for art instruction. Beautiful samples of work are on display in the studio.

Especially interest is being manifested in the revived art of tapestry painting. Modelling in wax and other materials is proving a great delight to local ladies and girls who have taken up this work.

Many pieces of finished work and work in the making are on display in the studio.

The work Mrs. Reeder is doing will add a greater conception to what is beautiful in life to those who take her course. Art is not a passing fad but one of the great cultural developments in education.

Not only are grownups manifesting great interest in Mrs. Reeder's studio but classes of children are also being organized.

Mrs. Reeder has spent many years in preparing herself for doing and teaching art work and some of her productions have won recognition.

SHERIFF-ELECT HAS FILED $10,000 BOND

Halac Lansden, sheriff-elect has filed his bond in the sum of $10,000 and it has been approved by County Judge Grider. The sureties on the bond besides the sheriff, are Chester Horn, Henry Jenne and Charles R. Carlyle.

HIGH SCHOOL CONFERENCE AT URBANA NEXT WEEK

The high school in Moultrie county will be closed on Thursday and Friday of next week to give the teachers a chance to attend the annual High-School conference at Urbana.

MOVED TO ARTHUR

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dixon who have been farming on the Dixon farm northeast of this city have sold out to Keith Riley and this week moved to Arthur.

CORN HUSKER FATALLY SHOT BY WM. GRAY

Quarrel in Lee Elder's Field Friday Results in Cold-Blooded Murder. Kentucky Youth Remains Near Scene of Crime, Awaiting Sheriff.

Perry Calvin Harris of Mattoon is dead. His murderer, William Gray is in the Moultrie County jail.

The murder occurred Friday afternoon about 4 o'clock in a cornfield on the farm of Lee Elder, 7 miles northwest of Sullivan.

Gray did not attempt to escape. When Sheriff Lansden and Dr. Lawson arrived on the scene in response to a telephone call from Mr. Elder, the killer sat in a Ford car. He had the 25 Colt automatic with which he killed Harris in his pocket. The sheriff took it.

A quarrel about "leaning corn" brought on the tragedy. The men had quarrelled the day before, but the differences were not considered serious and other workers paid but little attention to them.

In the field at the time of the killing were four corn huskers, each having a wagon and team. Besides Gray and Harris, the other huskers were Lee Elder, whose corn was being husked and Millard Lee of Allenville.

Fusillade of Bullets
Testimony introduced at the inquest held by Coroner Robinson Saturday afternoon showed that

(Continued on page 5, Col. 1)

LOCAL SPECIALIST ADDS TO THEATRE'S COMFORT FEATURES

You folks remember Chick Sale's Specialist and the work he was so well qualified to do in an artistic and useful manner.

The Sullivan Progress

Established 1856

ED C. BRANDENBURGER, Editor and Prop.

Office: 1422 W. Harrison St. Phones: Office 128; Res. 411

Subscription Rate, $1.50 Per Year
Advertising Rates on Application.Published Every Friday at Sullivan, Illinois
Entered as Second-Class matter at the Post Office, Sullivan, Illinois, under Act of Congress of March 8, 1879.

SEE SULLIVAN SUCCEED

Editorial

O, give thanks unto the Lord; call upon his name; make known his deeds among the people.

Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him; talk ye of all his wondrous works.

Glory ye in his holy name; let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord.

The first 3 verses of the 105th Psalm

Keep your minds so filled with Truth and Love that sin, disease and death can not enter them. It is plain that nothing can be added to the mind already full. There is no door through which evil can enter, and no space for evil in a mind filled with goodness. Good thoughts are an impervious armor; clad therewith you are completely shielded from the attacks of error of every sort.

The self-seeking pride of the evil-thinker injures him when he would harm others. Goodness involuntarily resists evil. The evil thinker is the proud talker and doer. The right thinker abides under the shadow of the Almighty. His thoughts can only reflect peace, good will towards man, health and holiness.

—Mary Baker Eddy.

LOOKING TOWARD 1932

A MAN NAMED BORCHERS

MAN IS A PECULIAR CREATURE

What of 1932? That is the tantalizing question that confronts politicians today?

Will the Democrats be able to hold their 1930 gains and add enough to make certain of electing a successor to President Hoover? Will the President seek re-election or will his party seek a stronger man?

In Illinois the Republican party looks aghast at the record-breaking majority given to James Hamilton Lewis in his race for the United States Senate. Did that immense majority mean a repudiation of the Republican party or merely of its candidate?

In this state the governorship will be the choice plum of 1932 for which battle will be done from here on.

All is not lovely in the ranks of the Republicans. The Len Small adherents who were given such an awful drubbing in the 1928 primary campaign, have never disbanded ranks. They are ready to stage a come-back. They will be led by ex-Governor Small, who may aspire to secure the Republican nomination for governor, or will designate who the candidate of his faction shall be. The pieces of the old Small machine were not relegated to the junk pile after the machine went on the rocks in 1928. The pieces were carefully salvaged and a Small machine is again ready to function.

The Small supporters feel that the Emmerson administration has been more or less of a fizzle. Lou Emmerson could not make good on his promises. Taxes have gone up instead of down and the payrollers have been on the increase. He made promises so numerous before his nomination, that it was impossible to fill more than a small percentage of them. Consequently there is a large element of disappointed politicians ready to leave the Emmerson clique as soon as they can see more promising fields ahead. Some will join up with the Small supporters. Others will seek a candidate of their own—presumably Oscar Carlstrom, the present attorney general. Carlstrom has a great ambition to be governor, and needless to say he will be in the 1932 race. The Len Small crowd does not want him and it doubtful whether he has much favor with the Emmerson machine, though he made possible the nomination of Emmerson by withdrawing from the governorship nomination race in the primary fight of 1928.

All of this means that there will be divided opposition to Len Small's machine next time and it stands a glorious chance of coming into domination of the Republican party in Illinois. If he does, it will be severely knifed in general election by the Emmersonites who are not ready by any means to relinquish control. Lou Emmerson may again be a candidate unless something better is within his grasp.

Now with such a situation confronting our Republican friends, what about the Democrats? They know that they can elect a governor provided they watch their step and keep out of silly wrangles and party dissensions. They cannot force an Anton Cermak on the people of the state as a candidate for governor and get by with it, no matter how popular Tony may be in Chicago. They must pick a candidate of the type of former Governor Dunne, if he is to come from Chicago, or they must pick some downstate man, who has shown ability as a leader. Floyd Thompson, after his experiences of two years ago might again be Democracy's choice. Judge Dieterich of Beardstown, the newly elected congressman-at-large would be well located geographically.

Let us hope that wisdom will guide our party leadership in this state. In the depression and demoralized condition of this country today, the people are looking toward Democracy's ranks for leadership and constructive statesmanship.

In one of Sunday's Decatur papers, Charles Borchers, late candidate on the Democratic ticket, breaks into print with great elation, due to his belief that his support of Herbert Hoover for the presidency in 1928 did not lose him many votes in the recent election.

He points especially to Shelby county where his candidacy was bitterly fought by T. B. Shoaff, veteran Democratic newspaper editor and loyal Democrat.

No newspaper or other organized fight was made on the Borchers candidacy in Moultrie county. At that he received about 800 less votes here than did James Hamilton Lewis.

While Lewis, as standard bearer for Democracy swept this congressional district by about 25,000, Borchers lost it by nearly 10,000.

Perhaps there has never been a candidate for Congress on the Democratic ticket in this district who was less popular with his party than Borchers. The organization of the party remembered that in 1928 he was fighting it. He asked but little of the organization in this campaign. He ignored the newspapers and they liberally reciprocated.

The very fact that he did get thousands of Democratic votes ought to shame him, instead of causing him to boast. It showed that Democrats were more loyal to their ticket, than he has been. Many Democrats who despised Mr. Borchers' Hooveristic tendencies and early in the campaign stated that they would vote against him, later relented. They did this not through any love of Mr. Borchers, but because of party loyalty and because the candidate on the other ticket was of about the same calibre in ability and statesmanship as the one on their own.

The election is over. We voted for Borchers. Nothing further would have been said about this matter except for the fact that this Hoovercrat now attempts to "rub it in" on good Democrats who stood loyally by their ticket and would not "scratch" though they had every good reason in the world for doing so.

Only man is filled with greed. He alone labors all his years to assemble properties for which he will sacrifice his health and his life.

It is a trick Nature plays on him.

The other animals, whatever the reason for their existence, are free of responsibility. Nature requires nothing of them. They are foot-loose.

The savage, living on Nature's bounty as the beasts do, is almost equally free; and his innocence of greed makes him worthless as a builder.

Civilization is a product of greed.

If man was content with a full stomach and a skin coat, he would pave no roads, print no books, build no cathedrals. He would not so much as prune the trees in a garden.

"We must use man to build a civilization on earth," said the gods, "and we can't persuade him to build it or care for it unless we afflict him with a kind of madness. We must cause him to covet property and treasure it."

Observe now how the madness functions.

Without other property than a single garment, a fish hook and a spear, man might satisfy his needs and have leisure to meditate and invite his soul. But the madness convinces him that he must have much property in order to be free.

"Get rich," says the madness, "and you shall walk with kings and govern the earth."

The man gets rich. By hook or crook he accumulates properties and rejoices in his good fortune.

"I am a success," says he. Alas! he is a dupe. He has been tricked. Nature has saddled him.

His properties—the materials necessary to the building of a civilization—have countless enemies. They are attacked by rust, by decay, by storms, by fire, by devouring insects, by thieves.

Man fights the enemies. He wouldn't do it if he were innocent of greed. He wouldn't care. But now he labors to defend his accumulations. He builds machines, learns the earth's secrets, teaches morality, makes society orderly, pushes civilization forward—all to protect his property and increase its value.

The property that was to make him free has enslaved him. He is a steward—a caretaker—wearing himself out to keep his trinkets dusted.

Poor slave! When death releases him, some other man will plow the field he now "owns"; some other slave will rub rust from the hinges of the temple door.

What a sorry trick to make us willing slaves while other animals are free to live unburdened.—Exchange.

Ten Years Ago In Sullivan

(From Progress Files)

Following the Republican landslide for Harding & Coolidge, the local Republicans had parades and ratification meetings and lots of fun at the expense of the defeated Democrats.

Democrats entertained the visitors at a party at the K. of P. hall.

The county welfare department was given an office in the court house with Miss Lou Phelps in charge.

Corn is down to 60c per bushel. Fields were wet and none of the grain had reached the elevators on November 12th.

Republicans had swept the country and had 307 congressmen to 127 for the Democrats. The Senate was 59 Republicans to 37 Democrats.

J. Dale Ellithorpe, local jeweler died suddenly.

Homer Wright and Mrs. Blanche Grigsby were married Sunday.

Supt. J. H. Smith of the Illinois

Masonic Home handed in his resignation.

Forty-nine Auto-Signal stockholders paid $308.40 each to make good a $6,000 note.

John McCarthy and Miss Susie Burnett were united in marriage by Rev. Hopper.

"Don't you patronize the hotel barber any more?"

"No. He's too absent-minded. Last time I went in for a shave he pinned a newspaper around my neck and handed me a towel to read."

Tomatoes, fresh, raw, or canned are a good source of Vitamins A. B. and C. Include them very frequently in your menus. Give tomato juice to young children and even to babies.

Cook County, Illinois, Forest Preserve of 33,000 acres constitutes almost one-third of the county park holdings in the United States.

Illinois was the first state of the Union to ratify the amendment extending the full right of suffrage to women.

The Way of Life

BY BRUCE BARTON

GOOD MORNING DOCTOR

On a day when I was working at my first job and was—needless to say—hard up, I developed a severe pain.

A stranger in New York, I had read in the newspapers the name of a diagnostician who was internationally famous. I went to his office, which was in his beautiful home, at eight o'clock in the morning. The waiting room was already full. There was a rich man who tugged impatiently at his watch. There was a haughty woman. And there were also half a dozen shabbily dressed folk, including a poor mother with a very sick baby.

Without favoritism, each was ushered into the consultation room in the order of his arrival.

Presently my turn came. I said to the doctor: "I can not afford to consult you, but my health is my entire business capital. Therefore, I feel that I simply must come to headquarters."

He gave me a careful examination, wrote a prescription, and told me that I would be all right again in a few days.

I pulled out my pocket book, which contained two weeks' salary. "How much are you earning?" he asked.

I told him $25 a week. "Well if you'll promise not to tell anybody," he answered, "I'll charge you five dollars."

In the intervening years I have become the father of three children, and my salary has been raised a couple of times. I have had occasion to employ several physicians and three different surgeons. Some of the bills have amounted to hundreds of dollars. But I have never received a bill that seemed to me unreasonable or even adequate, considering the importance of the service rendered.

I have known several doctors who married rich wives, and some who made money in real estate or the stock market. I have met a number who gained modest fortunes from their practice, but none who became really rich.

And the amount of free work done by even the biggest men in the profession has always been a marvel to me.

As an advertising man and a former sales manager, I feel that the health business is still too much of an old-fashioned one.

I should like to see dozens of big clinics in every city, each with its group of specialists. I should like to see them use newspaper advertising, and draw most of their revenues from the healthy rather than the seriously ill. I believe that if we Americans paid twice as much to good doctors every year it would be the best money we could possibly spend.

Some developments of this sort will come in the next generation. They are beginning already. Meanwhile, I feel a great sense of gratitude to the doctors. If my experience is typical, they are a swell group of men.

and besides I told him there was something that looked promising."

"I know," said the voice at the end of the wire, "but the kid got homesick. And besides, I think there's a girl out West. . ."

Burning Signatures

Joe Cook, the comedian and star of the current Broadway hit, "Fine and Dandy," has a piano at his Lake Hopatcong, N. J., home on which he makes every year burn his signature. The piano has 948 names on it. A few of them are Ring Lardner, Gilbert Seldes, Robert Benchley, Alexander Woolcott, Babe Ruth, Charles McArthur and Hudson Maxim.

For the foregoing information I am indebted to Miss Florence Marks of the Columbia Broadcasting System, over which Joe went on the air the other night. From the same source it is learned that Cook has on his estate a golf course with one hole so constructed that the player cannot fail to make a "hole in one."

—Which ought to go down in history as the greatest invention since the corkscrew.

NOTES TO COVER MARGINS ARE NOT COLLECTIBLE

On the last day of October session of the Supreme Court there was filed in the office of Charles W. Vail, the clerk, an opinion holding that notes intended as margins on futures were in reality gambling transactions, and that William McCabe who gave notes in the sum of $55,000 to cover dealings, was not liable under the law. The case came from Cook county where McCabe's contention was upheld. The Supreme Court sustained the judgment of the lower court.

FORMER GOVERNOR IS 90

Former Governor Joseph W. Fifer celebrated his ninetieth birthday October 29. He is a resident of Bloomington and was first elected to public office in 1880. His daughter, Mrs. Florence Fifer Bohrer, is a state senator, being the only lady in Illinois who has held that position.

MANY VISIT LINCOLN'S TOMB

Visitors at Lincoln's tomb during October numbered 4,080, Custodian H. W. Fay announces. This was only about half the number during October of last year, the loss being due to many people having gathered the impression that the tomb is closed during the repair work.

French pancakes are often served for dessert. Make a batter consisting of 2 eggs, 1½ cups of milk, 1 cup of flour, 1 teaspoon of sugar, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1 teaspoon baking powder and ¼ teaspoon salt. Bake on a hot griddle in rather large cakes. When done, spread each one at once with a mixture of butter and any preferred jelly, roll like jelly roll, and sprinkle with powdered sugar. Serve immediately.

Beets, turnips, and carrots will keep well if stored in boxes or barrels and covered with slightly moistened sand. Add a little water from time to time to keep the sand from drying out.

When Farmer Wheatley saw an ad in the paper: "For $5 we will tell you how to cure your horse of slobbering," he sent in the money. A few days later he received the information: "Teach him to spit."

Wahrheit und Dumheit

Clarence Ritchey says that the best campaigning done by any of the candidates in this county this fall, was Pete Chipp's home run in a ball game at Bruce. "That's what elected Pete" says Clarence.

College Lad: (whose father has just presented him with a racoon fur coat) "Say but this is nifty; and to think that it comes from some stinking, sneaking old animal."

