Isaiah 40:31 "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength: they shall mount up with wings as eagles."

Just a few days ago this scripture brought a new meaning to our hearts. When going up in an air plane for the first time, we noticed that as we arose from the earth a little ways things on the earth began to harmonize, trees and buildings began to take on like shape and size, and all harmonizing into a beautiful picture.

I wonder if the Lord did not mean to teach us some such lesson when he said, "they shall mount up with wings as eagles?" With all reverence we speak of the Holy Spirit as "God's air plane, the one who is able to lift us up above the sordid things of this world, above the trials, sorrows and disappointments, and as we are lifted above them, and look down upon them, it certainly is true they begin to harmonize and we see how that trial, that sorrow and that disappointment are working together into a picture that makes up our life. When trials and faith harmonize, we have a picture of hope. When sorrow and joy work in together we have a picture of wonderful peace. It is only when we are lifted above those things which effect our lives that we are able to see how, "All things work together for good."

Soldier Boys Have Great Time While In Training At Camp Grant

The following is a report of Hdq. Co. 1st Bn. 130th Inf., concerning their encampment at Camp Grant, Ill.

We left Sullivan, Ill. 12:55 a. m. August 4, 1934 arriving at Camp Grant, at 2:30 p. m. on the same date of departure. Nothing of interest was encountered in the trip except for the men who are making their first encampment.

Our first move was to unload our packs and advance upon the mess hall where they had luncheon ready to serve. The cooks from our company consisting of 1st Cook McCaig and 2nd Cook Lilly learned at this meal that they would always have to serve plenty and feed the men all their appetites desired and they are certainly doing their share towards doing it. All Camp Grant can be complimented on the cleanliness and way their food is prepared and served.

After our return from the mess hall, we proceeded to get our baggage and tents ready and in order for the rest of the encampment. The old weather has been very much against us by raining the first four nights in camp.

The men in our company are finding plenty of amusement at the boxing shows, band concerts, parades, etc. The boxing show at the Colored rings seems to draw the crowd.

The colored folks by clowning a lot and taking a great deal of punishment seem to win the crowd to their arena. They are broadcasting all their fights as well as the Harmony Singers, and their great band and orchestra and are on the air each night from 8:15 p. m.

of map drawing and also requires a lot of civil engineering and with Serg. Bean as instructor the men have a very able tutor.

The company order while in camp is maintained by Serg. Anderson. Serg. Anderson who is top sergeant of Hdq. Co. has very little difficulty with the men for they show their respect for his rank and after his explanation of their duties of the day, they are on their toes for his commands.

Our Company is preparing for their yearly Kangaroo court which is held here in camp to initiate the recruits. All recruits are given a fair trial before Judge Fred PUNCHES and if proven guilty to the charge brought against them will be punished with the sentence passed upon them.

Camp is all a lot of fun as well as a good school learning for the soldier. The fun part is played by sending men who don't use their heads for such things as Reveille oil, Saddle to Mount the Guard, Bread Line, Cannon Report, Tent Anchors, etc.

All in our Officers' Staff consisting of 1st Lt. Campbell and 2nd Lt. Friddle are well pleased with our good behavior, our drill and our advancement in school.

Ernest Relker, Chester Dickson, Mrs. Wagahoff and sons Omer and Maurice and Mrs. Ernest Relker and daughters Betty and Jeanne attended the soft ball game at Bethany Wednesday night.

Bruce Keeps Up Win Streak; Trips Aces, 6-1

Misenheimer Holds Blatz Assemblage to 4 Bingles, Fans 13. Sluggers Blast Whitson From Mound With 4 Runs in First.

Sunday—Question Marks at Bruce

(By Jim Scott)

The same old baseball melodrama was unreel here Sunday in which the Bruce juggernaut stopped but once this season, bowled over Decatur's Blatz Aces 6 to 1.

The issue, which was settled in the first, might have been a much closer one had the visiting delegation elected to start Jo-Jo Toth, a Dalton Gray alumnus. But instead their choice fell upon Roy Whitson who was swatted for four runs in the first before rescued by little Joe. Whitson yielded only three singles in this uprising, but two of these were infield scratches which whisked away his composure and while his wrath was in manifestation, Bruce runs No. 3 and 4 came thudding over the plate.

However Forrest Misenheimer, one-half of Bruce's great two-man pitching staff, gave such a classy exhibition that Toth's opus was scarcely noticed. The husky 28-year-old had his fast ball hooking past the Decatur clubbers, 13 of whom went down on strikes. Their offense consisted of a single by Leslie in the first, a double by Wirchak in the fifth and a double by Toth and a single by Farkas in the sixth.

Montie Blue Inspired The contest was featured by the absence of two very common events there was no bases on balls, and no strikeouts by Bridgeport Montie Blue. Married the night before Mr. Blue had his beloved in the stands so, incensed with the burning desire to excell, he pushed out three flies and then clipped off an infield single.

That Big First The Brucesters put together an error, three singles and Mr. Whitson's bad temperament for four counters in the first. Bingamin rolled to Devaney, Decatur's best semi-pro cager, and was safe when the first baseman fumbled the ball. Bingamin stole second and went to third on Kinsel's fly to right. Dutch Abbott was safe on a fielder's choice which failed to catch Bingamin at the plate.

Evans drove a hard single through the box, Abbott advancing to third. Evans then stole second when Toth returned the catcher's throw in an unsuccessful attempt to nab Abbott, who came in from third. Appelt lifted to Farkas and Whitson made a backhanded stab of Stocipher's bouncer, but was out of position for a toss to first. T. Abbott followed with another single off Whitson's glove scoring Evans and then, while the pitcher was busy registering his disgust, Stocipher sprinted all the way home. Whitson finally came down to earth and did get off a wild last-second throw to the catcher.

Whitson then passed out of the picture in favor of Toth, who retired Blue on a fly to center. Joe stopped Bruce again in the second after they had benefitted by a single and a hit baseman and continued to retard them until the seventh.