The Father: "Listen son, I didn't expect you to thank me, but I want stand for being insulted like that."

Brushy Bend farmer (Using phone first time) "Send me a bushel of oats."

Feed dealer: "Who are they for?"

Brushy Bender: "Now don't get smart. They're for my horse of course."

Montie Blue and Shorty Donovan were walking slowly down the middle of the street. "Hey, you fellows, what are you doing out there?" a friend called to them.

"Why Cecil's car is out of gas and we're pushing it to the filling station to get some" said Montie.

"Cecil's car" why you fellows are not pushing any car?"

The two young men looked at each other in surprise. "Well, gosh dern if we didn't forget the car!"

The pastor: "Does your wife play bridge for prizes?"

Sullivan man: "No, but she plays with women who do."

The gossip—"I hear your store was robbed last night. Lose much?" The Optimist—"Some. But it would have been worse if the yeggs had got in the night before. You see, yesterday I just finished marking down everything 20 per cent."—Detroit News.

School Inspector to Pretty Teacher—"Do you teach observation?"

"Yes."

"Then I will take the class. Now children, shut your eyes and sit still."

Following this the inspector made a slow whistling sort of noise and followed with, "Now, children, what did I do?"

For some time there was no answer but ultimately one little boy piped out, "You kissed teacher."

"You remember when you cured my rheumatism a couple of years ago, Doc," asked the patient, "and you told me that I should avoid dampness?"

"Yes, that's right," replied the doctor, approvingly.

"Well, I've come to ask you if I may take a bath."

We note that a Chicago man murdered his wife because she was too extravagant. We hold this is going altogether too far. Not for a minutes would we indorse or countenance or approve such drastic methods, but we see no objection to every married man's reading this item aloud to his wife.—Pure Oil News.

A cowpuncher ordered a steak at a restaurant. The waiter brought it in rare—very rare. The puncher looked at it and demanded that it be returned to the kitchen and cooked.

"Tis cooked," snapped the waiter.

"Cooked," said our friend the puncher. "I've seen cows hurt worse than that get well."

"I hope that's a nice book for you to read, darling," said a conscientious mother to her very young daughter.

"Oh, yes, mummy, it's a lovely book but I don't think you would like it. It's so sad at the end."

"How is it sad, dear?"

"Well, she dies, and he has to go back to his wife."—Boston Transcript.

Immunization is the only known means of preventing hog cholera, according to Dr. U. G. Houck, hog cholera expert of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This preventative treatment is especially important when there is an outbreak of the disease in a community. In cases where the vitality of the hogs in a herd has been lowered by insufficient feeding, parasites, inclement weather, or subervient diseases, it may be advisable to give the serum alone to protect the animals temporarily and then give the virus-serum treatment after they have regained normal condition, says Doctor Houck. Hogs should be immunized at the first sign of hog cholera in a community.

Dumplings for stew or soup must be cooked tightly covered. Don't remove the top during the cooking to see if they are done or they will not be light. Boil 15 minutes and then serve.

Fifteen thousand people fly by airplane into and out of Chicago monthly.

OFFICIAL CANVASS SHOWS O'NEILL VOTE IN ALL PRECINCTS

"What has become of our votes for Lottie Holman O'Neill" several of the women voters have been asking rather indignantly. In some of the precincts as reported in the unofficial tabulation which appeared in The Progress last week, no votes were listed as having been cast for Mrs. O'Neill.

That tabulation was of course unofficial. It contained the votes as reported on election night and in many cases the judges made no report of the number of votes Mrs. O'Neill had received in their precincts. The official tabulation shows that she got votes in every precinct in Moultrie county, totaling 419.

Her vote by precincts was as follows:

Sullivan 1st 41; 2nd, 18; 3rd, 26; 4th, 1; 5th, 5.
Lovington 1st, 26; 2nd, 7; 3rd, 42.

Dora 1st, 12; 2nd, 18.
Marion 1st, 55; 2nd, 33.
Whitley 1st, 29; 2nd, 10.
East Nelson 1st, 19; 2nd, 7.
Lowe 1st, 22; second, 22.
Jonathan Creek 26.

The official canvass also shows that J. N. Foster had more votes in Lovington township than the unofficial returns gave him credit for. He had 536 to 233 cast for Halac Lansden. Mr. Foster's Lovington majority was 303 instead of 275 as at first reported.

George Koop the socialist candidate for U. S. senator received 5 votes in the county and the candidates on the ticket with him received 2 to 5 votes.

Louis Warner who was a senatorial candidate on the Peace and Prosperity ticket got 6 votes. Ernest Stout, senatorial candidate on the American National ticket got 3.

MRS. FRANK BEALS' FATHER DEAD IN RENWICK, IOWA

Frank Beals received a telegram early Monday morning announcing the death of his wife's father, W. B. Queary, which occurred at the home of the latter's son, Ed Queary, in Renwick, Iowa.

Mr. Queary was almost 87 years of age and had been in failing health for several months and his death was therefore not unexpected at any time.

Mr. and Mrs. Beals left Monday by automobile for Iowa, to attend the funeral.

The deceased was well known in this community, having lived here a number of years ago—Arthur Graphic.

—Mrs. R. C. Parks and daughter, Mrs. Ivan Myers are leaving Friday (today) for Houston, Texas. Mrs. Parks has been visiting relatives in and near this city since last Spring. Mrs. Myers expects to remain in Houston until after the Christmas holidays.

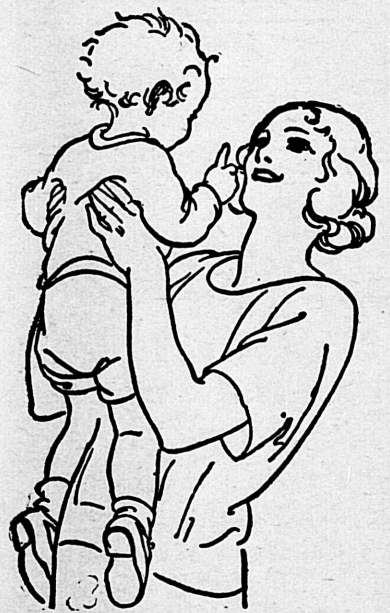

—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hogue, Mrs. Bliss Shuman and Miss Oma Baker drove to Kingston, Ohio on Monday on account of the death of an uncle J. S. Wood. They expect to return about Friday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hogue visited at the home of the latter's sister Mrs. Bliss Shuman in Champaign Sunday.

Mother!

Watch Child's Bowels

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

When your child is constipated, bilious, has colic, feverish-breath, coated-tongue, or diarrhea, a teaspoonful of genuine "California Fig Syrup" sweetens the stomach and promptly cleans the bowels of poisons, gases, bile, souring food and waste. Never cramps or overacts. Contains no narcotics or soothing drugs. Children love its delicious taste.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has full directions for babies and children of all ages, plainly printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

STARS FILM SUCCESS DUE TO TEAMWORK

Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, Radio Pictures' featured comedians have gained such a hold on the public during the last year that the studio is now being stormed by interviewers wanting to know, how, why, when and where.

It is useless to ask them the reasons for their success.

"Are we successful?" they inquire. "Gee! Tell us about it!"

It remained for Paul Sloane, who directed them in two of their greatest successes, "The Cuckoos" and "Half Shot at Sunrise" to tell "whether comedians are born funny or just intelligent enough to make people laugh." The latter production, an all-talking wartime comedy dealing with a couple of AWOL soldiers, opens Sunday at the Grand Theatre for two days.

Team Brought to Millions
"They had been successful," Sloane explained, "but too successful to be well known. Broadway loved them so much they were never allowed to leave. If it wasn't for 'Rio Rita' they would probably be on Broadway yet, their fun-making a secret to all but New Yorkers."

"When RKO made 'Rio Rita' they were brought to Hollywood. When the public saw the movie version of the famous stage operetta they began talking about the 'new' comedians. But it was just old stuff to them."

"And as to why they are successful, I believe it is because they are the most remarkable pair of performers in the business today. They work with absolute cooperation, and as long as I have known them, I have never seen them vie for laughs."

Teamwork Always Wins
"They know that comedy teams must strive to be funny together, not as individuals. Nor do they even discuss which one is to spring the final gag."

"They realize that each of them represents a type and they put on their comedy stunts like one would fit a shoe. Then they wear it, and that is that."

"Usually it works out that Woolsey is forever getting Wheeler into jams. Wheeler is a 'scream' when he is in a jam. Woolsey is the wise-cracker. Wheeler the butt."

LEE FUNERAL HELD SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for William Henry Lee, who died Wednesday of last week were held Saturday afternoon at the Church of Christ in this city and were in charge of Elder J. B. Brady. Interment was in Greenhill cemetery.

Mr. Lee was 65 years, ten months and 21 days of age at the time of death. He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Velorus Burks near Kirksville.

Mrs. Mollie Lee, his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dale O. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lee of Detroit were here for the funeral services.

1184 STATE BANKS

There are in Illinois at this time 1184 state banks, 167 in Chicago and 1,017 outside, according to Auditor of Public Accounts Oscar Nelson, ranging in capital structure from $50,000.00 to $150,000,000.00 and in deposit liability from $50,000.00 to almost $1,000,000.00 with resources of more than thirty-three hundred million dollars.

—Mr. and Mrs. Curt Weger and Misses Charity, Anne and Alice Chaney motored to Champaign Sunday where they attended the "Mum" show and also visited in the home of Mrs. Laura Robinson.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will Powell, and Miss Oma Baker visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Estate of John Shipp Deceased. The undersigned having been appointed Administratrix of the estate of John Shipp late of the County of Moultrie and the State of Illinois, deceased, hereby gives notice that she will appear before the County Court of Moultrie County at the Court House in Sullivan, at the January term on the first Monday in January next, at which time all persons having claims against said estate are notified and requested to attend for the purpose of having the same adjusted.

All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to the undersigned. Dated this 29th day of October A. D. 1930.

ROSA SHIPP Administratrix
J. L. McLaughlin, Attorney. 44-3

NEARLY KILLED BY GAS

—DRUGGIST SAVES HER
"Gas on my stomach was so bad it nearly killed me. My druggist told me about Adlerika. The gas is gone now and I feel fine."—Mrs. A. Adamek.

Simple glycerin, buckhorn, saline, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, helps GAS on stomach in 10 minutes! Most remedies act on lower bowel only, but Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing poisonous waste you never knew was there. Relieves constipation in 2 hours. It will surprise you. Sam B. Hall, druggist. —Adv.

FULLERS POINT

Dr. Carl Furness of Chicago spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Furness.

Misses Ava and Bessie Cannoy of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Cannoy and family, Mrs. Maude Knight of Mattoon spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cannoy and family.

Mrs. John Furness and daughter Mabel were visitors in Champaign Saturday.

Mrs. Lizzie Rightsell, Mrs. C. Carmine and daughter Evelyn called on Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Spang and family Sunday afternoon. Walter Crane and family of Jonathan Creek spent Sunday afternoon with his parents, Logan Crane and family.

Miss Helen Phillips and Grace Nash, students of the Teachers College at Charleston spent the week end with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Rominger called on their son Sylvan Rominger of Arthur Monday afternoon. Miss Ruth Cannoy was a visitor in Mattoon Tuesday.

Miss Opal Cannoy of Mattoon spent week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cannoy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Phillips were week end visitors in Chicago.

BETHANY

Boyd Queen and family of Decatur spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McGee.

Ed Marshall and family of Windsor spent Sunday here with Dallas Hampton and family.

C. R. Ward and family of Decatur spent Sunday here with relatives.

Will York and family of Decatur spent Sunday here with R. L. Lancaster and family. Mrs. Sarah Troutman returned home with them after spending several weeks here with her daughter Mrs. R. L. Lancaster and family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sharp of Mattoon, Mrs. Raymond Hatfield and Mrs. L. Hudson of Charleston spent the week end with Mrs. Sharp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mulholland.

Leo Milap of Clinton, Iowa arrived Friday night for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McGee.

Henry Dawson spent Saturday evening with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Dawson. He returned to Weldon to spend a few weeks.

Mrs. J. W. McGee left Sunday for Houston, Texas where she will visit her brother, E. W. Sickafus and wife and will attend the W. C. T. U. On her return home she will stop in Baton Rouge, La., to visit her sons Waldo and Henry McGee and families.

Mrs. Charles Leedy and daughter of Springfield are here visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Jennie Powers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ward of Greenup and I. W. Dunning and family of Terre Haute spent one night recently with C. K. Kellogg and family. Mrs. Ward remained to spend a few days.

EAST COUNTY LINE

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Watson of Arthur spent Monday night and Tuesday with John Watson and family.

Lee Daugherty and family visited Sunday with Virgil Daugherty and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harden of Oakland spent Sunday and Monday with A. J. Sexton.

J. J. Ryan and family visited with Joe Fleschner and family of Allenville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Conlin spent Sunday evening with Thomas Conlin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harmon visited Mrs. Scott Haney and daughter Hulda Tuesday.

Mrs. John Craig and Mrs. Lonnie Watkins spent Tuesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. George Harmon of Arthur.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Conlin have named their baby John Alfred.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Conlin and sons and Paul Conlin and family visited Sunday with Tom Conlin and family.

A. J. Sexton and Burgess Harden and family were in Decatur Saturday to see "Check and Double Check."

Mr. and Mrs. John Harmon visited Sunday with John Craig and family.

Miss Bertha Sexton spent Sunday in Mattoon with Harry Duke-man and family.

William Lilly and family visited Jesse Gilmer and family in Humboldt Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lawrence returned to the home of Rev. and Mrs. Leland Lawrence, in Sullivan Thursday to spend a few days. They have been at the home of their daughter in Clinton.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Loveless and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Chicago spent Tuesday evening in Kansas with Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Loveless.

6 6 6

is a doctor's Prescription for COLDS and HEADACHES
It is the most speedy remedy known.
666 ALSO IN TABLETS

SUCCESS IDEALS

Contributed By C. R. Wooldridge

Don't find fault, speak well of man and his business
When it comes to the shady side of life

Say nothing, mind your own business.

Saying the right thing at the right time

Is equivalent to keeping your mouth shut when you

Have nothing to say.

A man may have mastered his business and yet be its slave,

Think well over your important steps in life; and,

Having made up your minds, never look behind.

When a man has no good reason for doing a thing,

He has one good reason for letting it alone.

The heaviest words in our language are these two briefest ones,

Yes and No. One stands for the surrender of the will,

The other for denial; one for gratification, the other

For character.

Don't look for flaws as you go through life,

And even if you find them—

It's wise to be kind, and sometimes blind,

And look for the virtues behind them.

The cloudiest night has a hint of light,

Somewhere in the shadows hiding,

It's better by far to look for a star

Than the spots on the sun abiding.

The river of time moves swiftly along,

To the bosom of God's mighty ocean;

Don't try your force 'gainst the river's course

Or think to alter its motion.

Don't waste a curse on the universe,

Remember, it lived before you;

Don't butt the storm with your puny form,

But bend and let it go o'er you.

This world will never adjust itself,

To suit your whim to the letter;

Some things will go wrong the whole day long,

And the sooner you know it, the better.

Don't try to fight with the Infinite,

You'll at last go down in the wrestle,

The wisest man is sustained by God's plan,

And the sea can master the vessel.

Sow a thought and you will reap a word;

Sow a word and you will reap an act;

Sow an act and you will reap a habit;

Sow a habit and you reap a character;

Sow a character and you will reap an eternal destiny.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hawley went to Greenview Sunday where they visited with relatives. They were accompanied to this city by their aunt, Mrs. Jennie Burries who expects to spend several weeks at the Hawley home.

—Mrs. Chal Newbould and daughters Marjorie and Gwendolyn spent the week end in Champaign at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elvira Hutchinson.

—Mrs. C. A. Corbin went to Decatur Saturday where she visited until Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Finley motored to Decatur Sunday where they visited at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Whiteley.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fitzgerald and daughter Edna Marie of Peoria expect to arrive in this city Friday where they will spend several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cummins.

—Misses LaGreta and Geraldine Finley of Whitley spent Monday evening at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Finley.

—Watch for date of M. E. Ladies Aid Bazaar and Dinner.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Temple and daughter Ann of St. Louis spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tabor.

—Rev. L. L. Lawrence attended the meeting of the Religious Education Commission of the Methodist church in Bloomington Thursday.

—Miss Lou Phelps who spent a week at Wilmington, Ill., where she was called on account of the death of her uncle Eugene Morey returned to this city Saturday.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sloan and two children Mary Louise and Junior of Assumption spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sims.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warren, Mrs. Allie McCoy and Mrs. Jennie Hogue of Tuscola visited with Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Whitechurch Sunday.

—The Domestic Science club met at the home of Mrs. O. F. Cochran for an all day meeting and pot luck dinner Friday.

—Mrs. M. A. Gifford returned Monday from Danville where she spent the past week visiting at the home of her son Orria Gifford and wife.

—Mrs. Homer Ferguson and small son Robert Lee who spent several weeks at the home of her uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Robertson left for their home in Belleville Saturday evening.

—Hector Randol and children who have been living in the Mitchell property moved Friday into one of the C. O. Pifer brick houses in the eastern part of this city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall of Chicago are spending this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Len Loveless.

In Sullivan
every 3rd Saturday, at Robinson
Furniture Store

Frank Wallace
INCORPORATED
EYE SERVICE
OPTOMETRISTS

256 N. MAIN ST.
DECATUR, ILLINOIS

Store Your Car In a heated, convenient Garage

You can't afford to take chances with your car during the cold winter days. Put it in our garage where it is easily accessible, always safe and never endangered by sudden changes in the temperature.

Storage Rates
By the month $5.00
By the week $2.00

Make your reservations now and get a choice stall assigned you. We have bought this garage business from John A. Davis, who has been conducting it until recently. Your patronage will be appreciated.

McIntire's Garage

OLAF MCINTIRE, Prop. and Mgr.
PHONE NO. 9

On Main Street, one block North of the Square

—Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Decatur and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brackney of this city spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Drew.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dave Williams and son of Chicago visited in the home of Mrs. Rose McCarthy and daughter Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hogue are driving a new Chevrolet. Their other car was stolen recently.

—Mrs. Shumacher who spent 6 weeks in the home of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Smith in this city left for her home in Kansas City Saturday.

—Miss Reta Light, trained nurse of St. Louis came to this city Sunday where she visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. David and then went to Decatur where she is caring for her uncle, Estol Light.

You Can Equal Goodyear Quality only in Goodyear Tires

{ The Name "GOODYEAR" inspires a Pride of Ownership and stands for Quality you can get in no other tire on the market }

—And That is Why

Millions More People Ride on Goodyears!

Priced as Low as Cheaper Makes because Goodyear enjoys lowest costs through the largest production—

Famous High Grade Goodyear Pathfinders
All Firsts—All Lifetime Guaranteed—

Full Oversize
STANDARD BALLOONS	STANDARD HIGH PRESSURE
29x4.40 ----- $6.00	30x3 1/2 ----- $ 5.30
30x4.50 ----- 6.85	30x5 ----- 19.70
28x4.75 ----- 8.05	32x6 ----- 34.55

Tubes also low priced at History's Lowest Levels.
Guaranteed Tire Repairing. Good used Tires
$2.00 up.

Tire & Battery Sta.
L. A. ATCHISON, Prop.
PHONE 467 SULLIVAN, ILL.

Efficiency » »

With Economy—and Style

The fame of Glow-Boy has largely been spread through its remarkable efficiency and economy. Most people know of it because it has almost twice the heat circulating and floor warming capacity of other parlor furnaces—or because of its Heat Amplifying Casing Shield. Yet even if it did not possess these practical advantages to such a degree, it would still be famous for the beauty and correct styling of its cabinet. In our repeated invitations for you to inspect the inner construction of Glow-Boy we may have neglected to call attention to its outer beauty. See the Glow-Boy—inside and out... at our store.

David Hardware

Sullivan, Illinois

PROGRESS

Classified

advs

Costs

But Little

but are

Read

by

Thousands

GAYS

Mrs. Mayme Bell was a Mattoon visitor Tuesday.

Clem Shaffer and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Mattox in Allenville.

Revival service begun at the Christian church by Rev. Armstrong last Sunday and will continue until the 23rd. There will be no service on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Barnhart of near Tuscola spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCulley.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Cullen have returned to their home at Niot after spending the week end with his parents.

Grandma Lemons who has been seriously ill is slowly improving.

Ted Hughes and family visited his mother Monday afternoon.

D. E. Fuller and family spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fuller in Mattoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Newt Hopper spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Levi Price near Arcola.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Beldon and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Beldon entertained Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Hooten at an oyster soup supper Friday night.

Mrs. James Alexander spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Fort.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ballard of Mattoon spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Winings.

DALTON CITY

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Elis White Nov. 8th a son.

Mrs. Russell Cole and Miss Frances Orr spent Friday in Decatur.

Mrs. Lloyd Loving and daughter of Bethany are visiting in Dalton City.

C. A. Alberts of this city who is seriously ill was removed to the St. Mary's hospital in Decatur.

Mrs. Anna Feist spent Wednesday in Decatur.

Mrs. James Bobbitt and Mrs. Lena Merold, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Merold attended the funeral of Joe Jordan in Bellflower.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rutledge, Mr. and Mrs. James Bobbitt and Mrs. Lena Merold spent Sunday in Decatur.

Several from here attended the Armistice day parade in Decatur.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. C. E. McFerrin on Wednesday afternoon.

A Dime's Worth

Some years ago a dime did not buy much of anything. You'll be surprised to see how much it will buy right now at our big 10c bargain counter. The most popular shopping place in town.

McPHEETER'S DRUG STORE

East Side Square

Old Dog Wouldn't Be Left Out of Picture

This dog story is told by Harry Preston in his sporting reminiscences, "Memories"—a delightful panoramic view of the sporting world of America and England for the last fifty years, reprinted in the Kansas City Times.

Tom Gannaway, owner of many winning bull terriers, had a wonderful, almost human, old dog, who had been regularly shown with great success. Gannaway lived just off Westminster. One day he was preparing two other dogs for the show at the Horticultural hall in Westminster. The old dog looked on. He was not entered, and so was left behind. During the afternoon a friend of Gannaway's said to him:

"You haven't entered the old dog, have you, Tom?"

"No," said Gannaway.

"Well," said the friend, "he's here, all the same."

And in fact the dog had gone on his own and taken over a spare bench and now sat there, looking quite untroubled despite a laughing crowd round him. The bench he had jumped into was under an entirely different classification of dogs.

Wide Choice Offered as to "Canada's" Name

At least five derivations for the word "Canada" have been suggested. First from the Algonquin word "Cantata," meaning "welcome," supposed to have been used by the Indians when they first saw Cartier, whom they received with demonstrations of joy. Second, from the Iroquois word "Cantata," meaning "a collection of huts," and being the word the Algonquins applied to their chief town. Third, from a Spanish word "Acana," meaning "there is nothing there," indicating that the Spaniards saw no signs of gold as they skirted the coast of the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Fourth, from a Portuguese word "Canada," meaning "narrow passage," and implying that the Portuguese, long before Cartier's time, sailed up the St. Lawrence and gave the name "Canada" to the country through which the comparatively narrow river flowed, namely that above Quebec. Fifth, Cordier says the word is Basque for "canal," which would convey the same idea as "strait or narrow passage." The first two seem the most likely derivations. The name "Canada" was used by the early French explorers and settlers.

Mountaineer English

The mountaineers have been called "our contemporary ancestors." People from the cities who visit them are invariably struck with the old-fashioned, archaic language commonly used. Yet it is good, it ungrammatical English that they speak. If Shakespeare were to return to earth today, he would feel fairly at home with the mountain people. Open fireplaces, the spinning-wheel and the handmade loom, the Greek lamp and many other simple household implements would be familiar objects to the immortal bard. Again he would be in the forest of Arden and the language he would hear would be his own—Ethel Park Richardson, in Preface to "American Mountain Songs."

Indecision

Travelers tell us that there is, near the Jaffa gate at Jerusalem, a small terrace on the top of a hill, called the "Terrace of Indecision." The ground is so level that the rain, falling upon it, seems at a loss which way to go. Part of it is carried over the west side, where it flows into the Valley of Roses, and gives life, fertility, beauty, and fragrance to the Sharon lilies and roses. The rest flows down the east side into the Valley of Tophet and onward to the Dead sea. Every life has its terrace of indecision. On the decision of each one hangs his future of helpful life or of death.—Exchange.

Whale Once "Landlubber"

The cachalot or sperm whale is capable of swallowing a small piano.

Chunks of cuttlefish disgorged by whales after they have been mortally wounded, are sometimes six feet long by four feet in width, according to Frank T. Bullen, whose "Cruise of the Cachalot" is considered a standard authority on whaling.

Incidentally the whale once lived on land and had hind legs. Scientists gather this fact from the huge mamma's bone structure.

Think of Him

Iver was a very earnest young man without much initiative. Consequently, when he bought a diamond engagement ring for his fiancée he was completely at loss for a suitable inscription to be engraved inside. "What shall I put in it, dad?" he asked.

"Oh," was the reply, "eh—er—you might say, 'When this you see, think of me.' The ring was duly delivered and bore the somewhat unusual inscription: "When this you see, remember dad."—Montreal Star.

Perspiration Thrown Off

The public health service says that according to observations made by scientists the average quantity of sweat in 24 hours may amount to two or three pints in a person clothed and at an average temperature of 82 degrees centigrade. Persons engaged in unusual conditions of temperature, or humidity, or other factors, may excrete considerably more than this amount or, under certain conditions less.

NEIGHBORING CITIES

MAY GET C.I.P.S. GAS
Certificates of convenience and necessity were granted to several Illinois Utilities last week by the Illinois Commerce Commission with Charles W. Hadley, chairman presiding. One certificate was granted to Central Illinois Public Service Co., to open a gas transmission main from Mattoon to Tuscola and from Mattoon to Shelbyville and from Arcola to Arthur. Another was granted to the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois to construct and operate a 33,000 volt electric transmission line in Livingston County. The North Shore Gas Co. received a certificate to construct and operate a gas transmission main from Gurnee to Russell, Ill., and to transact business of a gas public utility between the two points. A certificate was given to the Decatur Bus Lines to operate motor busses between Decatur, Boody, Blue Mound, Stonington, Willets and Taylorville over state bond issue route 48.

LOVINGTON

W. M. Strickland and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bundy near Mattoon.

Fred Woods spent the week end with his family here.

Mrs. Earl Dixon was in Decatur Wednesday.

Miss Bessie Rowe and mother spent the week end at their home in Windsor.

Mrs. Bess Fitzgibbons of Sullivan visited her sister Mrs. Leo Smith Saturday.

Miss Margaret Smith spent several days last week with relatives in Bement.

The P.T.A. held their regular meeting Monday evening.

Ira McBride and son Foster spent Sunday in Hazeldele.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gramblin of Sullivan visited Mr. and Mrs. Sol Mercer Monday evening.

Leo Smith has purchased a new Willys Knight truck. He delivered a load of stock to St. Louis Monday.

Hopeless

An airplane flew over an Irish asylum, much to the consternation of the inmates. Next day two of the latter were discussing the strange machine. One said:

"Do you know, I dreamt last night I made one of those contrivances and flew to Australia in sixty minutes."

"That's strange," said the other, "for I had a similar dream, only I went to Melbourne in sixty seconds."

"How did you go?"

"Right through the earth."

"Look here, my friend," said the other, "you're not a lunatic—you're a blithering idiot."

Off They Come!

A particularly stout lady attired in a very tight riding-habit was taking her morning cauter in the Row, accompanied by her husband. Suddenly a button, unable to stand the great pressure, flew off the lady's coat.

"Dear, dear," said the lady fretfully, "what makes these buttons come off?"

Her escort quivered with excitement for he had thought of something funny.

"Ahem! Force of habit, my dear," he grinned in reply.—London Answers.

Be Charming

In the world there is no duty more important than that of being charming. Without the jeweled presence of the humming bird, how gloomy would be the recesses of the forest! Is it not one of the most delightful duties of life to shed joy around you; to scatter happiness with your every word and movement; to cast a light into the dark corners of our life; to be the gilded cord that leads our destiny, and to be the true spirit of beauty and harmony?—Victor Hugo.

Ancient Roman Act

One of the most beautiful examples of art as practiced by the ancient Romans is known as the Trajan's column.

Situated in Rome, this tower, which consists of 23 tiers, soars into the air, an imposing figure, covered with about 25,000 gloriously sculptured figures.

The tower was built to celebrate the victories of the Emperor Trajan, whose remains are buried beneath this beautiful structure.

MAY-WOOLUMS

Carl May of Bethany and Geneva Woolums of Dalton City were married Wednesday evening at the Christian church parsonage, Rev. C. E. Barnett officiating. The groom is a farmer and the couple will live at Moweaqua.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wood have purchased from the Alexander Lumber Company the property at 501 Hamilton street known as the Andrew Patterson property and will occupy the same for a home.

Mayor and Mrs. E. E. Adams of Taylorville, accompanied by Mrs. Nora Cawley and Mrs. Jenne Abell were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Abell on W. Jefferson street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. G. Hill of Lincoln, relatives of Mrs. A. E. Turner, were guests at the Presbyterian Manse Sunday.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

LOST—Auto license plate 226-972. Finder return to Wallace Stokes Allenville, Ill. 1t.

FOR SALE—Colonial Parlor Furniture. Tel. 330-y. W. C. Holston, 1602 Harrison Street, Sullivan, Ill. 45-2t*

FOR RENT—The Buxton residence property, 8 rooms, modern on paved street. See Miss Jessie Buxton. 39-tf.

FOR SALE—White Leghorn Cockerels, Baron strain. Mrs. Lee Vice. 45-2t*

MAKE ANGEL FOOD CAKES anytime ordered. Price $1.25. Phone Arthur 5912. Mrs. Ross Thomas. 29-tf.

MONEY TO LOAN on first mortgage on city property or farm land. If you want a loan of any kind come and see me. Frank J. Thompson. 40-tf.

JONATHAN CREEK

Guy Bolin and family visited on Sunday with John Dolan and family.

John W. Graven of Kirksville spent one day last week with his son T. A. Graven and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Powell and Mr. and Mrs. James Bracken visited in Decatur Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Deckard.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pickle spent Saturday night and Sunday in Peoria.

Mrs. Jane Piper, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ferris and daughters Betty and Sue and Wilma Warren of Arthur, Carl Warren of Fort Sheridan and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harris were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Piper.

Frank Pound and family visited Sunday with Jim Pound and family.

The East Division of the Ladies Aid met and organized Monday at the home of Mrs. Guy Bolin. The officers are: president, Mrs. W. K. Bolin; vice president, Mrs. Ernest Ozier; secretary and treasurer Mrs. Walter Crane.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durham called on Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goodwin and Junior Bolin visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Miller of Champaign.

G. M. Slover of near Sumner arrived Tuesday to spend the winter with his son Ed Slover.

Clarence Eastin and family visited Sunday with Ernest Ozier and family.

T. A. Graven and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Reynolds Sunday at French church.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Piper of Arthur visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Piper.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pierce visited Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Orville Powell and family.

Mrs. Ella Bolin visited Sunday with her daughter Mrs. Felix Elder and family.

Center and Bolin school districts will have their November meeting together, Friday evening Nov. 21 at Bolin school. There will be a program and spelling.

W. K. Bolin and family visited Sunday afternoon with Clovis Milam and family.

Mrs. John Dolan and Mrs. Jas. Bracken visited with Mrs. Z. N. Wood of Sullivan Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hardin and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis and son attended the football game at Shelbyville Tuesday night.

Albert Lucas and family of Tuscola visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Slover.

Mrs. Walter Purvis and children and Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Milam, Paul Fulton and Glen Landers spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Powell.

Bernice Bolin spent the week end in Mattoon.

Eugene Freese and family called on Mrs. Harry McClure in the hospital in Tuscola Sunday.

Merle Powell of Decatur spent Sunday with home folks.

Doris Bolin will lead the Endeavor Sunday evening at 6:00.

EAST HUDSON

Elmer Burks and family entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dedman and daughter Irene and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Monroe to an oyster supper Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Monroe visited friends in Mt. Vernon and Benton last week.

Dale Elder, Gifford Wheeler and James Wood spent Saturday night with Wayne Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hinton spent Sunday with Bruce Dedman and family.

T. Morgan of Herrick has been visiting this week with Arthur Herendeen and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shipman and daughter Ruby spent Sunday with Miss Ann Elliott.

Miss Ruby Shipman visited in Decatur Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Fultz and sons Hal and Wayne and Mrs. Clara Tussing of near Newton

FOR RENT—6 room house—modern, soft water. Hot water heat. See Guy Kellar, Phone 755. 2t*

WELL WORK, sand-pumping and anything in that line. If you need a new well, see me. H. Gladville, S. Main St., Sullivan, Ill. 24-3 mo.

SECOND HAND stoves and furniture. At the W. H. Walker store, two blocks north of the Square, Sullivan. 49-tf.

FOR SALE—Registered Jersey bull, 11 months old, high production on both sides, sired by Bicknell's herd bull, dam is granddaughter Fauvics Gamboe Lad. Oral Bundy, Sullivan, Ill. 46-3t*

LONG DISTANCE MOVING at right prices.—W. H. Walker.

FOR SALE—Air tight stove used 2 weeks. Apply at Progress. 46-2t*

CUSHMAN

Veva Bragg spent the week end with home folks.

Chance Poland is on the sick list.

The Cushman box supper that was held Thursday night was very successful, being largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Poisel and son are spending this week here with Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. John Foster and daughters spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Valentine and son spent Sunday with L. C. Horn and wife.

Word has been received from Harlie Wood that he spent last week in Texarkana, Ark., with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foster have moved from the J. M. Cummins farm to the Harlie Wood farm.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Myers visited Saturday with Ernest Martin and family.

Mrs. Leo Murphy and daughter spent Wednesday in Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cummings were Decatur visitors Wednesday.

ALLENVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner and daughters spent Sunday with Mrs. Eva Holly near Stewardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Huie of Bloomington spent last week here. Mrs. M. Potter returned to Bloomington with them to spend several weeks.

Miss Ruth Judd of Sullivan visited over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Judd.

Oscar Miller and family have moved to Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Conwell spent Sunday with Pete Conwell and family.

Mrs. Mollie Knott has gone to Bruce to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Alma McCulley.

Irma Misenheimer and daughter Joyce and Fern Black spent Friday in Mattoon.

C.I.P.S. TO PAY DIVIDEND FOR FOURTH QUARTER

The board of directors of the Central Illinois Public Service Company, at a meeting held in Springfield, Tuesday, Nov. 4th, declared a dividend of $1.50 per share on the cumulative preferred capital stock of that company for the quarter ending Dec. 31, 1930. This dividend is payable Jan. 15, 1931, to all preferred stockholders on record, on the books of the Company at the close of business Dec. 31, 1930.

This is the fourth quarterly dividend to preferred stockholders for the year 1930.

FIRES AND TUBES new and used, right prices.—W. H. Walker.

Brushed Wool TAMS
59c and 69c

Fashion demands CORSELETTES priced from $2.50 to $5. None better.

Silk and wool tweeds, satins, and velvets, both in materials and ready made.

Coats in latest materials and styles. Many cut prices.

Big Line of Toilet Goods.

Mrs. G. F. Allison
Phone 233w
1403 Camfield Street
Sullivan, Illinois

PALMYRA

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin here Charleston callers Monday.

D. L. Maxedon and son Harrison spent first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Maxedon.

Miss Marie Black was on the sick list Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf of near Mattoon spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Misenheimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dolan and daughter spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Seth French.

Mrs. A. A. Hollonbeck and Miss Katherine were Mattoon callers on Friday.

Mrs. W. S. Delana sold 140 head of turkeys last week.

Henry Francis of near Lovington was a business visitor in this vicinity Saturday.

Mrs. Austin Henderson visited relatives in Chicago last week.

Mrs. John Black and daughters spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Jack French.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Shaw were Sullivan callers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Misenheimer and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wernsing visited Sunday with relatives in St. Louis.

Mrs. Reta Wilson and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Graven.

Rev. Shasteen spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Graven.

Mrs. Wilma Rhoades of Charleston spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Maxedon spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Murray Shaw.

Guy Howard and family of Chicago are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Austin Henderson and family.

Miss Catherine Misenheimer returned home from Chicago Saturday night.

SULLIVAN PUBLIC LIBRARY REPORT FOR OCTOBER

Books Taken Out	Adults	Juvenile
Philosophy	2
Religion	1
Sociology	6
Science	4	2
Useful Arts		1
Fine arts	1
Literature	18
History	9	3
Travel		2
Biography	3
Fiction	257	214
Periodicals	135
Lou Phelps, Librarian.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harley Bartley motored to Mattoon Sunday and visited in the home of his daughter Mr. and Mrs. Harold Askins.

SULLIVAN MARKETS

Elevators were offering 56c for yellow corn and 58c for white. Wheat is 60c per bu. and oats 26c. Soybeans are $1.00 per bu.

Produce Markets
Hens are 10c to 15c per lb.; springs 10c to 13c; old roosters 8c; ducks 12c and geese 11c. Stores are offering 35c per dozen in trade for eggs. Butterfat is 30 to 33c.

PARENT-TEACHERS HEARD ADDRESS BY KULCINSKI

The Parent Teachers Association met in the Lowe School Building Tuesday evening. The business session was conducted by president Mrs. Daisy McPheeters.

Meeting was opened by prayer by Rev. Turner. This was followed by assembly singing led by a group of girls, "America the Beautiful," "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

After this Louis Kulcinski state supervisor of physical education made an address.

Following this was the attendance contest; the room having the largest attendance of parents or guests to receive $1.00; second largest 50c; winner to be announced next meeting.

The Reeder Studio

2nd Floor M & F Bank Building.

Lessons in Art adapted to talents of those who seek to enjoy beautiful things.

Painting, Modelling Designing, Etc.
Course of 10 lessons ONLY $3.50

Lessons consist of two hours of instruction.

You are invited to visit our Studio

We make articles suitable for Christmas giving, 50c and up.

Saturday morning classes for Children.

School Oxfords for the young lady

CORN HUSKER FATALLY SHOT BY WILLIAM GRAY

(Continued from page 1)

Gray shot at least four times. One bullet struck Harris in the right arm and passed on through. Another passed through the left side of the body; a third passed thru the abdomen and the gall bladder and a fourth struck the right arm and was deflected so that it passed into the body and evidently lodged in the lungs. Any one of these three bullets might have been fatal.

Harris had been working for Mr. Elder about two weeks; Gray about two months. Mr. Elder was not aware that there was ill-feeling between the two men, both of whom seemed to be efficient workmen.

Lee Saw Harris Fall

Millard Lee who was some distance away from the scene of the shooting testified that he had heard loud talking between Harris and Gray and had heard scuffling which led him to believe the men were fighting. Harris had evidently gone to Gray's wagon and there argued with him. Gray then went to Harris' wagon to talk things over with him and here the shooting occurred.

When Lee heard the shooting he climbed on his wagon and saw Harris fall. He then called Mr. Elder who was some distance ahead of him and together they went to the scene and found Harris dying. Gray was standing nearby. Mr. Elder hurried to the house and called the officers and doctor.

Gray Claims Self-Defense

Gray in discussing the matter after his arrest said that Harris had assaulted him with a club and started chasing him around the wagon. He turned and fired at him in the hope of stopping him. He struck him in the arm but Harris continued coming so he emptied his gun at him. The club in question was found and is in the possession of the sheriff.

There were no eye-witnesses to the shooting. Gray admitted doing it. His story of being chased is being doubted by the officials.

Bullet Marks on Wagon

Some of the bullets which passed through Harris' arm were found to have hit the bump board of the wagon. Two bullet marks are visible in the wagon bed. Gray may have shot five times instead of four. The location of these bullet marks indicates that Harris was on the wagon when Gray started shooting at him and not chasing him as Gray states.

It is also quite certain that after the quarrel and fight Gray walked to his wagon and got his gun out of his waistcoat which was on the wagon. He walked back to the Harris wagon and started shooting.

The killer is a youth of about 18 years from Monticello, Kentucky. He has come to this part of the country several years to assist in corn husking. He was generally regarded as a good workman. After his arrest he admitted that he had always carried a gun, as such was the custom where he came from.

Since his confinement in the county jail he has had but little to say and seems little concerned over the outcome of his crime.

Jury Holds Gray

The jury which heard the evidence Saturday in its verdict summed up the events leading to the shooting and then recommended that "We the jury find that the said Perry Calvin Harris was murdered by the said William Gray, thereby the said William Gray is to be held to the grand jury without bail." The jury consisted of F. W. Wood, Russell Sanders, Claude E. Watson, Joe Fifer, Charles Getz and Melvin Watson. States Attorney R. B. Foster conducted the questioning of witnesses. The widow and some of the relatives of the slain man attended.

Harris Funeral

The remains of the murdered man were taken to his home at 900 North Sixteenth Street in Mattoon and funeral services were held from there Monday with burial in Dodge Grove cemetery.

Harris would have been 55 years of age in December. He was married four times, his surviving wife being the former Mrs. Gertrude Kimball of Greenup. Besides the widow he leaves four step-children, three sisters and two brothers.

His reputation was good among those who knew him. He was a good workman and always eager to be employed.

Two Killers in Jail

This is the second cold-blooded murder in Moultrie county within a month. Several weeks ago Samuel Grant Kesterson shot and killed John Shipp in this city. Kesterson is in jail.

The September grand jury, recalled Wednesday, indicted both

Gray and Kesterson on murder charges. It is not known at this time whether the cases will be heard this term of court, it is expected that they will be.

Cause of Many Quarrels

Farmers say that the matter which brought about the quarrel and ill-feeling between Harris and Gray has often caused trouble among corn huskers. The huskers are usually paid by the bushel. The wagon and husker that trails the others is closest to the unhusked field. A temptation always exists for this husker to reach over and cop off the big ears which may lean his way from the nearby row. This naturally causes a protest from the husker who gets to husk this row in regular husking rotation. While many quarrels have doubtless been caused by such corn "gouging" Harris is the first man who paid for his life for either having husked these leaning ears or protesting against Gray's doing so.

MANY CASES HEARD IN SHORT SESSION OF CIRCUIT COURT

(Continued from page 1)

for investigation. These Tuttle are Macon county boys. Their parents were present in court.

Chicken Thieves

Boyd Chase 23, and Bayless Horn 30, who for some months have been locked up in the county jail on charges of stealing chickens were brought into court. They entered pleas of guilty to the matters charged against them in indictments returned in September and were both given indeterminate terms in the Southern Illinois penitentiary at Menard. The judge wanted to sentence Chase to the reformatory, but he asked that he be sent to the penitentiary instead.

The impression made on court attaches by Chase's request was that the young man thought the Reformatory was too tough for him, because of the fact that it is over-crowded by youths sent there from Chicago. He did not want his habits or morals any more contaminated than they are now.

Three More

No definite action was taken in the cases against Fred Codgal, Carl Blue and George Harchous, also accused of having taken chickens not belonging to them. The indictment against Codgal is faulty, his name being Codgal. Harchous is the only one of the three who has not been able to give bond and he has been in jail since early Summer.

Purvis Named

In the partition suit of William J. Ray vs. Louie Baker and others Francis Purvis was named guardian ad litem.

$50 Alimony

In the divorce suit of Lois Wild vs. Arthur Wild, the child was awarded to its mother and the divorced husband is to pay $50 alimony by the 26th of each month. He is also to pay $25 solicitor's fees and costs in the case.

Case Settled

The case of the Alexander Lumber Company against L. R. Harshman, for an accounting, was reported settled and dismissed.

Charge Contempt

Attorney George A. Sentel for Mrs. Rupert Howell appeared before the judge and reported that Rupert Howell had ignored the court's order to pay alimony to his wife and that amount due to date is $885.72. Notice has been served on the defendant and his attorney. Citation was issued to have the defendant appear in court by 9 o'clock on November 18th and show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt of court.

ANOTHER SULLIVAN WOMAN GETS NATION-WIDE FAME

"Believe it or Not" there's lots of clever people residing in this Sullivan community. Last week the fans who read Ripley's "Believe it or Not" cartoons found a solution of the question "When is Enough not Enough"? This solution was worked out by Mrs. Agnes Kellar, wife of Guy Kellar. Mrs. Kellar by cleverly transposing the letters in the word "Enough" makes them spell "One Hug" and that, she contends is never Enough.

To show that the eyes of the world are turned toward Sullivan, in Wednesday morning's mail comes a letter from Mrs. Will Hicks at Fowler, Colorado, calling attention to Mrs. Kellar's achievement, which she saw recorded in a Colorado newspaper.

To the young fellow who visits his girl this may mean something. When she says "Enough" it may mean from here on that she is calling for "One Hug." The American language is a great thing, with a wonderful lot of hidden meaning in very simple words. As a story in telling about Mrs. Kellar's solution we contend that the fore-going is Enough, believe it or not.

—Mrs. Jennie Hogue of Tuscola attended the Loyal Women's all-day meeting held at the home of Mrs. Ella Blair Wednesday. The women made sheets, quilts and pillow cases for the old folks home at Jacksonville.

Orgy of Birthdays

By RING LARDNER

To the Editor:

Well here it is the open season for picnics again and on Monday morning our front yard looks like the chautauqua had stayed a couple of weeks extra. Last Sunday they was 10 or 11 of them little what nots from Detroit parked in line along the road and several passerbys thought we must be having an auction or something and come up to make inquiries and I was about ready to get sore when a kid about 13 yrs. old that belonged to one of the picnickers pointed to our cow and says oh look mamma they have got a cow on that estate.

Well you can't stay very mad when they call your joint a estate and if one of them will pull something like that every Sunday I will try and not make no holler about them upholstering the front lawn with bread and sardine cans, but I can't help from wondering what that boy would of called the Swope place next door where they have got a 4 or 500 ft. front and I suppose he would of nicknamed it Asia.

Speaking about the cow this ain't Flossie the one we had, but a brand new one as Flossie had finely became just a ornament. The new one don't seem to be no special brand and ain't got no family tree or nothing. She is plain black and when we first got her we left it to the kiddies to give her a name and they thought it over all one day and then give her the name Blackie.

Kids will think of the d—t things. But for some reason or another Blackie don't seem to like her name, at least she acts mad all the time and has showed signs of a vengeful spirits. It seems that on some parts of the estate they's quite a growth of what they call wild garlic which no cow could possibly enjoy eating it but Blackie eats it to get even and I will say she gets even. Sometimes you can shut your eyes well tumbling the oatmeal and pretend you are enjoying the $1.00 table de hote at Madame Gail's.

A few days of warmth and sunshine certainly made the estate look beautiful when all the flowers and blossoms was out. All told they was in bloom at one time (4) hyacinths, 2 crocuses, a 1/2 dozen tulips and the fruit orchard. The last named is unluckily hid behind the garage so as the picnic parties can't enjoy it. Last yr. it yielded pretty near a strawberry box full of plums which came as a big surprise as when we bought the place they told us it was a cherry tree.

Annual work started last wk. on the tennis court. The men promise to have it ready by Sept. this yr. as they ain't nowhere near as much to do to it as other yrs. as this winter only 1/2 of it caved in. Personally I ain't in no hurry as I agree with the U. S. tennis assn. that a man can't write and play tennis both and it is a whole lot less trouble to write because when you play tennis you half to wear special white shoes and pants and shirt but you can write in a kimona and slippers and in fact some of my best writings has been done entirely bare foot.

Three of the 4 kiddies was born in the s—, ing time so we been having quite a orgy of birthdays and generally when they's one in sight we ask the hero of same what he would like for presents and most always the reply is a pony or a sail boat or a parrot or something else that they ain't no chance of him getting.

But the 2d. boy is different and today is his birthday and we asked him a wk. ago what would he like and he says he would like something that would clean the rust off his bicycle. That is the way he has always been and will always be the same way, not wanting nothing and nothing is probably what he will get.

The Mrs. decided a while ago that it was about time we was getting a new vehicle to ride the kiddies back and 4th. to school and back as the one we had been using for that purpose the last 3 or 4 yrs. was acting kind of sullen so we called up the man and told him to bring something around and so we asked him could we trade in our old one and he looked at same and kind of swallowed hard but says yes he would half to take it over to Port Washington to get it appraised.

So we was scared to death for a 1/2 day as Port Washington is 4 miles from here and the betting was even that the good old wagon wouldn't never complete the round trip, but she done it all right and the deal was closed and the papers signed and now the kiddies is squawking because all the fun has been took out of their daily trips to and from school.

They always insisted on setting in the back seat of the old car and about 2 days out of every 5 the machine would part in the middle either going or coming and when the driver got to school or home and turned around to let them out they wouldn't be there but would be a mile or 2 up the road in the back 1/2 of the car, laughing at him.

That is about all the Great Neck news only that everybody is tickled on acct. of the spring rains being over which means that the electric lights will probably stay on pretty regular unless they's a breeze or it gets cloudy or something. (© by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jordan and daughter Etha of this city and Guy Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ward of Decatur went to Lincoln Sunday where they visited Mr. Jordan's mother, Mrs. Tennessee Jordan and his sister, Mrs. E. E. Ritter.

Hints for the Home

by Nancy Hart

Dried peas make an excellent contribution to your cold weather dietary and to avoid monotony it is well to master several ways of using them.

SOUPS OF DRIED PEAS OR BEANS

Pick and soak split peas, dried green peas, or black or white beans overnight. Drain, measure, add 4 times as much cold water; to each quart of water one-half onion. Simmer slowly till soft. Rub through sieve. Return to fire, season with salt and pepper, for each quart thicken with 1 teaspoon each butter and flour. Boil up again for a few minutes. Black bean soup should have a pinch of mustard and a little lemon juice added, and slices of hardboiled egg

PEA SOUP WITH STOCK

Many persons keep the bones of their roast in order to convert them into stock for pea soup, which is one of the most reliable of all soups and a famous dish for cold weather, with this advantage in its favor, that it may be made from almost anything. Good stock for pea soup can be made from a knuckle of ham. Supposing that to the extent of about two quarts, procure, say some such stock is at hand two pounds of split peas, wash them well, and then soak them for a night in water to which a very little piece of soda has been added. The floating peas should be all thrown away. Strain out the peas and place them in the stock, adding a head of celery, a sliced carrot and a large onion or two, and season with half a saltspoonful of cayenne pepper. Boil with a lid on the pot till all is soft, skimming off the scum occasionally, and then carefully strain, beating the pulp through the strainer with a spoon. Much of the success in preparing this soup lies in the "straining," which ought to be carefully attended to.

SPLIT PEA LOAF

4 cups split peas, cooked.
2 cups bread crumbs.
1 beaten egg.
1 teaspoon minced onion.
1 tablespoon minced parsley, celery, or other flavoring as desired. Salt and pepper to taste.

Mix all the ingredients together. If too soft to hold its shape add more bread crumbs. If too dry, add milk, water or another egg. Form into loaf, lay over it thin slices of salt pork or bacon. Brown in oven.

BACON CAKES

Allow one slice of bacon per person. Fry till golden brown, then pour over the rashers a batter made by beating an egg with a little milk and adding enough flour to form a light batter. When the batter sets turn the cake over and fry the other side.

HOMINY WITH BACON

Fry four slices of bacon until crisp. Cut in pieces, add four cups cooked hominy and reheat. Any of the other cereals may be used instead of hominy.

LICENSED TO WED

A marriage license was issued here during the past week to William Marshall 20 of near Sullivan and Catherine Nutterfield 17 of Bethany.

Rose Marshall, mother of the groom and Ada Mahon, guardian of the bride accompanied the couple and gave their consent.

SHARP-McREYNOLDS

Lloyd Sharp and Miss Bernice McReynolds went to Tuscola Friday afternoon and were united in marriage by Rev. B. C. Kelley at the Presbyterian manse.

They were accompanied by Miss Mary Cotner and Orville Oathout. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. McReynolds and graduated from the high school last year.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sharp and is a fine young man.

SOLD PROPERTY

W. H. Birch and others have sold to John W. Lucas the property known as Lot 8, block 5 of Hamilton's addition to Sullivan for $2,000.

Illinois ranked second of the states in the number of marriages in 1929.

S. T. H. S. News

Eight new chairs have arrived for use in the library. Also six new pads have been installed in the gymnasium to cover the sharp corners of the brick wall that extends along the boundary lines of the basketball floor.

* * * *

The Friends in Council are observing book week through movement to supply the High School library with books in several departments where the need is particularly great, such as works of fiction, biography, travel, adventure, history, and general reference. The student body is especially appreciative of receiving such valuable material for instructional and recreational readings.

* * * *

Hall patrol began last week and has proved very successful so far. Those girls who have been chosen for the duties of hall patrolling are: Letha Bushart, Marjorie Newbould, Luella Rhodes, Lola Elder, Freda Elder, Norma Gene Clark, Etha Jordan, Valeria Lundy, Orla Cummings, Evelyn Carline, Ruth Oliver, Beatrice Hill, Kathryn Nighswander, Adeline Baggett, Faythe Wren, Pauline Elder, Jennie Seitz, Miriam Wiley, Lois Young, Vivian Jennings, Ruth Ashbrook, Ina Hall, Fern Reedy, Ina Hall.

Those boys who have been chosen are: Victor Shasteen, Jas. Horn, John McKinney, Charles Cummins, Wilson Ashbrook, Loyle Davis, Lester Ashbrook, Leo Horn, Joseph Purvis, Hugh Grote, Earl Freeman, Rex Bolin, Wayne Monroe, Elmer Sentel, Bernard Brumfield, Homer Hoskins, Adrian Sears, William McKown, Albert Doner, Elmer Dunscomb, Paul McDavid, Homer Sullivan, John Pence, Olaf French.

* * * *

The camera club has finished all of the underclassmen and football pictures. So far the camera club has been very successful with pictures.

* * * *

Rev. Lawrence gave a very interesting address to High School student body and faculty, Armistice Day, about his own experiences in the World war.

* * * *

Mr. Hanna, the state high school inspector visited the high school classes Tuesday, Nov. 12.

* * * *

Don't forget the last football game of the year, which takes place on Victory field, Saturday, Nov. 15. It will be the last chance to see Brumfield, the French Brothers, Hoskins, Kenney, Elder and McLaughlin in action. These boys are all seniors and desirous of giving account of their football in this game against Monticello. Monticello has been our jinks for years. Come out and help us spill the Syrup Pepsin Boys.

* * * *

Mr. and Mrs. George Roney, spent Sunday in Champaign.

Miss Dundas spent the week end with her parents in Kincaid.

and daughter Marguerite of Sullivan called on Mrs. John Rankins and Mrs. T. F. Winings, Tuesday afternoon.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express widely our thanks to the many friends and relatives who were so kind and helpful in the bereavement of our dearly beloved deceased. Especially do we thank for the floral gifts.

J. C. Reynolds and Family.
D. L. Maxedon and Family.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Wright spent Sunday in Jacksonville with their son Henry and wife and to see their grandson.

—Tom McIntire and daughter Mary, Miss Edna Davis and Mrs. Henry Pifer were Mattoon visitors Tuesday.

—Miss Rozetta McKim who has been working at the Crowder Seed Store was taken to Arthur Wednesday by Mrs. J. A. Reeder and will there be employed in the C. C. Turner seed and grain business.

—J. C. Hoke who recently underwent an operation in the hospital at Columbus, Mo., is reported doing nicely. He greatly enjoys hearing from his Illinois friends.

—Mrs. Dora Foster of Bethany came Friday for a week's visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Cynthia Newbould.

ADDED ATTRACTION!

SUNDAY, Nov. 16-ONLY

GRAND THEATRE

SULLIVAN

—THE FAMOUS—

HOLMAN SISTERS

VAUDEVILLE HEADLINERS AND POPULAR RADIO STARS

—PERFORMING ON—

TWO PIANOS

With the Same Offering They Present on the BIG VAUDEVILLE CIRCUITS

—Don't Miss This—

WONDERFUL MUSICAL TREAT

In Conjunction With Our REGULAR PICTURE PROGRAM

Holman Sisters will appear at 4:30—6:40—8:50 Following Feature Picture

SHOW CONTINUOUS FROM 3 P. M.

COME EARLY

NO ADVANCE IN PRICES

Pianos Furnished Through Courtesy of Kluge-Baldwin Piano Co. Sullivan

For Economical Transportation

CHEVROLET

COMPLETE CUT SERVICE

BODY SERVICE—RADIATOR AND BATTERY SERVICE—BRAKE SERVICE—LUBRICATION SERVICE—MOTOR AND CHASSIS SERVICE

Whatever your repair requirements may be, we are fully equipped to render complete service on your automobile. Our men are trained in Chevrolet Service Schools and are specialists on Chevrolet cars—no need to go elsewhere for any kind of repairs. May we take care of your service requirements today?

Capitol Chevrolet Sales

SULLIVAN, ILL.

PHONE 107

HENRY HORTENSTINE WILL AGAIN SHOW CATTLE AT INTERNATIONAL

Entries received from Illinois for the Carload-lot Fat Cattle Contest of the 1930 International Live Stock Exposition, to be held at the Chicago Stock Yards, November 29 to December 6, include those of a well known Moultrie county livestockman, Henry Hortenstine, of Gays.

According to the exposition management, Hortenstine's entries consist of two loads of Shorthorn yearling steers, which will be shown in competition with the hundreds of other loads of prime fat market cattle that form one of the most impressive sights of the entire exposition. Hortenstine won high honors at the 1929 International, one of his loads of Shorthorn yearling steers receiving a first prize designation.

B. H. Heide, secretary-manager of the exposition, points out that in the carload lots of cattle, sheep, and swine is the practical expression of all the theories of better breeding and feeding that the International has fostered since its inception 31 years ago. It is in this division, he says, that the butcher's ideal is primarily emphasized in making awards.

Record breaking prices are received for these rare quality meat animals in the annual International auction sale of carload cattle, sheep, and swine, where the bidding like the judging is done in terms of carlot groups rather than individuals. As high as 55c a pound have been bid for the grand champion load of steers in this International carload fat cattle sale.

Railroads are lending encouragement to everyone to visit the International Live Stock Show by granting reduced special fares to Chicago at the this time, the management announces.

KIRKSVILLE

Floyd West and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gustin.

Ray Evans and family spent Sunday with Mary Evans at Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Messmore and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Woods of Sullivan spent Tuesday evening with Ray Evans and family.

Darwin Bruce and Devere Wise spent Saturday night with Walter West.

George Wheeler and wife and Fred Wheeler and family of Decatur were Sunday evening guests of Floyd West and family.

Rev. Smith and family and Pearl Musser attended the funeral services of Dora Bullerman of Holland on Saturday.

Steve Woods and family of Decatur and Walter LeCrone and family of Sullivan spent Sunday with Otto LeCrone and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Leeds and daughter of Decatur spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Mary Leeds.

Mrs. Mary Leeds and grandchildren Kathryn and Zack spent Sunday at Bethany.

Mrs. Rhoda Floyd and Rev. Smith spent Saturday with Manal Sipes and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Britton of Decatur spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rhodes. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Britton and Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Frederick.

Mrs. Merle Sentel was taken to the hospital at Tuscola on Saturday.

Lowell Donnell of Windsor visited Sunday with his parents, Edgar Donnell and family.

Mrs. Ferba Kidwell spent Sunday with Mrs. White in Findlay.

Floyd and Owen Donnell visited the Reedy school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ritchey and son Wallace and Orval Bragg and family spent Sunday with Harry Gustin and family. From there Mr. and Mrs. Ritchey took their son to Shelbyville where he attends business college.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Donnell and children visited last week with R. Britton and wife of Yantisville. On Monday, Mr. Donnell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Britton and Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Donnell.

Mrs. Lettie West and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Francisco in Findlay.

Era West of Sullivan spent Saturday night with home folks.

Miss Flossie Wisely spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Castang of Sullivan.

MERRITT

Mrs. Russell Yaw and daughters spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Ray Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Thomas and daughters spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Thomas.

Mrs. Wilbur Ballard spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Fay Taylor.

Mrs. Buck Harchous and son spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Ray Wilson.

Mrs. Herman Ray, Mrs. Ray Wilson and Mrs. Clifford Davis and son spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ross Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Warren, Mrs. Essie Eaton and daughter spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ray.

V. D. Thomas is some better at this writing but not able to be up all of the time.

Mrs. Charles Kenney and Mrs. Ethel Bragg and children of Lovington spent Saturday with Mrs. Russell Yaw.

Herman Ray spent Thursday in Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Phillips and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ray and sons spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Warren in Arthur.

Clifford Davis and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stillians visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Orval Beals.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Bilbrey visited Mr. and Mrs. John Dwyer of Lovington Sunday.

Chas. Phillips and Ross Thomas called on V. D. Thomas Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Pickle spent Sunday in St. Joe.

CHAS. ADKINS DEFEATED BORCHERS BY 9,096

With all the returns in the district tabulated Charles A. Adkins of Decatur, Republican nominee for congress from the nineteenth district, has a lead of 9,096 votes over his Democratic opponent, Charles M. Borchers of Decatur.

Adkins received a total vote in the eight counties of the district of 42,674. The vote for Borchers was 33,578.

The vote by counties was:

	Pcts.	Adkins	Borchers
Coles	47	6,123	5,109
Macon	63	11,684	9,068
Piatt	18	2,813	1,086
Shelby	26	2,765	3,140
Champaign	73	10,954	7,773
Dewitt	21	3,211	2,823
Douglas	25	3,101	2,172
Moultrie	19	2,023	2,407
		42,674	33,578

FIRE DESTROYS FARM HOME

A fire, resulting from an overheated stove, completely destroyed the farm home of John L. Plank, residing six miles southeast of Arthur, on what is known as the old Ben S. Monroe farm.

The fire occurred about seven o'clock, and as the morning was very foggy, only a few neighbors saw the flames and came to fight the fire. Consequently the entire two stories was consumed and only household goods in the lower part of the house was saved.—Arthur Graphic.

—Miss Fern Brown of Urbana spent Sunday at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brown.

A Visit to the Dairy

(Second Prize Essay)

By Vivian Loy

One day last week both eighth grade classes went to the dairy. We started at the south door.

Going in the south door to the west a little are some automatic Toledo Scales. They weigh accurately and have no springs.

After the cream has been weighed they test it in a Babcock Tester. It is an iron vat. On the inside is a test holder. They put a little cream in a tube and add some sulphuric acid to it. Then the tubes are placed in the test holder. The machine is turned on. The test holder whirls around carrying the tests. The yellow part that is at the top of the tube is the per cent of butterfat. After they get the number of pounds, the percent of butterfat and the price they multiply to find out the amount to pay you.

We went especially to see them pasteurize milk. The pasteurizer was a large vat shaped like a barrel. On the inside were fourteen coils containing hot water. The water is forced through these coils. The vat, when pasteurizing milk is kept at the temperature of about 143 degrees to 145 degrees. It is kept there for about half an hour. Pasteurizing milk frees it from all disease germs it might contain. States order each dairy to pasteurize their milk before selling it. The pasteurizer is wood on the outside and metal within.

After the milk has been pasteurized it is run over eight metal tubes containing cold water. These coils are kept covered so as no germs can get into the milk then. The milk is cooled and then passes on to the capper.

We next watched the capper cap the bottles of milk. They have an automatic capper. The person who caps the milk does not touch the caps. He has a long box of caps sticking up from the capper. It is fixed so the caps light on the bottles. He presses a lever which presses the caps down upon the milk.

There is a thermometer which tells whether or not they pasteurize their milk daily or not. This is inspected once a month by the State Health Officers. They set it back, after looking at it, all ready to begin again.

In making ice cream they make several gallons at one time. The freezer when containing ice cream is kept at about thirty degrees below zero. The ice cream is mushy when it is taken from the freezer. It is put in the freezing room which is kept at about zero all the time. Mr. Isaacs was unable to show us the freezing room because the cold air would have escaped.

Mr. Isaacs told us about the chocolate milk which they are putting out. Many people do not like the plain milk so they are selling chocolate milk. It sells for the same price as other milk. They will deliver it the same as they do their other milk.

The churn was very large. It looks as though it would hold many pounds of butter. The churn is wooden and has a large wooden dash.

Each dairy must have license to sell milk. There are certain things required by the Board of Health. Before selling milk and butter these requirements must be fulfilled.

Pasteur discovered in 1880 that by heating anything it would kill the germs. That is where they get the word pasteurization.

When the bottles are returned they are washed with a brush. They use B. K. washing powder.

BRUCE

Miss Letha Ledbetter is very much better at this writing.

Miss Bertha Abbott is some better.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Bragg and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ivan West.

Will Sampson of Sullivan was a visitor here Saturday afternoon.

Ray Rose and daughter Mona spent a few days in Kankakee.

Mr. and Mrs. John McDaniel of Kirksville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McDaniel.

Several neighbors and friends from here attended the funeral of Henry Lee at Sullivan Saturday afternoon. Mr. Lee was a resident of this place for a good many years.

Several friends from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Addie Montonye at Windsor Thursday afternoon. Among those were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sampson, Mrs. Walter Sampson and Mrs. Bart Tull and C. C. Luttrell.

Misses Maye and Faye Bathe of Sullivan spent Friday evening with Monna and Bessie Sampson and attended the Sunday school social at the home of Mrs. Otto Kinsel.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Matt Zona of Kankakee are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Winchester of Sullivan spent Saturday night and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Reed.

Mrs. Mollie Lee and son Dale of Detroit, Mich., called on Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bragg Sunday and other friends here.

—Mrs. Carl Hill and daughter Beatrice, Mrs. Paul M. Hankla and Miss Evelyn Dunscomb motored to Bunker Hill Saturday for a visit with Miss Clara Whitfield, a former instructor in the local high school.

—John Gaddis of Decatur was a business caller in Sullivan Tuesday. Mr. Gaddis is now travelling for a St. Louis printing supply house, having severed his connections with the Louisville, Ky., house on October 1st. He is a former publisher of The Progress and always a welcome visitor.

Scrap Book

THE THREE FISHERS

By Charles Kingsley

Three fishers went sailing away to the West,

Away to the West as the sun went down;

Each thought of the woman who loved him the best,

And the children stood watching them out of the town;

For men must work, and women must weep,

And there's little to earn, and many to keep,

Though the harbor bar be moaning.

Three wives sat up in the light-house tower

And they trimmed the lamps as the sun went down;

They looked at the squall, and they looked at the shower

And the night-rack came rolling up ragged and brown.

But men must work, and women must weep,

Though storms be sudden, and waters deep,

And the harbor bar be moaning.

Three corpses lay on the shining sands

In the morning gleam as the tide went down,

And the women are weeping and wringing their hands

For those who will never come home to the town;

For men must work, and women must weep,

And the sooner it's over, the sooner to sleep;

And good-by to the bar and its moaning.

—Estel Light who has been seriously ill in a Decatur hospital the past few weeks underwent an operation and blood transfusion on Tuesday.

George A. Roney OPTOMETRIST

Eyes examined Glasses fitted
Offices—Upstairs above shoe store.

Phone 57 Sullivan, Ill.

WM. BARTLETT QUEARY WHO DIED IN IOWA LEFT MANY DESCENDANTS

(Contributed)

William Bartlett Queary was born Mar. 16, 1844 in Decatur, Ill., and departed this life Nov. 2, 1930 at the ripe old age of 86 years, 7 months and 16 days. He died at the home of his son Ed R. Queary of Renwick, Iowa with whom he had made his home the last few years. The deceased lived in Illinois until 1892, when he moved with his family to Renwick, Iowa and made Iowa his home a greater part of the time since that date. He was with his daughter Mrs. Stella Everett several years and belonged to the Sullivan G. A. R. Post. At the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted in Co. H. 63rd Illinois Regiment of volunteers and served until the end of the war. He was with Sherman on the Memorable March to the Sea.

Soon after his return from the war he was united in marriage to Annie E. Bruce who departed this life Apr. 3, 1895. To this union were born 8 children as follows: Edwin R. of Renwick, Iowa, Geo. A. who died Mar. 17, 1923, Mrs. Lucretia Rowley of West Brook, Minn., Mrs. Mary A. Beals, Arthur, Ill., Mrs. Ida Lauback of Colbert, Wash., Mrs. Ella Rettig of Spirit Lake, Ia., Mrs. Stella Everett of Sullivan, Illinois and Mrs. Nina Anderson of Renwick, Ia., together with thirty grandchildren and twenty-five great grand children survive him. He united with the Christian church many years ago while living in Arthur and thru all these years was a faithful servant to his Lord.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church on Tuesday, Nov. 4 under direction of the pastor J. Arthur Hurley and interment was in Goldfield, Iowa.

STILL WITHOUT THEATRE

Lovington is still without a motion picture theatre, although there is an ideal room in the heart of the business district now vacant. The room is 100 feet long, which would afford ample seating capacity for a city the size of Lovington.

It is generally agreed that there is a good opening here for a movie. It is especially noticeable on Saturday nights. The merchants find that a good live theatre would attract many to Lovington, who now travel to Sullivan and Decatur for their entertainment.—Lovington Reporter.

—Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Bushart, son Everett and daughter Letha visited in Chicago last week end with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Williams. All returned home Sunday except Mrs. Bushart who remained for a longer stay, to help nurse her son-in-law Mr. Williams who has been ill.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Schiek of Freeburg spent from Thursday to Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Ed Brandenburger and family.

ARKANSAS SHOWS NO SIGNS OF PROSPERITY

The interesting item reprinted below is taken from a recent issue of the "Roodhouse Record" of Greene County, Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Thompson, therein referred to are the parents of Floyd Thompson, Democratic candidate for governor in 1928.

"Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Thompson have recently returned from a trip thru Arkansas, visiting their son Emory Thompson and family at Hope, that state. They also stopped at Jonesboro, Stuttgart, Thornton and Camden. Mr. Thompson says the first question asked by the natives was something like this:

"Can you all tell us what is the matter with this Republican prosperity? You all had an overproduction of wheat, got nothing for it and bread still 10 cents; you all got overproduction of corn, we got overproduction cotton with only about one-sixth of a crop and getting 10 cents for it. There is a surplus of money in Wall street, a surplus of labor, and there is a surplus of appetites and nothing to eat. Now, if there is a good, well posted Republican can explain that satisfactorily, we want to hear from him."

Crops are very poor all over Arkansas. No corn. Rice looks very well. Watermelons good. They have a melon at Hope that weighs 163 3-4 pounds; one at Arkadelphia weighing 163 pounds.

—The Sew-a-Bit club met at the home of Mrs. Howard Wood on Thursday afternoon.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere thanks to all friends and neighbors for their kind assistance and sympathy in the hour of our bereavement, when our beloved husband and father, William Henry Lee died. Especially do we thank those who sent floral tributes and attended the funeral services.

Mrs. Mollie Lee and Children.

—Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Barnett went to Hillsboro Thursday night where he delivered an address at the Fathers nad Sons banquet given by the Christian churches of that city.

Donald M. Butler DENTIST

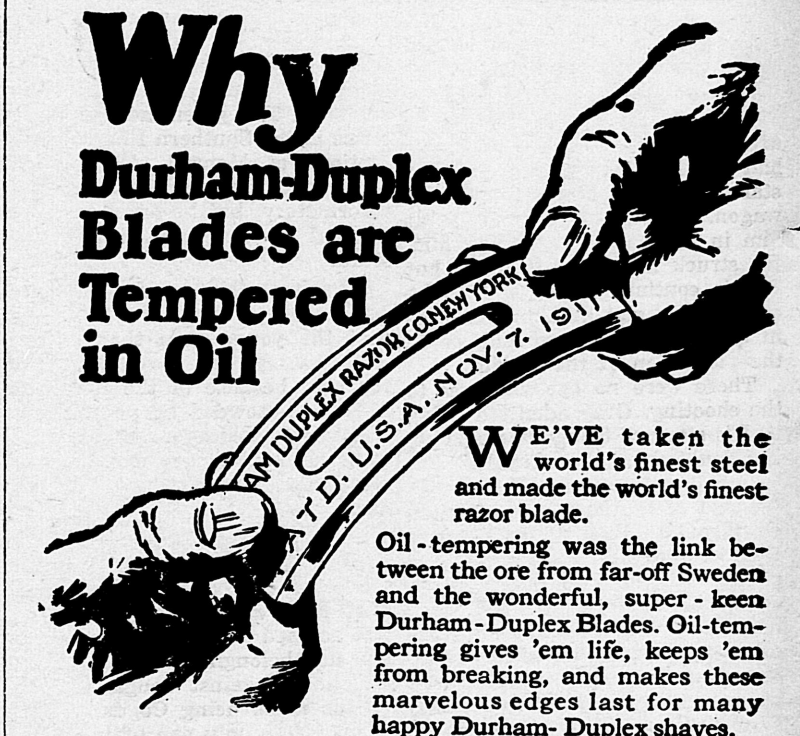

Hours 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.
Phone 129 Sullivan, Ill.

MONEY to Loan

I would like to make some small real estate loans. Parties interested inquire.

J. A. WEBB

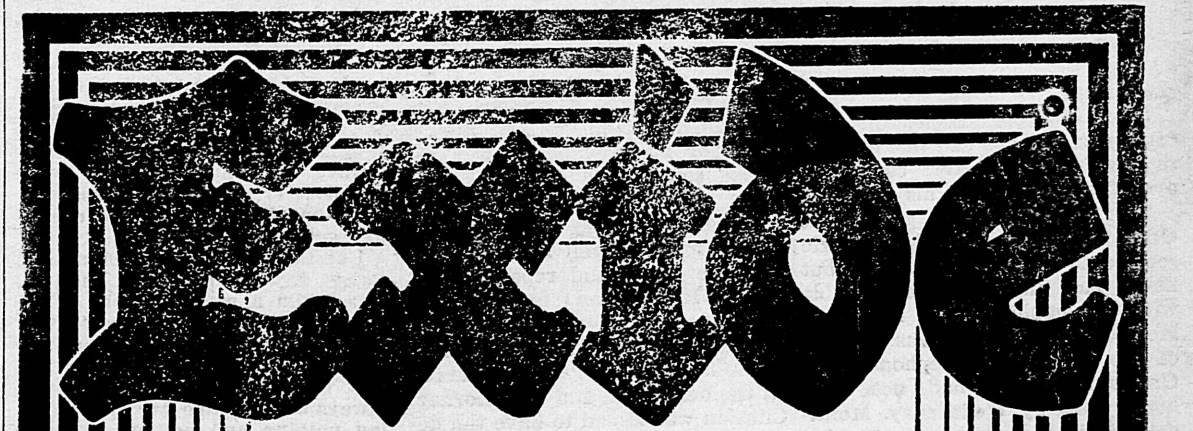

Why Durham-Duplex Blades are Tempered in Oil

Interchangeable Blades 50c for package of 5
At All Leading Dealers

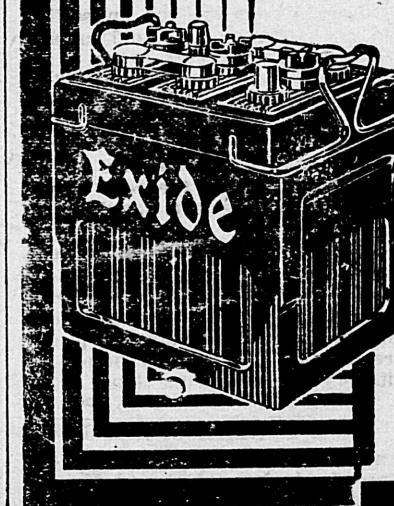

DURHAM-DUPLEX

The Blades Men Swear By—not At

The world's ideal of a good battery since the birth of the electric starter.

Prices for Exides start at $7.95 for a six-volt, 13-plate battery. We have the right type Exide for every car at prices to suit every pocketbook.

PHONE 467

Tire & Battery Sta.

L. A. Atchison, Prop.

SULLIVAN, ILL.

WHAT A WOMAN 44 YEARS OLD SHOULD WEIGH

Are You Getting Fat?

These are authentic figures—look over the table below—if your weight and height match them—congratulate yourself—your figure is a shapely one—free from fat—weight yourself today.

Ages 40 to 44
4 Ft. 11 In.	126	Pounds
5 Ft. 0 In.	128	"
5 Ft. 1 In.	130	"
5 Ft. 2 In.	133	"
5 Ft. 3 In.	136	"
5 Ft. 4 In.	139	"
5 Ft. 5 In.	143	"
5 Ft. 6 In.	147	"
5 Ft. 7 In.	151	"
5 Ft. 8 In.	155	"
5 Ft. 9 In.	159	"
5 Ft. 10 In.	162	"

Weights given includes ordinary indoor clothing.

If you are overweight cut out pies, pastries and cake—also candy for 4 weeks—then weigh yourself again—Go light on potatoes—rice, butter, cream and sugar—eat lean meat—chicken, fish, salad—green vegetables and fruit.

Take one half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—This is the easy, safe and sensible way to take off fat—an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts lasts 4 weeks—Get it at Sam B. Hall's or any drug store in the world. You'll be gloriously alive—vigorous and vivacious in 4 weeks.—Adv.

SAME PRICE

25 ounces for 25c

KC BAKING POWDER

It's double acting

Use KC for fine texture and large volume in your bakings.

MILLIONS OF POUNDS USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT

Agency for Victor Adding Machine L. C. Smith Typewriter Corona Portable Typewriter

WE OVERHAUL ALL MAKES TYPEWRITERS

—Used and Factory Rebuilt—
UNDERWOODS AND L. C. SMITHS

Thirty-two Years Experience

Decatur Typewriter Exchange

TWELFTH INSTALLMENT

The two men made no attempt at a greeting. Chittenden merely said: "You're in rather a hurry, aren't you? However, you've saved me the trouble of sending it to you. You can have your two hundred."

Lombard smiled—an unpleasant smile.

"I want five hundred."

"You agreed for two."

"The price has gone up since last night."

There was an eloquent silence, and Lombard said calmly: "Five hundred is not a high price to pay, surely—I cannot imagine that Schofield would cry at in return for the favour you received last night." He shrugged his shoulders as he saw the passionate rage in Chittenden's face.

"It was you outside Miss Farrow's flat last night?"

"I waited three hours—very patiently, you will admit."

With an effort Chittenden controlled himself.

"I give you just five seconds to get out of here," he said.

"Very well. You know what I intend to do. I shall tell Schofield what happened in Switzerland and again last night."

"Tell him, and I'll break every bone in your body."

Lombard went on evenly, not heeding the violent outburst.

"And I shall tell Miss Farrow that the woman she has been making her friend is your wife."

Chittenden was white to the lips, but he laughed.

"You can spare yourself the trouble. I have already told her myself."

For a moment the two men glared at one another, and it took all Chittenden's will power to maintain his self-control, then Lombard said hoarsely:

"I'll make you sorry for this before I've done!"

"Get out, or I'll make you sorry for it now."

The door closed between them.

For some moments after Lombard had gone, Chittenden stood staring at the closed door.

He would see Julie at once and tell her the whole truth. But Fate was against him. He went to her flat only to find that she had gone out to lunch. He went to several restaurants where he thought she might be but could not find her. There was nothing for him but to wait till the afternoon when they would meet at his mother's house.

He purposely arrived rather late. Mrs. Ardron, who was near the door, crept to him and whispered that he must be very quiet.

"It's so wonderful!" she said; she squeezed his hand excitedly.

Giles stood beside her, angry and silent.

Now he was more accustomed to the darkness he could see that there were about a dozen people in the room sitting in a ring, and apparently holding hands. There was a queer aromatic scent in the air, and a curious feeling of nervous tension.

He saw now that the light from the shaded lamp was falling on the face and figure of a man whom he supposed must be the great Chrysler. A strange-looking man with a pale ascetic face and long dark hair, who lay back in the chair, his eyes closed and his hands clasped against his breast.

Presently he began to speak in a sing-song dreamy sort of voice.

"Two women and one man—one man and two women—they stand before me in the darkness not knowing of the tragedy that divides and will still divide their lives."

He drew a quick breath and there followed a little silence, broken again almost at once by the same sing-song voice—"Two women and one man—in the darkness all of them, and two of them will come out into the light, but the third will never see the sunshine again. Darkness—Blindness! The blindness of the eyes—here, close beside me—"

His clasped hands released one another, and moved forward in a curiously groping fashion as if he were seeking to find something. Giles did not know whether to be amused or angry. What fools women were, to be taken in by such a charlatan! He had moved back a step to find the switch of the light when suddenly those groping hands swooped down with a curious pouncing movement and fastened on something or some one in the silent ring of listeners.

A piercing scream rang through the silence of the room, a scream in the frightened voice of a woman, and then the cry of his own name: "Giles! Giles!"

It seemed an eternity until his fingers came into contact with the switch, and still that cry went on: "Giles! Giles!"

It was Sadie's voice, he knew, and when at last the room was flooded with light he saw that she was standing up, her hands covering her face, her childish body swaying to and fro as if in great pain or terror, while the wailing repetition of his name came from her lips monotonously again and again.

It was like a scene in a dream—the ring of half frightened women—and the strange figure of the man Chrysler as he rose slowly to his feet, a shocked, awakened look in his somnolent eyes. Then Mrs. Ardron began to cry hysterically, and the whimpering sound seemed to break the spell which was upon every one.

Giles took a quick stride forward: "Sadie!"

She turned swiftly at the sound of her name, her hands outstretched and when he took them in his, she clung to him, sobbing and shaking like a frightened child.

He kept protecting arms round his wife's slim figure as he glared round the room with furious eyes.

His mother, Doris and half a dozen other women whom he knew slightly and—Julie!

Julie was standing up, very stiff and straight, looking at him across the room, a pitiful wondering question in her pretty eyes, her face quite colorless, her hands gripping a chair back.

And then for a moment nobody moved or spoke, but Chittenden's arms fell from his wife and he took an involuntary step away from her.

She looked up, her face white and distorted.

"Giles!" and then before any one could move to help her she fell fainting at his feet.

Chittenden was very pale and his voice was rough and uneven as kind hands carried Sadie from the room.

He was conscious of impending disaster.

"We've sent for a doctor," his mother said. "Julie is staying with her."

"It's only an ordinary faint," Doris said contemptuously. "I'm surprised at Sadie being such a fool."

The others had all gone and Chittenden stood with an elbow on the mantel-shelf staring down at the grate which was filled with flowers and ferns. He could think of nothing but that pitiful, wondering question in Julie's eyes.

What was she thinking? What had she guessed?

What a fool he had been not to tell her the truth last night; she would have understood and forgiven him then. Would she understand or forgive him now?

It seemed an eternity until the door opened behind him and Julie came in.

Chittenden turned. He made a swift movement towards her as if to take her in his arms, then stopped.

This was not the woman who had clung to him only last night and whispered how much she loved him—this was not even the wild broken Julie who had hurt him with her utter recklessness during the past unhappy weeks—this was a woman whom he had never seen before, with cold eyes that accused him harshly even before she spoke.

"Sadie is no better. The doctor has just come. Would you like to go to her now?"

Giles flushed scarlet. It was such an unexpected challenge.

"Why should I go to her? What do you mean?" he asked roughly. They were the last words he meant to say and yet for the life of him he could not have controlled their utterance.

Julie shrugged her shoulders.

"I only thought—in the circumstances—"

He covered the ground between them in a stride and caught her by the shoulders.

"Julie—have you forgotten last night? How can you speak to me like this? How can you look at me in such a way?"

He felt her slim body stiffen beneath his grasp, and her eyes met his unflinchingly.

"How long have you known Sadie? Why did she call out to you and run to you like that? What is she to you?"

There was an agonized question in her voice though she tried desperately to keep it unconcerned.

She moved back a step when he would have touched her and both their faces were white.

"There's no need to pretend any longer," she said with a harsh breath.

"Julie—" Chittenden broke out again desperately then stopped as the door opened beneath his mother's agitated hand.

"Giles—they want you at once—the doctor sent me for you—oh, Giles!" she caught his arm with ineffectual hands. "I don't understand! I feel as if I am going mad, or as if every one else is—what do they all mean? And if it's the truth why didn't you tell me? Sadie is saying awful things, too—she must be light-headed! She says she's your wife? How can she be your wife when you are not married?"

Giles turned on his heel and strode out of the room. Mrs. Ardron turned to Julie, both white, useless hands outstretched.

"Is it true?" she appealed helplessly. She forgot her dislike for Julie. In her present distress she would have turned to her worst enemy for consolation. "You heard what I said. Sadie declares she is my son's wife. How can she be when he is not married? He never liked women—he has said so scores of times."

"I think it's quite true," Julie answered with stiff lips. She took Mrs. Ardron's hands and held them, hardly realizing what she was doing. "I'm quite sure it's true that Sadie is his wife," she said again gently.

She was unutterably grateful when just as she felt she could bear no more the doctor came into the room. Mrs. Ardron at once turned her attention to him and Julie slipped away. She took her coat from a maid on the landing and went out into the street.

"She is my wife—"

They seemed to be the only words that would take form and find utterance in her brain—

For Chittenden she had sent Lawrence Schofield away. For Chittenden she had deliberately dashed Schofield's happiness to the ground.

"I have changed my mind. I can't marry you. I don't care for you enough." She had told Lawrence that only this morning. And now once more the brief dream was ended—or wasn't it? After all, nothing was really altered. He had deceived her about Sadie, it was true, but apart from that things were in no wise changed. Chittenden still loved her and she loved him—and if he still wanted his freedom and Sadie was willing to give it to him—

"Giles—Giles—"

The memory of Sadie's agonized cry came back to her, ending afresh the peace which she was trying so hard to regain. It had been the cry of a woman to a man she loved, or so Julie told herself in bitterest jealousy, and she remembered how often Sadie had spoken of Giles—and in what a queer, rather shy way—as if—even then it had seemed to Julie almost as if there might have been something between them. And now she knew. Sadie was his wife. The one woman of all the many in the world who had a right to him and to his love and his protection—the protection she had claimed only that afternoon in her hysterical fear.

The maid came tapping at the door.

"Aren't you very wet, Miss? Can I dry your clothes for you?"

"No, no. I'm not wet, and I do not want anything, you need not wait."

She heard the girl move reluctantly away and then a moment later the shutting of the front door. But it was a long time before Julie moved or stirred. The room was quite dark save for the yellow light from the street lamp outside and the fitful rain had settled into a steady downpour and was beating against the window.

(Continued Next Week)

—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dawdy and two children Raymond Jr., and Dorothy Jane are visiting Mr. Dawdy's uncle, Sam Dawdy and family, near Findlay. With them also are Frank Dawdy's two children Mae Jean and Frank Jr. Ray and Frank Dawdy were raised in Sullivan leaving Sullivan about 20 years ago. They are in business together in St. Louis.

—Mrs. F. W. Wood, and Miss Dorothy Mitchell went to Iowa on Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wood's grandmother, Mrs. John Mitchell. They returned to this city with Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Sabin that evening. The Sabin's also attended the Mitchell funeral.

—An all day meeting was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ella Blair by the Loyal Women of the Christian church. A pot luck dinner was served at the noon hour and the afternoon was spent making up two bolts of sheeting into sheets and also some quilting for the old folks home at Jacksonville.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will George went to LaSalle Sunday where they called on Mrs. George's sister, Miss Olive Martin who is on the sick list.

—Mrs. Raymond Shasteen, son Junior, Mrs. T. P. Finley and Mrs. Violet Blackwell spent Saturday in Mattoon.

—Mrs. Tella Pearce and T. E. Pargeon of Lovington spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Howe at Shelbyville.

—Miss Reta Webb went to Windsor Saturday where she is caring for Dr. Hilsaback who is very ill.

—Mrs. Fred Book of Mattoon attended the funeral of Henry Lee held in this city Saturday.

—Mrs. Catheryn McDonald, Mrs. Mabel Nichols and daughter Catherine visited at the home of the former's niece, Mrs. William Oye in Tuscola Sunday.

—Ralph David who spent several days in this city also in Decatur on account of the illness of Mr. Light, returned to his home in Logansport Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Divers of St. Louis spent Sunday at home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. David.

—Mrs. Catherine McDonald, Mrs. Mabel Nichols and daughter Catherine spent Tuesday afternoon in Arthur.

—Mrs. Loren Burleigh who spent several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. M. David returned to her home in Sarnia, Canada, Monday.

—Mrs. Eva Davis of Springfield, Ohio who had been visiting her brother Estol Light who is very ill, in Decatur, and also spent several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. M. David returned to her home Friday.

COLES

Mrs. R. Bouck spent Thursday with Mrs. Todd Davis.

The Home Circle Club met at the home of Mrs. Lillian Davis on Thursday afternoon.

Bud Ritter and family spent Thursday evening with Waverly Mathias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Davis and daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Layton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. F. Layton and Mrs. Richard Bouck spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Davis.

Mrs. Sarah Johnson spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Jessie Gass and Mrs. Anna Armantrout.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hinton of Seatonville have moved in with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt.

Bud Ritter and family spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bouck.

Nate Hinton and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hinton and baby spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Hinton.

Rev. and Mrs. George Wilbur and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson.

Mrs. Virgie Pierce and children and Mrs. Hazel Ritter and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Foster in Lerna.

Mrs. Frank Layton and Mrs. Ray Layton and children spent Wednesday with Mrs. Clay Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Davis and granddaughter Anna Mary Cooley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bouck.

George Mathias and family visited Sunday with Waverly Mathias and family.

MR. AND MRS. EWING HAD 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Ewing, former residents of Sullivan, now living in Assumption, observed the 50th anniversary of their wedding Sunday. Monday was the anniversary date. Mr. Ewing is 74 and his wife is five years his junior.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewing were married on Nov. 10, 1880, in the home of the bride's father, Judge John Charlton, in Lawrence, Kansas. They came to Decatur in 1889 and lived at the corner of Church and Cerro Gordo streets. They moved to Bement later and in 1921 went to Sullivan. A year ago they moved to Assumption where Mr. Ewing has a variety store.

Raw chopped celery is good in fritters.

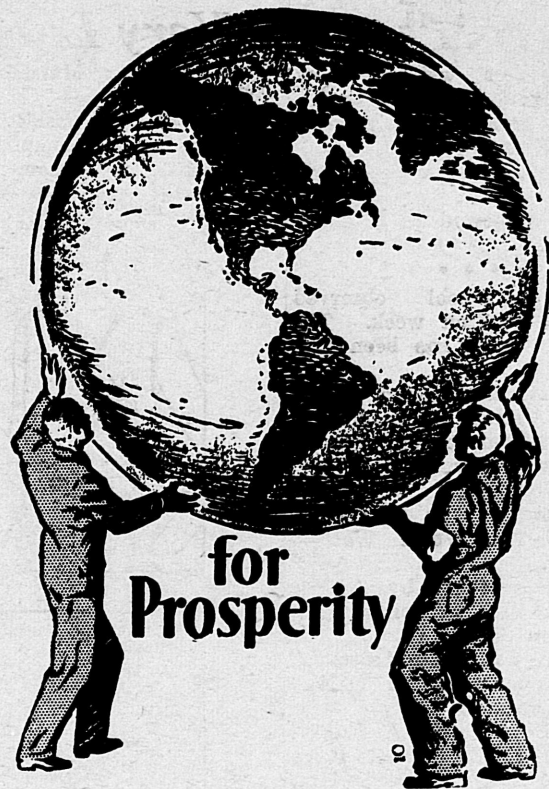

Dr. E. C. Thurman

—DENTIST—

Offices over Meeker's Candy Kitchen. Hours: 8 a. m. to 12; 1 p. m. to 5.

Evening by appointment. Phone 40

PUSH

ALL industrial depressions must give way in time to the Push and Determination of that spirit that has made this country the greatest in the history of the world.

Don't lose confidence in the future. Co-operate in restoring prosperity. If you are a wage earner now, start a Savings account here and save a little out of each pay envelope.

Spend wisely. Look into the future with a feeling of confidence. Consult with your banker.

The Merchants & Farmers State Bank

Sullivan, Illinois

GIFTS FOR ALL

BIGGER SELECTIONS—LOWER PRICES—UNEQUALLED QUALITY
Make this store your Christmas Buying Store

DICKERSON & CO.

A good place to trade.
SULLIVAN, ILLINOIS

To Identify Genuine Aspirin

The increasing use of Bayer Aspirin every year is proof that it has no ill effects. It is the accepted antidote for pain. It always helps; never harms; is safe to use freely as often as it is needed. Quick relief whenever you've a headache, or cold; or are suffering from neuralgia or neuritis. The distressing pains of rheumatism yield, too, if you'll only give these tablets a chance. But be sure to get genuine Aspirin. It has the Bayer Cross on every tablet. Look for the name Bayer on the box, and the word "genuine" printed in red. Proven directions inside.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacturing Co. Monoclonalmaster of Salicylic Acid nothing will add more to the Christmas pleasure of the friends and kinsfolk at home.

..YOUR PHOTOGRAPH

now is the time to have them taken

We are prepared to take good pictures in any kind of weather, day or night. Studio open till 6 o'clock p. m. After 6 o'clock and on Sundays we take pictures by appointment.

The Star Art Studio

W. K. HOLZMUELLER, the Photographer in Sullivan, Ill.

When you think of Christmas giving think of giving Photographs

School Notes

Superintendent's Monthly Report
Days taught—23.
Males enrolled—213.
Females enrolled—209.
Total enrollment for Mo.—422.
Total days absence—132.
Total attendance—9490.
Daily attendance—413.
Percent of attendance—98.63%
Number tardy—26.
Neither tardy nor absent—323
Corporal punishment—3.
Truancy—0.
Teachers' tardiness—1.
Teachers' absence—14.

The November weights show the following:
44 pupils remained the same as the October weights.
26 pupils showed a total gain of 50 lbs.
321 pupils showed a gain of 685 pounds.

The Lowe school, observed American Education week. The following program has been carried out:

Monday morning: Songs by the Assembly. Address "The Schools and the Enrichment of Human Life"—Rev. Turner.

Tuesday—Patriotic Songs by Assembly. Address "World Relations and The World War"—Prof. Kilby.

Wednesday—Songs by Assembly. Address "The Schools of Yesterday"—Joe Sabin.

Thursday, Songs by Assembly. Address "The Schools of Today"—Mrs. Tichenor.

Friday, Songs by Assembly. Address, "What the Schools Have Helped us to Achieve"—Mrs. Grace Richardson.

MR. AND MRS. MARK BRAGG PASS 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Mark Bragg and Miss Josephine Shaw, two highly respected young people of Bruce community, went to Sullivan 50 years ago and without informing any one of their plans were quietly married on November 13, 1880 by Captain A. B. Lee. Since that time this worthy couple have resided near Bruce, enjoying the esteem of a large circle of friends.

On last Sunday their 50th anniversary was celebrated in their home. A bountiful dinner was served at the noon hour. The dining room and table were decorated in yellow and white.

Those present to partake of the good things and to wish Mr. and Mrs. Bragg many more years together were: Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McDaniel and granddaughter of Kankakee, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bragg of Mattoon, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shaw and daughters and Monroe Shaw of Allenville, Mr. and Mrs. Mat Zona of Joliet, Eugene McDaniel and friend of Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bundy of near Mattoon, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sprinkle of Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sampson of Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sampson of Windsor, H. L. Bragg of Shelbyville, Mrs. Hazel Henderson and children of near Sullivan, and Billie and Gerald Bragg—Windsor Gazette.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crowder plan to leave Nov. 15th on an extended tour of the west. The Crowder Seed store will be closed until next March.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE

SHELBYVILLE, ILLINOIS
Western Electric Sound System —Talking Pictures at their Best—

SATURDAY, NOV. 15
LAST TIME TODAY
AMOS & ANDY in
"CHECK AND DOUBLE CHECK."

The comedy sensation of all time.
Matinee 2:15—10 & 30c
Night 7 to 11—15 & 40c.

SUN. & MON., NOV. 16-17
"The Kid" Grows Up! Now He Talks for the First Time
JACKIE COOGAN in
"TOM SAWYER"

With Mitzi Green & Junior Durkin
"The Adventure of Tom Sawyer" by Mark Twain. You'll laugh 'til the tears roll down your cheeks.
Continuous Show Sunday
2 to 6—10-35c 6 to 11—15-40c

TUES. & WED., NOV. 18 & 19
A Great Picture
BEBE DANIELS star of "Rio Rita" and "Dixiana" in "LAWFUL LARCENY"
A Dramatic Sensation.
Adm. 15 and 35c

THURS. & FRI., NOV. 20-21
Rex Beach's great Thriller
Evelyn Brent, Louis Wolheim, Jene Arthur, Raymond Hatton in
"THE SILVER HORDE"
A Great Drama of the Sea and Alaska
Adm. 15 & 40c

NOVEMBER 23-24
"FAST AND LOOSE"

ELDER BOYS GAVE PARTY FOR THEIR COUSIN

Monday night Vernon and Dale Elder entertained a number of relatives and friends in honor of their cousin Edward Elder of Hyslem, Montana. The evening was spent in music and games. Those present were Edward Elder, Paul Elder, Gerald Elder, Eva, Pauline and Bernice Elder, Lois and Russel Young, Maurine Elder, Wayne Monroe, Lee Elder, Jimmie Elder, Vernon, Dale and Wayne Elder and Mr. and Mrs. George Elder.

Very Latest

By Mary Marshall

Every trend in fashion today is away from the simplicity and plainness of last season. Frills and flounces, ruffles and jabots are distinctly the mode.

The sketch shows a blouse in which the jabot effect is carried out in a novel fashion, the trimming being repeated in three unusual places.

Always, no matter what the fashions, there will be the contrast between evening dresses of studied sophistication, and those of the apparently demure sort.

To the first sort we apply such adjectives as smart, intriguing, striking, while the second sort are spoken of as pretty, picturesque or girlish. And while evening dresses of the first group are usually supposed to be especially appropriate to somewhat older women, it is to the very young women that they usually make their strongest appeal.

The yellow chiffon evening dress shown in the sketch would not be at all difficult to make at home, and the picturesque trimming of artificial for-get-me-nots would be very easy to apply. You may buy a bunch of the little flowers and apply them as shown to the collar and belt, or if you like you might use tiny rosebuds or any other sort of small blossom.

ILLINOIS WOMEN TO SERVE ON JURIES

The proposition providing for legislation to permit women to serve on juries in Illinois seems to have carried in the recent election. It was defeated downstate but Chicago put it over by about 65,000 votes. Some preliminaries are necessary before names of women go into the box from which jurors are drawn.

AN APPRECIATION

I desire to express my thanks and appreciation to the people of Moultrie county for their many kindnesses extended to me during my recent campaign. Despite the fact that I lacked enough votes to win, the campaign was a very pleasant experience and I certainly thank all who voted for me.

O. F. Cochran

Church Notes

ST. COLUMBA'S CHURCH

Church will be held Sunday at 10 a. m.

GOSPEL MISSION

9:30 a. m. Sunday school.
6:30 p. m. Young People's service.

7:30 p. m.—Evangelistic services.
7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting on Thursday.

With such a service as the delegation from Decatur held last night anyone is drawn nearer to Jesus. Little Darwin Gene Harsh's singing is enough to convert any sinner.

Bro. Martin's subject Sunday evening will be "What are these and whence come they?" Every one welcome.

Is. 30:15—"In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength." The devil is making it very difficult today for us to find a place of quietness, that we might be alone with the Lord. He has not only made it possible but very probable to bring the world right into the home through the means of the radio. We do not mean to say by this that the radio is of the devil, we only say that quite often he uses it, especially where all the family are not christian, and he has thereby invaded the quietness of the home.

Nations have failed, institutions have failed, governments have failed, businesses failed and individuals have failed until our confidence has been shattered. But if we will seek quietness with Jesus and place our confidence alone in him our strength shall not only be sustained but it will grow and increase. The Lord would often call us aside into the quietness of his presence, away from the crowd and the noise that he might reveal himself to us.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A. E. Turner, Minister

Bible school—9:30 a. m.
Morning worship—10:45.
Junior Y. P.—4 p. m.
Senior Y. P. Society 6:30 p. m.
Evening services—7:30.

Morning subject: "Lost—A Great Man," or "Going Strong For Thirty-One Centuries." A de luxe biography of a man older than Methuselah.

Evening subject: "Etatic in the Church." Texts will be given by an adult churchman, a high school senior, and a Junior Sunday school member and the minister will preach from them without conference. The Junior Choir will sing.

Friday night the 14 inst. will be a big night for men of the church and their male friends. The Westminster Orchestra will play at 7:30 and at 8:00 a dynamic churchleader, Pastor J. H. Gardner of the First Presbyterian church at Urbana will speak on "Tell us What To Do." Mesdames Robinson, Gauger, Chapin and Turner will serve light refreshments following the address and a round-table conference will close the program. The meeting anticipates a mass meeting at Mattoon Nov. 20. Every wife is expected to see that her husband is present on Friday night.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

C. E. Barnett, Pastor

With 204 attending Sunday school last Sunday Dollar Day resulted in an offering of $63.34. Superintendent Hill reports this is still short of the amount required to meet this year's payment on the church lot, and urges others, absent last Sunday, to volunteer their gifts at an early date. However, we are not seeking to stress the financial, but rather the educational and spiritual as the result of Sunday school attendance and study. The session is held every Sunday at 9:30 a. m.

A second sermon on stewardship, under the subject "As Good Stewards" will be delivered by the pastor Sunday morning at 10:40. We are receiving many words of commendation for the young people in so ably presenting the program and messages last Sunday evening. We rejoice in their youth and vigor, earnestness and ability, and hope to use them frequently in future services. The pastor will preach Sunday evening at 7:30. The sermon subject will be "The Meaning of Baptism." Following the services, those making the confession last Sunday evening will be baptised.

A very pleasant visit was enjoyed by the Christian Endeavorers with the Lovington society last Sunday evening. The First Christian Endeavor will meet in its own room Sunday evening at 6:30. The subject will be "Jesus, an Example of Stewardship." Young people twelve years of age, and over, are invited to attend and to become members of the society.

The Young Peoples' choir will meet for rehearsal Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. The study class "Training for Personal Evangelism" will be conducted for one-half hour immediately following.

Adult choir will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30.

METHODIST CHURCH

L. L. Lawrence, pastor

Church school—9:30 a. m.
J. A. Reeder, Supt.
Morning worship at 10:45.
Sermon "Christ or Oblivion for America—Which?"
Epworth League—6:30 p. m.
Evening worship at 7:30.
Sermon drama "Hell Bent For Heaven."

The basic thought in our morning sermon is this: Is it too late for America to turn back to that stability and solidness which characterized her so strongly some years before the World War? Or has America gone so far into secularization that she is headed straight to oblivion? You must admit this is factual, and not theoretical.

The evening sermon is another of those stirring stage dramas that have held thousands spell-bound as they listened and watched the drama unfold. "Hell Bent For Heaven" is an unusual drama laid in the Blue Ridge Mountains. It is truly a mountaineer story. The orchestra directed by Prof. Moore and the choir by Miss Clark meets at the church each Wednesday night at 7:15 and 7:45.

The Sunday School Board met at the church Monday night for a pot-luck supper, followed by fine business meeting led by J. A. Reeder.

The general Ladies Aid will meet for a Silver Tea at the parsonage Wednesday next. The tea is sponsored by the division headed by Mrs. Hardy Myers.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Lord's Day Bible Study at 10 o'clock. Worship at eleven. On Monday night, Nov. 17, W. E. Ballinger of Kansas City will begin a series of meetings which will last two or three weeks. Bro. Ballinger preaches the Gospel four square and we would be glad to have you come and hear him.

D. U. V. OFFICIAL INSPECTION

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 11th following a seven o'clock dinner, Tent No. 58 D. U. V. held its annual inspection with Mrs. Pearl Black of Springfield as assistant. Eight members of Tent 56 of Mattoon and Comrade M. K. Birch were guests.

In observance of Armistice day, a short program had been arranged by the Patriotic Instructor, Mrs. Jenne and Mrs. Birch sang, "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and Mrs. Sabin read "Flanders Fields" and also gave a musical reading entitled "Faces East." The program closed with the bugle call, "Taps."

—The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Raymond Shasteen Thursday, Nov. 20th. Mrs. Carrie Landers will be leader. The meeting is usually held on the fourth Thursday of the month but has been advanced a week on account of Thanksgiving Day.

—Word was received here this week of the death of Mrs. Nathan Clover at her home in Indiana. She was 82 years of age and a widow of a civil war veteran. She was the mother of Mrs. Will Jordan of Decatur, a former Sullivan resident.

THE WEATHER

The weather has not been so nice this week. It has been foggy and wet, but still lacks those good heavy showers that people are praying for. There is a water shortage. Cisterns are empty and wells have given out in some parts of the state farmers are hauling water for their stock from any source available. Let the showers descend. We need them.

Most of the corn has been husked. Some farmers finished in October. This has been a great year for farm work. Starting in March with oats sowing, the farmers have been able to keep about two weeks ahead of the season with their work. Too bad they can't realize more for it.

With the coming of Thanksgiving, the thoughts of mankind turn toward Turkey, not Mustapha Kemal Pasha's benighted land, but that deliciously-meated bird of the kind on which the Pilgrim fathers feasted. Most Moultrie county folks say that raising turkeys is too much of a bother. A few weeks ago we went a-touring in the neighborhood of Cowden, Moccasin, Shumway et al and we saw hundreds of turkeys on the farms. There were the big beautifully iridescent bronze gobblers and their more demure mates; there were yellow turkeys and white turkeys; also there were big flocks of geese, and sheep were grazing on the hillsides. The soil thereabouts is not much to brag about, but the people seem rather prosperous. One acre of Moultrie black soil will raise ten times as much as an acre of the land we saw. The people know that. They don't depend entirely on field crops.

This is a sort of melancholy time of the year as the poet says. It's melancholy in more ways than one. One melancholy sight is to see some fellow all togged out in hunting uniform with a couple of high-priced well-trained dogs set forth to slaughter the innocent Bob-whites. All year long the hunter loves the Bob-white. He demands laws for his protection. He seethes with indignation when he hears that pheasants destroy the nests of the birds—which we do not believe—and then along comes Nov. 10th and all this love of nature, this delight in the beautiful cheery call, turns into the lust of murder and the little friend of the farmer and of all humanity is hounded from cover to cover, while the crack marksman seeks to destroy him for the sport of it. This would not be so bad if these birds had any way of fighting back, but they haven't got a chance.

Have you noticed the screaming headlines with which the Decatur newspapers herald forth to the world the murders in Moultrie county? They are trying to make the world believe that ours is a county of feuds and carnage, where bootleg liquor and booze mingle together as a general thing at drinking parties and where the rows of the cornfields flow with the shed life-blood of the embattled huskers. We protest. Our esteemed contemporaries either cannot judge comparative news values or they are deliberately trying to give Moultrie a black eye. They didn't give us such headlines when we put over our shoe factory drive or when other things really worth while transpire here.

Colder weather is at hand. Young man what did you do with your big wages during the Wilson administration? The savings were spent years ago, you say! Well, I guess that's right, for it's been a long day since prosperity. But cheer up, the future looks hopeful. Try and keep from freezing and starving to death this winter and things may be better in the sweet bye and bye. You folks who have some money, turn loose of it, start spending. What's wrong with this country right now is a buyer's strike. Folks who have money are hoarding it. Turn it loose and it will return to you many fold as prosperity returns.

There will be bigger and better bridge party prizes as time wings its way.

Yeah, there's lots of good things to live for.

Do your Christmas shopping with your home stores. Do it early. Do it with the stores that advertise in The Progress.

So long for this week—Send us a subscription payment once in a while.

59TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Shoaff of Shelbyville will observe their 59th wedding anniversary Saturday. Mr. Shoaff is the well-known editor of the Shelby County Leader and took an active part in the recent political campaign. He is a Democrat whose political principals are founded on the teachings of Thomas Jefferson. May he and his estimable wife live long and happily and observe many more anniversaries.

—Say, Bill, are you going?—"Going, Where?"—"Purvis School!"—"What for?"—"Box Supper!"—"When?"—"Nov. 14. There will also be pies, plate, sandwiches, coffee, chocolate and music."—"Where is Purvis School?"—"One Mile South of Masonic Home."—"Let's go."

Notice

Hunting, trapping or trespassing on our premises is forbidden. Stay out.

J. P. LANUM
ILLINOIS MASONIC HOME
ADDIE AND EMMA EVANS
E. A. ELLIS—Whitley Twp.
ORVILLE HOGUE
J. B. TABOR
ROY B. MARTIN
F. E. BUNDY & SON
THE SHUMAN FARMS
(Names added to this notice to run to January 1st at cost of 50c.)

HENRY PIFER TENDERED SURPRISE PARTY MONDAY

A surprise party was sprung on Henry Pifer Monday night by his wife, relatives, neighbors and friends. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Tichenor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leeds and son, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnes Mr. and Mrs. Will Crist, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McIntire and daughters, Lee Elder and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Pifer, Mr. and Mrs. John Pifer, Mrs. Ross Batts and son of Salem, Charles Winchester and family, Harley Mattox and family, Miss Adeline Baggott, Miss Jane Smith, Bernice Osborn, Mary Lee Etna Pifer, Mrs. Lee Etna Smith.

Mr. Pifer's daughter Mary Lee Etna carried in the birthday cake all decorated with lighted candles. Henry tried to blow them all out but missed the first time. He said he had made a wish that was already fulfilled, so he did not care. Pressed as to what the wish was he confessed "Democratic victory."

The guests who had brought well filled baskets had a supper at 7 o'clock. The evening's program was music and cards.

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE

The S.C.H.S. club will meet at the club room Tuesday, Nov. 18 at 2 o'clock. The hostesses are Mrs. Maud Wood, Florence Leeds, Maude Everett and Clara Baker.

This meeting is to be a Christmas gift meeting and the gift making is in charge of Mrs. Grace Dolan, Lyda Graham, Hattie Breisler and Miss Eva Fields.

Please bring pencil, paper and scissors.

Mrs. Nettie Wiard will give a demonstration on the making of Christmas candy.

Roll call—"Something I have to be thankful for."

Mrs. Lizzie Walker, leader.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Misenheimer of Mattoon spent Monday with Mrs. Rose Bolin.

The GRAND THEATRE

Phone SULLIVAN Better
144 144 Talkies
—Where Everybody Goes—

Crowds are flocking to the Grand Theatre. Why?

DEFOREST PHONOFILM ENABLES YOU TO HEAR PERFECTLY

And The Best Picture Productions are Shown
It's Joyful Entertainment

THURSDAY-FRIDAY, NOV. 13-14
JACK OAKIE in

"Let's Go Native"

Hilarious Fun—Joyful Tunes—Sparkling Comedy

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15

LOUIS WOLHEIM—EVELYN BRENT in

"The Silver Horde"

A Rex Beach Story of Thrills and Romance

SUNDAY-MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16-17

Here They are Again!

WHEELER & WOOLSEY in

"Half Shot At Sunrise"

Mighty Stars of the Cuckoos in another Comedy Sensation

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18-19

CLAUDETTE COLBERT in

"Manslaughter"

Best Seller in Talking Classic

THURSDAY-FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20-21

RAMON NAVARRO in

'Call of the Flesh'

A New Navarro in a Singing Dramatic Masterpiece

Sunday Continuous From 3 P. M.

Come Early

Saturday Matinee 2:15— Sat. Nite Continuous from 6 p. m.

Other Nites 7 P. M.

Adults 35c—Children 10c

Special Saturday Adults 25c

Reduction on all Winter Coats

In order to give you a chance to buy more expensive coats for less money while we have a large variety to pick from, we are reducing our new winter coats as follows:

$59.75 Coats at	$49.75	$45.00 to $49.75 at	$39.75
$29.75 Coats at	$24.75	$16.75 to $19.75 at	$14.75

Special

We have eight coats of good style, good material, trimmed with fur, specially adapted to the shorter Miss that we are selling at a very low price of Dunscomb Dry Goods Co.

QUALITY FIRST—VALUE ALWAYS SULLIVAN, ILL.